On behalf of the International Federation of PGA Tours, it is our pleasure to welcome you to the 2009 World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship. The Accenture Match Play Championship kicks off its 11th year of the World Golf Championships, and we'd like to thank you for your attendance this week.

The Accenture Match Play Championship is a true head-to-head competition, where the world's best golfers test their skills against each other, providing us with thrilling matches each year.

In 2008, Tiger Woods took the title over Stewart Cink at The Gallery Golf Club at Dove Mountain. We are proud to return to the wonderful community of Marana, AZ, and to a spectacular new course at The Ritz-Carlton Golf Club, Dove Mountain, where the players will face another stern and fair challenge.

The Federation would like to express its gratitude to our title sponsor this week, Accenture, the only umbrella sponsor of the World Golf Championships that has been with the series since its inception. Our gratitude also extends to the other umbrella sponsors of the series, CA and Bridgestone, and official sponsors Kohler and Rolex.

Additionally, our thanks goes out to the staff of The Ritz-Carlton Golf Club, Dove Mountain, as well as the hundreds of volunteers for their hard work and hospitality each and every year. An event of this magnitude could not happen without their tireless efforts and selfless dedication.

Here in Tucson, that volunteer force is the Tucson Conquistadores, which recently announced that its total charitable contributions has surpassed $20 million since the organization was founded in 1963. We thank the Conquistadores for their dedication to the Accenture Match Play Championship.

Once again, welcome to the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship. We hope you enjoy the thrill of watching the world's greatest golfers match their skills against each other on this challenging golf course.

Brackets Honor Four of Game's Greats

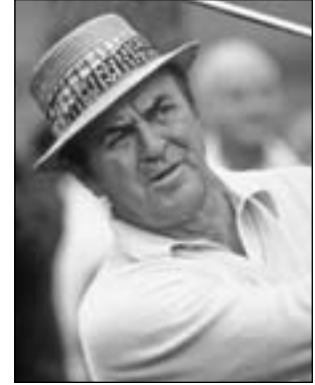

Ben Hogan

Bobby Jones

Gary Player

Sam Snead

Beginning in 2003, the brackets at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship began honoring four of golf's greatest players—Ben Hogan, Bobby Jones, Gary Player and Sam Snead. The 64-man field is divided into four 16-player brackets named for the four World Golf Hall of Fame members.

Players in each of the four brackets will be seeded No. 1 through No. 16, with the top-ranked golfer playing the No. 16 seed, No. 2 pairing off against No. 15, No. 3 vs. No. 14, and so forth in the first round. In this format, the highest-ranked player from the Official World Golf Ranking will be the top seed in the Bobby Jones bracket and will play the 64th-ranked player, who will also be seeded in that bracket. The next-highest-ranked player will be the top seed in the Gary Player bracket, while the third- and fourth-highest-ranked players will be the top seeds in the Snead and Hogan brackets, respectively.

Hogan, Jones, Player and Snead were four of the greatest golfers in history and were all inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame's inaugural class of 1974. The winner of the Accenture Match Play Championship will receive the Walter Hagen Cup, named after one of the game's greatest match play players.

The 2009 Accenture Match Play Championship will be held Feb. 23-March 1 at The Ritz-Carlton Golf Club Dove Mountain in Marana, AZ. The tournament will once again feature the top players from the Official World Golf Ranking.

Recap of 2008 Accenture Match Play Championship

By Helen Ross

PGATOUR.com Chief of Correspondents

MARANA, AZ—Over the past decade, a lot of people have tried in vain to explain the phenomenon that is Tiger Woods.

Stewart Cink could have a way to get to the bottom of it, once and for all.

"I think maybe we ought to slice him open to see what's inside there," Cink said, grinning. "Maybe nuts and bolts."

Woods certainly played like a machine this week in winning the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship for the third time—particularly in beating Cink, 8 and 7, in Sunday's 36-hole finale.

The victory was Woods' fourth straight on the PGA TOUR and the 63rd of his career, allowing him to pass Arnold Palmer and move into fourth all-time, one behind another legend in Ben Hogan.

"I think any time you're associated with Arnold and what he's done with the game of golf, it's always a positive thing," Woods, who plans to give Palmer an "earful," said.

"It's hard to believe it's been over 50 years of him just being the flagship of golf on a global scale, not just here in the United States. He's played all around the world and he's carried golf. He's what brought golf into the mainstream on TV."

Seems Woods has taken over for Palmer in more ways than one. And he has now won seven of his last eight TOUR events dating back to the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational—and he was second in the other one.

The game's No. 1 player said again that he's playing better now than he ever has in his career—including the 2000 season when he won nine times and the final three majors of the year. He finished what became the "Tiger Slam" at the 2001 Masters.

