Tiger Eyes a Different Tale this Year

For the first time since he turned professional in 1996, Tiger Woods missed THE PLAYERS Championship when he didn't play in the 2008 tournament because he was recovering from a knee injury. So when we last left Woods at TPC Sawgrass, the world's No. 1-ranked player was leaving THE PLAYERS Championship after shooting a final-round 67. The problem was, he had shot rounds of 75-73-73 in the first three rounds of the 2007 tournament to tie for 37th.

Woods expects a better performance this week as he makes his return to the site of two victories—the 2001 PLAYERS Championship and the 1994 U.S. Amateur.

"I haven't hit the ball well here. I've come into this event and for some reason haven't hit it well," Woods said Tuesday. "The year I did (in 2007), I couldn't make a putt. I haven't really put all the pieces together, and you have to have that in order to win this tournament."

Naturally, Woods does hold himself to a high standard, and that might explain why he seemed to forget the 2001 tournament, where he was par or better all four days and edged Vijay Singh to win his lone PLAYERS title. Woods, however, does understand where his game has to be in order to win THE PLAYERS.

"It's very similar to a major championship," he said of the tournament, which has called TPC Sawgrass home since 1982. "You have to have all the pieces. You can't hit the ball well and not putt well or vice-versa. You have to have everything going together at the same time."

Woods missed his first PLAYERS Championship in 2008.

The Family Plan includes two Adult Grounds Admission tickets, two Youth Ground Admission tickets and one on-site parking pass for $149. The package is scalable as families of any size can add on adult and/or youth tickets.

Hydration/First Aid

After one of the warmest events in PLAYERS history last year, officials have announced two initiatives aimed to give fans easy and affordable access to water. The price of bottled water, available at all concession stands, will be $2.50. In addition, there will be numerous drinking fountains (also known as Hydration Stations) available for the public to use free of charge throughout the course.

Approximately 60 volunteers donate more than 150 hours of first aid and medical services every year at THE PLAYERS. Volunteers typically treat around 75-100 patients during the tournament week, with about 12 percent of those patients being transported to the Baptist Medical Center Beaches Emergency Center for further treatment.

"Dehydration is the most common reason for medical intervention at THE PLAYERS Championship but it can easily be prevented. The Operation Hydration initiative will help spectators avoid dehydration by making water readily available—so whenever you see an Operation Hydration station, drink up!"

- Dr. Jeffrey Smowton, Baptist Medical Center Beaches Emergency Medicine, Director and THE PLAYERS Championship Medical Services Director.

Former President Bush to Be Honored Today

George H.W. Bush, the 41st President of the United States, will be the ninth recipient of the PGA TOUR's Lifetime Achievement Award during ceremonies today at THE PLAYERS Championship.

Bush will be honored at 5 p.m. during a "Military Tribute" on the 18th hole of THE PLAYERS Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass. The tribute is part of THE PLAYERS Military Appreciation Day, which offers free admission to all active-duty and retired members of U.S. Armed Forces. The tribute is also open to the public (Wednesday tournament ticket holders). Bush will officially receive the award from PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem during a private reception this evening.

THE PLAYERS Championship is proud to welcome active-duty, retired and reserve military men and women and their families throughout the week as part of PGA TOUR Charities' Birdies for the Brave military outreach program. Military guests will enjoy complimentary access to the Patriots'

Created in 1996, the Lifetime Achievement Award honors individuals who have made an outstanding contribution to the TOUR over an extended period through their actions on and off the course. Bush joins a distinguished list of past Lifetime Achievement Award recipients, although he is the first recipient from outside the golf industry.

Gene Sarazen, Byron Nelson, Arnold Palmer, Sam Snead, Jack Burke Jr., Pete Dye, Deane Beman and Jack Nicklaus are the past winners.

"It means a great deal to receive this distinguished award from an organization like the PGA TOUR which, to me, epitomizes the Points of Light spirit for the way it supports so many worthwhile causes in such a wonderful way," Bush said. "Working with Tim Finchem and getting to know so many of the TOUR's members has been one of the great joys of my post-White House life, and my gratitude goes to all who were fully aware of my skills on the course and yet chose to support this welcome decision anyway."

