RODMAN WANAMAKER TROPHY

Trophy History

Lewis Rodman Wanamaker, benefactor of his namesake trophy, wanted the inaugural PGA Championship to be a grand display – from administration, participation, and the trophy itself. Wanamaker requested that the Championship be modeled in 1916 after the highly successful match-play News of the World Tournament in the United Kingdom.

From October 14, 1916, when it was first presented to inaugural PGA Champion Jim Barnes at Siwanoy Country Club in Bronxville, New York, the Rodman Wanamaker Trophy has undergone a series of restorations to its base and has no visible hallmarks.

From 1983 to 2002, Markham “Mark” Frankel, of MJF Silversmiths of Williamsburg, Virginia, designed 50-percent replica trophies for PGA Champions. He also made numerous repairs to the original, and crafted a new base in 1984. The original base was so filled with lead, according to Frankel, that it could not support the original trophy. The first 90-percent original sized replica for PGA Champions began in 2009 with Y.C. Yang. From 2002 forward, the trophy silversmith has been John Bowles, of JB Fairway Presentations, Ltd., London.

Today, the Champion’s name is engraved on site at the PGA Championship by Gail Hedgepeth of Gloucester Point, Virginia.

2024 PGA CHAMPIONSHIP Facts & Format

Purse and Honors

The purse for the 2024 PGA Championship will not be disclosed until Championship week. In 2023, the purse was $17.5 million with the Champion receiving $3,150,000.

In addition to the winner’s prize money, the 2024 PGA Champion will receive a lifetime exemption into the PGA Championship, a replica of the Wanamaker Trophy as well as one point for every $1,000 earned in the PGA Championship toward a berth on the U.S. Team in the 45th Ryder Cup (provided the player is American-born).

Method of Play

Seventy-two holes of stroke play, four rounds of 18 holes. Following the first 36 holes of play, the 15th-player field will be reduced to the low 70 scorers and ties. Those players will advance to compete in the final two rounds.

In the event of a tie for first place after 72 holes, there will be a three-hole aggregate score playoff on holes #13, #17 and #18. If still tied, there will be a hole-by-hole playoff on hole #18, #13, #17 and #18 repeated.

Rules and Regulations

The Rules of Golf, which govern play, are determined by the United States Golf Association and applied by the PGA of America Rules Committee. The Championship is subject to the overall supervision of the PGA Rules Committee and PGA Board of Directors.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP MILESTONES

100 Years Ago: 1924 - Walter Hagen began the most remarkable four-year win streak in major championship history by capturing his second PGA Championship at French Lick Springs. Hagen would win the PGA Championship again in 1925, 1926 and 1927, and then added the Open Championship titles in 1928 and 1929.

80 Years Ago: 1944 - After a hiatus in 1943 during World War II, the PGA Championship returned in 1944 at Manito Golf and Country Club in Spokane, Washington. Bob Hamilton, a long shot, upset the 1940 PGA Champion, Byron Nelson, 1 up, in the finals during the event's match play era.

75 Years Ago: 1949 - Native Virginian Sam Snead won his second PGA Championship, defeating Johnny Palmer, 3 and 2, during the event's match play era and delighting a partisan gallery at Hermitage Country Club in Richmond.

60 Years Ago: 1964 - Bobby Nichols, a 28-year-old Kentuckian, went wire-to-wire to win his only major at the 46th PGA Championship at Columbus Country Club. His 271 stood as the lowest 72-hole total in PGA Championship history for 30 years.

50 Years Ago: 1974 - Lee Trevino, brandishing an old putter he found in the attic of his rented home, battled Jack Nicklaus and slogged his way to victory in a week of steady rain at the 56th PGA Championship at Tanglewood Park.

40 Years Ago: 1984 - Three former PGA Champions - Lee Trevino, Gary Player and Lanny Wadkins - staged one of the most exciting PGA Championships ever at Shoal Creek. Ten years after his first PGA Championship victory, Trevino took the lead on Saturday and held off Wadkins and Player to claim the last of his six major championships.

35 Years Ago: 1989 - Payne Stewart birdied four of the last five holes during the 71st PGA Championship at Kemper Lakes Golf Club, shooting a 31 over the final nine, to edge runners-up Mike Reid, Curtis Strange and Andy Bean, and win his first major title.

25 Years Ago: 1999 - At just 23, Tiger Woods captured his second major and the first of his four PGA Championships during the 81st edition at Medinah. His two-putt for par on the 72nd hole was one stroke better than 19-year-old Sergio Garcia of Spain.

20 Years Ago: 2004 - Vijay Singh captured his third major title at the 86th PGA Championship at Whistling Straits after defeating Justin Leonard and Chris DiMarco in a three-hole aggregate playoff. Winning at the age of 41, he remains the fifth oldest PGA Champion.

15 Years Ago: 2009 - At the 91st PGA Championship at Hazeltine, Y.E. Yang delivered one of the most memorable performances in golf history after a remarkable comeback and three-stroke upset win over Tiger Woods on Sunday. The second South Korean man to win on the PGA Tour became the first Asian man to win one of golf's four majors.

10 Years Ago: 2014 - After winning the Open Championship less than a month prior, Rory McIlroy outlasted Phil Mickelson and the darkness at Valhalla Golf Club to win his second PGA Championship. He became the fifth player to win four majors at age 25 or younger, joining Tiger Woods, Jack Nicklaus, Bobby Jones and "Young" Tom Morris.

5 Years Ago: 2019 - With the PGA Championship held in May for the first time since 1949, Brooks Koepka defended his title at Bethpage Black, which is set to host the 2025 Ryder Cup. Koepka, who added a third PGA Championship title in 2023, became the first player to repeat as champion of both the PGA Championship and the U.S. Open and the first player since Tiger Woods to win back-to-back PGAs since it shifted to stroke play in 1958. Koepka opened with a course-record 63, added a 5-under 65 in the second round to break the 36-hole major scoring record by two shots and took a PGA-record seven-shot advantage into the weekend. From there, Koepka became the first wire-to-wire PGA Champion in 36 years (Hal Sutton, 1983).

PGA CHAMPIONSHIPS AT VALHALLA GOLF CLUB

VALHALLA PGA CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

History of the PGA Championship at Valhalla

Valhalla Golf Club in Louisville, Kentucky will host its fourth PGA Championship in 2024, which lies Oak Hill Country Club in Rochester, N.Y. as the courses to host the second-most PGA Championships in the event's history. They trail only Southern Hills Country Club in Tulsa, Oklahoma (5).

Edition	Year	Winner	Score	Runner-Up
78th	1996	Mark Brooks	277	Kenny Perry
82nd	2000	Tiger Woods	270	Bob May
94th	2014	Rory McIlroy	268	Phil Mickelson

1996 - Champion: Mark Brooks

Mark Brooks' focused game plan proved the key to victory as the PGA Championship celebrated its first visit to Valhalla Golf Club. The field featured 81 of the top 100 Sony world-ranked players. Brooks, 35, capped a dramatic final round by making two birdies within 20 minutes on the par-5, 540-yard 18th hole. He knocked home a five-foot birdie putt in regulation play and then joined Kentucky-born favorite Kenny Perry for the 14th playoff in PGA Championship history. From the 18th tee in the playoff, Brooks' tee shot split the fairway while Perry's drive found the left-hand rough. Perry failed to get out of the rough until his fourth approach shot crept on the putting surface. Brooks calmly hit a 229-yard 3-wood approach to the green then two-putted, making a four-foot birdie putt to claim victory. Brooks' steady play included handling Valhalla's slick greens and keeping his drives out of the rough. Brooks ranked first in putting among the elite field, needing only 104 putts, and was tied for 21st in driving accuracy.

2000 - Champion: Tiger Woods

Tiger Woods had chased Bob May's Southern California junior golf records, but they'd never faced each other in competition. That drought ended on the world stage in the 82nd PGA Championship at Valhalla Golf Club in Louisville, Ky., where they dueted through the final round and into a three-hole playoff. Both played brilliantly down the stretch, each posting a bogey-free 31 on the back nine. Woods, pushed to the limit, reached for something extra and birdied the final two holes in regulation and the first hole (the 14th) in the Championship's first-ever three-hole aggregate score playoff. Memorable par saves on the final two holes earned his second Wanamaker Trophy. Woods became the first player since Ben Hogan in 1953 to win three major titles in one year. He also erased a PGA jinx by capturing back-to-back Championships, the first to do so since Denny Shute (1936-37) and the first to repeat in the stroke (medal) play era that began in 1958. Woods was tested from the beginning, losing his one-stroke margin through 54 holes, with a rare bogey on the par-5 second hole. He didn't clinch his fifth major championship until May missed a 30-foot birdie putt by inches on the final hole of the playoff.

2014 - Champion: Rory McIlroy

Rory McIlroy emerged from a four-man race to outlast Phil Mickelson and the darkness at Valhalla Golf Club to capture his second straight major championship. McIlroy's closing 3-under 68 made him the fifth player to win four majors at 25 or younger. The others: Tiger Woods, Jack Nicklaus, Bobby Jones and "Young" Tom Morris. Trailing by three shots heading to the lead and then birdied No. 17 for a two-shot advantage. Because of a two-hour rain delay, and with darkness falling quickly, it wasn't certain that McIlroy would be able to finish until he got the invitation from Rickie Fowler at the No. 18 tee to hit his tee shot before Fowler and his playing partner, Mickelson—both two shots behind—had reached their drives. McIlroy came within a yard of driving into a hazard right of the fairway before getting permission from a PGA of America Rules Official to hit his second shot. Trying to force a tie, Fowler missed a 50-foot eagle attempt before Mickelson's eagle chip came within inches of the hole. McIlroy's second found a bunker, then he two-putted from 35 feet for a one-shot victory. Mickelson (66) finished runner-up for the ninth time in a major while Fowler became the first player in history to finish in the top five in all four majors in a single year without winning any of them.

Hole 1 | The Post | Par 4 | 484 yards

The challenge on this dogleg-left is not only off the tee, but also on the approach. The large front-right bunker is both visually intimidating and a real threat when the hole is cut front-left or back-right. The left bunker will catch errant shots aimed at the back of the green.

Hole 2 | Winning Colors | Par 4 | 500 yards

Another slight dogleg left, this long par 4 is lined with beautiful Kentucky hardwoods. Tee shots need to stay clear of a finger of Floyd's Fork, a waterway that runs along the left side of the fairway and green, and continues to meander through the front nine. Also protecting the angled green are three bunkers, two front-left and one back-right.

