Players to Watch

- Matthew Anderson (Canada) – Enters the week No. 1 in the Fortinet Cup; has been the top-ranked player in the standings since winning the 69th ECP Brazil Open
- Ricardo Celia (Colombia) - Gained entry into this week's field via a top-10 finish at the KIA Open; played on a sponsor exemption in Quito and finished tied for third
- Sandy Scott (Scotland) - Has made the cut in all five appearances this season; finished third at the 2023 PGA TOUR Latinoamérica Inter Rapidísimo Golf Championship
- Thomas Longbella (United States) - Currently No. 4 in the Fortinet Cup with three top-25s this season, highlighted by his win at the KIA Open
- Julián Etulain (Argentina) - Finished T6 at the 2023 PGA TOUR Latinoamérica Inter Rapidísimo Golf Championship; has two top-three finishes this season
- Stuart Macdonald (Canada) – Captured his second career victory at the Diners Club Peru Open and became the first Canadian to win the event since it became a PGA TOUR-sanctioned event in 2012
- Jason Hong (Australia) - Claimed his first professional victory in Colombia last week at the Fourth Stop of the KIA Colombian Professional Tour presented by Montezul Golf Club
- Jeremy Gandon (France) - Has notched three top-10 finishes in his last three tournaments; finished T10 at the 2023 PGA TOUR Latinoamérica Inter Rapidísimo Golf Championship

Tournament History

Club El Rincón de Cajicá hosted the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica Inter Rapidísimo Golf Championship two times (2022, 2023). Past champions of the PGA TOUR Latinoamérica event include current Korn Ferry Tour members Cristobal del Solar (2022) and Myles Creighton (2023). This week's field includes six players who finished inside the top 10 in 2023: Sandy Scott (3rd), Linus Lilliedahl (4th), Julián Etulain (T6), Daniel Hudson (T6), Luis Gerardo Garza (T6), George Toone (T6) and Jeremy Gandon (T10).

Projections

Each player in the field has a chance to finish in the top 60 and gain exempt membership into the North America Swing. Projected Fortinet Cup standings will be updated daily, based on the leaderboard at the conclusion of each day.

- Every player in the field has a chance to finish in the top 60 at the end of the Latin America Swing, and earn exempt membership for Segment II
 - Current 60th = Jimmy Jones/68.233 pts (solo 11th or better)
- Every player in the field has a chance to finish in the top 80 at the end of the Latin America Swing, and earn conditional membership for Segment II
 - Current 80th = Ryan Burnett/50.214 pts (solo 17th)
- No. 1-ranked Matthew Anderson needs a two-way T2 or better to guarantee himself a top-two finish
- Players 28th or better have a mathematical chance of finishing top 2 at the end of the Latin America Swing
- With a victory, each of the top 7 players is mathematically guaranteed a top-two finish