Bush, 84, grew up in a family that was always heavily involved with golf. His grandfather, George Herbert Walker, was United States Golf Association (USGA) president in 1920 and donated the trophy for what would become the Walker Cup. Bush's father, Prescott Bush, was a scratch golfer who served as USGA president in 1935 and was instrumental in establishing the USGA Museum and Archives.

In 1996, Bush served as honorary chairman of The Presidents Cup at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Prince William County, VA. He has since attended every Presidents Cup, taking time to stand on the first tee and greet every player. Since 1997, Bush has served as honorary chairman of The First Tee program. He's also an honorary member of the PGA of America and honorary chair of the USGA Museum and Archives President's Council, and in 1997, he received the PGA of America's Distinguished Service Award.

In 2007, he hit the ceremonial first shot on July 4 to launch the AT&T National, a golf tournament hosted by Tiger Woods. In 2008, he received the Bob Jones Award, given annually by the USGA in recognition of distinguished sportsmanship in golf.

THE AREA Did You Know?

- The Ponte Vedra Inn and Club's Ocean Course has a signature hole - the 150-yard, par-3 ninth with its island green - that directly influenced Pete Dye's design of the famous island No. 17 at TPC Sawgrass. The course is located across A1A north of TPC Sawgrass.
- The Jacksonville Suns, the Double-A affiliate of the Florida Marlins, play downtown at The Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville. The Suns are on the road this week and return home on May 11.

Stadium Village

THE PLAYERS Stadium Village, an area where fans gather for an interactive experience, debuted in 2007 at THE PLAYERS Championship. The site moved to a more central location adjacent to the clubhouse in 2008. This year, fans can once again attempt to hit the 17th green on the UBS 17th Challenge. In addition, fans can try some of THE PLAYERS' famous final putts on a replica of the 18th green. Finally, fans can have their photos taken with a photo of 2008 champion Sergio Garcia as he eyes a putt. This year, all fans will enter the area through "THE PLAYERS Shop" that includes a strong retail presence. An array of dining will also be available inside the area – which will include shaded seating for the first time – including new features such as Morton's steak sandwiches. Also new this year will be a business center where fans can stay connected by checking their e-mail.

Building "Little" 17

And you thought the "real" 17th hole was intimidating? Try its little brother, the UBS 17th Challenge, which takes up an entire side of the Stadium Village this week at THE PLAYERS Championship. The hole is only 33 yards, roughly one-fourth the distance of the original, including the green's undulations, the small front bunker, a scoreboard, grandstands, similar flowers and lots of water. But the most difficult and realistic part may be the fans gathered around waiting for their chance to hit one shot or those just watching as they enjoy lunch or a beverage. Everyday golfers will try and copy the PGA TOUR professionals, with much less of a skill set.

The concept debuted in 2006 at THE PLAYERS Championship when the McGriff Group, a Jacksonville-based sports marketing agency, dreamed up the idea of a smaller version of 17. There was born the UBS 17th Challenge.

Construction on the little 17th takes approximately one month. First, the netting is put in place. Then Pizzazz Scenic Contractors, Inc., of Jacksonville builds the one-third scale green from Styrofoam and wood, using the precise drawings of the original as a guide, and pieces it together like a puzzle. Southwest Greens, the manufacturer of synthetic putting surfaces, adds the putting surface on top. Last Friday, approximately 90,000 gallons of water were pumped into the pool surrounding the green.

This week, fans register electronically before hitting and a video of their shot is immediately sent to their e-mail addresses so they can savor the moment.

Garcia Looks for Answers at PLAYERS

Sergio Garcia hopes familiar territory will get his game back on the right track this week at THE PLAYERS Championship.

The 29-year-old defending champion has struggled in 2009, with his best finish a tie for 13th at The Honda Classic. In his last two starts, he finished tied for 38th at the Masters Tournament and missed the cut in last week's Quail Hollow Championship in Charlotte, NC.