Hole 3 | Honest Abe | Par 3 | 208 yards

Named after Kentucky's only president, Lincoln was born in Larue County, about 70 miles south of Valhalla; his family moved to Illinois when he was 7, this challenging par 3 demands an "honest" attempt. Floyd's Fork sweeps around to the right of the green, which also is guarded by a large bunker to the right and smaller bunkers to the left and behind. But the real danger is misreading the wind, which can push a shot to the right side, which slopes down toward the hazards.

Hole 4 | Mine That Bird | Par 4 | 372 yards

The aggressive line on this short-ish par 4 is down the left side, carrying the large bunker at the inside of the dogleg-left's elbow. When the tee is moved forward most players can drive the green, but this brings Floyd's Fork into play to the left side of the green and the putting surface features significant movement and contours. Golfers who choose to lay back and approach with a wedge will need precise distance control to get near the hole wherever it's positioned.

Hole 5 | The Sun Shines Bright | Par 4 | 463 yards

The fairway on this dogleg-right is bracketed by a large fairway bunker on the right side and three bunkers on the left. The large, triangular green is also guarded on both sides, by a large bunker right and a closely mown collection area left. The back-right hole location is one of the most challenging on the course.

Hole 6 | Long Shot | Par 4 | 495 yards

The name "Long Shot" refers not to distance but one's chance of making a par on this difficult hole. It demands an accurate tee shot, and for some players will be something less than a driver as the aim is to get as close to Floyd's Fork as one dares. Even after a good drive, players will still be looking at over 200 yards to a challenging green complex. A deep bunker guards the left side, a closely mown collection area lurks on the right.

Hole 7 | Genuine Risk | Par 5 | 597 yards

The split fairway sets up a classic risk vs. reward dilemma. Driving to the left shortens the hole by more than 50 yards, but the landing area is only 26 yards wide, surrounded by bluegrass rough, and guarded by water right; the approach from this island fairway is 210-230 yards, all over water. Driving to the right is longer but safer. With water along the front and left side of the green, it's a brave player who attacks from any angle.

Hole 8 | Float Like a Butterfly | Par 3 | 190 yards

It's only a short- to middle-iron in, but the green complex is as dangerous as a Muhammad Ali combination. The front is protected by a deep bunker and a severe, closely manicured collection area. There is another bunker left, and another low-mow collection area beyond the green. The large, angled green affords numerous testing hole locations.

Hole 9 | Twin Spires | Par 4 | 415 yards

The tee shot at this uphill par 4 is challenged by three fairway bunkers along the right side and two more left. The uphill approach makes judging the yardage difficult, exaggerated by the presence of one of the largest and deepest bunkers on the course just right of the green. The green itself is one of the most undulating on the entire golf course.

Hole 10 | Big Red | Par 5 | 590 yards

Named after Secretariat, the big, long-distance thoroughbred, this hole is a double-dogleg with a fairway bunker on the right side of the driving zone and deep rough and trees to the left. The undulating, two-tiered green is nearly perpendicular to the fairway and protected by a large, deep bunker in front.

Hole Descriptions

Hole 11 | Holler | Par 3 | 211 yards

It's a middle- to long-iron shot into a shallow green that features a slight false front, with a large bunker in front and a smaller one behind. The green angles right to left, but shots going too far left will bound down the steep hillside.

Hole 12 | Sting Like a Bee | Par 4 | 494 yards

This hole has an island fairway which is especially difficult because it doglegs to the right and then leaves an approach shot of 170-190 yards to an elevated green. One of the deepest bunkers on the course sits to the right of the angled putting surface, while the bluegrass rough to the left is gnarly and painful.

Hole 13 | The Limestone Hole | Par 4 | 351 yards

Don't let the distance deceive you. Yes, it's the shortest two-shot hole on the course, but those two shots have to be good. A cluster of six bunkers sits just to the left of the fairway landing zone, while the green is a true island, surrounded by water and built up nearly 20 feet on large limestone boulders.

Hole 14 | On the Rocks | Par 3 | 254 yards

The longest par 3 on the course, and also one of the best views of the surrounding countryside. The serene setting gets more serious around the two-tiered green, which is sandwiched between two bunkers in front and two behind. Playing from either of the two rear bunkers can be especially painful as the green slopes from back to front.

Hole 15 | Julep | Par 4 | 435 yards

Unfortunately, that's not mint julep in Brush Run Creek, which runs down the entire right side of the hole. The landing area is framed by deep bluegrass rough to the left and a large bunker to the right. The creek and a small bunker edge the right side of the large green, with a bigger bunker on the left.

Hole 16 | Homestretch | Par 4 | 508 yards

Brush Run Creek lines the right side of this slight dogleg-right, as well. But the real difficulty is the formidable green complex, which features two bunkers in front and a severe drop-off to a closely manicured chipping area to the right. The natural amphitheater is a prime spot for spectator viewing.

Hole 17 | Straight Up | Par 4 | 472 yards

The tee shot must find the uphill, left-angling fairway, which means avoiding the two large bunkers, one on each side of the landing area. Then the approach must find the green, which is completely surrounded by trouble- two bunkers to the left and tightly mown turf everywhere else.

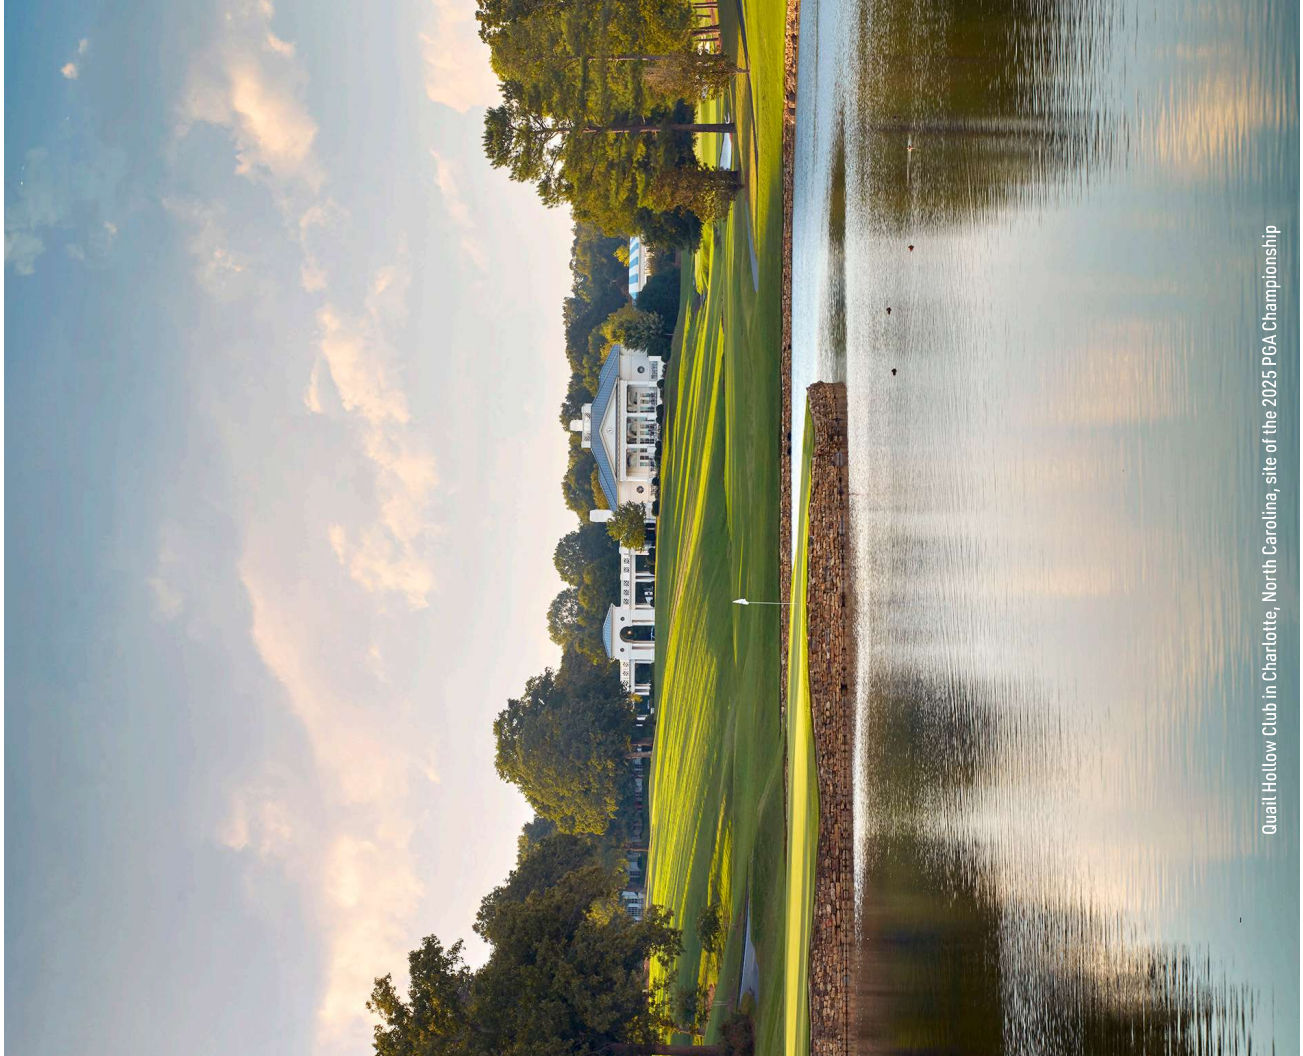

Hole 18 | Photo Finish | Par 5 | 570 yards

This epic finishing hole bends gracefully to the right, with a large bunker to the left of the landing zone and a beautiful water feature on the right. Most players can get home in two, but will have to contend with a big bunker in front and a smaller pot bunker left. The vast, horseshoe-shaped green has distinct putting areas left, center, and right, so simply getting on the surface is no guarantee of a good score.

- Tom Wargo is the last PGA Professional (1992 & 93) to make two consecutive cuts in a PGA Championship.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2023

Champion: Brooks Koepka

Site: Oak Hill Country Club,
Rochester, New York
Date: May 18-21
Purse: $17.5 Million
Par: 35-35-70 (1394 yards)
Field: 156. Cut at 145, 76 players advanced

Through it all – the injuries, the surgeries, the rehab and sweat and haunting inner doubts that left him awake at night – Brooks Koepka never forgot how to win.

