INTRODUCTION and QUICK FACTS

Mission

By showcasing golf's greatest players, we engage, inspire and positively impact our fans, partners and communities worldwide.

Headquarters

Commissioner

Jay Monahan (since January 2, 2017)

Overview

The PGA TOUR is the world's premier membership organization for touring professional golfers, co-sanctioning tournaments on the PGA TOUR, PGA TOUR Champions, Korn Ferry Tour and PGA TOUR Americas.

The modern-day PGA TOUR was formed in 1968 when a subset of touring professionals broke away from the PGA of America.

Eligibility and membership

Each PGA TOUR player has earned a position on the priority-ranking system that is used to select full-field open tournaments. PGA TOUR members hail from around the globe. For the 2024 season, there are 86 active international members from 28 countries and territories outside the United States.

Impact

Through the world of golf, the PGA TOUR, backed by its network of volunteers, drives positive impact at unprecedented levels to support and improve local communities. The PGA TOUR and its tournaments have donated more than $3.93 billion to date to support local organizations.

PGA TOUR schedule

The PGA TOUR returned to a calendar-year schedule in 2024, with the race for the FedExCup contested from January through August, culminating with the FedExCup Playoffs and the crowning of the FedExCup Champion. The FedExCup Fall, contested after the Playoffs, finalizes the top 125 and additional playing opportunities for the following season. There are 36 events during the FedExCup Regular Season and three in the FedExCup Playoffs. The number of events in the 2024 FedExCup Fall is to be determined (seven in 2023).

FedExCup and the FedExCup Playoffs

The 2024 PGA TOUR Season marks the 18th edition of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition offering a bonus pool of $100 million. TOUR members earn FedExCup points based on their finish at each tournament, with an emphasis placed on wins and high finishes. The top 70 players in the FedExCup at the completion of the Wyndham Championship advance to the FedExCup Playoffs, a series of three events that feature a progressive cut. The first two FedExCup Playoffs events offer 2,000 points to the winner, while the last tournament of the Playoffs, the TOUR Championship, features a strokes-based system (FedExCup Starting Strokes). The player with the lowest total score will win the FedExCup, be credited with an official victory in the TOUR Championship and earn a bonus of $25 million.

FEDEXCUP OVERVIEW

INTRO

The 2024 PGA TOUR Season marks the 18th edition of the FedExCup and the return to a calendar-year schedule (for the first time since 2012). The FedExCup is a season-long points competition which culminates with the FedExCup Playoffs, a series of three events to determine the FedExCup Champion. The top 70 players in the FedExCup standings are eligible for the FedExCup Playoffs with the three events featuring a progressive cut with fields of 70 (FedEx St. Jude Championship), 50 (BMW Championship) and 30 (TOUR Championship). The FedExCup Playoffs finale, the TOUR Championship, features FedExCup Starting Strokes, a staggered, strokes-based system which represents the FedExCup standings through the BMW Championship, recognizing players for their Regular Season performance, as well as their play in the first two FedExCup Playoffs events. The total bonus pool for the FedExCup Playoffs is $100 million, with the FedExCup Champion earning $25 million. The top 50 players in the FedExCup standings are fully exempt for the following season, including THE PLAYERS Championship and all eight Signature Events. Nos. 51-70 in the FedExCup standings are fully exempt, including THE PLAYERS Championship. Top 125 eligibility for the remainder of players is finalized during the FedExCup Fall.

OVERVIEW

Established in 2007, the FedExCup is a season-long points competition offering $100 million in Bonus Money and culminating with the FedExCup Playoffs in August. Players vie to become the FedExCup Champion, which distinguishes the one player who not only performs well during the FedExCup Regular Season, but also excels through the pressure of the FedExCup Playoffs. Players to hoist the FedExCup trophy include Tiger Woods (2007 and 2009), Vijay Singh (2008), Jim Furyk (2010), Bill Haas (2011), Brandt Snedeker (2012), Henrik Stenson (2013), Billy Horschel (2014), Jordan Spieth (2015), Rory McIlroy (2016, 2019 and 2022), Justin Thomas (2017), Justin Rose (2018), Dustin Johnson (2020), Patrick Cantlay (2021), Viktor Hovland (2023) and Scottie Scheffler (2024).

