- 1973 JACKIE GLEASON INVERRARY NATIONAL AIRLINES CLASSIC: Forrest Fezler missed a 4-foot birdie putt on the 72nd hole that allowed Lee Trevino to walk away with the title. Trevino finished at 9-under 279.

- 1974 JACKIE GLEASON INVERRARY CLASSIC: Leonard Thompson finished at 10-under 278 to edge Hale Irwin by one stroke. Thompson contributed $10,000 of his $52,000 first prize to the Boys' Clubs of South Florida.

- 1975 JACKIE GLEASON INVERRARY CLASSIC: Delray Beach's Bob Murphy shot 273, 15-under, to beat young Eddie Pearce by one stroke on the final day. Murphy birdied the 71st hole at the very moment Pearce was failing to birdie the 72nd hole. Murphy celebrated by being the best man at a friend's wedding the same night on the 18th green of his home course, Delray Dunes.

- 1976 THE TOURNAMENT PLAYERS CHAMPIONSHIP: Rain pushed the tournament's finish to Monday, but nothing stopped Jack Nicklaus as he shot a tournament-record 269, 19-under-par, to walk off with a three-stroke victory over J.C. Snead.

- 1977 JACKIE GLEASON INVERRARY CLASSIC: Nicklaus blistered the 7,127-yard East Course with a 13-under 275, good for a 5-stroke victory over Gary Player, the tournament's largest margin of victory.

- 1978 JACKIE GLEASON INVERRARY CLASSIC: Jack Nicklaus birdied the final five holes to shoot 65 and post a one-stroke win over Grier Jones. Nicklaus chipped in from 80 feet at No. 14, made a birdie putt of 12 feet on No. 15, chipped in from 18 feet at No. 16, made a birdie putt of 20 feet at No. 17 and, finally, a birdie putt of four feet at No. 18.

- 1979 JACKIE GLEASON INVERRARY CLASSIC: Larry Nelson shot a 14-under 274 for his first PGA TOUR victory and continued on to a 1979 finish of $281,022, second on the money list. He later became a major tournament winner, taking the 1981 and 1987 PGA Championships and the 1983 U.S. Open.

- 1980 JACKIE GLEASON INVERRARY CLASSIC: Johnny Miller won his first Tour event since the 1976 Bob Hope Desert Classic by shooting 274, 14-under-par. The best feeling is knowing the people are pulling for me, said Miller, who wasn't always a crowd favorite during his success in the 70's.

- 1981 AMERICAN MOTORS INVERRARY CLASSIC: Curtis Strange blew a 4-shot lead in the final round and Jack Nicklaus missed a 3-foot birdie putt to tie on the final hole, allowing Tom Kite to win the tournament with a closing 69 and a 14-under 274.

- 1982 HONDA INVERRARY CLASSIC: After a poor drive on the 72nd hole, two-time U.S. Open Champion Hale Irwin was faced with an improbable shot. Closing the face of a 5-iron, Irwin punched a shot through some branches and onto the 18th green, where he made the birdie putt to beat Tom Kite and George Burns by a stroke.

- 1983 HONDA INVERRARY CLASSIC: In the last tournament at Inverrary, Johnny Miller won his second title in four years by beating Jack Nicklaus by two strokes. Miller shot a final-round 69, including a miraculous iron shot on 17, to hold off Nicklaus.

Tournament History

- 1984 HONDA CLASSIC: The Honda Classic moved to the Tournament Players Club at Eagle Trace as part of the stadium golf venture being marketed by the PGA TOUR. The golf course and the tournament were both a success, with Bruce Lietzke beating Andy Bean on the first hole of sudden death. Lietzke started the final round four shots back but closed with a 68, including a birdie on the 72nd hole to catch Bean, the third-round leader.

- 1985 HONDA CLASSIC: Curtis Strange, who shared the 4-shot lead with Fred Couples going into the final round, finished in a tie with Peter Jacobsen despite shooting a 2-over 74 in Sunday's windswept round. Strange parred the first hole of sudden death to defeat Jacobsen and win $90,000.