Built for big events, Koepka rose once again at Oak Hill Country Club, one of golf's most serious exams. A hot start (three early birdies) and a strong final nine carried the 33-year-old Koepka to a final-round, 3-under 67 to secure the 105th PGA Championship, his third PGA title.

"It feels damned good," Koepka said, reunited with a Wanamaker Trophy he last held in 2018-19. His winning score was 9-under 271, two shots clear of twenty-somethings Scottie Scheffler and Viktor Hovland. "Yeah, this one is definitely special. I think this one is probably the most meaningful of them all with everything that's gone on, all the crazy stuff over the last few years."

he encountered three bogeys that allowed him to stick around. And then he surged home, making three birdies in his final seven holes, including a dagger at 16.

Koepka drove it well, led the field in Strokes Gained: Approach, the Green on Sunday (finishing fifth for the week), was 13th in putting and, when he missed greens, he scrambled well (getting up and down 19 of 28 times, ranking fourth).

PGA Professional Michael Block of California made an ace on Sunday at No. 15 and shot 71 to finish T-15, the best finish by a club pro in the PGA in 40 years. Koepka ranked right up there with the Rochester crowd, too. Three of his five majors have been won in New York.

Asked if the PGA should return to Oak Hill, Koepka flashed that big, bright grin of his. "I'll come back anytime," he said.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2022

Champion: Justin Thomas

Site: Southern Hills Country Club, Tulsa, Oklahoma
Date: May 19-22
Par: 35-70 (7550 yards)
Field: 156 Cut: at 39, 79 players advanced

Justin Thomas began the final round of the 104th PGA Championship at Southern Hills Country Club 1-7 and seven strokes off the lead after posting scores of 67-67-74 through the first three days of competition. That deficit was quickly erased as the 29-year-old roared toward the top of the leaderboard, Thomas shot 3-under par 67 on Sunday, which matched the low round of the day, to finish at 5-under for the Championship. He then birdied two of three holes in a 3-hole aggregate playoff to defeat Will Zalatoris by one stroke and claim his second Wanamaker Trophy.

Thomas, who won his first PGA Championship in 2017 at Quail Hollow Club, tied John Mahoney for the biggest comeback in PGA Championship history. Mahoney rallied from seven strokes down to win the 1978 PGA Championship at Oakmont Country Club. Thomas also became the sixth player to come back from as many as seven strokes after 54 holes to win a major championship.

"I really tried to play the golf course for what it was, and I had a good feeling," said Thomas. "Although I was so far back there weren't that many guys ahead of me, and it's a very tough golf course and anything could happen."

The playoff capped a memorable week for Thomas, who is the son and grandson of PGA Professionals. He and his father, Mike, celebrated with an emotional embrace at 18.

"I know somewhere up there, Grandpa was definitely watching today and pulling for me," said Thomas. "It's very, very cool to be able to share this moment with my family."

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2021

Champion: Phil Mickelson

Site: The Ocean Course, Kiawah Island, South Carolina
Date: May 20-23
Par: 35-70 (7550 yards)
Field: 156 Cut: at 149, 81 players advanced

Phil Mickelson had done everything there was to do in golf. It so he, and pretty much all of us, thought. Early Sunday evening, as a brilliant sun over his shoulder burned through the coastal Carolina sky, Mickelson stood on the 18th green at Kiawah Island's Ocean Course and held aloft the Wanamaker Trophy, the improbable victor of the 103rd PGA Championship. "It's been a while since I held that," said Mickelson, 50, whose final round 73 across a difficult, windswept course, and 72-hole total of 6-under 282, made him the oldest major champion in history. He'd last won the PGA in 2005, at Baltusore. "Although I believed it," Mickelson said, "until I actually did it, there was a lot of doubt, I'm sure." A closing two-putt par after a soaring 9-iron into the final green gave Mickelson a two-shot victory over two-time PGA champion Brooks Koepka (74) and South Africa's Louis Oosthuizen (73). It was Mickelson's sixth major championship, making him the 14th player in history to capture a half dozen or more majors. Paired alongside Koepka, Mickelson got off to a rocky start, Mr. Phil's Wild Ride included three bogeys (against two birdies) over the first six holes. There seemed to be two-shot swings on every other hole. After departing the on, he made lots of quality swings. As Mickelson walked up 18, thousands of excited spectators rushed to form a circle around the green. "Phil! Phil! Phil!" they chanted. Mickelson made his way through, temporarily swallowed up in the masses. He emerged smiling. "I've never had something like that," Mickelson said. "It was a little bit unnerving, but it was exceptionally awesome, too."

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2020

Champion: Collin Morikawa

Site: 100 Harding Park, San Francisco, California
Date: Aug. 6-9
Purse: $11 Million
Par: 35-37 (0.7251 yards)
Field: 156. Cut: at 141, 79 players advanced

The PGA had been shifted from May to a familiar August date and did not include on-site spectators due to the coronavirus pandemic. As a result, the PGA led off the major-championship season for the first time since 1971 and at Harding Park, the second municipal golf facility to host a PGA Championship. Even without the usual large galleries, the 2020 PGA was one to remember, with California's own Collin Morikawa emerging from an unprecedented seven-way tie for the lead on the back nine Sunday with a chip-in at the 14th hole and a heart-stopping tee shot at the drivable par-4 16th. The birdie at 14 gave Morikawa sole possession of the lead for the first time, and his unforgettable drive at No. 16 led to a 7-iron eagle put that propelled him to his first major title. Morikawa, who played college golf and graduated just across the Bay Bridge at the University of California, won by two shots over Dustin Johnson and Paul Casey. The 23-year-old displayed poise beyond his years, enabling him to become the third-youngest player since World War II to win the PGA, behind Rory McIlroy and Jack Nicklaus, and the ninth to win his PGA debut. Johnson shot a scintillating 65 Saturday to take a one-shot lead over Scottie Scheffler and Cameron Champ, then Sunday saw the talent-rich field play a record 18 holes, twice there were seven leaders tied for the lead, with almost another dozen within three shots. That included Matthew Wolff, just 21, who roared into contention with three birdies and an eagle on a four-hole stretch. Morikawa finally pulled away with "The Drive" at 16, which immediately became part of golf lore—even without the crowds roar. Two more pars and Morikawa was lifting the Wanamaker Trophy.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2019

Champion: Brooks Koepka

Site: Bethpage Black, Farmingdale, New York
Date: May 16-19
Purse: $11 Million
Par: 35-33-30 (0.7459 yards)
Field: 156. Cut: at 144, 82 players advanced

With the PGA Championship held in May for the first time since 1949, Brooks Koepka defended his title and became the first player to repeat as champion of both the PGA and the U.S. Open—at the same time, no less—and the first player since Tiger Woods to win back-to-back PGAs since it shifted to stroke play in 1958. But it wasn't easy. It rarely is in major championships, especially at Bethpage Black, one of the world's toughest public courses. Koepka led by six with eight holes to play before the Black's demanding back nine, the toughest wind conditions and world-No. 1 Dustin Johnson's charge cut the lead to one shot when he left the 14th green.

Koepka steadied his game and made clutch pars on the 15th and 16th holes, adding another up-and-down par at 18 to win by two shots at 6-under 272. From there, Koepka became the first wire-to-wire (sole possession of first place) PGA Champion in 36 years (Hal Sutton, 1983). With his fourth career major championship victory in hand, Koepka also reclaimed the No. 1 slot in the Official World Golf Rankings.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2018

Champion: Brooks Koepka

Site: Bellview Country Club, St. Louis, Missouri
Date: Aug. 9-12
Purse: $11 Million
Par: 35-35-70 (7.316 yards)
Field: 156. Cut: at 141, 80 players advanced

For Justin Thomas, the son and grandson of PGA Professionals, winning the PGA Championship was a dream come true. In 1972, "When I look at what I've done in the past two months, it's incredible. Looking back, I was sitting on my couch watching the Masters, and I think I could do this. I would have laughed and told you there was no way, no chance," said Koepka, who missed most of the season's first four months with a wrist injury. At 264, Koepka set the lowest 72-hole score in a PGA Championship and matched Henrik Stenson's mark (2016 Open Championship) for lowest four-round score in a major championship. Woods joined Phil Mickelson (2001) with the lowest 72-hole mark by a non-winner at the PGA Championship. The runner-up finish was Woods' seventh in a major, in this PGA Championship.

Woods climbed a Sunday-afternoon leaderboard in a major. "Everybody on the golf course heard it," said Koepka of Woods' surge. "We knew what was going on. It's pretty obvious when Tiger makes a birdie. I think everybody at the golf course cheers for him." Koepka's two-stroke victory came 56 days after his second career major championship triumph at Shinnecock Hills, making him only the fifth player to win the PGA Championship and U.S. Open in the same year, joining Woods (2000), Jack Nicklaus (1975), Ben Hogan (1948) and Gene Sarazen (1922). "When I look at what I've done in the past two months, it's incredible. Looking back, I was sitting on my couch watching the Masters, and I think I could do this. I would have laughed and told you there was no way, no chance," said Koepka, who missed most of the season's first four months with a wrist injury. great win for the family." Thomas became the ninth PGA Champion who is the son of a PGA Professional. Thomas — who finished at 8-under-par 216 — kick-started his back-nine surge with an 8-hole-birdie putt on No. 10 that hung on the lip of the hole for 9 seconds before gravity took over. Two holes later, he buried a 40-foot greenside chip and his lead was two. A pin-seeking tee shot and 15-foot birdie putt on the dangerous par-3 17th cinched the Wanamaker Trophy. Walking off No. 18, Thomas was greeted by fellow 20-somethings Jordan Spieth, Rickie Fowler and roommate Bubba Watson.