Woods says he understands his game better now, and he knows how to fix things on the rare occasions when that carefully crafted swing breaks down. He has more shots than he ever had, too—an abundance of riches of which his peers can only dream.

Cink, a friend since their junior golf days, says Woods has learned how to stay within himself. That innate ability to avoid mistakes has made Woods, who made 47 birdies and two eagles in 107 holes this week, perhaps the best ever competing head-to-head. Consider his results this week as Woods ran his record to 31-6.

Woods had to rally from 3 down with five holes to play in his opener with J.B. Holmes, then needed 20 holes—and 10 birdies—to outlast Aaron Baddeley in the third round.

He never let Cink in their title tilt as he made five birdies in the first 11 holes of the morning 18 and went to lunch 4-up. Another spurt of three straight that began at the sixth hole in the afternoon produced an 8-up advantage and paved the way for the inevitable.

"I think he just has such a strong sense of belief in himself that he's just never out of it," Cink said. "He's never going to mess up. He's just always in control. He never loses his composure.

"He gets mad; that's not what I'm referring to. But he never loses his composure. He always stays very poised, and he doesn't very often throw away a shot."

Woods sees things more simply, though.

"I love winning and I hate losing," he said. "My father was the same way. Anyone in here who knows my mom—my mom is probably more fiery than my dad. That's kind of the household I grew up in.

"We were always competitive. You never backed down to anybody. And that's the fun part about competing; it's the fun thing about playing sports. My dad, in his former occupation, you back down, you die. So you can't have that mentality."

Asked whether it was fair to say that Woods has separated himself from the rest of the PGA TOUR once again, Cink agreed. What was once the "Big Five" is now more like the TV game show "1 vs. 100" where one player competes against the "mob."

"The only thing about that assessment that I'm not sure is fair is if anybody ever really got that close to him a couple of years ago," Cink said.

Those awe-inspiring shots that draw oohs and ahhs from the crowd elicit similar shows of respect from his peers. Cink says he'll get messages from his friends on TOUR—"some of them will be about my shots and some of them will be about his."

Even Woods admits he's surprised by what he's accomplished at the age of 32.

"Well, if you would have asked me would I have attained what I have right now when I first turned pro at 20 years old, (I would have said) no," Woods said. "I could never have foreseen my victory total being this high, my game improvement being as much as it has been, my knowledge of the game.

"I would never have foreseen that. I knew I was going to get better, but I didn't think I was going to have this victory total when I first turned pro, no."

The victory at the Gallery Golf Club at Dove Mountain was Woods' 15 in the 26 World Golf Championships he's entered. Only Darren Clarke has managed to win more than one in the series designed to bring together the best players from around the globe—which is further evidence of Woods' domination.

"They're exactly what they were meant to be, and that's putting the best up against each other more often than just the four majors and THE PLAYERS," he said. "I think that's why we as players and competitors love them, love the idea that we can go head to head more often.

"Most of the guys play in Europe or some other part of the world, and we don't get a chance to buck heads. Maybe, like I said, just five times. And now we can do it more frequently, and I think it's been a huge success."

Take it from someone who knows what the word means.

2008 Champion's Interview – Tiger Woods

LAURA NEAL: Tiger, congrats. Third Accenture Match Play Championship win and your 15th World Golf Championships title. Do you want to talk about winning and what the day was like today?

TIGER WOODS: Today was a lot of fun, actually. I made a bunch of birdies. I put a bunch of heat on Stew today and got off to a quick start and never really let him get back in the match.

You'd mentioned, I think, at the Target (World Challenge) and at the Buick (Invitational) that you felt like you were in the best stretch of your career. Why do you suppose that is, or what about you is better now? Because I think some of us are finally starting to believe you.

TW: There's a shock. I just have a better understanding of how to play the game, how to fix my game, and have a lot more shots than I've ever had.

Of all the amazing numbers, 15—is it 15 of 26 or whatever it is, World Golf Championships is pretty amazing. Are you kind of committed to these things? And you've obviously done well at them. What does that number mean to you?

TW: Well, I think it's—well, they're exactly what they were meant to be, and that's putting the best up against each other more often than just the four majors and THE PLAYERS. I think that's why we as players and competitors love them, love the idea that we can go head to head more often. Most of the guys play in Europe or some other part of the world, and we don't get a chance to buck heads. Maybe, like I said, just five times. And now we can do it more frequently, and I think it's been a huge success.

If that's the case, is this a true reflection of the gap between you and everyone else?

TW: That's a good question, Fergie, but I don't know how to answer that one.

Can you try?

TW: I can try. All I know is that I just love playing against the best players in the world. That's the fun part because we don't get to do it that often.

Stewart Cink said during his press conference that he didn't think there was any course out there that you couldn't adapt to. Can you comment on that?