- 1986 HONDA CLASSIC: Former Florida State golfer Kenny Knox, a virtual unknown and a non-winner on the Tour, rallied from an 80 in the third round to shoot a 2-under 70 on Sunday and win the tournament by one shot over four others — Jodie Mudd, Clarence Rose, John Mahaffey and Andy Bean. Knox was a Monday qualifier.

- 1987 HONDA CLASSIC: North Palm Beach's Mark Calcavecchia, who caddied for good friend Ken Green in the 1986 tournament, outdueled two of the Tour's top players, Bernhard Langer and Payne Stewart, to win by three strokes with a 9-under 279. Stewart and Langer tied for second.

-1988 HONDA CLASSIC: Playing the 72nd hole in almost total darkness, Joey Sindelar made a routine par to win the tournament by two shots over Sandy Lyle, Payne Stewart and Ed Fiopi. Sindelar, who opened the final 18 with a 1-shot lead and never trailed, closed with a 70 for a 12-under 276.

- 1989 HONDA CLASSIC: By making birdies on holes 13,14 and 17, and shooting a final round 64, Blaine McCallister fought off strong challenges by Payne Stewart and Curtis Strange to win by four strokes over Stewart. His 64 was the best fourth round score in the tournament's history, and his winning total of 266 also set a new tournament record.

- 1990 HONDA CLASSIC: Beginning the fourth round as leader by one stroke, John Huston was able to hold off a late afternoon charge by Mark Calcavecchia to win his first PGA TOUR event. Huston closed with a 71 for a 6-under 282, beating Calcavecchia by two strokes.

- 1991 HONDA CLASSIC: A 5-stroke leader after the third round, Steve Pate finished the tournament with his worst round, a 75, but held on for a 3-stroke victory over Paul Azinger and Dan Halldorson.

- 1992 HONDA CLASSIC: Trailing leader Fred Couples by three shots after three rounds, Corey Pavin fired a fourth round 68, holing out an 8-iron from 136 yards on 18 to force Couples into a playoff. A birdie on the second playoff hole gave Pavin his 10th career victory.

- 1993 HONDA CLASSIC: Fred Couples won on the second playoff hole by making par after Robert Gamez sunk a 6-iron approach into the lake bordering the 18th green. Couples had stormed to a four-stroke lead with five birdies on the first 10 holes on Sunday, then let Gamez back into the tournament with three bogeys and a double bogey on the final eight. The tournament was shortened to three rounds by a Saturday windstorm that leveled corporate tents and many bleacher areas and caused an estimated $500,000 in damage to the facilities at Weston Hills.

Tournament History

- 1994 HONDA CLASSIC: The snapshot of Nick Price leaping into the air on the final day as his winding 35-foot putt on No. 17 dropped into the hole is forever etched into the annals of the tournament. It turned out to be the shot Price needed to escape with a one-stroke victory over Craig Parry, as both players made par on No. 18. John Daly, who returned from a TOUR-imposed suspension, made a run for the top on the final day by making birdies on Nos. 7 and 8, but he finished four strokes off the lead. Price birdied the first two holes the final day on his way to taking home the $198,000 winner's purse. He took a two-shot lead in the tournament with another birdie on No. 13 and never relinquished the top spot despite suffering a three-putt bogey on No. 15.

- 1995 HONDA CLASSIC: Mark O'Meara raced to a five-stroke lead after shooting 68 and 65 on Thursday and Friday, then held on after conseive rounds of 71 allowed Ian Woosnam and Nick Faldo to crawl back into it. Faldo and Woosnam needed birdies on the final hole at Weston Hills Country Club to catch O'Meara, but neither could convert. O'Meara finished by parring eight of the final nine holes.

A Look Back At 2021

Matt Jones ran away from the field in the 2021 Honda Classicusing an opening round of nine-under 61 to coast to a five-stroke victory over Brandon Hagy.

