Sponsor

The Salesmanship Club of Dallas, in partnership with Salesmanship Club Charitable Golf of Dallas, is in its 42nd year as Championship sponsor. In 2008, HP acquired EDS and assumed the title sponsorship of the tournament. Through the Championship, the Salesmanship Club has raised over $107 million, more than any other PGA TOUR event.

Charity

Net proceeds from our tournament support the work of Salesmanship Club Youth and Family Centers, a nonprofit organization with a three-part mission:

- THERAPY with troubled kids and families
- EDUCATION with at-risk kids and families
- · SHARING what we learn

Funds raised at the HP Byron Nelson Championship enable SCYFC to serve more than 7,000 children and family members each year and ensure that families are never turned away from these vital services because of inability to pay.

Byron Nelson

In 1945, Byron Nelson accomplished an incredible winning streak. He finished that year with 18 victories, including 11 straight, and established a record for lowest scoring average (68.33), which remained untouched for 55 years.

During his career, Byron Nelson won 52 PGA TOUR-sanctioned tournaments, including the 1939 U.S. Open, the 1937 and 1942 Masters, and the 1940 and 1945 PGA Championships. In 1968, Byron Nelson lent his name to the Byron Nelson Golf Classic, and the result was a long and successful partnership.

In 2006, Byron was awarded the Congressional Gold Medal posthumously for his humanitarian efforts. He passed away in September, 2006.

In 2007, the Salesmanship Club announced the creation of two special awards to honor Byron's legacy. The Byron Nelson Prize recognizes an individual in the golf world who embodies Byron's character and committment to giving back. Tom Lehman was the first recipient of the Byron Nelson Prize in 2007 and Ken Venturi was honored in 2008.

The Byron Nelson International Junior Golf Awards were awarded for the first time at the 2008 Championship. The Awards were created to continue Byron Nelson's legacy of encouraging and mentoring young golfers. Through this awards program, exceptional junior golfers from around the world with strong character, academics and committment to community are identified anmd are invited to the Championship each year.

Media credentials will be issued only to personnel on assignment from recognized golf or legitimate news Internet sites or other non-television video media services, as determined by PGA TOUR in its sole discretion. Coverage obtained in accordance with these regulations can only be used on the Authorized Outlet. Individuals representing multiple interests (such as a recognized golf magazine and an Internet site) must agree to be bound by all applicable media regulations. PGA TOUR retains exclusive media rights (including but not limited to network, cable, Internet, home video, Internet protocol television, mobile) to all events on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. No audio or video coverage of the event competition is permitted without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR. All other audio and video coverage must comply with the regulations below. Scores and statistics may be distributed only in accordance with these regulations.