TW: That's awfully nice of Stew to say that. Understanding how to play and obviously making changes and adapting your game to the golf course, and that's what you have to do in order to be successful on all venues. It helps that I've played all around the world and have got an understanding of how to play on different places and different styles.

We were asking Stew what he thought made you the champion you are. He thought that you basically never relax and you have great composure. You were saying yesterday you couldn't wait to kick your dad's butt in putting. Have you always been this incredibly competitive? And is insatiable a good word to describe you?

TW: I love winning, and I hate losing. But, you know, that's how my father was. My father was the same way. Anyone in here who knows my mom, my mom is probably more fiery than my dad. That's kind of the household I grew up in. We were always competitive. You never backed down to anybody. And that's the fun part about competing, it's the fun thing about playing sports. My dad, in his former occupation, you back down, you die. So you can't have that mentality.

As great as your record is in the majors, in the WGC events it's even better. Do you have a theory as to why you play so well when the fields are so strong?

TW: Well, I don't know. As I said I've always enjoyed playing these championships, even though they've been all around the world. And for some reason I've had success at all different places. I can't say it's the venues. Maybe I just enjoyed playing the fields, just like I enjoy playing major championships.

Stewart said that he wasn't intimidated by you in terms of his golf game, but he says there is something there that's a bit daunting when you go head to head against you. Is that something that you see in the eyes of those guys that you're playing head-to-head?

TW: Probably, because I'm shorter, and if he acts up I hit him in the ribs. No, you just go out there and you focus on your game. If people perceive that as intimidating or what have you, that's to each his own. I'm trying to go out there and shoot the lowest score I possibly can and win an event. That's all I'm trying to do.

In this familiar position to win the match again or win the tournament again, what do you do as far as not getting comfortable being No. 1 and being on top the way you've been?

TW: It's very simple; you can always be better.

Yesterday you talked at length as to how difficult it is to win the Match Play Championship, and yet here you are, sitting with this Walter Hagen Cup again. You've won it three times in the last six years. You can understand that a fan's perception could find a very interesting contrast between your words and your actions. How do you respond to that?

TW: Well, they told me today I played 107 holes this week. I could have easily played 16 and then been home. That's the fickleness of match play. And if I didn't make a run against J.B. (Holmes), I wouldn't be here. When you put the best players against the world against each other on a venue like this where you have reachable par-5s and two par-4s you can drive and perfect greens, you know these guys aren't going to back up. If you get down early, you're in a world of hurt because then you have to make a bunch of birdies to get back in it. So that's why I said what I said. It's not like we're going out to play the U.S. Open golf course; we're playing a golf course in which you have to make birdies.

Can you tell us, will you contact Mr. Palmer? And if so, will you tell us what you might say to him?

TW: I will definitely—I can't say what I might say. Never mind. When I see him I will give him an earful, and I'm sure he'll probably do the same.

You've probably enjoyed the start that you've had this year, but because of the way you're playing, to use your words, is it within reason that you could win every tournament this year?

TW: That's my intent. That's why you play. If you don't believe you can't win an event, don't show up.

Welcome back. Talk about winning in Tucson for us. We're very glad to have you here, obviously.

TW: Thank you. I haven't won this event here yet. It was nice to actually go out there this week and play as well as I did and make as many putts as I did. Very fortunate to get by some of the matches I got by, and here we are.

Was this what you had in mind when you heard the event was coming here?

TW: Yeah, the W? Yes.

In the context of (Byron) Nelson's record of 11 in a row, do you think Dubai should count, given how global golf is and it was such a strong field?

TW: I'll let you handle that.

You don't have an opinion?

TW: I'll let you handle that.

Have you had a chance to see the plans for the new course?

TW: I have not. Well, I can only see it from some of the fairways here, but I haven't seen the plans at all.

A quick match question because Stewart couldn't find anything that was really pivotal about the day. Do you see anything? Maybe 17, 18 early morning, that really gave you really good control, or was it a slow bleed?

TW: You know, the only, I guess, chance he could have gotten some momentum was 18 when I made bogey there. If he makes par, at least he has some momentum going into lunch. I felt like I had all the momentum because he—obviously he had a tough putt, but he was in the fairway on his tee shot and he could have put himself in a better spot than he did.

Talk about 18. What kind of lie did you have in that bunker, because—

TW: Which one?

The fairway bunker.

TW: The fairway bunker? It was a perfect lie, but just a really funky stance. I had 152 (yards) to the hole.

It was the first green they said you missed out of a bunker. Fairway—obviously greenside no problem.

TW: Well, there you are.

The jabbing with Arnie aside, from an emotional standpoint and just from a career goal standpoint and all that, how much does it mean at this point in your life and at this point in your career to pass Arnie?