Champion: Jimmy Walker

Site: Baltusrol Golf Club, Springfield, New Jersey
Date: July 28-31
Par: 36-36-72 (7,263 yards)
Field: 156 Cut; at 142, 86 players advanced

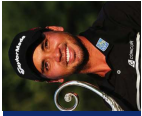

In the longest final day at the PGA Championship in 64 years, Jimmy Walker produced three big birdies on the back nine at Baltusrol and held his nerve Sunday against the No. 1 player in the world to the very end. He closed with a bogey-free 3-under 67 for a one-shot victory over defending champion Jason Day. Walker built a three-shot lead with an 8-foot birdie putt on the par-5 17th, only to watch Day blast a 3-wood onto the green at the par-5 18th to 15 feet for an eagle, closing the margin to one shot. Needing a par to win, Walker went for the green and left it in deep rough to the right and well below the green. He final birdie was the most important: Walker twice had to back off his 8-foot birdie putt on the 17th when he heard the crowd erupt after Day's shot into the 18th. When it slipped in the edge of the cup for birdie, Walker had the cushion he needed. It was along road to a first major for the 37-year-old American, and it ended with a marathon. More amazing than Walker playing a bogey-free final round was that the PGA Championship even finished. In a most peculiar final day, preferred lies were allowed after nearly four inches of rain drenched the Lower Course.

Jason Day ended Sunday's final round leading Jordan Spieth—who was attempting to cap a historic run by winning all three U.S.-based major championships—by three strokes. Day, 27, overcame both his own obstacles and Spieth's dogged pursuit by hatching a little history of his own. Day distanced himself from Spieth with a 5-under-par 67 to win his first major comfortably, by three strokes. He was never seriously threatened and became the fifth Australian to win the PGA Championship, joining Steve Elkington (1995), Wayne Grady (1990), David Graham (1979) and to four birdies in his initial seven holes and a memorable 382-yard drive on the par-5 11th hole, which he flungly birdied. With his friend, mentor, coach and caddie, Colin Swatton, on his bag, Day became the first player in major championship history to finish Woods' mark of 19-under at the 2000 Open Championship at St. Andrews. Despite the runner-up finish, Spieth took home a consolation prize of great acclaim, as he seized the title of World No. 1 in the Official World Golf Rankings for the first time.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2014

Champion: Rory McIlroy

Site: Valhalla Golf Club, Louisville, Kentucky
Date: Aug. 7-10
Par: 35-36-71 (7,488 yards)
Field: 156 Cut: at 145, 73 players advanced

Rory McIlroy emerged from a four-man race to outlast Phil Mickelson and the darkness at Valhalla Golf Club to capture his second straight major championship. McIlroy's closing 3-under 68 made him the fifth player to win four majors at 25 or younger. The others: Tiger Woods, Jack Nicklaus, Bobby Jones and "Young" Tom Morris. Trailing by three shots heading to the back nine, McIlroy rallied to take the lead and then birdied No. 17 for a two-shot advantage. Because of a two-hour rain delay, and with darkness falling quickly, it wasn't certain that McIlroy would be able to finish getting permission from a PGA of America Rules Official to hit his second shot. Trying to force a tie, Fowler missed a 50-foot eagle attempt before Mickelson's eagle chip came within inches of the hole. McIlroy's second found a bunker, then he two-pulled from 35 feet for a one-shot victory. Mickelson (66) finished runner-up for the ninth time in a major while Fowler became the first player in history to finish in the top five in all four majors in a single year without winning any of them.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2013

Champion: Jason Dufner

Site: Oak Hill Country Club, East Course, Pittsford, New York
Date: Aug. 8-11
Par: 35-35-70 (7,200 yards)
Field: 156 Cut: at 143, 75 players advanced

Jason Dufner officially answered any questions about not recovering from a back-nine PGA Championship collapse in 2011 by turning in a technician-like performance at Oak Hill Country Club's East Course to win the 95th PGA Championship and his first major title. Dufner's closing 2-under-par 68 was good for a 10-under-par 270 total and a two-stroke victory over Jim Furyk, who could not close the gap nor could any other challengers in the final round. At age 36, Dufner made the most of his opportunities, producing a near-flawless, second-round 7-under-par 63, which was the 24th round of 63 in a major. Dufner took the 36-hole lead and ultimately became the sixth player in history to win a major after finishing a 63. The final weekend stretch was proof of how far Dufner had come. After struggling to a 71 on Saturday, he trailed Furyk by one stroke on Sunday's finale. He made a knee-knocking three-foot putt on No. 1, saved Nos. 4 and 5 to tie and go ahead for good. He reached 12-under par through 16 holes before closing with a pair of bogeys. Furyk finished runner-up after an even-par 70. Sweden's duo of Henrik Stenson and Jonas Blixt, attempting to make history by giving their homeland its first male major champion, finished third and fourth, respectively, each posting 70.

Rory McIlroy had all the tools at his command in the 94th PGA Championship, registering a legendary performance and validating his record-setting 2011 U.S. Open Championship by blowing away the field at The Ocean Course on Kiawah Island. McIlroy closed in a style befitting golf royalty by knocking home a birdie putt from 25 feet on the 18th hole for a 6-under-par 66 and a 13-under-par 275 total. His eight-stroke victory broke the PGA Championship and a U.S. Open. McIlroy also became the youngest player since Seve Ballesteros to win two majors. Returning to the course Sunday morning to complete nine holes of a rain-delayed third round, McIlroy separated himself from the field by offsetting a bogey at 13 with birdies at 15 and 16. His third-round 67 gave him a three-stroke lead. He was bogey free for his final 23 holes, and no one came closer than two strokes. Former No. 100-ranked David Lynn of England, 38, who made his American debut, closed with a 68 to finish runner-up.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2011

Champion: Keegan Bradley

Site: Atlanta Athletic Club (Highlands Course), Johns Creek, Georgia
Date: Aug. 11-14
Purse: $8 Million
Par: 35-35 (7,467 yards)
Field: 156 Cut at 144, 75 players advanced

Trailing by five strokes with just three holes to play, Keegan Bradley rallied over a crucible quarter of holes at Atlanta Athletic Club's Highlands Course to become the first major champion using a belly putter, and just the third player in nearly a century to win a major championship in his first attempt. He closed regulation play with a 2-under-par 68 to match Jason Dufner, who shot a final-round 69, at 8-under-par 272. Bradley's finish included back-to-back birdies at the 16th and 17th holes to force a three-hole aggregate-hole playoff. He opened the playoff on the 16th hole by hitting his approach to four feet after Dufner's approach nearly hit the flag-stick and rolled six feet past. When Bradley made his birdie putt, it was his first outright lead of the day. He added a two-putt par at 17 and then reached the 471-yard, 18th hole in regulation, his ball landing just inside Dufner's. Though Dufner made his final putt, Bradley's tap-in made him only the third player in nearly a century to join a major championship in his first try, joining Francis Ouimet (1913 U.S. Open) and Ben Curtis (2003 Open Championship) in that exclusive club. Bradley also is one of eight PGA Champions (following Melvin "Chick" Herbert, Doug Ford, Jack Burke Jr., Dave Marr, Raymond Floyd, Davis Love III and Rich Beem) who is the son of a PGA Professional. Denmark's Anders Hansen was a stroke back in third after a 66, 2001 Champion David Toms (67) and Sweden's Robert Karlsson (67), who suffered three straight bogeys after coming within a stroke of the lead, shared fourth with Scott Verplank (70) at 275.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2010

Champion: Martin Kaymer

Site: Whistling Straits (Strat Course), Kohler, Wisconsin
Date: Aug. 12-15
Par: 36-36-72 (7,507 yards)
Field: 156 Cut; at 145, 71 players advanced

Germany's Martin Kaymer emerged victorious from a three-hole playoff with Bubba Watson at Whistling Straits, posting a winning edge in the overtime drama to become his country's first PGA Champion and second to win one of golf's four majors. The dramatics, however, were more compelling prior to the playoff, when Dustin Johnson — clinging to a one-stroke lead standing on the 18th tee — saw his chances for glory erased due to a rule violation in a tiny sand bunker on the right-hand side of the fairway. Johnson had placed his 4-iron behind the ball, unaware that it was part of a bunker. He went on to pitch to at the Open Championship, began the final day four strokes behind third-round leader Nick Watney and finished regulation tied with Watson at 11-under-par 277. Watson birdied the first playoff hole and Kaymer the second. Then Watson went for the green out of thick rough from 206 yards at the 18th, the third playoff hole, and put his ball into Seven Mile Creek, 40 yards short of the green. After seeing what happened to Watson, Kaymer chipped back to the fairway before putting a 7-iron third shot 15 feet from the hole. Watson took a penalty stroke on his way to a double bogey. Kaymer two-putted for a bogey and victory.

South Korea's Y.E. Yang, 37, established a historic milestone on a course, known for surprise finishes by delivering the biggest shocker of them all, chasing down, outpacing and dethroning Tiger Woods on a Sunday. Yang became the first male Asian player to win one of golf's four major Championships. Trailing Woods by nine strokes after the fifth hole of his second round, Yang's record PGA comeback wasn't complete until he drilled a 210-yard 3-hybrid approach at 18 that soared up and over a tree, cleared a greenside bunker and came to rest 12 feet from the flagstick. Holing the birdie putt gave him a 2-under-par 70, accentuated by a fist pump amidst the roar of a massive gallery at Hazeltine National Golf Club. His

Tiger Woods withstood back-nine challenges by Woody Austin and Ernie Els at sleepy Southern Hills to earn a fourth PGA Championship, a 13th major title and move a notch closer to the 18-major standard set by Jack Nicklaus. Woods finished with a 1-under-par 69 for a two-stroke victory over Austin, who ground his way to a 67 for his best finish in any major championship. Els finished three strokes back in third, the victim of a faulty putt. Woods entered the final round with a three-stroke lead and slipped only once, a three-putt bogey on the 14th hole. He rebounded quickly, sinking a birdie putt at 15, pointing as the ball fell in the cup. He followed by running off three consecutive pars to secure the Championship. Woods' perfect 13-for-13 major championship performance after either shaking or leading alone after 54 holes remains a trademark in a career full of records. His 13 majors led the great Bobby Jones, and he is one PGA Championship shy of the record shared by Nicklaus and Walter Hagen. Woods jumped back into the Championship after an opening 71 by trailing the Southern Hills galleries with a second-round 63, his lowest round in a major. He tied the Southern Hills course record first set by Raymond Floyd in 1982, and would go on to become just the fifth player out of 21 to shoot 63 in a major who would record a victory.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2006

Champion: Tiger Woods

Site: Medinah Country Club, Medinah, Illinois
Date: Aug. 17-20
Par: 36.3 (71.54) yards
Field: 156 Cut: at 144, 70 players advanced

Tiger Woods walked off Medinah's No. 3 course for the second time in six years in victory, collecting a third PGA Championship, his 12th major title and accomplishing what no previous winner achieved in the process -- an honorary membership, courtesy of the club's hierarchy quickly making the vote official.

