

2009 Frys.com Open

(The third of five events in the PGA TOUR Fall Series)

Scottsdale, AZ
Grayhawk Golf Club

October 19-25, 2009

Purse: $5,000,000 ($900,000 to the winner)

Par/Yards: 35-35—70/7,125

Second-Round Notes – Friday, October 23, 2009

Weather: Sunny with temperatures in the lower 80s. Winds light and variable.

A total of 77 players made the 36-hole cut, which came at 1-under 139.

England's Greg Owen, who finished No. 10 on the 2008 Nationwide Tour money list, holed a sand wedge from 104 yards on the par-4 15th hole for an eagle two en route to a 6-under 64. He holds the second-round lead with Rickie Fowler at 11-under. The 64 bests his previous PGA TOUR career best of 65.

This marks just the first time Owen has held a 36-hole lead on the PGA TOUR. He is competing in his 114th event of his PGA TOUR career, dating back to 1999.

Greg Owen, competing in his 29th TOUR event of the season, posted his best finish of 2009 in July with a T9 at the John Deere Classic. He finished T47 at last week's Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open.

After last week's T47 in Las Vegas, Greg Owen began the week at Grayhawk Golf Club ranked 116th on the 2009 PGA TOUR money list.

Greg Owen's career-best finish on the PGA TOUR is a runner-up at the 2006 Bay Hill Invitational.

Coming off a T7 at last week's Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, 20-year-old stand-out Rickie Fowler matched Greg Owen's 6-under 64 to take a share of the second-round lead at 11-under. He played his second-round bogey-free.

At the 329-yard, par-4 sixth hole, Rickie Fowler drove his tee shot to within 13 feet and drained the putt for an eagle-two.

Rickie Fowler, competing in his second PGA TOUR event as a professional and fifth of the year at this week's Frys.com Open, was originally given a sponsor invite into the field this week. However, by virtue of his top-10 finish in Las Vegas last week, he became automatically exempt into this week's field.

Should Rickie Fowler finish in the top 10 this week, he will earn a spot in next week's Viking Classic field. However, he will have a decision to make as he is currently scheduled to play in the first stage of the PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament.

As an amateur in 2008, Rickie Fowler made two starts on the PGA TOUR. He missed the cut at the Verizon Heritage and finished T60 at the U.S. Open.

Nick O'Hern, who birdied eight of the nine holes on the back nine at Grayhawk Golf Club on Thursday en route to a one-stroke lead at 7-under, kept the momentum going in round two with a 2-under 68, despite a double-bogey at the par-4 18th. He trails Rickie Fowler and Greg Owen by two strokes at 9-under.

Currently No. 102 on the money list, O'Hern is making his 26th start of the season, with 16 made cuts and a season-best T3 at the Shell Houston Open. He missed the cut a year ago in his only previous start at the Frys.com Open.

Justin Leonard, who was among the victorious American team at the Presidents Cup earlier this month, posted a 6-under 64 in round two to trail Rickie Fowler and Greg Owen by a stroke.

So far this year, Justin Leonard has posted five top-10 finishes, with the most recent being a T8 at the British Open in July.

Should Justin Leonard emerge victorious, it would mark the third consecutive year with at least one win for the Texan. He won last year's Stanford St. Jude Championship and, prior to that, won the Valero Texas Open in the 2007 Fall Series.

Justin Leonard had four 2's on his card on Friday, having birdied each of the par-threes, including the 16th hole. This week, the 211-yard, par-three 16th acts as the Kodak Challenge hole as part of the year-long competition. The 30-event race concludes in two weeks at the Children's Miracle Network Classic, with the winner taking home $1 million. Here's a look at the leaderboard after round two:

1.	Kevin Streelman	16-under
T2.	J.J. Henry	14-under
	Bo Van Pelt	14-under
	Nathan Green	14-under
T5.	Daniel Chopra	13-under
	Nathan Green	13-under
	Jason Gore	13-under
	Steve Lowery	13-under

Scottsdale resident Ryan Moore kept himself right in the mix of things with a bogey-free, 5-under 65 in round two to get to 9-under, just two back of Greg Own and Rickie Fowler.

Ryan Moore is in the midst of his best year on TOUR, highlighted by five top-10 finishes. Earlier this year, he broke into the winner's circle for the first time at the Wyndham Championship. He finished T7 at last week's Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, thanks largely to a second-round, 9-under 63.

Six Scottsdale, AZ residents currently sit within four shots of Fowler and Owen's 11-under lead after the second day of the Frys.com Open. The list includes Ryan Moore, Bryce Molder, Tim Clark, Pat Perez, Tom Lehman and Matt Jones.

The second-round leader/co-leader has gone on to win 16 of 42 stroke-play events this season, most recently Tiger Woods at the BMW Championship. The second-round leader/co-leader has failed to advance to the winner's circle in the first two playings of the Frys.com Open.

Scoring Averages at the par-70 Grayhawk Golf Club:

	Front 9	Back 9	Total	Cumulative
Thursday	35.045	34.273	69.318
Friday	34.649	34.519	69.168	69.243

The par-4 18th hole played the toughest on Friday, with a 4.275 average. The par-4 15th hole was the easiest, at 3.649.

Please visit www.pgatourmedia.com for further information.