TW: Well, if you would have asked me would I have attained what I have right now when I first turned pro at 20 years old, no. I could never have foreseen my victory total being this high, my game improvement being as much as it has been, my knowledge of the game. I would never have foreseen that. I knew I was going to get better, but I didn't think I was going to have this victory total when I first turned pro, no.

But what about specifically, about Arnie, and what he meant to the game and basically being the most popular player of all time and basically him as a person?

TW: I think any time you're associated with Arnold and what he's done with the game of golf, it's always a positive thing. He's been the ambassador of golf since the '50s. It's hard to believe it's been over 50 years of him just being the flagship of golf on a global scale, not just here in the United States. He's played all around the world and he's carried golf. He's what brought golf into the mainstream on TV.

I want to go back and talk a little about that stretch you had in '99, 2000, which is getting pretty analogous to what you're doing now. Do you think the wins today might be more meaningful in that you're not playing as many Disneys and Phoenixes? I'm going to get stares for that one, but some of the ones where the scoring is really low? Your scoring average for 2000 and last year were identical, and last year you're playing pretty much just the varsity schedule and winning those types of events. I wonder if maybe that factors into why you think you're playing better now?

TW: Finally someone understood. That's one of the reasons why I said what I said. You hit the nail right on the head on that one.

You mentioned about on the 14th on Wednesday and you were making a run. Is that something you can just decide to do?

TW: I wish it was that easy. You know, when I made that putt there at 14 it was nice to make because, one, I needed to make it. I had to get back in the match. But I just felt that if I could make that putt, hit a good drive down 15, I would have momentum in the match. Even though I was 2-down, I felt like I would have the momentum. And all of a sudden that's how it turned out to be. But the putt I made on 16 was the putt. I had to make that putt. I just had to get all square before we got to 18. That's what I kept telling Stevie (Williams); we just need to get this thing all square before we get to 18, just to put heat on him. He's never played in this event before. He's never had to finish off a guy in this event. If I get it all square to 18, just make him think about it.

Is it as much fun for you to have a run to win or when you have to work hard to win?

TW: I would rather be out front, it's just slightly easier on the system. Coming back from behind obviously it's—you get a lot of satisfaction out of it because you have to dig deep and find a way. But when you're out in front and rolling, everything is kind of going your way. And it just seems like it just snowballs the correct way.

You always talk about improving. I was wondering if you could talk about the improvement in your short game. Coming out of this week, is there anything you need to improve upon before Bay Hill in your own mind?

TW: I worked on my short game pretty hard this winter. I didn't like what I was feeling at the end of last year, even though I was winning tournaments. My short game was not very good. I was chipping it up there in a range I didn't think was close enough, but I was making putts. So it was misleading. One of the things that—I guess it's hard to explain to someone. If you're hitting a lot of greens, you get into a rhythm of hitting greens. And then when you miss one, you haven't hit a pitch shot or you haven't gotten a rhythm of hitting a pitch. So I wanted to make sure I did a lot of work on that this winter so if I did miss greens I would feel comfortable with my technique, even though I haven't hit a bunch of pitch shots. Obviously going into the Florida Swing I'm going to have to work on a few things, but I'm very pleased at the progress that I made this week, and I think the ability to adapt and figure things out on the fly is something I'm very proud of.

You've talked a lot about the match with J.B., but against (Aaron) Baddeley on 18 and the 19th hole and he has those putts to win and you're watching him. What's going through your mind at that point when he can close out the match?

TW: Well, 18 was not a realistic putt to make. People don't realize how hard of a putt that was. Of the two putts, I had the easier of the two putts, even though mine was a lot faster. I didn't have that much break. He had just a really difficult putt. The putt he had at the first hole, that was the putt. It's a tough putt to read because that pin was so deep that actually it's on the other side of the slope, and the valley has a little bit more effect on that putt. And he hit a good putt and you could see the valley just kind of snag it at the end, but it was a good putt.

When you're standing there watching, are you giving yourself a pep talk to get ready for the next tee?

TW: That's what you always do.

Given that you've won this event three times, I wonder if you would be totally in favor of the PGA Championship reverting back to the match play format and why that is?

TW: Well, I guess I'm 50/50 split, because I've won, I think, both tournaments three times. So I could go either way.

When you get on these—when you start winning in bunches over the last eight or nine years, people invariably will say, where are these guys to step up and challenge Tiger. Is that more offensive to you, do you think, or to them?

TW: Well, I think it's probably more offensive to them because it's not like they're not practicing at home. We're all trying to improve. We're all working extremely hard to get better. People just don't understand that. Look at what some of the guys do in the off-season, getting more fit, getting stronger, more flexible. Guys have changed equipment companies, anything to try to get a little bit better. I think it is a shot at them a little bit.

Do you think it's hard for players from a past generation to give you your due?

TW: It's probably that way in every sport, isn't it?