Woods overcame his competition with much the same bravado that he exhibited early in his career, closing with a workmanlike 4-under-par 68 for a 18-under-par 270 and a five-stroke victory, and leaving only Nicklaus and his 18 titles in his path.

The 2004 PGA Championship at Whistling Straits in Kohler, Wis. Woods also is the first player in history to win at least two majors in two consecutive years. Shaun Micheel, the 2003 PGA Champion, elevated his own game at a course that he said reminded him of his Championship at Oak Hill Country Club in Rochester, N.Y. But his closing 69 was not enough to challenge Donald, bidding to become the first European-born PGA Champion since Tommy Armour in 1930, slumped to a 74 and finished tied for third at 276 with Australia's Adam Scott, who led a 67, and Spain's Sergio Garcia, who posted a 70.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2005

Champion: Phil Mickelson

Site: Baltusset Golf Club (Lower Course), Springfield, New Jersey
Date: Aug. 11-14
Par: 35.3 (70.87) yards
Field: 156 Cut: at 145, 75 players advanced

Phil Mickelson made superlative use of two weeks of preparation for the 87th PGA Championship, making a pilgrimage to Baltusset Golf Club and later returning to execute his game plan to perfection. He capped the dramatics by making a flop shot from the rough from some 50 feet away for a two-foot tap-in birdie and a one-stroke victory in just the third Monday, weather-related finish in a PGA Championship.

championship came a day after 12 players were unable to finish a day earlier due to a passing thunderstorm. Mickelson's final round 2-over-par 72 was good for a winning total of 4-under-par 276, a stroke better than Denmark's Thomas Bjorn and Australia's Steve Elkington, the 1995 PGA Champion.

Two-time PGA Champion Tiger Woods finished fourth with Davis Love III at 278.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2004

Champion: Vijay Singh

Site: Whistling Straits (Strat's Course), Kohler, Wisconsin
 Date: Aug. 12-15
 Par: 36-37 (7,153 yards)
 Field: 156 Cut; at 146, 73 players advanced

Vijay Singh, who couldn't buy a birdie putt for 18 holes, finally hit paydirt in overtime to capture his third major title, the 86th PGA Championship at Whistling Straits in Kohler, Wis. Fiji's most famous sportsman earned his second PGA Championship and first since 1998, while winning a record $1,175 million from a $6.25 million purse.

Singh accomplished his feat on a course that was the longest (7,536 yards) in major championship history and among a field featuring 95 of the world's top 100 ranked players. His closing 4-over-par 19th hole — the uphill, 361-yard, par-4, 10th — followed by two pars in the three-hole cumulative-score playoff. It was just enough to defeat Justin Leonard and Chris DiMarco. Singh became the fourth oldest to win a PGA Championship at 41 years, five months and 23 days. His closing 76 was the highest score by a major championship winner since Reg Whitcombe's 78 at Royal St. George's in the 1938 Open Championship.

In a year when unknowns became stars, Shaun Michael fit into the storyline by making his way to Oak Hill Country Club in Rochester, N.Y. Playing on the outskirts of a city renowned for its inventiveness — in optical science, photocopyers and photo processing — Michael capped the week by producing his own "kodak moment." His 7-iron approach to within two inches of the 72nd hole — a shot which he and caddie Bob Szczygi judged to be 175 yards — left an indelible stamp

Champion: Shaun Micheal

Site: Oak Hill Country Club, Rochester, New York
 Date: Aug. 14-17
 Par: 35-38 (7,134 yards)
 Field: 156 Cut; at 148, 78 players advanced on a topsy-turvy Championship. The season's final major featured the year's strongest field — 96 of the top 100 ranked players, just two players shy of the 2002 all-time record. The Championship also yielded the largest international contingent in PGA Championship history — 60 players representing 20 countries — which also was the most for any U.S. major championship this year. Chad Campbell, who began the final round tied with Michael at 4-under-par, dueted the final 18 holes, coming within a stroke after a Michael bogey on the 17th hole. Campbell finished with a 72 and 278, while South Africa's Tim Clark was third at 279 after a 69. Alex Cejka of the Czech Republic ended fourth at 280 after a 69.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2002

Champion: Rich Beem

Site: Hazlet National Golf Club, Cheska, Minnesota
Date: Aug. 15-18
Par: 36-36 (7,335 yards)
Field: 156 Cut; at 148, 72 players advanced

Rich Beem answered every challenge on his way to winning the 84th PGA Championship and withstood a furious charge by the game's best player, Tiger Woods, to cart off the Wanamaker Trophy at Hazlet National Golf Club. Beem earned $990,000 for the third victory of his improbable four-year career — and second in two starts. On this Sunday in Minnesota, it was Woods who came up short. He rallied Beem by two strokes at the start of the round, pulled within one, but could get no closer. Beem posted a 4-under-is the seventh son of a PGA Professional to win the PGA Championship, joined by Melvin 'Chick' Harbert (1954), Doug Ford (1955), Jack Burke Jr. (1956), Dave Marr (1965), Raymond Floyd (1969, '82) and Davis Love III (1997). His father, Larry Beem, is a PGA Life Member and teaching professional, as well as golf coach at New Mexico State in Las Cruces, N.M. Larry was a standout collegiate player at New Mexico State in the 1960s; his son followed as a player at New Mexico State.

par 68 for a winning total of 10-under-par 278 and one better than Woods, who closed with a 67. Beem became the 12th champion of the last 15 PGA Championships to claim his first major title. Beem

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2001

Champion: David Toms

Site: Atlanta Athletic Club, Duluth, Georgia
Date: Aug. 16-19
Par: 35-35 (7,213 yards)
Field: 150 Cut; at 141, 74 players advanced

David Toms went a pair of momentous strokes, 24 hours apart, to seize the first Major Championship of his 12-year professional career. In the third round, Toms set the tone for a pulsating final 18 holes by hitting a 5-wood tee shot 243 yards and into the hole on the par-3 15th hole. It was the longest ace in a Major and the first time a hole-in-one yielded an eventual PGA Champion. Toms never surrendered his lead in the final round, but was tied several times by Phil Mickelson, the last by a birdie chip from 45 yards on the 15th. Mickelson then three-putted the 16th to give Toms the lead again and set up a dramatic final-hole decision on the treacherous par-4, 470-yard 18th hole. Toms hit his drive right of the fairway into the first cut rough, 209 yards from the hole. He reached for a wedge and laid up short of the water, 88 yards out. From there, he hit a lob wedge to what the later estimated to be 12 feet of the hole. Mickelson lagged a 25-foot birdie putt two rolls short of the hole before Toms stroked home his winning par putt. With a steady, closing 1-under 69, Toms shattered the PGA and Major Championship 72-hole scoring records. His 15-under-par 265 broke the 1993 Open Championship aggregate total by Greg Norman (267) and the PGA Championship standard set in 1993 by Steve Elkington and Colin Montgomerie (267); Elkington won that year's title in a playoff. Toms' record scoring total for a Major Championship would stand for 15 years.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 2000

Champion: Tiger Woods

Tiger Woods had junior Bob May's Southern California junior golf records, but they'd never faced each other in competition. That drought ended on the world stage in the 82nd PGA Championship at Valhalla Golf Club in Louisville, Ky., where they dualed through the final round and into a three-hole playoff. Both played brilliantly down the stretch, each posting a bogey-free 31 on the back nine. Woods, pushed to the limit, reached for something extra and birdied the final two holes in regulation and the first hole (the Trophy. Woods became the first player since Ben Hogan in 1953 to win three major titles in one year. He also erased a PGA jinx by capturing back-to-back Championships, the first to do so since Denny Shute (1936-37) and the first to repeat in the stroke (medal) play era that began in 1958. Woods was tested from the beginning, using his one-stroke margin through 54 holes, with a rare bogey on the par-5 second hole. He didn't clinch his fifth major championship until May missed a 30-foot birdie putt by inches on the final hole of the playoff.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1999

Champion: Tiger Woods

Just 23 and with the game of a veteran, Tiger Woods captured the 81st PGA Championship at Medinah (Ill.) Country Club, and may have found his biggest rival as golf looked toward the next century. Woods nearly squandered a five-stroke lead before salvaging an even-par 72 for a winning total of 1-under-par 277. His two-putt for par on the 72nd hole was one stroke better than 19-year-old Sergio Garcia of Spain. Woods took home a first-round lead, is the youngest PGA Championship record purse of $3.5 million. Jay Haas, the 36-hole leader, and Stewart Cink tied for Woods triumphed over the strongest field in the history of golf: A record 97 of the world's top 100 players, featuring 43 international players from 19 countries, competed for the Wanamaker trophy. One international contestant, left-hander Mike Weir of Canada, tied Woods for the third-round lead. But Weir fell quickly out of contention in the final round and tied for 10th after an 80.

Vijay Singh, the national sports hero of tiny Fiji, delivered a gritty performance, which won the 80th PGA Championship, which was the first PGA Championship staged in the Pacific Northwest in 54 years at Sahalee CC in Sammamish, Washington. The 35-year-old Singh recorded a final-round 2-under-par 66, capped by a two-putt par on the treacherous 18th, to finish at 9-under-par 271. His two-stroke victory over Steve Stricker earned him $540,000. Steve Elkington, the 1995 Champion, finished third at 276 after a 67. Singh became the 10th player in 111 years to earn his first major championship at the PGA Championship and the 10th international player to win the Wanamaker Trophy. Singh triumphed over a 150-player field featuring 85 of the top 100 world-ranked players, who collectively owned 53 major championships titles. Singh and Stricker shared the third-final round at Sahalee after starting the final round four strokes ahead of the field. Stricker lost a share of the lead on the ninth hole and trailed by a stroke before a bogey at the par-3 17th. Singh was boosted by a birdie on the 11th, where his second shot ricocheted off a tree and settled 50 feet from the hole. He also birdied the 15th before Stricker made his birdie, then paired out from there for the victory.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1997

Champion: Davis Love III

Site: Winged Foot Golf Club, Mamaroneck, New York
Date: Aug. 14-17
Purse: $2,600,000
Par: 35-38 (6,987 yards)
Field: 150. Cut: at 146, 77 players advanced

The only question left for Davis Love III to answer was when would he fulfill the promise of his youth and win a major championship. The son of a PGA Professional, Love found his answer in a slurring week at Winged Foot Club. He opened with a first-round 66, followed with a 71, then bounced back with a pair of 66s that gave him an 11-under-par winning total of 272 that made him the youngest player to win the Wanamaker Trophy. Love led the world's best players in driving distance (a 307-yard average), tied for third in putting (113), tied for 12th in greens in regulation and tied for 21st in fairways hit—all done while defeating his final-round playing partner and reigning Open Champion, Justin Leonard. Love survived his biggest hurdle at the par-3 13th, when he pulled a 4-iron into deep rough near the green. Leonard's tee shot landed 15 feet from the cup. Love responded with an L-wood approach that almost found the hole. Leonard missed his birdie try, boogeyed the 14th hole and Love had the cushion he needed for an emotional walk up the 18th fairway. Jeff Maggert, who tied the competitive course record with a final-round 65, finished third at 276.