- 1. Each credential issued pursuant to PGA TOUR Media Regulations operates as PGA TOUR authorization allowing only the holder of such credential and the Authorized Outlet therefor to use certain information gathered pursuant to the credential (including photographs, videotape, etc.). Please note that unless authorized to do by a separate written PGA TOUR authorization, credentialed individuals and Authorized Outlets therefor may sell or distribute such information only as part of the editorial product delivered to end users and not to other organizations or as part of a separate commercial product; provided, however, this credential restriction does not apply to credentialed media representing established wire and news services whose normal business is to distribute information to other news organizations so that such other news organizations may distribute the information to various print and broadcast media organizations to use the information for editorial product as though they generated such information
- 2. Each credential authorizes the holder of such credential and the Authorized Outlet therefor to use the trademark of the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour (as applicable) in the news and editorial coverage of such Tour and the applicable tournament. It does not authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of such trademarks in non-editorial contexts as non-editorial use of such trademarks requires a separate license from the PGA TOUR. Nor does it authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of the tournament trademarks, which trademark use requires authorization from the applicable tournament.
- 3. Coverage must not purport to be live, play-by-play, hole-by-hole or real-time coverage from the course.
- 4. Audio and video coverage shall be limited to the press room, media center and designated interview area (including any flash photography area by the 18th green), all as determined by PGA TOUR in its sole discretion, and shall not contain video footage or audio call of tournament play. Requests for expanded coverage must be submitted in writing to PGA TOUR for PGA TOUR's prior approval.
- 5. Audio or video coverage from PGA TOUR designated areas shall not be in excess of two minutes per day from each Tour (and four minutes total for all three Tours).
- 6. Audio and video coverage shall not be made available on the Authorized Outlet until that day's live or tape-delayed coverage by the television network is concluded and shall not be used for any purpose after 24 hours following the conclusion of the applicable round. Under no circumstances shall live audio or video coverage be made available on the Internet.
- 7. As the exclusive rights holder, PGA TOUR is the absolute owner of all video footage shot and audio recorded at the tournament site (golf action or other footage) during the entire tournament week (i.e., Monday through Sunday or the conclusion of the tournament, if later than Sunday) and may request copies of any footage shot or audio recorded at PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events. Such footage and audio will be provided electronically to PGA TOUR immediately upon request.
- 8. Scoring and statistical information may only appear in the editorial news portion of the Authorized Outlet and may be provided no sooner than 30 minutes after the actual occurrence of the - shots, or after the time such information is legally available as public information if sooner than 30 minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots. Scoring and statistical information may not be archived on the Authorized Outlet and cannot be used for any purpose after 24 hours following the conclusion of the applicable round unless such information is legally available as public information.
- 9. No coverage, including, without limitation, scoring information, statistical information, video coverage and audio coverage may be used by, sold, given, distributed or otherwise transferred to any party other than the Authorized Outlet in any manner whatsoever, without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR.
- 10. Photographic images of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour players may be used on the Authorized Outlet for legitimate news coverage only, and may be used together with news stories during the day's play, so long as such photographs are not used with other real-time or near-real-time information or sequenced to create a "shot-by-shot" or "hole-by-hole" account of the day's play. Commercial exploitation of these images without written consent of the players and PGA TOUR is prohibited. Requests for use of such images to promote the PGA TOUR shall be considered by PGA TOUR on a case by case basis. Where appropriate, the Authorized Outlet shall use reasonable efforts to use photographic likenesses of players and tournament courses containing current sponsors and endorsers. Photo galleries and/or collections may not be used for any purpose after 48 hours from the conclusion of the applicable tournament.

11. The Authorized Outlet has rights only with respect to website media and other TOUR approved non-television video media and has no rights with respect to any other media without the prior approval of the PGA TOUR.

HOW WE BECAME WHO WE ARE

A Great Time. A Greater Cause.

THE 2009 HP BYRON NELSON CHAMPIONSHIP IS THE 56TH EVENT IN A SERIES OF DALLAS-BASED PROFESSIONAL GOLF TOURNAMENTS DATING BACK TO 1944. THIS YEAR'S CHAMPIONSHIP MARKS THE 42ND YEAR THE EVENT HAS HAD BYRON NELSON'S NAME ASSOCIATED WITH IT.

The TPC Four Seasons Resort Las Colinas has served as the host site of the Championship since 1983.

he sponsor of the 2009 HP Byron Nelson Championship is the Salesmanship Club of Dallas in partnership with Salesmanship Club Charitable Golf of Dallas. The Salesmanship Club of Dallas orginated the series in 1944, holding an annual tournament for three years.

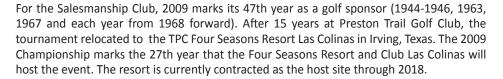

After a 10-year lapse in the local series, James J. Ling brought professional golf back to Dallas in 1956. Although Northwood Club held the U.S. Open in 1952, Oak Cliff Country Club assumed sponsorship of the tournament that evolved into what is now the HP Byron Nelson Championship.

Oak Cliff Country Club continued to host the tournament, referred to then as the Dallas Open, until 1966, with only two interruptions during its 10-year sponsorship.

There was no Dallas Open held in 1963, the same year the PGA Championship came to North Texas. That year's final major championship was held at the Dallas Athletic Club with the Salesmanship Club as its local sponsor. Additionally, there was no Dallas Open in 1965 in order to move the event from fall to spring on the PGA TOUR schedule.

After the 1966 tournament, Oak Cliff Country Club returned the sponsor's role to the Salesmanship Club, which staged the 1967 event at the Oak Cliff location in accordance with the transfer agreement.

The Salesmanship Club began a new era for the tournament in 1968 by renaming it the Byron Nelson Golf Classic, moving it to Preston Trail Golf Club and making the host club a joint sponsor of the event.

When GTE became the event's first title sponsor in 1988, the tournament's name changed to the GTE Byron Nelson Classic. In the summer of 2000, GTE merged with Bell Atlantic to form Verizon Communications, requiring the tournament's name to change again.