FEDEXCUP REGULAR SEASON

Contested from January to August, the 2024 FedExCup Regular Season features 36 official FedExCup events, including THE PLAYERS Championship, major championships, Signature Events, Full-Field Events and Additional Events. TOUR members earn FedExCup points based on their finish at each tournament, with an emphasis placed on wins and high finishes. FedExCup points distribution has been adjusted for 2024, with allocation of additional points to THE PLAYERS, majors and Signature Events. The new system maintains the value of Full-Field Events, further incentivizes top performers to participate in Signature Events and adds more weight to the points distributed to the top-10 finishers in the strongest fields. There are a total of 15 events that award 700 or more FedExCup points to the winner: THE PLAYERS Championship and majors (5), FedExCup Playoffs events (2) and Signature Events (8). Points are distributed to those in tying positions using the same method currently used to distribute prize money when there is a tie. That is, the total points for each tying position will be averaged and that average will be distributed to each player in the tying position.

- 750 points to winners of THE PLAYERS Championship and majors (previously 600)
- 700 points to winners of Signature Events (previously 500 or 550)
- 500 points to winners of Full-Field Events (the Zurich Classic of New Orleans, a two-man team event, awards 400 points to each player on the first-place team)
- 300 points to winners of Additional Events
- 2,000 points to winners of the first two FedExCup Playoffs events

FEDEXCUP PLAYOFFS

At the conclusion of the Regular Season (following the Wyndham Championship), the top 70 players in the FedExCup standings are eligible to play in the FedExCup

Playoffs, a series of three events (prior to 2019, the FedExCup Playoffs included four events). Points earned during the FedExCup Regular Season carry over to the first two Playoffs events. Players compete in the FedExCup Playoffs for their share of the $100 million total in Bonus Money, with the FedExCup Playoffs for their share home $25 million. The FedExCup Playoffs feature a progressive cut, with fields of 70 for the FedEx St. Jude Championship (TPC Southwind, Memphis, Tennessee), 50 for the BMW Championship (Castle Pines Golf Club, Castle Rock, Colorado) and 30 for the TOUR Championship (East Lake Golf Club, Atlanta, Georgia), where the FedExCup Champion will be determined. In the event an eligible player is unable or chooses not to play, the field will be shortened and no alternates will be added. There are no cuts in FedExCup Playoffs events. The first two Playoffs events award 2,000 points to the winner (quadruple points of Regular Season events), while the Playoffs Finale, the TOUR Championship, features a strokes-based system (FedExCup Starting Strokes) instituted for the first time in 2019.

TOUR Championship and FedExCup Starting Strokes

At the TOUR Championship, the player with the lowest stroke total over 72 holes when combined with his FedExCup Starting Strokes will be crowned the FedExCup Champion, be credited with an official victory at the TOUR Championship, earn a bonus of $25 million and a five-year PGA TOUR exemption.

No. 3	-7	Nos. 16-20	-
No. 4	-6	Nos. 21-25	-

In the event there are tied players at any position going into the TOUR Championship, tied players will be awarded the same number of Starting Strokes for round one. For example, if two players are tied for second position, both players would start at 8-under and the No. 4 player would start at 6-under. Any professional that is qualified for the TOUR Championship but unable to participate will not be awarded Starting Strokes and Starting Stroke positions for the remaining players will not be reallocated. Any professional who is unable to play, is disqualified or withdraws for any reason will finish in last position for the TOUR Championship.

OTHER NOTE

FedExCup points are distributed to players earning Official Money. Only players who are PGA TOUR members or become members during the season will be listed on the FedExCup standings. Special Temporary Members and non-members who make the cut in PGA TOUR events do not appear on the FedExCup standings, but are tracked in the non-member FedExCup standings. Amateurs are not eligible to earn FedExCup points. Points won by non-members and Special Temporary Members who subsequently become PGA TOUR members during the season are counted in the FedExCup standings, along with any FedExCup points earned as a non-member (excluding those won as a non-member at the Additional Events played the same week as the Genesis Scottish Open and The Open Championship).