Ending on something that's apropos of nothing, your Policy Board is meeting tomorrow to visit that cut rule thing. I'm wondering if you would be bummed if they shot that thing down. And secondarily, if they enforced the speed provisions of how you guys are supposed to play, wouldn't the cut rule thing kind of take care of itself?

TW: I know, but the second part of your statement is obviously—that's where it's lacking. The guys don't police it out there with pace of play. And it is getting slow out there, especially if we have any kind of frost delays or any kind of weather delays; guys aren't finishing. From what I remember, we didn't have any delays out of L.A. and the guys had to come back and finish. That's not good.

They docked them strokes on the LPGA?

TW: They might have to. But the guys are a little sensitive about that.

You've mentioned a few times since the whole talk of the Grand Slam came up about peaking at the right time. I'm curious, you're not worried about peaking too early? Is that a concern, or do you have enough—do you feel in your mind there's enough to work on to keep you—

TW: I've got a plateful to work on. You can always get better. You can always keep improving. Golf is fluid; it's always evolving, and it's always changing. You work hard on the short game, then you lose your long game. Work on your long game, then you don't putt well. You don't putt well, you work on your putting, all of a sudden you lose your long game. It's just one of those things you always have to keep a handle on every single facet of the game. And a lot of times you just don't feel like there's enough time in the day for that because there's so much that you have to do in order to improve and there's so much you have to do to get better and so many things that you have to do to keep a handle on things.

LN: Tiger, congrats; thanks for your time.

International Federation of PGA Tours/World Golf Championships

At the 1996 Presidents Cup, golf's five world governing bodies—the European Tour, Japan Golf Tour Organization, PGA TOUR, PGA Tour of Australasia and Southern Africa Tour—reached agreement on several key elements of professional golf designed to create new international events beginning in 1999.

Three major initiatives were outlined at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club, site of the second Presidents Cup:

- Formation of the International Federation of PGA Tours
- Joint sanctioning by the members of the International Federation of PGA Tours of significant competitions, including some at the world championship level, for the game's top players
- A structure for a generally accepted worldwide ranking system

Those "significant competitions" were announced in Oct. 1997, when the Federation introduced the World Golf Championships.

The first three jointly sanctioned championships—the Accenture Match Play Championship, the NEC Invitational (now the Bridgestone Invitational) and the American Express Championship (now the CA Championship)—were launched in 1999. Jeff Maggert won the first-ever World Golf Championships event, the Accenture Match Play Championship at La Costa Resort and Spa in Carlsbad, CA. Tiger Woods won the next two—the NEC Invitational at Firestone CC's South Course in Akron, OH, and the American Express Championship at Valderrama in Spain. The addition of the World Cup was announced in December 1999 and debuted in December 2000.

In 2000, Darren Clarke won the second Accenture Match Play Championship at La Costa, while Woods was successful at Firestone in defense of his NEC Invitational title. Mike Weir won the American Express Championship in Valderrama, while Woods and David Duval teamed to win the World Cup for the United States at Buenos Aires Golf Club in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The 2001 World Golf Championships began at The Metropolitan Club in Melbourne, Australia, with the Accenture Match Play Championship. That event was won by Steve Stricker of the United States. In August, Woods won his third consecutive NEC Invitational in a seven-hole playoff at Firestone over Jim Furyk. In September, the American Express Championship, scheduled to be held at Bellerive Country Club in St. Louis, MO, was canceled due to the terrorist attacks in the United States. South Africa represented by Ernie Els and Retief Goosen won the World Cup in November at The Taiheiyo Club in Japan.

In 2002, Kevin Sutherland defeated six higher-seeded players on his way to victory in the Accenture Match Play Championship at La Costa. Craig Parry continued the first-time winner trend when he emerged victorious at the NEC Invitational at Sahalee CC, outside of Seattle, WA. In September, Woods kept his streak of winning at least one World Golf Championships event a year alive, with his victory at Mount Juliet Estate in Ireland. The season came to a close with Japan's Shigeki Maruyama and Toshi Izawa teaming to win the World Cup in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico.

The 2003 World Golf Championships got underway in February with Woods winning the Accenture Match Play Championship at La Costa Resort. That victory made him the first player to win all four of the World Golf Championships events in their five-year history.

The series continued in August as Clarke won the NEC Invitational as the tournament returned to Firestone Country Club. A month later, Woods won his second World Golf Championships event of 2003 at the American Express Championship at the Capital City Club's Crabapple Course in the Atlanta-suburb of Woodstock, GA. The year concluded in November with the South African team of Rory Sabbatini and Trevor Immelman winning the World Cup at The Ocean Course at Kiawah Island Golf Resort on Kiawah Island, SC.