In 2003, the Salesmanship Club secured the future of the tournament by signing a new agreement with Plano-based company EDS. With the change to a new title sponsor in 2003, tournament officials decided to change the tournament name from Classic to Championship. In 2008, HP acquired EDS and assumed title sponsorship, changing the tournament name to the HP Byron Nelson Championship.

In 2006, we lost our dear friend and tournament namesake, Byron Nelson. The Championship is proud to carry on his legacy of helping children and families through its support of Salesmanship Club Youth and Family Centers.

In 1968, Byron Nelson agreed to lend his name to the Dallas tournament, becoming the first player to have a PGA TOUR event named in his honor.

A PROUD HISTORY

HP Byron Nelson Championship A Rich Heritage

ith a rich golf tradition in Dallas, including a U.S. Open and two PGA Championships, the HP Byron Nelson Championship has a long history in professional golf that traces its roots back to 1944. That year, Byron Nelson teed it up at Lakewood Country Club and won the Texas Victory Open by 10 strokes over his friend Harold "Jug" McSpaden. This annual tournament would continue for two more years, first as the Dallas Open and then as the Dallas Invitational.

Nelson's victory at Lakewood Country Club was the beginning of two remarkable years in which he would win 26 tournaments, including his amazing streak of 11 straight victories in 1945.

The HP Byron Nelson Championship is now the eighth longest-running active tournament on the PGA TOUR schedule. Aside from the three U.S. majors (the U.S. Open, PGA Championship and the Masters), only eight PGA TOUR events were established prior to 1944. While 10 years elapsed before an annual Dallas-based event began again in 1956, the stage was set for the introduction of the current tournament, which began as the Byron Nelson Golf Classic in 1968. Since then, 41 Byron Nelson tournaments have been played, all of which contributed to the event's current reputation as one of the most highly competitive tournaments on the PGA TOUR.

HP: Creating New Possibilities for Our Communities

ollowing HP's acquisition of EDS in October 2008, HP is thrilled to assume title sponsorship of the HP Byron Nelson Championship in 2009. For HP, supporting the empowerment of communities is a one of our central tenets, serving as one of the many ways we demonstrate our investment to being a good global citizen.

HP's sponsorship of this tournament is strongly tied to a desire to pursue innovative ways to help transform children's futures and create new possibilities for success. Since 1968, this event has served as a beacon of community involvement, honoring the legacy of one of golf's greatest humanitarians, Byron Nelson. In that time span, more than $107 million has been raised to help thousands of troubled and at-risk children and their families.

Both on and off the greens, HP is enriching the tournament experience for PGA TOUR players, media and fans. Drawing on numerous technological innovations, HP and the company's alliance partners are committed to offering best-in-class products and solutions to enhance this year's tournament environment and make it a success.

The HP Byron Nelson Championship is not only a great venue for professional golf, it also offers an ideal destination for HP to bring customers, prospects, partners and business leaders together to enhance our business relationships and foster our mutual business interests.

HP's commitment to the tournament doesn't stop at the executive level. This year, hundreds of HP employees, from around the world, will volunteer their time and talents performing a variety of duties supporting the HP Byron Nelson Championship.

HP is pleased to carry on the lasting legacy and charitable work of Byron Nelson. We look forward to an exciting week of business, golf and recreation and look forward to seeing you at the 2009 HP Byron Nelson Championship.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL MENDENHALL

Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer, HP

Helping transform children's futures... creating new possibilities for success.

EDUCATION WITH AT-RISK KIDS AND FAMILIES

Institute for Excellence in Urban Education - Educational program-sharing with teachers, leaders and partner institutions.

Research and Evaluation - Follow-up research to identify effective practices and continuous program improvement through outcome evaluations done by The University of Texas at Dallas under the supervision of Dr. J. Michael Coleman.

Science Goes to Camp - Educational camp trips with an emphasis on teambuilding and science immersion.

College Scholarships - Expanding opportunities for promising former students and clients.

THERAPY WITH TROUBLED KIDS AND FAMILIES

Salesmanship Club Youth and Family Centers serves the largest amount of children and families through our therapy division.

We have a wide range of services to respond to a range of difficulties children are experiencing. The following are examples of families who may seek our services:

- A retired grandmother who suddenly gets custody of two grandkids, one of whom is depressed and the other is showing behavior problems at school. We offer family therapy to help this new family connect and solve problems together.
- A young, single mother who is struggling with a two-year-old who keeps getting kicked out of daycare for tantruming. Mom wants to find out what's going on with the child, before she loses her job for missing so much work trying to be responsive to her child's needs. We offer comprehensive assessments and work closely with mom to develop a plan.
- A mother and step-father having trouble with an adolescent who won't follow the family rules. We offer parenting classes to provide new tools and support from other parents so the parents can manage the situation more effectively.
- A father receiving calls at the office from his 13-year-old's middle school. The principal says he's been skipping class again. Ready to throw up his hands, Dad turns toward help and answers through our Therapeutic After School Program.