In one of the most dominating performances of any major championship, Nick Price shattered a 30-year-old PGA Championship record with a six-stroke victory at Southern Hills Country Club in Tulsa, Okla. Price, a native of Zimbabwe, became the third international player to win two PGA Championships. In earning the world's No. 1 ranking against the year's strongest field, Price posted a final-round 67 for an 11-under-par 269 for 72 holes, two strokes lower than Bobby

Nichols' PGA Championship record set in 1964 and the lowest of any U.S. major championship. Price's victory also made him the first golfer in 12 years to win consecutive Grand Slam events in the same year and the first since Walter Hagen in 1924 to win back-to-back Open and PGA Championship titles. The 76th PGA Championship marked the final appearance of Arnold Palmer, who had competed in a record 37 consecutive Championships.

Paul Azinger shed the label of "best player never to have won a major championship" by finishing atop a leaderboard that included players who'd won a combined 23 major championships. The lanky 6-foot-2 Bradenton, Florida resident

Date: August 8-11
Purse: $1,400,000
Par: 33-36-34 (7,295 yards)

Every sport has a magical moment when an unknown or ultimate longshot emerges to inspire people everywhere. The 1991 PGA Championship gave the world long-driving John Daly of Dardanelle, Arkansas. The ninth alternate, Daly got his chance when Nick Price withdrew to be present at the birth of his child and three alternates ahead of Daly declined. Without the benefit of a practice round, Daly posted an opening-round 69 to share eighth place. He seized the lead for good, closing the Championship with rounds of 67, 69 and 71 for a 276 total and a three-stroke victory over Bruce Lietzke.

Champion: Jeff Sluman

Site: Oak Tree Golf Club,

The 70th PGA Championship was played at Oak Tree Golf Club in Edmond, Oklahoma, rated one of the hardest courses in the country. Players were concerned that scores would be high, yet the 1988 PGA Championship turned out to be the second easiest in Championship history. This made for some exciting golf, as second-round leader Paul Azinger made a hole-in-one, which was witnessed live by millions on TV during the third round. Although Azinger had a hot hand all week, Jeff Sluman proved hotter by firing a final-round 65 that included an eagle-3 on the par-5 fifth hole, where Sluman holed a 100-yard wedge. The victory was the first of Sluman's career and alone for his playoff loss to Sandy Lyle in the 1987 Players Championship.

The 1987 PGA Championship, played during one of the hottest weeks at the home of the PGA of America on the difficult Champion Course at the par-5 fifth hole, produced the highest winning score in PGA Championship history. A final round of even-par 72 brought 1981 PGA Champion Larry Nelson from three strokes off the

Champion: Lee Trevino

Site: Shoal Creek Country Club,
Birmingham, Alabama
Date: August 16-19
Purse: $700,300
Field: 148 Cut: at 148, 70 players advanced

Three former PGA Champions - Lee Trevino, Gary Player and Lanny Wadkins - staged one of the most exciting PGA Championships ever at Shoal Creek. Wadkins tied for the first-day lead with 1982 winner Raymond Floyd and Mike Reid with a 4-under-par 68, then tied for the second-round lead at 137 with Trevino and Player.

round in PGA Championship history Trevino, wielding a hot putter, he purchased a few weeks earlier in Holland, took the lead on Saturday with a 67 and on Sunday turned back every bid Wadkins and Player could offer, walking off the 72nd green with a four-shot victory at 273.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1983

Champion: Hal Sutton

Site: Riviera Country Club,
Pacific Palisades, California
Date: August 4-7
Purse: $600,000
Field: 150 Cut: at 147, 87 players advanced

A brilliant 6-under-par 65 provided Hal Sutton with the opening-round lead at Riviera Country Club. The 1982 Rookie of the Year followed up with rounds of 66, 72 and 71 for a "wire-to-wire" victory in spite of a last-day charge by Jack Nicklaus, who added his fourth second-place PGA Championship finish to his record-tying winning year and his first PGA Player of the Year Award.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1975

Champion: Jack Nicklaus

Site: Firestone Country Club, Akron, Ohio
Date: August 7-10
Purse: $225,000

Playing one of his favorite courses, Firestone South, Jack Nicklaus ran his string of PGA Championship victories to four, one shy of Walter Hagen's record. PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1972

Champion: Gary Player

Site: Oakland Hills Country Club,
Bloomfield Hills, Michigan
Date: August 3-6
Par: 35-35-70 (1,034 yards)
Field: 138. Cut: at 150, 77 players advanced

It was a miracle 9-iron shot from an almost impossible position that brought the Championship to Gary Player for a second time. In the final round, Player bogeyed the 14th and 15th holes at Oakland Hills and seemingly ended his chances when he pushed his tee shot far to the right on the 16th hole. Unable to see the flag, Player and pond to within four feet of the hole. He holed the birdie putt and went on to score a two-stroke victory over Tommy Aaron and Jim Jamieson.

Jack Nicklaus scored a wire-to-wire victory with a 7-under-par 28 to beat Billy Casper, who birdied the last two holes to slip in front of Tommy Bolt. The victory at PGA National Golf Club made Nicklaus the first professional to twice conquer the Grand Slam of Golf — the PGA Championship, U.S. Open, British Open and Masters.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1970

Champion: Dave Stockton

Site: Southern Hills Country Club, Tulsa, Oklahoma
 Date: August 13-16
 Purse: $200,000
 Field: 136. Cut: at 150, 70 players advanced

Dave Stockton, a 28-year-old California native, came out of the pack at Southern Hills Country Club in the third round to fire a 66 and take a three-stroke lead. In the final round, he held off late charges by Arnold Palmer and Bob Murphy despite a near disaster at the 13th hole, where he put his second shot in a pond and then lofted a wedge shot to within inches of the hole to putt out a bogey. He finished two in front of Murphy and Palmer to claim victory. For Palmer, it was the third time he finished in a second-place tie in this, the only major championship he has never won.

Raymond Floyd survived an outburst of social turbulence from the gallery focused on Gary Player, as well as a gritty stretch drive by the South African, to win the 51st PGA Championship at NCR Country Club by one stroke. Floyd took a one-stroke lead in the second round and extended it to five strokes on Saturday, the same day a group of militant protesters burst onto the golf course while Player was preparing to putt on the 10th green. The next day, Player staged a final-round rally that got him within a stroke of Floyd, who bogeyed the 13th and 15th holes. On 16, Player bogeyed while Floyd ran in a 35-foot birdie putt. Despite birdieing 17, Player fell short of catching Floyd, who posted a winning 27.6.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1968

Champion: Julius Boros

Site: Pecan Valley Country Club, San Antonio, Texas
Date: July 18-21
Purse: $150,000
Par: 35-35-70 (7,096 yards)
Field: 145 Cut: at 149, 76 players advanced

Julius Boros survived the wiling midsummer Texas heat and the treacherous 18th hole at Pecan Valley Country Club to snatch the 50th PGA Championship from Arnold Palmer and Bob Charles. Palmer, frustrated again in his quest for a PGA Championship title, made a magnificent par at the final hole for a 282 after watching several good birdie putts slide past the cup in the closing round. But Boros pitched a long chip within two feet of the pin for a par, becoming, at the age of 48, the oldest winner in PGA Championship history.

For the second time in the 10-year history of the PGA Championship contested at stroke play, the winner was decided in a playoff. Played at Columbine Country Club in the thin, mile-high Colorado atmosphere, two lowland neighbors from Texas, Don January and Don Messingale, adapted to the rarefied air to come down to the wire deadlocked at 281. Even though January had lost the 1961 PGA Championship in a

Purse: $149,360
Par: 35-35-70 (71, 180 yards)
Field: 162. Cut: at 151, 76 players advanced

The 1966 PGA Championship at Firestone was a triumph for Al Geiberger. Munching peanut butter sandwiches for stamina, the California native shared the first-round lead with Sam Snead. The lead bounced back and forth, but when Snead fired closing rounds of 75 and 73, Geiberger won with four strokes to spare

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1965

Champion: Dave Marr

Site: Laurel Valley Golf Club, Ligonier, Pennsylvania
Date: August 12-15
Purse: $149,700
Par: 33-35-71 (7, 090 yards)
Field: 165. Cut: at 150, 77 players advanced

Dave Marr, 31, started the final round at Laurel Valley Golf Club in a first-place tie with Tommy Aaron. Aaron faded with a 40 on the front nine, but Billy Casper and Jack Nicklaus were threatening. Going into the last hole, Marr hooked his drive into a trap. He played his second shot short of a lake in front of the green and hit a 9-iron three feet from the cup. He made the putt for a two-stroke win over Casper and Nicklaus.

Burke's rally in the afternoon half of the 36-hole final came after falling 3-down on the 19th hole. But he rallied by winning five of the second major championship of the year, having captured the Masters that April. Kroll, who was awarded the Purple Heart during service in World War II, suffered his second disappointment in a major this year. He'd been in contention on the closing holes of the 1956 U.S. Open, only to see Cary Middlecoff take the title.