The 2004 World Golf Championships began in February with Woods successfully defending his Accenture Match Play Championship title at La Costa Resort and Spa in Carlsbad, CA. In August, Stewart Cink captured his first World Golf Championships title with a victory at the NEC Invitational in Akron, OH. Els earned his first individual World Golf Championships title in the third World Golf Championships event of the year when he won the American Express Championship, his third victory of 2004. The American Express Championship was in Ireland. American Express Championship was in Ireland. The World Golf Championships season ended with England's Paul Casey and Luke Donald teaming to win the World Cup.

The 2005 season's first World Golf Championships event was the Accenture Match Play Championship, won by David Toms in convincing fashion over Chris DiMarco. At the NEC Invitational, Woods continued his dominance at Firestone with a resounding victory. Woods won again at the American Express Championship at Harding Park Golf Course in San Francisco, CA. The final World Golf Championships tournament of 2005 was the Algarve World Cup in Portugal, won by Wales, represented by Stephen Dodd and Bradley Dredge.

In February 2006, the World Golf Championships season began with the final Accenture Match Play Championship contested at the La Costa Resort and Spa in Carlsbad, CA. Geoff Ogilvy won the title. Woods won the next two events—the Bridgestone Invitational in Akron, OH, and the American Express Championship in the London, England, suburb of Hertfordshire. The final event of the year was the Barbados World Cup at Sandy Lane Resort. The German team of Bernhard Langer and Marcel Siem prevailed in a playoff.

The 2007 season featured dramatic changes in the World Golf Championships landscape. The Accenture Match Play Championship moved from its long-time home in Southern California to The Gallery Golf Club at Dove Mountain in Tucson, AZ. Ogilvy looked like he was going to successfully defend his title until Henrik Stenson defeated him in the finals. A month later, the CA Championship, after moving from its usual fall spot on the PGA TOUR schedule to March at the Doral Golf Resort and Spa's Blue Course in Doral, FL, where Woods won his third consecutive title. Woods also won the Bridgestone Invitational at Firestone Country Club's South Course.

The 2008 season began at the Accenture Match Play Championship, again in Tucson, with Tiger Woods surviving some early round scares to eventually rout Stewart Cink, 8 and 7, in the final. At the CA Championship at Doral, Geoff Ogilvy earned his second World Golf Championships title, edging a trio of former major champions—Jim Furyk, Retief Goosen and Vijay Singh—by a stroke in a Monday morning win. Singh later gained redemption by winning the Bridgestone Invitational at Firestone for his first World Golf Championships victory.

This season, the first tournament is the Accenture Match Play Championship, which switches to The Ritz-Carlton Golf Club Dove Mountain in Marana, AZ. The CA Championship returns to the Doral Golf Resort and Spa's Blue Course, with the Bridgestone Invitational again slated for Firestone Country Club's South Course.

The World Golf Championships events feature players from around the world competing against one another in varied formats (match play, stroke and team). The championships rotate through a variety of outstanding venues worldwide. Roughly half of the golf courses are in the United States, with the other half in venues represented by the International Federation of PGA Tours. World Golf Championships events have been contested on five continents.

The World Golf Championships were developed to enhance the competitive structure of professional golf worldwide while preserving the traditions and strengths of the individual Tours and their events.

The Asian Tour joined the International Federation of PGA Tours as a full-fledged member in November 1999, while the Canadian Tour was named an associate member in March 2000. Accenture, Bridgestone and CA are the umbrella sponsors of the World Golf Championships.

Fields for the World Golf Championships are filled primarily through the Official World Golf Ranking, which is endorsed by all the sport's major professional organizations and governing bodies, and individual Tour's Official Money Lists/Orders of Merit.

Winners of World Golf Championships are honored with trophies honoring some of the great names in international golf. The winner of the Accenture Match Play Championship earns the Walter Hagen Cup; the Gene Sarazen Cup goes to the champion of the CA Championship, while the winner of the Bridgestone Invitational is awarded the Gary Player Cup.

No. 1

Par 4

460 Yards

Straightaway and slightly downhill, the wide fairway eventually runs into a crossing wash. The approach is uphill over the wash to a green unguarded by bunkers, with open space on the right.

No. 2

Par 5

574 Yards

A gradual dogleg left and a bit downhill, bunkers line the left side of the landing area. A bunker 67 yards short of the elevated green determines strategy for laying up or going for the green in two.

No. 3

Par 3

208 Yards

The only pond on the course is to the right and partially in front of the green, enticing a left-to-right trajectory. The green, surrounded by bunkers, slopes left to right, and down toward the water.

No. 4

Par 4

393 Yards

The pond stretches in front of the tees, which look to a fairway with five bunkers that stud the landing area. The approach is a carry over a wash to a small green with a devilish false front.

No. 5

Par 4

536 Yards

A wide, welcoming fairway forms a gentle double dogleg, first left and then right. A series of pot bunkers line the final 40 yards on the right to the back of the elevated green.