FEDEXCUP FALL

Beginning in September, the FedExCup Fall features eight tournaments to finalize the top 125 and additional playing opportunities for the following FedExCup season. All players ranked No. 51 and beyond carry their FedExCup points over from the Regular Season and first Playoffs event (FedEx St. Jude Championship) and continue to accumulate FedExCup points through the FedExCup Fall to finalize eligibility for the 2024 season. Nos. 51-60 in the FedExCup standings through the FedExCup Fall qualify for two Signature Events the following season (the first two played after The Sentry) via the Aon Next 10.

PGA TOUR STRUCTURAL CHANGES: OVERVIEW

INTRODUCTION

The 2023 portion of the 2022-23 FedExCup Season will include the first significant changes in the TOUR's reimagined schedule. This document outlines those changes, introduces the nomenclature unique to the new structure and looks ahead to 2024 and beyond. Items of note include:

- 1. Calendar-based schedule starting in 2024
- 2. Designated events
- 3. FedExCup Playoffs structure
- 4. Qualifying School and other pathways to the PGA TOUR

NOTE: This document is subject to change and will be updated as additional details are finalized.

OVERVIEW OF INTERNAL MESSAGING

- A new approach and reimagined schedule is a massive win for golf fans and will unlock additional value for all tournaments and partners. The PGA TOUR is the preeminent, most pro-competitive tour in the world, where players know — and fans appreciate — to be the best, you have to beat the best, over the course of an entire season.
- The reimagined schedule showcases the very best product to the world on a week-to-week basis, where every tournament matters. The schedule ensures that the biggest moments in golf will continue to be created on the PGA TOUR, and with more frequency than ever before.
- · Top players have pledged unprecedented support of the TOUR and its events. They have made the commitment to ensure each and every tournament has a combination of star power and depth, along with a season-long FedExCup race in place that is ultimately more exciting and easily understood.

STRUCTURAL DETAILS

- The 2022-23 PGA TOUR Season began with the 2022 Napa Valley Golf Championship in September and will continue through the FedExCup Playoffs in August 2023, with eligibility for the 2024 PGA TOUR Season determined after the 2023 fall events.
- The PGA TOUR will then transition back to a calendar-year schedule, when the FedExCup will be contested from January to August, with 2024 being the first full year of this new system (note: the PGA TOUR schedule was calendar-year based until 2013 when the first wraparound FedExCup season was introduced, beginning with the 2013-14 season).
- The 2022-23 PGA TOUR Season includes 44 Regular Season events and three FedExCup Playoffs events, followed by a number of 2023 fall events.
- In preparation for the calendar-based season in 2024, several changes to the TOUR's structure will be implemented in 2023:
 - 2023 features the introduction of 17 designated events with elevated purses and commitments from the PGA TOUR's top players.
 - Revised qualification criteria for the FedExCup Playoffs: the top 70 players at the FedEx St. Jude Championship (previously 125), top 50 players at the BMW Championship (previously 70) and top 30 players at the TOUR Championship. The top 70 players who qualify for the FedExCup Playoffs will be fully exempt for the following season.
 - Following the FedExCup Playoffs, the fall events will finalize the top-125 eligibility for the next FedExCup season (which begins in January). The top-125 will be based on accumulated FedExCup points from the Regular Season and the fall events. Additional information on the fall events will be announced when available.
 - · Five cards and ties to the PGA TOUR will be reintroduced at the Qualifying Tournament held at the end of the year. The Qualifying Tournament will also continue to determine eligibility for the Korn Ferry Tour.
 - The Korn Ferry Tour will award 30 cards at the end of the 2023 Regular Season for the 2024 PGA TOUR Season.
 - The Korn Ferry Tour Finals system will be eliminated. Instead, the "Korn Ferry Tour Finals" will refer to the final four events on the Korn Ferry Tour that have increased points and purses.
 - Starting with the 2023 DP World Tour season, the top-10 players from the DP World Tour Rankings (not otherwise exempt) will earn PGA TOUR cards for the following PGA TOUR season.

Will the top players compete in tournaments that are not designated events?

In addition to the designated events for which they are eligible, players awarded bonus money through the Player Impact Program in 2022 are required to compete in a minimum of three standard FedExCup events during the 2022-23 season. One tournament played during the fall portion of 2022 or 2023 counts towards that minimum.

In 2023, only players who are receiving bonus money through the Player Impact Program have specific playing requirements in designated events.

Are the field sizes different for designated events?