These are just a few examples of the type of work we do with families who are experiencing difficulties.

Our therapeutic services team works with families in English and Spanish to make sure families receive the quality affordable mental health care they need to help their family move forward.

Services operate on a sliding scale fee structure, but less than 5 percent of our operating budget comes from client fees. We will file insurance for those families who are fortunate enough to have it, but do not require that any of our clients have health insurance to participate in our services. We do not turn away families due to their inability to pay.

SHARING WHAT WE LEARN

Our agency provides three services to make a transforming difference in the lives of thousands of children and their families:

- Education for at-risk children and their families
- Therapy for troubled children and their families
- Sharing what we learn with other professionals and organizations

This third tenet of our mission, program-sharing, is a really exciting way to reach many more young people than we could ever serve directly. Salesmanship Club past president Bob Ferguson described program-sharing as "leveraging our efforts for the greater good."

This means SCYFC recognizes that no matter how effective our direct services are, we can never serve the huge numbers of kids and families in need of our therapeutic or educational services. Instead, we seek to join with others in partnership to share and exchange ideas and practices. A big way we share what we learn is through our research and evaluation reports and publications. In addition to this, we share what we learn through training and consultation via:

- The Reunion Institute Providing continuing education for mental health professionals and human service organizations
 Institute for Excellence in Urban Education collaborating with teachers, partner schools and district leaders to help them
- improve learning outcomes with their students

Honoring Byron Nelson

Byron Nelson etched out a career in professional golf unlike any gentleman who played the game before, or any who has played since. While his awe-inspiring accomplishments in the game of golf are widely revered, it was Mr. Nelson's personal qualities such as kindness and dedication that won the respect and admiration of his peers, present-day players and fans of all ages.

The HP Byron Nelson Championship was the first PGA TOUR event named in honor of a professional golfer. The decision in 1968 by Salesmanship Club of Dallas officials to name the tournament for Byron Nelson resulted in a happy union for both parties. Mr. Nelson's annual participation in the event was a large reason that the Championship's charitable donations to Salesmanship Club Youth and Family Centers have exceeded $107 million since its inception.

Byron Nelson's ties to the North Texas area date back to his birth on February 4, 1912, on a cotton farm in Ellis County, near Waxahachie, Texas. Growing up in Fort Worth, Mr. Nelson played golf in the Dallas and Fort Worth areas. He lived at Fairway Ranch in Roanoke, Texas, his home since 1946, with his wife, Peggy.

After retiring from professional golf, Mr. Nelson strived to touch lives in many different ways. He shared his profound knowledge of the game as both a teacher and analyst with his pupils, including six-time PGA TOUR Player of the Year Tom Watson, and 1964 PGA TOUR Player of the Year and 2000 United States President's Cup team captain, Ken Venturi.

In 1983, the City of Dallas honored Mr. Nelson for his work on behalf of the tournament and its charity. The Dallas All-Sports Association (DASA) awarded him the first-ever Lamar Hunt Award in 2000, a national honor that is awarded based on longevity and achievement in sports, combined with integrity, character and service to the community. The DASA also saluted Mr. Nelson with its Distinguished Service Award in 1985.

In 1996, Mr. Nelson helped introduce the Byron Nelson Golf School at the Four Seasons Resort and Club Las Colinas by hitting the first ball off the lesson tee. In 1992, he was honored on his 80th birthday by the Four Seasons with the dedication of a 9' 6" bronze likeness. The sculpture is now the focal point of Byron's Circle, an area adjacent to the No. 1 tee box of TPC Four Seasons and the pro shop.

In addition to winning tournaments and setting records, Mr. Nelson is also remembered for the honor and sportsmanship that he brought to the game. In 1974, he received the Richardson Award, given annually by the Golf Writers Association of America to an individual who has consistently made outstanding contributions to golf. That same year, he received the Bob Jones Award, presented annually for distinguished sportsmanship in golf.