No. 6

Par 3

A straightforward target, the relatively level green angles right to left, wrapping around a bunker that is set right-center. A tightly mowed swale on the left is safe, unlike the waste area on the right.

No. 7

Par 4

486 Yards

An uphill dogleg right, the wide fairway is guarded by a bunker 60 yards long at the right corner. A deep "Black Hole" bunker fronts the elevated green, which slopes sharply to the front, left-to-right.

No. 8

Par 5

576 Yards

A wash splits the fairway into a dogleg right, with bunkers along the wide landing areas. An impressive hilltop bunker complex 40 yards short of the green can hide most of the flagstick.

No. 9

Par 4

476 Yards

A wash creates a carry from the tee and reappears in front of the green, wrapping around it as well. A raised fairway bunker hides the green, which slopes in front to a grassy area on the right.

No. 10

Par 4

493 Yards

This straightaway hole starts over a wash toward a left-side fairway bunker edged with wispy native grasses. The wash re-crosses the fairway, forcing a carry to at least the mowed area in front of the rectangular green.

No. 11

Par 5

659 Yards

Bunkers on both sides of the wide-landing area display more flowing, native grasses. A wash area splits the fairway, forcing a carry on the second shot. Pot bunkers protect an elevated green with a sloping ridge.

No. 12

Par 3

Teeing off from the highest point of the course, a huge bunker runs all along the right side, with a pot bunker short of the sloping green that drops off in the front left and back right. Another "blind bunker" sits in the back left.

No. 13

Par 5

583 Yards

Gently bending right, the landing areas are bordered by bunkers and desert. A centered pot bunker 80 yards short of the green creates a choice: ignore it, or lay up. Four more bunkers dominate the final 70 yards to the green.

No. 14

Par 4

449 Yards

A wide-landing area features a massive bunker complex on right (52 yards long). The approach presents a carry over a wash and two deep front bunkers to a narrow green, which is low in front and rises to the back.

No. 15

Par 4

343 Yards

Wash areas create a possible “double-carry”—first from the tee and then where it crosses the fairway, 120 yards from the green (260-yard tee shot needed). A deep pot bunker is 50 yards short of the level, narrow green.

No. 16

Par 3

A downhill carry over the desert wash from the tee, a mown area covering the final 50 yards is bordered by a wide, shallow bunker on the right and pot bunker on the left. The green rises from the front right to back left.

No. 17

Par 4

482 Yards

A substantial landing area on this dogleg right includes a bunker on the right that stretches for 77 yards. The approach is a carry over a desert wash. The green is defined by a huge center ridge, creating 3- to 4-foot dropoffs.

No. 18

Par 4

480 Yards

A roomy landing area on this dogleg right has two bunkers—one on the right and the other centered in the fairway. The approach is a carry over the wash to an elevated green, surrounded by a grassy “amphitheater.”

Walter Hagen Cup

The Walter Hagen Cup

Each year the Walter Hagen Cup is awarded to the champion of the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship.

The Walter Hagen Cup was designed and produced by Wedgwood, a sister company of Waterford Crystal. Josiah Wedgwood's 1774 invention of Jasper is exquisitely interpreted in a handcrafted trophy featuring precious metal components and embellishments.

The winner of each of the World Golf Championships is awarded a Wedgwood trophy named after a great international figure in the game. The Gary Player Cup is awarded to the champion of the Bridgestone Invitational. The winner of the CA Championship receives the Gene Sarazen Cup.

Walter Hagen

In addition to being one of the game's best players, Walter Hagen was perhaps golf's greatest showman. Hagen was golf's first full-time touring professional. He won 40 times on the PGA TOUR, including 11 times in major championships. It is appropriate that the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship trophy bears his name as he was perhaps the greatest match player in history. He won five PGA Championships in match play, including four consecutive from 1924-1927. He once won 22 straight 36-hole matches in the PGA and 32 out of 33 between the first round in 1921 and the fourth round of 1928. In six Ryder Cup matches, his record was 7-1-1. Hagen, an inaugural member of the World Golf Hall of Fame, also won two U.S. Opens and four British Opens.

Glossary of Match-Play Terms

Match Play

Is when the game is played by holes.

Advice

Is any counsel or suggestion that could influence a player in determining his play, the choice of a club or the method of making a stroke. Each team may appoint one person who may give advice to members of that team. Such person must be identified to the Committee before giving advice.

Opponent

In match play it is never a competitor; rather it is always an opponent or player.

Single (not individual)

A match when one plays against another.

Committee

Is a group of people in charge of the competition.

Referee

Is one who is appointed by the Committee to accompany players to decide questions of fact and apply the rules. He shall act on any breach of a rule which he observes or is reported to him. A referee's decision is final.