Burkemo began the match strong, winning three of the first four holes in his bid to become the first repeat PGA Champion since Denny Shute in 1936-37. However, Harbert played the next 29 holes in 8-under par, surrendering only Burkemo had opportunities to trim the lead, but

Champion: Jim Turnesa

Site: Big Spring Country Club, Louisville, Kentucky
Date: July 18-25 Purse: $17,700
Par: 36-36-72 Field: 64

Jim Turnesa finally settled a 26-year-old family major championship jinx by beating Chick Harbert on the final green at Big Spring Country Club in Louisville for a 1-up victory. Turnesa was one of seven golfing brothers. His younger brother Willie, the only one to remain an amateur, gained attention by winning the U.S. and British Amateurs. But for the other brothers, all professionals, the only tournament success was as runners-up. In 1926, Joe Turnesa was runner-up to Bobby Jones in the U.S. Open, and in 1927 lost in the 34th PGA Championship in dramatic fashion, trailing Harbert 3-down when the morning round ended. He shot a 36 on the front side of the afternoon round, then picked up two holes and squared the match for the first time since the seventh hole with a birdie at the 32nd hole. The contest remained square until the final hole, where Harbert hooked his drive under an evergreen tree and made bogey while Turnesa parred the hole for the victory.

Sneed won five of the first six holes, starting with an eagle, two birdies and three pars. Though Burkemo trailed by only three holes at the Lunch break, it was too large a deficit to overcome as Sneed started fast again in the afternoon with birdies on the 19th and 22nd holes, building a 5-hole advantage. The match came to an end at the 30th hole, Sneed's secret was his play on the front side, where he was green without replacing it with a mark. The match different winners would be crowned PGA Champion.

Despite shooting a 75 in the morning round, Harper was 3-up as Williams shot a 79. Going into the final nine, Williams was still 3-down, and a bogey at the 30th hole all but sealed the contest. Harper won the match on the 33rd hole to become the second Virginian in a row to win the PGA Championship. In the semifinals, Williams Jr. beat Henry Picard, 1-up, but made a 20-foot-er for birdie at the 32nd to be on the 38th hole in one of the greatest comebacks

For the first time since 1937, a final match didn't include Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson or Sam Sneed; instead, Australian native Jim Ferrier defeated Chick Harbert, 2 and 1. Ferrier's putting was key, as he took only 52 puts over the course of the 35-hole match and back with a birdie at the 30th hole. Ferrier's birdie at the next hole put him back at 3-up. Ferrier bogeyed the 34th hole to give one back, but when Harbert was unable to make his birdie at the 34th hole, the match came to an end. Byron Nelson, making his fifth appearance in the finals, defeated Sam Byrd, who was making just his third PGA Championship appearance, 4 and 3. After the morning 18 at Moraine Country Club, Byrd finished the round with four straight birdies and a 2-up lead. Nelson rallied to win the 22nd, 25th and 26th holes and square the match. He went in front with a birdie at the 29th hole, which turned out to be the first of four straight holes that he won, sealing the victory. Nelson was 2-under for the day and a total of 37 under par for the 204 holes he played in the Championship. Byrd played well in the finals, but over the 197 holes he played in the Championship

It was a heart-breaking loss for Turnesa, who was 7 under par, but Nelson was 10 under par with rounds of 68 and 66. In the quarterfinals, Nelson defeated past Champion Denny Shute, 3 and 2. The victory put Nelson in the semifinals for the sixth time in a row. The night after Nelson's semifinal victory, he told his wife, Louise, that the pressure of the year was starting to get to him. He was in the midst of his streak of 11 straight wins and had already won seven in a row. Louise revealed years later that Nelson was disappointed that nobody had beaten him.

McSpaden jumped out to a 3-up lead after the first five holes, but Shute found his putting stroke, one-putted nine of the next 13 holes, squared the match after the front side, then turned around to finish the morning 3-up. Notable players who didn't make it to match play were Walter Hagen, Leo Diegel, Sam Parks Jr., Byron Nelson and Jim Turnesa. PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1935

Champion: Johnny Revolta

Weather played a key role in the finals, with frigid northern blasts numbing both 40-year-old legend Tommy Armour and upstart 24-year-old Johnny Revolta. Revolta birdied the first hole and Armour was never able to square the match again. A front-nine 33 at Twin Hills Golf and Country Club gave Revolta a 3-up advantage, and even though he was 2-over-par on the back nine, he still picked up another hole, going to lunch 4 up. Armour's game improved in the afternoon: He won the first hole with one, the 31st hole, when Revolta made bogey. But when Revolta put his tee shot on the par-3 32nd hole just 10 feet away, Armour knew the match was over. If there was a secret to Revolta's 5-and-4 win, it was his putting: Over the course of the 32-hole match, Revolta didn't have a three-putt and one-putted 13 greens. During the first round, mediocrity and five-time PGA Champion Walter Hagen lost to Revolta, 1 up, in a nailbiter. At 18, Hagen had a chance to tie after Revolta made bogey, but missed his par putt.

Not since 1923 had the PGA Championship final been so close and gone so long, and in the end Paul Runyan, the pupil and putting wizard, beat his former instructor, Craig Wood, 1 up, at the Park Country Club in Williamsville, New York. After the morning round, Wood had a 1-up lead but lost his advantage on the front side of the afternoon round. He took the lead back at the 29th hole with an eagle 3, but Runyan squared the match three holes later with a birdie. Runyan picked up a hole with a Wood bogey at the 33rd hole. Wood chipped 12 feet short of the cup and just missed his par putt. Runyan made his to win. The remark lit a spark in Sarazen, who spent the week routing his competitors. Yet, after the morning round in the finals against Willie Goggin, Sarazen was only 1 up - despite a 1-under-par 69. "The Squire" went to work in the afternoon, winning three of the first

In the first round, all favorites advanced with the exception of two-time PGA Champion Leo Diegel, who was eliminated by Goggin, 4 and 3, and Horton Smith, who was beaten by long shot Clarence Clark, 6 and 5. At one point, Diegel won four straight holes from Farrell only to lose the next three. Farrell won the 18th hole to finish morning round 1-up. Diegel started the afternoon round on the right foot by winning the 19th hole to square the match. On several of the next eight holes, Farrell tried to negotiate around but failed, knocking Diegel's ball into the cup to lose the hole. It happened again on the next green so instead of being all square or 1-down through safer play, Farrell found himself 3-down. With a crowd gathered around him, Sarazen was heard by a few spectators to say, "I'll put this one up so close to the hole that it will break Walter's heart," which he did. It was one of the most magnificent shots ever in Championship golf, dropping short of the pin and coming to rest two feet away from a certain birdie. Hagen followed by chipping poorly into a greenside bunker, his last-gasp effort to tie Sarazen, resulting in his bunker approach coming within inches of the hole.

Championship Summary

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1922

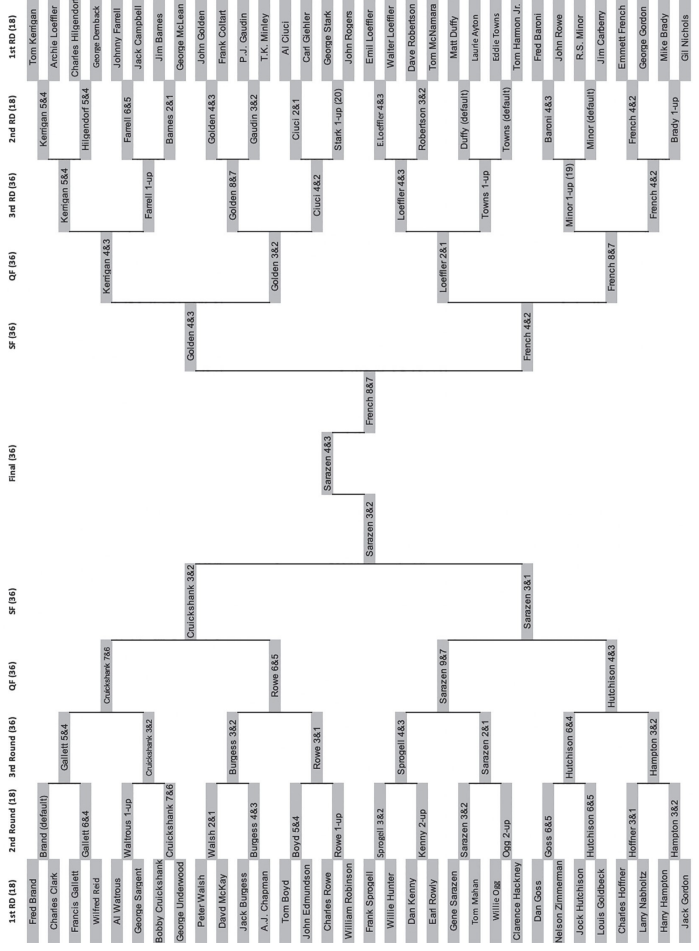

Champion: Gene Sarazen

Site: Oakmont Country Club, Oakmont, Pennsylvania
Date: Aug. 12-18 Purse: $2,380
Par: 36-35-71 Field: 64

Former PGA Champion Jack Hutchison had a chance to avenge his previous year's loss when he met reigning U.S. Open Champion Gene Sarazen in the quarterfinals. The match went in the quarterfinals. The match went to the 36th hole, with Sarazen winning, 3 and 1, after trailing Hutchison through the morning half and the greater part of the afternoon. In the semifinals, Sarazen met Bobby Cruickshank and came out on top with a 3-and-2 victory. In the other match, Emmet French disposed of John Golden, 8 and 7. The first 18 in the final was tight, with Sarazen and French all square before lunch. After 26 holes surprise of the Championship at Oakmont Country Club was Walter Hagen choosing not to defend his title due to exhibition engagements. Two-time Champion Jim Barnes fell to Johnny Farrell, 1-up, in the second round; Farrell was then eliminated by his former mentor, Tom Kerrigan, 4 and 3. The field for match play was 64 players who qualified in local districts; all first matches were played at 18 holes with the rest of the matches played at 36 holes.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1921

Champion: Walter Hagen

Site: Inwood Country Club, Far Rockaway, New York
Date: Sept. 26-Oct. 1
Purse: $2,580
Field: 16

Two-time U.S. Open Champion Walter Hagen began his remarkable PGA Championship legacy with four impressive match victories before facing two-time PGA Champion Jim Barnes in the finale at Inwood Country Club in Far Rockaway, New York. To get there, both players survived semifinal duels contested in miserable weather. A rainstorm put a halt to the Emmett French-Barnes match, with Barnes leading 2-up; finishing the remaining 12 holes the next morning, Barnes won 5 and 3. In the other semifinal, Hagen offered to postpone their match, but Cyril Walker refused and battled to a 4-up advantage. Hagen closed the match at the 34th hole, 3 and 2. The early-round surprise was a second-round exit by defending PGA Champion and newly-crowned British Open winner Jack Hutchison, who was outplayed by 19-year-old Gene Sarazen. A former caddie, Sarazen had Hutchison 8-down after the first 18 holes, thanks in part to a brilliant 69, and went on to win, 8 and 6. Walker halted Sarazen's bid in the quarterfinals, 5 and 4. The field for match play was selected on a basis of the best 31 finishers in the U.S. Open, with defending PGA Champion Jack Hutchison filling the 32nd berth.