The Memorial Tournament in Muirfield Village, Ohio, honored Mr. Nelson in 1980. Each year, the theme of the Memorial Tournament is centered around a professional golfer who has played the game with conspicuous honor. Mr. Nelson followed Robert T. Jones, Walter Hagen, Francis Ouimet and Gene Sarazen as honorees.

Byron Nelson won 52 PGA TOUR-sanctioned tournaments during his relatively brief professional career, including a record 11 straight victories from March 8 through August 5, 1945. His 52 wins place him fifth on the all-time winners list.

Mr. Nelson died in September, 2006. The day after he died, President George W. Bush signed the bill that awarded Nelson the Congressional Gold Medal, the nation's highest and most distinguished civilian award, for his humanitarian efforts. He passed away in September of 2006.

WEATHER AT THE NELSON

Any PGA TOUR event played in the spring will endure its share of inclement weather, but throughout the years, the HP Byron Nelson Championship has encountered good luck with the elements. Since 1968, the Nelson has completed 72 holes in 38 of the 41 events, losing only four complete rounds of golf in that span (two rounds lost in 1994, one each in 1990 and 1992). As unpredictable as the weather may be, the Nelson always seems to come out a winner. Brief yearly summaries of the weather at the HP Byron Nelson Championship:

TPC Four Seasons Resort and Club

our Seasons Resort and Club is the recreational centerpiece of Las Colinas in Irving, Texas. But the jewel of the Resort is the TPC Four Seasons which opened in 1983 under the design guidance of golf course architect Jay Morrish with player consultants Byron Nelson and Ben Crenshaw. For more than two decades, it served as site of the HP Byron Nelson Championship, a PGA TOUR event.

In 2007, golf course designer and Champions Tour player D.A. Weibring undertook an exciting and total redesign of the challenging 7,166 yard TPC Four Seasons layout with architect Steve Wolfard and player consultants J.J. Henry and Harrison Frazar. The redesign, valued at more than $10 million, by Resort owners BentleyForbes, opened in the spring of 2008 in time to host the HP Byron Nelson Championship.

Celebrating more than two decades of golf history, golfers literally can walk in the footsteps of some of golf's greatest champions when they play the TPC Four Seasons. It is recognized for its abundance of native oak and mesquite trees, strong seasonal crosswinds and demanding design which is now characterized by a more classic or open view of shots from the squared tee boxes. This is balanced by much deeper bunkers and slightly smaller greens than its original design.

Some of the most notable changes to the golf course include the lengthening of No. 1 and positioning of the green further right. The tee box on No. 2 has been pulled back to lengthen the hole and provide a great view for spectators coming into the tournament. No. 17 has a new configuration of tee boxes that are now more centered and the green has been dramatically recontoured. No. 18 has a dramatic new water feature — four cascading waterfalls and lakes flowing into one another and nestled close to the left fairway and green.

In addition to the golf, two attractions at the resort should not be missed. One is the Byron Nelson Plaza located near TPC No. 1. Its centerpiece is a larger than life bronze statue of Byron Nelson as well as a tribute to past champions. And, the Hall of Champions, located near the Pro Shop, features a pictorial history of past champions and some of Mr. Nelson's most historic trophies and career memorabilia including his Little Black Book, his Ryder Cup Captain trophy and a replica of his Masters Trophy. Cottonwood Valley is the Resort's second course and is home to the private golf membership of The Sports Club at Four Seasons.

Supporting the golf experience, the Resort's unparalleled service and amenities including a luxury hotel and villas, two golf courses, a European-style spa, private sports club, expansive golf practice facilities and golf school, 6,000 square foot fitness center, 12 tennis courts, outstanding restaurants, conference center and ballroom, explain why it is consistently acclaimed by industry leaders. The American Automobile Association recognizes it as the only Five Diamond resort in Texas. For more information, visit the Resort's Web site at www/fourseasons.com/dallas.

TPC Four Seasons Hole-by-Hole

No. 1 458 Yards, par 4

Offers a challenging start to the course with a fairway that has been lengthened 65 yards and the green moved and elevated to the east creating a more prominent dogleg right. There is a fairway bunker on the right and two greenside bunkers, guarding the left and right side of the green.

No. 2 221 Yards, par 3 The 2nd tee has been moved back about

The 2nd tee has been moved back about 30 yards which has created a great viewing area as well as a challenging tee shot. Three bunkers guard the left, right and rear of the green, which has a ridge running from the front left to back right.