"I am obviously not feeling 100 percent with my game at the moment, and it shows," said Garcia. "I'm trying to change that and I think this is a good place."

Garcia started using a belly putter in April, even though he grips the longer and heavier club without the butt end of the club stuck into his stomach as most players do. He is still working with former PGA TOUR player Stan Utley on his putting.

"I'm trying to see if I can get some confidence and feel good with something," Garcia said.

Coming to TPC Sawgrass and THE PLAYERS adds to that feel-good story.

"When you get to a course where you're comfortable, you see the shot straight away, and you say OK this is perfect," Garcia said. "It's a nice draw or just a nice putt or something, and it takes the doubts out of your head. You can just focus yourself on hitting the right shot at the right time."

Hope's Hall of Golf and Laughter

World Golf Hall of Fame member Bob Hope shared his love of golf with millions in many different ways.

The Hall of Fame is now paying tribute to his life in a special exhibition, "Bob Hope: Shanks for the Memory." Featuring the largest collection of Hope memorabilia on display in one exhibition, "Shanks" is on display through 2009.

Hall of Fame member Arnold Palmer narrates an "Opening Monologue" video presentation in the Bob Hope Theater, which features some of Hope's best-known golf stand-ups and skits. That video is followed by more than two hours of video on 12 screens throughout the full exhibition.

The World Golf Village is conveniently located 20 minutes south of Jacksonville and 8 miles north of historic St. Augustine off Interstate 95 at exit 323. Admission is $19.50 for adults (discounts for seniors, students and military). For more information, visit wgfv.com.

TOUR Renews Charitable Commitment, Announces New Platform

The PGA TOUR on Tuesday unveiled a renewed commitment to charitable efforts aimed at further energizing and engaging all players, tournaments, sponsors, charities, volunteers and fans to build upon the $1.4 billion the TOUR has generated for charities since 1938.

Entitled "Together, anything's possible," this elevated and expanded charity effort will be featured prominently across all TOUR media channels, as well as in a new ad campaign that will debut later this year. The TOUR utilized "Anything's Possible" from 1990-97. In recognition of the numerous partnerships that currently make up the TOUR, and future alliances that will ensure continued growth, "Together, anything's possible" evolved as a galvanizing call-to-action to further the charitable efforts of the TOUR as a whole.

Together, anything's possible.

With a full-scale launch scheduled for 2010, the TOUR will spend the remainder of the year focusing on two areas: developing programs and employing resources to harness the efforts of all the TOUR's constituents in order to increase the collective impact; and effectively communicating the TOUR's charitable efforts to all involved.

The "Together, anything's possible" platform will focus on five elements: players, tournaments and sponsors, charities, fans and volunteers.

Stay Connected

The PGA TOUR Network will offer an exciting new service to enrich THE PLAYERS Championship experience over all 18 holes. THE PLAYERS Stadium Radio is a special-event radio that allows you to hear the live shot-by-shot commentary from the PGA TOUR Network on SIRIUS XM Radio (XM 146) and the audio from GOLF CHANNEL and NBC. It fits comfortably on your ear with a lanyard for hands-free use on a regular FM scan radio. The cost is $10. Look for the Stadium Radio at tournament entrances, concession stands and THE PLAYERS shops on-course.

Ask Us: Ambassadors and Volunteers

A group of approximately 2,000 volunteers will be on hand this week to support THE PLAYERS Championship. This group (clad in haze blue golf shirts) plays a vital role in running all aspects of the tournament, from transportation to hospitality to the collection of Shot-Link statistics and many other important duties. Tommy Douglas represents these volunteers as the Tournament Chairman this year. In addition, approximately 225 PGA TOUR employees will be on the grounds all week to serve as Ambassadors, answering questions and directing spectators around the course. They can be identified by their cardinal red golf shirts.