Championship Summary

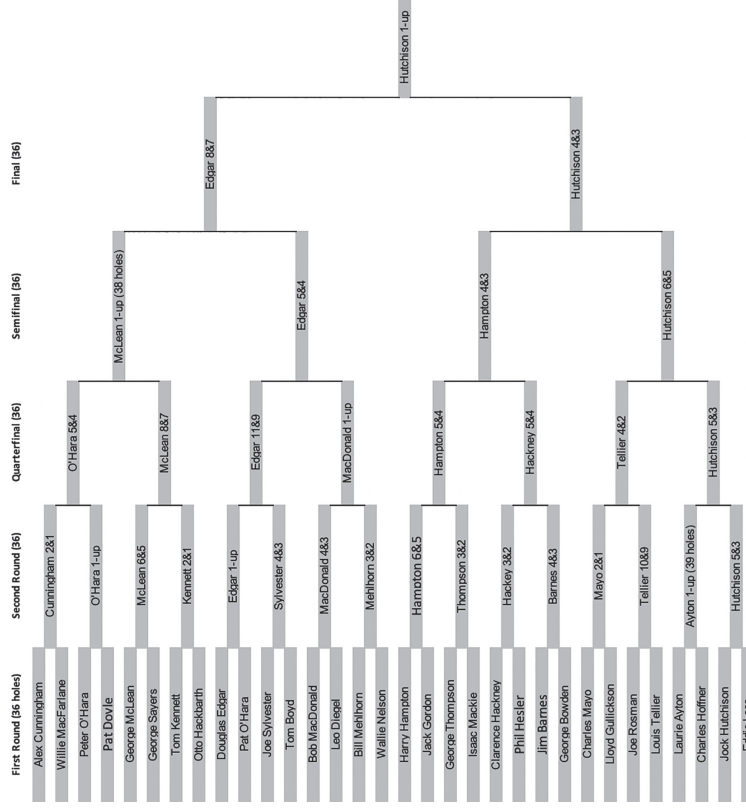

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1920

Champion: Jock Hutchison

Site: Flossmoor Country Club, Chicago, Illinois
Date: Aug. 17-21
Purse: $2,380
Field: 32

Jock Hutchison, runner-up in the inaugural PGA Championship, only got a berth in 1920 because George Fotheringham and Arthur Clarkson were unable to attend. He responded in typical form, cruising through four matches at Flossmoor Country Club before facing Douglas Edgar in the final. In the semifinal, Hutchison posted a 4-and-3 win over Harry Hampton thanks to a brilliant start and a couple of stymies. In the other semifinal, Edgar routed George McLean, 8 and 6. Edgar opened the final match with a two-hole advantage, but Hutchison rallied to go 1-up after the morning holes to play, he was 1-up but again hit a bad tee shot into the rough, followed by a wonderful shot to the green to earn a par 4. Edgar reached the green in regulation, only to three-putt, missing a five-footer. Owning a 2-up advantage on the 17th tee, Hutchison lost the hole on a stymie, but won the match when the pair halved the 18th with fines, Edgar hitting his approach into a bunker and unable to get up and down. The Championship featured a second-round upset of two-time defending Champion Jim Barnes, who saw an 11-match win streak snapped, 5 and 4, by Clarence Hackley.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1919

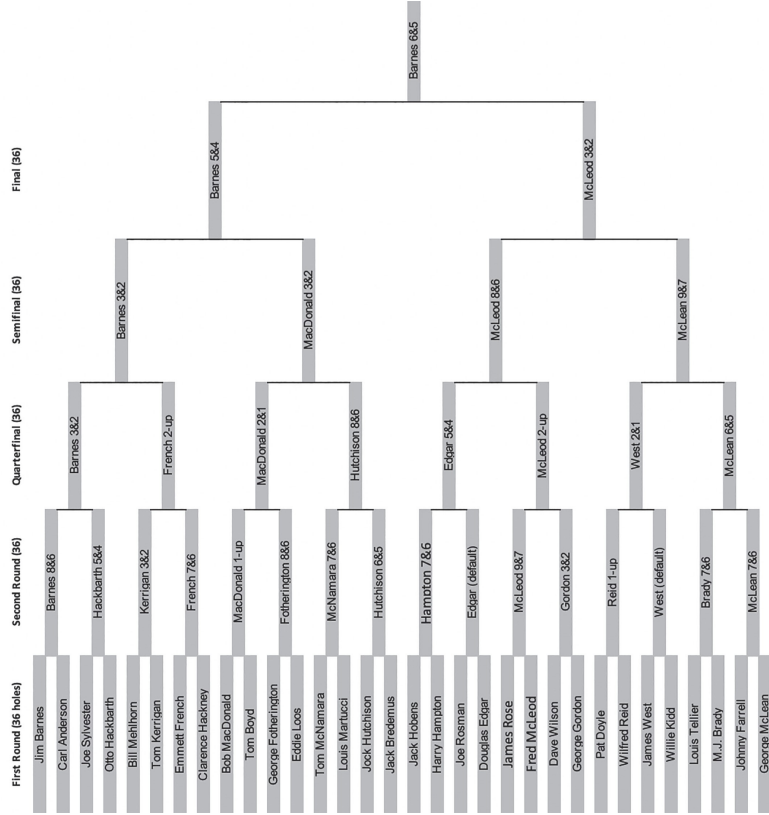

Champion: Jim Barnes

The PGA Championship resumed after a two-year break due to World War I, and the finale at Engineers Country Club in Roslyn, N.Y., was similar to 1916, featuring an Englishman and a Scot in the showcase twosome, Fred McLeod, at 5-foot-3, the smallest man in the field, faced the tallest in the championship, Jim Barnes, a tanky 6-3. McLeod enjoyed a 1-up lead after the front nine and won the 10th hole. But his approach to the 11th was a bit strong and he missed an 18-inch putt. Unmolested, McLeod lost six of the remaining seven holes to end the first the two tallest players in the Championship: Barnes won on the 34th green, 3 and 2, after superior putting. Jack Hutchison, runner-up in 1916, fell to Bob McDonald in the quarterfinals, 3 and 2. In other matches, Barnes defeated Emmet French, 3 and 2; McLean, 1908 U.S. Open winner from Carnoustie, Scotland, enjoyed an 8 and 6 victory over Douglas Edgar.

PGA CHAMPIONSHIP 1916

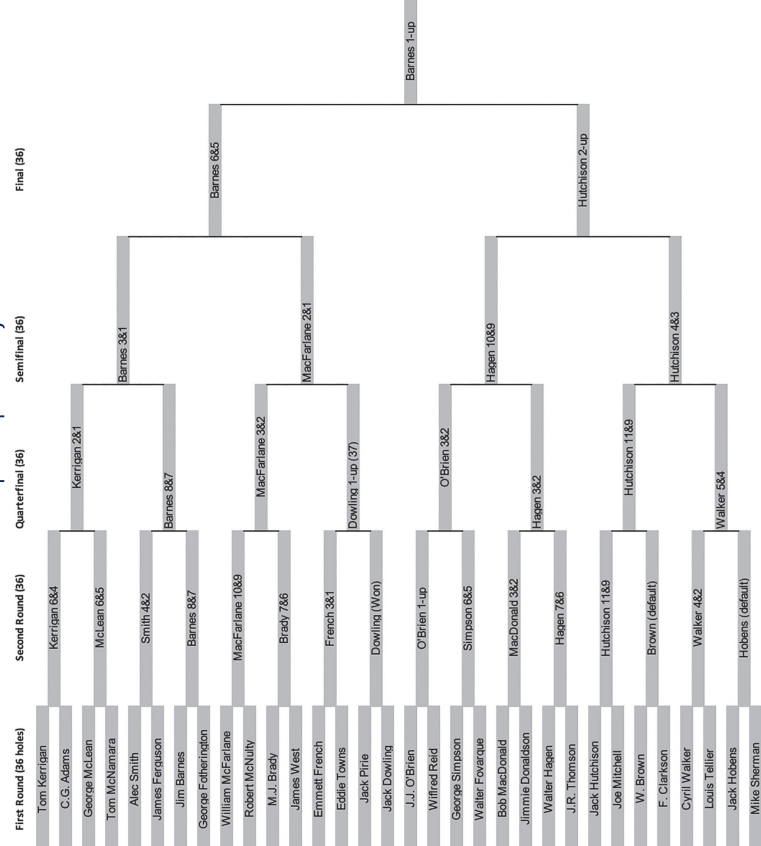

Champion: Jim Barnes

Three British-born golfers and one American reached the semifinals of the inaugural PGA Championship at Swansy Country Club in Bronxville, New York. America's hopes rested upon Walter Hagen, a PGA of America Charter Member who hailed St. Andrews native Jack Hutchison in one match while Jim Barnes, a native of Cornwall, England, met Willie MacFarlane, formerly of Aberdeen, Scotland, in 18 holes. After a break, the match resumed with Barnes telling the crowd before his drive on the first hole, "I always do better after lunch." Indeed, Barnes squared the match at the 21st hole and took the lead for the first time at the 25th hole with an 18-foot putt. The 27th hole was halved to go 2-up. Hutchison rallied with a 15-foot birdie at the next hole, won the 31st, and took a 1-up lead at the 33rd hole. The 34th hole was halved in four, but Hutchison missed a five-footer on the next to square the match. On the final green, both players had five-footers for fours and, after a measurement, it was decided that Hutchison was out. Hutchison missed the putt and Barnes made his, winning 1-up. "Long Jim" won $500 along with a gold medal that included a diamond. In a rarity, Hutchison also received a gold medal without an embedded diamond and $250. Swansy Head Professional Thomas Kerrigan had the distinction of being the first player to hit a shot in the PGA Championship, enroute to a 6 and 4 victory over Charles Adams.