No. 3 528 Yards, par 4 An extremely challenging hole, featuring a

An extremely challenging hole, featuring a newly contoured fairway which has a lake running the full length on the right side. A new fairway bunker and a newly contoured green add extra challenges. Two bunkers guard the green on the left and right sides.

No. 4 431 Yards, par 4 The tee shot on this hole faces a seven-

The tee shot on this hole faces a sevenbunker complex on the right and the fairway has been pushed closer to the water on the left. Two more bunkers guard the front right approach to the green.

No. 5 174 Yards, par 3 The shared green of holes 5 and 9 has been

The shared green of holes 5 and 9 has been separated, giving each hole its own identity. The tee boxes are positioned to allow a more direct tee shot over the water to a green that has a gently sloping front and two deep bunkers that guard it on the front right and left sides.

No. 6 448 Yards, par 4 The 6th hole has a new green that fits more

The 6th hole has a new green that fits more naturally with the surrounding land. There are several options for the tee shot on this dogleg right hole with a single tree encroaching on the right fairway. A bunker guards the front center of this compact green.

No. 7 542 Yards, par 5 This is a severe dogleg left hole that rises in elevation from tee to green. The second shot on No. 7 has been altered with new bunkering and fairway shaping — three bunkers along the left and two along the right of the fairway. Two more bunkers guard the front left and back right of the green which has a dangerous front slope.

No. 8 461 Yards, par 4 The elevation of this hole slopes gently

The elevation of this hole slopes gently from the tee box down to the green and features a slight dogleg right with trees that frame both sides of the fairway. A new large bunker guards the left side of the fairway at the dogleg. The green has a bunker on the right side but is notable for the dramatic contouring around the green itself.

No. 9 427 Yards, par 4

This hole is deceptively challenging. Water runs along the right side of the fairway, and trees run along the left with one tree encroaching into the fairway. New bunkers are on the right side of the fairway and a new bunker protects the green on the left. Crosswinds on this hole can push a tee shot towards the water.

No. 10 435 Yards, par 4 The new tee boxes on this hole are pulled

The new tee boxes on this hole are pulled back toward the bridge and moved closer to the water. A new bunker to the left side is located midway down the fairway and a former bunker on the right has been replaced with trees, which frame the shot better. Bunkers on the front right and back left guard the green.

No. 11 323 Yards, par 4 This is a driveable par 4 that offers the

This is a driveable par 4 that offers the temptation to go for birdie. There are tee box options over the water or along side the water on the left. The fairway landing area is narrow and the green is large and inviting – but watch for tricky contouring and small bunkers guarding front right and left and back left.

No. 12 455 Yards, par 4

This hole is completely new from tee to green. The severe mounding has been softened and the new elevated green now fits the eye much better. There is a fairway bunker at the beginning of the fairway on the right and two others further down on the left. A large bunker guards the approach to the green on the right while another challenges on the back left of the green.

No. 13 180 Yards, par 3

No. 14 406 Yards, par 4

Traditionally one of the more popular holes, No. 14 has new, elevated tee box placements and a new, clean look around the green that will lead stray shots toward the water. Bunkers guard the back right side of the green.

No. 15 504 Yards, par 4 The tee box has been moved back and the

The tee box has been moved back and the fairway bunker removed which creates a more interesting approach to the new green. This hole has trees along both sides and a slight dogleg left.

No. 16 546 Yards, par 5 This hole rises in elevation from the tee box

This hole rises in elevation from the tee box to the green. The bunkers along the left side and middle of the new fairway are more visible from the tee and will require some skill to navigate around. New shaping and contouring around the green makes this hole one of the most challenging on the course.

No. 17 198 Yards, par 3 A signature hole, the tee box has been

A signature hole, the tee box has been reshaped and stepped down to magnify the effect of the amphitheater design around the green. It will invite more aggressive play to the new green that has been reshaped to allow players to feed their balls toward the pin placements that tend to be near the water's edge.

No. 18 429 Yards, par 4

From high above the 17th green, the new 18th tee box has been repositioned to the east to take advantage of the natural contours of the fairway and to create a dramatic view of the four new lakes and cascading water that extend from the landing area to the green. The slight dogleg left fairway offers an exciting finishing hole that tempts players to go for birdie.

Scott Verplank won his first PGA TOUR event since 2001 at the EDS Byron Nelson Championship. The win for the Dallas resident was especially memorable, as he had strong ties to tournament namesake Byron Nelson, who passed away in 2006. Verplank overcame a three-shot deficit to Luke Donald in the final round of the Championship. He fired four rounds in the 60's en route to the one stroke victory over Donald. Verplank finished 14th in final FedExCup standings on the strength of the win and eight other top-10's.