Jones' win in The Honda Classic was the second PGA TOUR victory for the 40-year-old, who broke a 175-event victory drought since his 2014 Shell Houston Open playoff victory over Matt Kuchar.

Jones' opening round 61 was more than 10 strokes better than the field average. He was three shots behind Aaron Wise after 36 holes after a second-round 70, but his round of 69 on Saturday was good enough to put him up by three entering Sunday. Any doubt over who would win was erased at the 12th hole when he dropped a wedge shot to 18 feet and made the putt to go up by six.

Jones final round of 2-under 68 good enough to finish the week at 12-under 268. The margin matched the largest in tournament history, tying the mark set by Jack Nicklaus in 1977 and matched by Camilo Villegas in 2010.

"I've probably underachieved, in my opinion, for what I could have done," Jones said. "But I've got some time left. I feel like my game's getting better as I get older. I'm hitting it better, I'm hitting it longer.

"It's a very tough game we play out here. There's those exceptional golfers that you see on TV a lot and then there's probably I don't know how many of us out here that are really, really good golfers and people don't understand, but it's just not that easy to win out here. And there are great golfers everywhere. I was just lucky enough to get it done today and hopefully it leads to more."

Brandon Hagy (66) finished 7 under and in second on his 30th birthday, his chance at winning doomed by a third-round 76. Chase Seiffert (64), Brendan Steele (65), C.T. Pan (70), Denny McCarthy (67) and Russell Henley (68) tied for third at 6 under.

"You can't get a tougher golf course to win on than this one, in these conditions," Jones said. "To be able to do that on this golf course is amazing and something I can build on for the future, hopefully."

A Look Back At 2020

Before he won the 2020 Honda Classic, Sunjae Im played golf on the PGA TOUR as much as anybody. He traveled each week from tournament to tournament, living out of hotel rooms without a home base in the United States.

But in his 50th start at The Honda, the golf world really got to know this rising young player.

Im used two late birdies to finish with a final-round 66 and a one-shot victory over Mackenzie Hughes and Tommy Fleetwood. His six-under finish was the second-highest winning score since The Honda Classic moved to PGA National's Champion course in 2007.

He began the final round three strokes out of the lead but made birdies on four of his first five holes. The middle of his round included three bogeys and a birdie, and Im entered the vaunted Bear Trap, Nos. 15-17 at PGA National, one off the lead. He vaulted his way to 6 under par and the clubhouse lead when he hit laser irons to exactly 7 feet, 10 inches at both the par-3 15th and par-3 17th to set up makeable birdie putts. An up-and-down for par from the front bunker at 18 ended up being the difference.

Hughes, a Canadian who made the cut on the number Friday, shot his second consecutive 66 to get into contention. He missed a birdie putt at the par-5 finishing hole that would have gotten him into a playoff with Im.

Fleetwood, the third round leader, started birdie-birdie to get to 7 under, but he made bogey on the par-4 6th and couldn't get up and down from a greenside bunker on the par-4 8th, giving back what was left of his lead at that point and sharing the top spot at 5 under with Im and Steele.

Moments after Im finished, Fleetwood made a 25-footer for birdie on the par-3 17th to get to 5 under. But Fleetwood's second on the par-5 finishing hole leaked right and splashed into the water. And once his attempt at a miracle hole-out after a drop from 120 yards didn't fall, Im could finally exhale as the winner.

"I've been in this spot many times. ... I just felt like the experience really helped," Im said. "I'm just so happy to be on the PGA TOUR and just to play golf, and it's almost as -- I don't really look at it as work, it's more of a chance to just go out and do what I love and play golf. As far as difficulty-wise, it's not very hard because I'm doing what I want to do. So that's kind of how I feel right now."

A Look Back At 2019

Keith Mitchell won the 2019 Honda Classic in dramatic fashion with a 15-foot birdie putt on his final hole with Brooks Koepka and Rickie Fowler anticipating a three-way playoff for the $1,224,000 winner's check. It was his first PGA TOUR victory.

"I wanted to see what it was like on the other side," Mitchell said. "Everyone gets their start somewhere, everyone gets their first win somewhere. I wanted this to be mine."