THE PLAYERS

AUTOGRAPH POLICY - In order to keep foot traffic moving and create the best environment for players and fans, during competitive rounds (Thursday-Sunday), patrons are encouraged to request autographs in the designated area marked on the map below. Players will make themselves available to sign autographs after signing their scorecard following their round. Due to sponsor agreements, most players cannot sign golf balls, hats, tickets programs, shirts and pin flags will give you a better chance at getting an autograph from your favorite player. Thank you for supporting THE PLAYERS. Have a great day.

Live@ THE PLAYERS

For the 10th consecutive year at THE PLAYERS Championship, PGATOUR.COM brings unprecedented access to the 17th hole at the TPC Sawgrass. In 2009, THE PLAYERS is one of eight events on TOUR that will feature the unique LIVE@ experience. Golf fans around the globe can see complete coverage of every player and every shot on one of the most exciting holes on TOUR. For four consecutive days, action on this hole will be streamed live to the desktop. Go to PGATOUR.COM/livegolf

Over the span of 37 weeks of competition, players will vie to become the 2009 FedExCup Champion, which will distinguish the one player who not only performs well during the 33-week PGA TOUR Regular Season, but also excels through the pressure of the four-event PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup. In 2009, the Playoffs feature a progressive cut narrowing 125 players to 100 and then down to 70 players. A reset takes place, and the top 30 players are seeded for the culminating event where the 2009 FedExCup Champion will be crowned. Tiger Woods won the inaugural FedExCup and Vijay Singh won the title in 2008. The champion of this week's event will receive 600 points. Follow his progress throughout the rest of the season to see if he could be the next to hoist the FedExCup.

THE PLAYERS STADIUM • FRONT NINE

HOLE 1

423 yards | Par 4

*DIFFICULTY RATING : 10

HOLE FACT:

Since 1992, players have found the fairway only 55 percent of the time on the tee shot, making the opening fairway the toughest to hit on the course.

HOLE 2

532 yards | Par 5

DIFFICULTY RATING : 17

HOLE FACT

Since 2003, no player has hit this green in two shots more than Adam Scott. In 16 attempts, Scott has successfully reached the green six times. Scott is 10-under par on this hole over the past six years.

HOLE 3

177 yards | Par 3

DIFFICULTY RATING : 11

HOLE FACT

The scoring average on the 3rd hole has not been under par since 2003 (over par every year since).

HOLE 4

384 yards | Par 4

DIFFICULTY RATING : 13

HOLE FACT

There has been an eagle-2 on this hole every year since Hal Sutton made two in 2001.

HOLE 5

471 yards | Par 4

DIFFICULTY RATING : 3

HOLE FACT

Since 2003, the greenside bunkers have proven to be tough. Only 40 percent of all players have salvaged par from the bunkers around the green.

HOLE 6

393 yards | Par 4

DIFFICULTY RATING : 12

HOLE FACT

Steve Stricker is the only player to eagle both the 5th and 6th holes in tournament history (eagled the 5th in 1999, Second round; the 6th in 1998, Third round).

HOLE 7

442 yards | Par 4

DIFFICULTY RATING : 4

HOLE FACT

While attempting to avoid the fairway bunker down the left-hand side of the fairway, the tendency can be to bail out to the right. However, since 2003, only 29 percent of the players have hit the green in regulation from the right rough.

HOLE 8

237 yards | Par 3

DIFFICULTY RATING : 5

HOLE FACT

During the past two years there have been 31 three-putts recorded here, more than the previous four years combined.

HOLE 9

583 yards | Par 5

DIFFICULTY RATING : 14

HOLE FACT

Since 1983 there have been 24 total eagles recorded on the 9th hole. No player in tournament history has eagled this hole more than once.

*= Cumulative since 1982

THE PLAYERS STADIUM • BACK NINE

HOLE 10 424 yards | Par 4 DIFFICULTY RATING : 7

HOLE FACT

Since 2003, there have been 132 tee shots hit in the fairway bunker here. Only 36 percent of the players have found the green from this location.