Although Phil Mickelson led the 1996 Nelson after the second round, he constantly and successfully fended off close challenges to win his third PGA TOUR event of the year...The left-handed Mickelson dropped in a 30-foot pitch shot on the TPC's par 5 16th hole in the final round, which ended the hopes of runner-up Craig Parry, who would finish two strokes back.

Sinking a birdie putt on the first extra hole, Bruce Lietzke won his second Nelson title and, for the second time, also won in a playoff...In 1981, Lietzke ended Tom Watson's run of three consecutive Nelson victories in a sudden death playoff, and this time, faced Clarence Rose, who was tied for the lead on the final hole after Leitzke bogeyed the 18th hole...It was the third playoff in the past four years and eighth sudden death in the tournament's 21-year history.

Nelson records snapped, crackled and popped under mostly windless, ideal golfing conditions with the highlight of a new tournament low of 62 fired by Bob Lohr in the second round at the TPC...Although low and mid-60 scores were prevalent, suspense prevailed until the last moment as Fred Couples withstood a stiff challenge from Mark Calcavecchia in the closing round, winning a playoff on the third extra hole by sinking a par putt...Calcavecchia had closing rounds of 63-64 to tie Couples in regulation.

The Nelson saw its sixth playoff in 1985 and the tournament's first at The Las Colinas Sports Club Course when Bob Eastwood defeated Payne Stewart on the first extra hole after Stewart bogeyed...Stewart had a chance to win it all on the final hole of regulation with only a bogey, but scored his only double bogey of the tournament on the 72nd hole...Mac O'Grady shot a course record 63 and tied tournament records for his first two rounds, but couldn't keep up the pace after leading the first three days.

Craig Stadler, who hadn't won on the PGA TOUR in 20 months and was playing in his first Nelson since 1981, used his four-stroke advantage going into the final round to withstand a charge by David Edwards and Tom Watson to take his first Nelson title...Stadler took on strong winds for the first two days, staying one stroke under par, then shot a brilliant 64 on the third day to set up his victory...He played steady golf in the final round, finishing at 71, while Edwards brought in a final round 65 to pull within one stroke of a tie for first.

Denied a victory at the Nelson in 1977 when Ray Floyd swept past him on the last four holes, Texan Ben Crenshaw fired a 66 to overtake Lanny Wadkins and Hal Sutton to win the first Nelson played at Las Colinas Sports Club...Sutton missed a putt on 18 that would have tied him for the lead...The win capped a comeback year for Crenshaw, who had his best year on the TOUR since 1980.

It all came to an end for Tom Watson in his quest for a fourth straight win at the Nelson, which would have tied a PGA TOUR record...Trailing Watson by three shots going into Sunday, Bruce Lietzke overtook the Missourian on the final round, forced a playoff and watched as Watson took a bogey to Lietzke's par on the first sudden-death hole when he missed a two-and-a-half-foot putt.

Trying to repeat the previous year's exciting finish, Texarkana's Bill Rogers made up four shots in the final round, almost catching Tom Watson but settling for second place one stroke behind the four-time Nelson champion... Watson, who led the tournament wire-to-wire, took his third consecutive Nelson crown and closed in on a PGA TOUR record of four consecutive wins at one tournament, held by Walter Hagen at the PGA from 1924 to 1927.

Ray Floyd outdueled Ben Crenshaw on the last four holes of this Nelson to take a one-stroke victory... Crenshaw, who had a three-shot lead with three holes left and a one-shot lead with two remaining, couldn't hold on as Floyd eagled the 15th hole and birdied 17...Crenshaw, playing ahead of Floyd, bogeyed both 17 and 18, allowing Floyd to move on to a two-stroke victory...Ironically, the four-hole totals scored by both golfers were almost identical to their previous year's four-round total: Crenshaw shot a 279 in 1976 and finished with a 278 in 1977, while Floyd shot 277 in 1976 and then won the 1977 tournament with the same score.

Some say this was the greatest Byron Nelson tournament ever played...Certainly, it was one of the most memorable...The game's two greatest stars, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, tied after 72 holes at 274... They entered a sudden death playoff, where Nicklaus won the title by sinking an 18-inch birdie putt on the first extra hole...John Schroeder and Lee Trevino just missed the playoff by firing a 67 and 66, respectively, in the final round.