PGA TOUR STRUCTURAL CHANGES: FAQ

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (2/2)

Has the FedExCup points structure changed?

The only event with a change from the 2021-22 season to the 2022-23 season is the Sentry Tournament of Champions, which awards 550 points to the winner (up from 500 in 2022). The first two FedExCup Playoffs events (FedEx St. Jude Championship and BMW Championship) continue to award 2,000 points to the winner, while the TOUR Championship uses FedExCup Starting Strokes. The four majors and THE PLAYERS remain at 600 points for the winner. Events at which the winner receives 550 points are (chronologically): Sentry Tournament of Champions, The Genesis Invitational, Arnold Palmer Invitational, WGC-Dell Technologies Match Play and the Memorial Tournament. The winner of additional events (Puerto Rico Open, Corales Puntacana Championship, Barracuda Championship and Barbasol Championship) receives 300 points and winners of all other events receive 500 points (except at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans, where the winning pair splits 800 points).

What else comes with winning a designated event aside from points and money?

There are no changes to the benefits of winning a designated event. As previously announced, the winner will receive a TOUR exemption of five seasons (for a major or PLAYERS), three seasons (for a WGC or player-hosted invitational including The Genesis Invitational, Arnold Palmer Invitational and the Memorial Tournament) and two seasons for all other events. Note: Since 2021-22, all players who qualify for the TOUR Championship earn a two-season PGA TOUR exemption. This is not in addition to a winner's exemption but would impact a player who does not have additional status in the second year following his qualification for the TOUR Championship. Note: The FedExCup Champion receives a five-year winner's exemption on the PGA TOUR.

Who qualifies for the Sentry Tournament of Champions?

In addition to winners of official FedExCup events during the 2022 calendar year, players who did not win but who finished in the top 30 of the 2022 FedExCup Playoffs and Eligibility Points List (through September 4, 2022) are eligible for the Sentry Tournament of Champions (please note: this is not the same list as qualifiers for the 2022 TOUR Championship).

Are there open qualifiers for designated events?

There are no changes to the open qualifying process for designated events in 2023. Open qualifying will be held for the WM Phoenix Open (3 spots), Wells Fargo Championship (4) and Travelers Championship (4).

Do players still need to compete in one new tournament if they do not play in a minimum 25 events?

Yes, but the players receiving bonus money through the Player Impact Program are not subject to this requirement because of their commitment to play in the designated events and not less than three standard FedExCup events.

SECTION 1: INTRODUCTION

FEDEXCUP OVERVIEW

Established in 2007, the FedExCup is a season-long points competition to determine the FedExCup Champion. The 2022-23 PGA TOUR Season includes 44 FedExCup Regular Season events and three FedExCup Playoffs events, and the FedExCup offers $75 million in bonus money. The winner of the TOUR Championship, the final FedExCup Playoffs event, is crowned FedExCup Champion.

PGA TOUR members earn FedExCup points based on their results in each FedExCup event throughout the season with an emphasis placed on wins and high finishes. The FedExCup standings change from week to week, and the top 70 players after the final Regular Season event, the Wyndham Championship, qualify for the FedExCup Playoffs, beginning at the FedEx St. Jude Championship.

The top 50 players in the FedExCup standings after the FedEx St. Jude Championship qualify for the BMW Championship, after which the top 30 advance to the TOUR Championship, FedExCup Starting Strokes are used at the TOUR Championship based on the standings after the BMW Championship, and the player with the lowest 72-hole total combined with FedExCup Starting Strokes will be crowned the FedExCup Champion. The FedExCup Champion is credited with an official victory (TOUR Championship), collects a bonus of $18 million and earns a five-year PGA TOUR exemption.

PGA TOUR HISTORY

Certainly, professionals have competed against each other from the earliest days of the game in the United States.

In 1895, 10 professional golfers and one amateur played in the first U.S. Open in Newport, Rhode Island, Shortly thereafter, tournaments began to pop up across the country, including the Western Open in 1899. But this was not "tour" golf. The events lacked continuity.

