OMEGA MISSION HILLS WORLD CUP

8 AM UPDATE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27 , 2009

Weather Synopsis

Today, have been a few light showers develop north of the area so there will be a slight chance of seeing a passing shower this morning. Mix of clouds and sunshine otherwise with winds out of the NE at wind speeds of 6-12 MPH or 10-19 KPH. Tonight, the threat for a passing shower will increase again but coverage will remain isolated through Saturday mid morning. With NE Monsoon to start back up by mid weekend, we can expect the drier and slightly cooler weather to move back in for the remainder of the tournament weekend.