"If I make par, I got a playoff with two of the best players in the world and potentially Hall-of-Famers of all time. That's a big thought for a guy that's on his second year of TOUR that's never won. I was able to execute and that's something I haven't been able to do in the past."

Mitchell got himself into position to win on Sunday with a brilliant shot to four feet at the par three 15th, his third birdie in four holes. That put him in a five-way tie for the lead.

When he got to 18, everything was in front of him. Mitchell pulled his drive into the fairway bunker, eliminating his chance of going for the green in two on the par 5. So he ended up with a wedge from 129 yards on this third shot, gave himself the opportunity to change his life, and made it happen.

"I knew what Keith was going through on the last, having been there," said Fowler. "It's not easy winning out here, especially your first. So seeing him make that putt, it's cool."

Mitchell was asked what advice he would give himself with the victory firmly embedded on his resume.

"Not living and dying on every swing," Mitchell said. "I did not play perfect golf (in winning The Honda Classic), but at the end of the day it was good enough. I think that's why the best players in the world are always at the top. They're not playing perfect every week. They're just managing their games and managing the golf course, managing their emotions better than everyone. I never even put myself in a place that I had a chance to win on the last couple holes because of probably some emotions that took over early. I played a lot better than I did in winning, but I didn't manage my game or manage myself better than I did."

A Look Back At 2018

It is tough to say which shot was better. The first, a simple 117-yard gap wedge on the final hole of regulation. Justin Thomas nearly holed the shot and made birdie to get into a playoff with Luke List.

Moments later, Thomas hit a 5-wood over the water that found the green and then two-putted for birdie and a victory in the 2018 Honda Classic.

Pick either one because both shots were textbook examples of how you go out and seize control of a golf tournament on Sunday on the PGA TOUR.

The wedge shot. Thomas missed the 18th fairway in regulation and had no choice but to lay up on the par five. He had 117 yards to the hole, the perfect distance for his gap wedge.

"I have a lot of confidence in my wedge game," Thomas said. "I knew if I got a decent number that I was going to be able to get inside 10 feet. That's all I wanted was a chance to try to get into a playoff. And then I ended up hitting a great wedge."

The 5-wood.

"All I was looking at was the water to see if it splashed," Thomas said. "And it didn't. So I figured I was in the bunker. And then people started clapping and I could kind of see some little white dot on the green."

List, who hit his own bold shot in regulation to the 18th to set up birdie, could only manage par in the playoff. He was going for his first TOUR victory. Alex Noren (67) finished third. He was tied for the lead when he went for the green on the 18th, only for the ball to get hung up on the side of the collar of a bunker, leaving him a tough chip. He missed a birdie chance from 20 feet.

Five players had at least a share of the lead on Sunday. Only three of them stuck around until the end. Webb Simpson missed the fairway on the 11th hole and had to lay up instead of taking on the water. That led to the first of three bogeys in a four-hole stretch and sent him to a 72, four shots behind. Tommy Fleetwood was tied for the lead until a three-putt bogey from long range on the 14th, and a bogey from the back bunker on the 15th. A birdie on the final hole for a 69 left him two shots behind.

So it was Thomas holding the trophy as the sun set, because he executed the shots when they counted most.

A Look Back At 2017

Rickie Fowler survived windy conditions on Sunday better than everybody else in the 2017 Honda Classic.

When his lead was cut to one shot, Fowler answered with two big birdie putts to regain control and finish off a four-shot victory over Gary Woodland, the only player who seriously challenged him on the way home.

Fowler nailed a 40-foot birdie putt on No. 12 and then a 25-footer for birdie on the 13th as his lead reached five shots at one point.

“I didn't play great,” Fowler said. “It wasn't a pretty round. But we got the job done. A win is a win.”

The Honda victory was Fowler's fourth on the PGA TOUR and sixth overall. He closed with a 1-over 71 after brilliant rounds of 66-66-65 the first three days.