Interest in the game, however, continued to grow. American professionals were rapidly improving. When John McDermott became the first American-born player to win the U.S. Open in 1911, interest in the game blossomed. That interest became enthusiasm in 1913 when Englishmen Harry Vardon and Ted Ray, the world's best players, came to the United States to play an exhibition tour and compete in the U.S. Open. When 20-year-old amateur Francis Ouimet defeated the pair in a playoff at Brookline, Massachusetts, golf became front-page news and a game for everyone.

In the early 1920s, a series of tournaments was held on the West Coast, in Texas and Florida. These events were held in the winter, and the golfers played their way east and up to Pinehurst, North Carolina, in the spring, By the middle of the decade, the tour was doing relatively well—offering $77,000 in total prize

The first "playing professionals" organization was formed in 1932. Two years earlier, Bob Harlow had been named manager of the PGA Tournament Bureau. The tour became more structured following World War II and grew rapidly in the late 1950s and early 1960s. When the combination of Arnold Palmer, televised golf and President Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived on the scene in the late 1950s, the eyes of the world were on golf. This exposure inspired millions to try the game and made superstars of golf's greats like Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

Most golf historians trace the "formal" beginning of the PGA TOUR to late 1968, when the "Tournament Players Division" split from the PGA of America and hired Joe Dey as its first commissioner. That organization became the modern-day PGA TOUR. Dey served from early 1969 through February 28, 1974, and was succeeded by four-time PGA TOUR winner Deane R. Beman on March 1, 1974.

During Beman's administration, the value of tournament purses escalated at an unprecedented rate. PGA TOUR assets grew from $730,000 in 1974 to more than $200 million, and total revenues increased from $3.9 million to $229 million in 1993. The TOUR also moved its headquarters from Washington, D.C., to Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida, where in 1980, it introduced the era of stadium golf with the opening of TPC Sawgrass, which would become the permanent home of THE PLAYERS Championship in 1982.

Tim Finchem became the TOUR's third commissioner, on June 1, 1994 and served through December 31, 2016. During his 22 years in office, Finchem was instrumental in expanding the TOUR's international footprint, growing earnings opportunities for PGA TOUR members and introducing events such as the Presidents Cup (1994), the World Golf Championships (1999) and the season-long FedExCup race (2007). Charity was also a significant focus of Finchem's tenure as commissioner. In January 2014, the TOUR and its tournaments reached the $2-billion milestone in charitable contributions, with $1 billion of that total raised since 2006.

Jay Monahan took office as the fourth commissioner of the PGA TOUR on January 1, 2017. Monahan joined the PGA TOUR in 2008 as Executive Director of THE PLAYERS Championship, and prior to being appointed commissioner, ascended to the position of Deputy Commissioner on April 1, 2014, with Chief Operating Officer added to his title on April 1, 2016.

The competitive scope of the PGA TOUR is also much broader today. The PGA TOUR schedule has continued to expand both domestically and internationally, and the season-long FedExCup competition enters its 15th season in 2020-21, having crowned golf's top players including Tiger Woods (2007 and 2009), Jordan Spieth (2015), Rory McIlroy (2016, 2019), Justin Thomas (2017) and most recently, Dustin Johnson in 2020. For the first time since 1904, golf took part in the Summer Olympics Games with its return celebrated in Rio in 2016. And in addition to PGA TOUR Champions and the Korn Ferry Tour, the TOUR has increased playing opportunities across all levels globally with three international Tours - PGA TOUR Latinoamérica, Mackenzie Tour-PGA TOUR Canada and PGA TOUR Series-China – and in June 2020, the TOUR launched PGA TOUR University, a program designed to create a pathway for the top four-year NCAA golfers into the professional ranks.

Like the rest of the world, the golf industry was thrown off its axis with the arrival of the COVID-19 global pandemic in the early months of 2020. Following a 12-week hiatus, with cancellations and postponements across all Tours, the PGA TOUR championed the Return to Golf, and on June 11, 2020, the TOUR became one of the first sports leagues to return to competition with the opening tee shots at the Charles Schwab Challenge in Fort Worth, Texas. Working with leading golf organizations, and with its title sponsors, host organizations and media partners, the PGA TOUR announced a reimagined schedule, which saw the completion of the 2019-20 FedExCup Season, and set up the 2020-21 campaign, of which would become a super season of 50 events, with more significant events than ever before - including two playings of the U.S. Open and Masters Tournament, as well as the Olympic Games.
