

2009 FedExCup Notes – Week 15 Verizon Heritage

Changes in the Standings

- Angel Cabrera and Chad Campbell were the big movers in the standings last week. Cabrera jumped from 132nd to 13th place with his win at the Masters, while Campbell's tie for second moved him up 51 places to 24th.
- Nine of the players in the top 10 at the start of last week stayed in the top 10 after Sunday, although there was some movement within the group. The only player that moved into the top 10 was Steve Stricker, moving from 11th to eighth. With one moving in that means one moved out and that player was Pat Perez who fell from eighth to 11th.

This Week's Field

- Separated by less than one-tenth of a point, Paul Casey and Zach Johnson enter this week fifth and sixth in the standings, respectively, and are the top two point earners in the field at the Verizon Heritage. Casey and Johnson are the only two players who can pass Geoff Ogilvy at the top of the standings with a win this week.
- Only 27 players can move into the top 10 with a victory this week with Rory Sabbatini at 54th position being the lowest.

Top 10 FedExCup Points Earners In the Field at the Verizon Heritage

Player	FEC Rank	FEC Points	Points with Win	Possible Rank
Paul Casey	5	900	1400	1
Zach Johnson	6	899.9	1399.9	1
Dustin Johnson	10	789	1289	2
Charley Hoffman	14	645	1145	5
John Rollins	15	620	1120	5
Kevin Na	16	581	1081	5
Charles Howell III	20	535	1035	5
Camilo Villegas	23	493	993	5
Davis Love III	25	481	981	5
Brett Quigley	26	455	955	5

FedExCup Player of the Week - Jim Furyk

- With three top 10 finishes in seven starts, Furyk enters this week ranked 30th in the FedExCup standings, and could move as high as fifth with a victory.
- Furyk has finished in the top 5 three of the last four years at Harbour Town.