Notes: The Salesmanship Club took over as sponsor, though the event remained at Oak Cliff Country Club and was called the Greater Dallas Open...Bert Yancey withstood a late challenge by De Vicenzo to win by a stroke...Kermit Zarley also played well to tie for second.

Notes: Billy Maxwell kept the title in Dallas, winning by four strokes over Johnny Pott...A newcomer to Dallas, Jack Nicklaus did well in his first appearance here, finishing in a tie for fifth.

Notes: Julius Boros, already a big winner in Dallas when he took the 1952 U.S. Open at Northwood Country Club, came through in Big D again, but had to hold on to win by one stroke...Earl Stewart Jr., with a 64, Dow Finsterwald, with a 65, and Bo Wininger, with a 68, all on the final day, pushed Boros to the final pin after he had led most of the tournament.

Notes: It was victory with a Latin flavor as Roberto De Vicenzo staged a tequila party for the press following his win...Ray Floyd, an eventual Nelson winner, Joe Campbell and Harold Henning were all breathing down De Vicenzo's neck and finished just one stroke behind...De Vicenzo pocketed $15,000, the biggest prize to that time.

Notes: History was made in Dallas as Earl Stewart Jr. became the first home-club pro ever to win a PGA TOUR title...The competition was rugged as he nudged names like Arnold Palmer, Doug Sanders and Gay Brewer by only a stroke for the victory... His 278 was good for $4,300.

Notes: Snead became the first back-to-back Dallas tournament champion as the tournament shifted to Oak Cliff Country Club for an early June date...This triumph was more difficult than the previous year's, as Snead had to win a playoff with Gary Player, Julius Boros and John McMullin for the victory...Snead had to come from five strokes back entering the final round, winning with a birdie putt on the first hole of the playoff.

Notes: World War II had ended the previous month and another member of the era's golf triumvirate, Sam Snead, won his first of three Dallas events. The tournament was called the Dallas Open and had a field of only 22 golfers. It was one of only 17 tournaments of the 35 tournaments lined up that year that escaped Nelson's victory grasp. He finished third, five strokes off the pace and behind McSpaden, who was runner-up for the second time in a row. Nelson's streak of 18 straight remarkable victories had ended only three weeks before this event.

Notes: Byron Nelson won seven of the 22 TOUR tournaments the PGA put on during this war year and Dallas was one of them... Nelson won by 10 strokes over his wartime playing pal, Harold "Jug" McSpaden at Lakewood Country Club... Lord Byron went on to be named the Associated Press Athlete of the Year, an award he repeated the next year... He also won $2,000 here.

Wire-to-Wire Winners

Only two wire-to-wire winners have emerged in the 41 year history of the Byron Nelson Championship. Since moving to the TPC Four Seasons Resort Las Colinas, the tournament has produced no wire-to-wire finishes, thus contributing to the Nelson's reputation as one of the most highly competitive events on the PGA TOUR schedule.

The first came in 1976, when Mark Hayes finished the first round with a 66 to lead by one stroke over Don Bies. After firing a second-round 67, Hayes' two-round total of 133 gave him a two-stroke lead over Bob E. Smith. Shooting a 71 in the third round, Hayes took a three-stroke lead over Bies into the final round. Hayes finished the tournament with a solid 69 to claim a two-stroke victory over Bies.

Tom Watson became the second wire-to-wire champion in 1980. Watson carded a 64 in the first round to open a two-stroke lead over George Cadle and Curtis Strange. He followed with a 70 in the second round, losing a stroke to the field to finish the day with a one-stroke advantage over Strange. A 69 on Saturday kept Watson two strokes ahead of Strange before eventually winning his third straight Nelson, holding off Bill Rogers' late charge with a final round 71.

The Byron Nelson Award

The Byron Nelson Award is given by the PGA TOUR and is based on each player's adjusted scoring average. The adjusted score is computed from the average score of the field at each tournament. As a result, a player's score may be higher or lower than his actual score. Actual scoring average was used to determine the scoring leader prior to 1988.

In order to qualify for the Byron Nelson Award, a player must compete in a minimum of 50 official rounds on the PGA TOUR.

shot of regulation play or by a playon.

Miller Barber, who withstood a furious late charge by Kermit Zarley in 1968, enjoyed the greatest lead of the Nelson tournaments played thus far when he went into the final round leading by five strokes. Mac O'Grady, who had a three-stroke lead in the 1985 tournament, had the biggest lead of a non-winner.
