Stuart Macdonald took sole possession of the 54-hole lead after turning in his best round of the week, a 7-under 65 in the third round of the Diners Club Peru Open at Los Inkas Golf Club.

After making par on Nos. 1-2, Macdonald took advantage of the 509-yard par 5 third and converted for eagle. After a par on No. 4, Macdonald birdied Nos. 5-7 to get to 5-under entering the back-nine. Macdonald did not make a bogey on the front-nine, and only made bogey once in the third round.

In six starts on PGA TOUR Canada in 2023, Macdonald's consistency stood out. Macdonald finished with three top-20 finishes and only missed the cut once. Macdonald's best finish came at the 2023 Commissionaires Ottawa Open, where he defeated Devon Bling and Luke Schniederjans in a playoff to claim his first victory as a professional. Macdonald picked up a second top-5 finish after finishing T2 at the 2023 Windsor Championship.

Prior to turning professional in 2017, the Vancouver native starred at Purdue University from 2012-2016. Macdonald ended his career with the 14th best scoring average in Purdue program history and finished fourth on the team in top-10's his senior year with four.

Third round play finished at 4:30 p.m. CT. Final round tee times will start Sunday off the No. 1 tee at 8:09 a.m. CT, with the final group teeing off at 12:10 p.m. CT.