HOLE 11 558 yards | Par 5 DIFFICULTY RATING : 16

HOLE FACT

Since 2003, players choosing to lay up in two average just over 5.01 while players going for it average 4.65. Combined, players going for the green are 575-under par while those laying up are 8-over par.

HOLE FACT

If you're going to miss the fairway, you'll have a better chance at hitting the green from the right rough compared with the left. Since 2003, 45 percent of the players have hit the green from the left rough while 59 percent have hit the green from the right rough.

HOLE 13 181 yards | Par 3 DIFFICULTY RATING : 9

HOLE FACT Once on the putting surface, players are still faced with one of the toughest greens on the course. Since 1992, there have been a total of 574 three-putts on the 13th green (more than any hole on the course).

HOLE FACT

Attempting to avoid the fairway bunker/water on the left can lead to missing the fairway right. Since 2003, 536 balls have found the right rough from the tee. Only 1 of every 5 attempts finds the green in regulation from the right rough (20 percent).

HOLE FACT

If you're going to miss the fairway right, you'd rather be in the fairway bunker than the rough. Since 2003, players average one-half stroke over par from the right rough and average one-fourth stroke over par from the fairway bunker.

HOLE 16 523 yards | Par 5 DIFFICULTY RATING : 18

HOLE FACT In 2008, there were only five eagles made here, tying the lowest number of eagles made in a single week in tournament history (1985).

HOLE 17 181 yards | Par 3 DIFFICULTY RATING : 8

HOLE FACT

There were 44 three-putts recorded here last year, the most in a single event since 1992 when the PGA TOUR began tracking this information.

HOLE 18 462 yards | Par 4 DIFFICULTY RATING : 1

HOLE FACT With water left, players have a tendency to bail out right from the tee. Since 2003, there have been 763 approach shots from the right rough. Only 19 percent of those players hit the green in regulation.

Rob Strano Golf Clinic

On Tuesday, former professional golfer Rob Strano brought a group of 15 students from the Florida School for the Deaf & Blind to the Dye's Valley Course at TPC Sawgrass for a golf clinic that communicates strictly through American Sign Language.

After 15 years as a professional golfer, Strano decided to utilize his golf skills in order to help the Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing community. In 2003, he began studying sign language in a quest to bridge an existing gap between golf and the hearing impaired. By 2004, Strano held his first clinic in Florida and has toured the country with his clinics.

Strano's camps demonstrate that the children's disabilities do not limit their capabilities.

"In every one of them, I see greatness," Strano said, "whether it's playing golf, being a lawyer, an accountant or a computer expert. There's no limit to what they can do."

After the clinic, the children enjoyed the rest of the day meeting players on the Stadium Course.

These Kids Can Play PaintFest

Local families of children with life-threatening health conditions enjoyed a day at THE PLAYERS Championship on Tuesday. Wives of PGA TOUR professionals hosted the families at the UBS 17th Hole Challenge in the Stadium Village, painted murals as part of PaintFest and had their faces painted by Kitty the Clown. Jacksonville Jaguars mascot Jaxson de Ville made an appearance, and many TOUR golf professionals stopped by to interact.

The children and their families are served by Community PedsCare, which is part of the Community Hospice of Northeast Florida.

Community PedsCare is a pediatric palliative and hospice program for children with life-limiting and life-threatening conditions. The program was established in 2000 by Community Hospice of Northeast Florida, in collaboration with Wolfson Children's Hospital, Nemours Children's Clinic and the University of Florida.

"It's great to get the kids out and give them diversions from what they deal with early in life," said 2005 PLAYERS Champion Fred Funk. "It's almost a circus, carnival-like atmosphere so I'm sure it's as fun for them as it is for us."

BIRDIES FOR CHARITY

Sixty-eight area charities will benefit from the Birdies for Charity program this year. Monetary pledges are collected for each birdie made during the tournament, with the participant guessing the correct number of birdies made at the 2009 PLAYERS winning a trip to San Francisco and The Presidents Cup in October. There were 1,241 birdies made at the 2008 PLAYERS and more than $180,000 was raised.