Fowler stared down the strongest wind of the week at PGA National and escaped with some great putting. In addition to the two back nine putts, he also drained a 30-footer on the eighth hole.

His best single shot of the day was shot over the water to three feet on the par four 16th. That birdie stretched his lead to five shots with two holes to play.

“To do it on that golf course and in those conditions, being windy that day; yeah, I made a couple mistakes but was able to keep fighting through the round,” Fowler said. “It's one of the toughest golf courses we play, especially in those conditions.

“To hit the shots I needed to at the right time and give myself a cushion to play the last couple holes, it was special. To get the win, basically at home, a place where I've lived for almost seven years now and to be able to celebrate with my friends on Sunday night, it was great.”

A Look Back At 2016

Adam Scott outlasted Sergio Garcia to win the 2016 Honda Classic by fighting to an even par 70 on Sunday as he and Garcia dueled the entire round. A noteworthy fact was that Scott did it in just his third start with a short putter as new rules dictated that he give up the trademark long putter that he had used the previous five years.

Scott began his final round with a 10-foot birdie to go ahead by two strokes and maintained a sense of control until back-to-back bogeys at No. 9 and No. 10 created an anxious moment. But Garcia missed a short putt at No. 11 and Scott hit a fairway bunker to two feet on the next hole.

The Bear Trap, which always is a mental challenge, was the last hurdle to conquer. Scott had taken a quadruple-bogey at No. 15 on Saturday that kept the tournament from becoming a runaway victory. He was the first player since Phil Mickelson in 2009 (TOUR Championship) to win a tournament with a quadruple bogey.

There was no way to wipe that experience from his mind. But Scott stayed dry on the 15th hole and later at the 17th as well.

His toughest moment coming home came at No. 16 where he clung to a one-stroke lead. Scott three-putted for bogey. But Garcia hit a bad chip and also bogeyed, then bogeyed the 17th hole as well. Scott made par on the final two holes to secure the one-stroke victory with a final score of nine-under 271.

“I feel like I come into every tournament knowing that I have a chance to compete,” Scott said. “The putter's been up and down, and that affects my result the most, I think, ultimately. But generally, I'm playing well, and the confidence is there. I play consistently well week after week.”

2002 HONDA CLASSIC

DATE: Mar 7-10
WINNER: Matt Kuchar
SCORE: (269) 68-69-66-66
TOTAL PURSE: $3,500,000
WINNER'S SHARE: $630,000
SITE: THE TOURNAMENT PLAYER'S CLUB AT HERON BAY; CORAL SPRINGS, FL
LEADERS: First Round - John Riegger shot a nine-under 63 in the rain-delayed first round. Riegger had a chance to tie the tournament record of 62 in the first round but just missed a birdie putt on his final hole, the par-5 ninth. After the first round Riegger had a two-stroke lead over Brad Faxon. Second Round - Riegger continued to lead, following up a 63 with a 69 on the second day of the Honda Classic. He held a two-stroke lead over Paul Casey. Casey was 10-under after 14 holes when the second round was suspended. Only 52 players in the 144-man field finished 36 holes Friday due to the rain that ended play prematurely on Thursday. Riegger made 12 birdies, three bogeys and an eagle in his first 33 holes. Joey Sindelar did not make a bogey in the first two rounds and was nine-under. Third Round - Mike Weir held a one-shot lead over Joey Sindelar after the third round of play. Weir was at 14-under after 10 holes before play was halted Saturday due to darkness. His two birdies on Sunday morning tied the 54-hole tournament record of 200 set by George Burns in 1982. Before play was halted Saturday, Weir was tied for the lead with Brett Wetterich at 14-under. Twenty-seven players were within five strokes of the lead after three rounds. Eventual champion Matt Kuchar was three shots off Weir's pace after the third round.
: 71 professionals at 4-under par 140 from a field of 144.
WEATHER: More than two inches of rain on Thursday forced dozens of players to play more than 18 holes on Friday and Saturday. The usual strong wind at Heron Bay was not present during Saturday's play, helping several golfers achieve low scores.