Observer

Is one who is appointed by the Committee to assist a referee to decide questions of fact and report to him any breach of a rule.

Honorary Observer

Is one who is appointed by the Committee to assist the observer.

Reckoning of Holes (status of match)

Is kept by the terms, as follows: so many "holes up," or "all square" and so many holes "to play."

Halved Hole

Is when each side holes out in the same number of strokes.

All Square

Is when each side has won the same number of holes as the other side, or when each hole has been halved.

Dormie

This occurs when a side is as many holes up as there are holes remaining to be played.

Rule Explanations

Concession of next stroke, hole or match (Rule 2-4)

When the opponent's ball is at rest or is deemed to be at rest, the player may concede the opponent to have holed out with his next stroke, and the ball may be removed by either side with a club or otherwise. A player may concede a hole or a match at any time prior to the conclusion of the hole or match. Concession of a stroke, hole or a match may not be declined or withdrawn.

Claims (Rule 2-5)

When disputes arise between sides, these shall be made to the referee before any player in the match plays from the next teeing ground—or in the case of the last hole of the match, before all players in the match leave the putting green.

Practice (Rule 7) is allowed as follows:

Before or between rounds, a player may practice on the course. During the round, a player shall not practice either during the play of a hole or between the play of two holes, except that, between the play of two holes, the player may practice putting or chipping on or near the putting green of the last hole played, any practice putting green or the teeing ground of the next hole to be played in the round, provided such practice stroke is not played from a hazard and does not unduly delay play. Strokes played in continuing the play of a hole, the result of which has been decided, are not practice strokes.

NBC Sports and GOLF CHANNEL

NBC

NBC Sports is televising 11 PGA TOUR events in 2009, including the final three events of the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup and The Presidents Cup. Also on the schedule are the first two World Golf Championships events, this week's Accenture Match Play Championship and the CA Championship next month. Also on the schedule is THE PLAYERS Championship. For the second consecutive season, NBC Sports will broadcast all PGA TOUR events in high definition.

Host Dan Hicks and lead analyst Johnny Miller will anchor the coverage from the 18th hole at the The Ritz-Carlton Golf Club, Dove Mountain, during this week's Accenture Match Play Championship. They will be joined by on-course reporters Roger Maltbie and Mark Roling and tower reporter Gary Koch. The trio will also work for GOLF CHANNEL on weekday coverage. NBC's golf coverage is produced by Tommy Roy, who has earned more Emmy nominations than any person in the history of sports television.

GOLF CHANNEL

The PGA TOUR, which formed a strategic, exclusive cable partnership with GOLF CHANNEL calls for a 15-year agreement where GOLF CHANNEL will provide early round coverage of all TOUR official-money events. The network will also offer viewers prime-time, same-day replays and extensive pre-round and post-round coverage and analysis.

GOLF CHANNEL will broadcast Wednesday, Thursday and Friday Accenture Match Play Championship action, with Brian Hammons serving as the host and Nick Faldo and Paul Azinger as the analysts at the 18th hole. Kelly Tilghman is providing essays. Gary Koch and Jimmy Roberts will be manning towers to cover action, while Roger Maltbie, Mark Roling and Andrew Magee, who finished second at the inaugural Accenture Match Play Championship in 1999, will be covering from the course. Steve Sands will conduct post-round interviews.

Official World Golf Ranking

The Official World Golf Ranking, which is endorsed by the four major championships and the six professional tours which make up the International Federation of PGA Tours, is issued every Monday, following the completion of the previous week's tournaments from around the world.

The official events from the six professional tours together with the Canadian, Nationwide and European Challenge Tours are all taken into account and points are awarded according to the players' finishing positions and are generally related to the strength of the field based on the number and ranking of the Top-200 World Ranked players and the Top-30 of the Home Tour players in the respective tournaments (Event "Ratings"). However, the four Major Championships are rated separately to reflect the higher quality of the events together with THE PLAYERS Championship in the United States. In addition, the BMW Championship in Europe, the Australian, Japan and South African Open Championships and the Flagship events on the Asian and Nationwide Tours are allocated higher minimum points levels to reflect their status.

The World Ranking points for each player are accumulated over a two year "rolling" period with the points awarded for each tournament maintained for a 13-week period to place additional emphasis on recent performances—ranking points are then reduced in equal decrements for the remaining 91 weeks of the two-year Ranking period. Each player is then ranked according to his average points per tournament, which is determined by dividing his total number of points by the number of tournaments he has played over that two-year period. There is a minimum divisor of 40 tournaments over the two-year ranking period.

The winners of the Masters Tournament, the U.S. Open, the British Open and the PGA Championship are awarded 100 points (60 points for second place, 40 for third, 30 for fourth down to 1.50 points for a player completing the final round), and the winner of the PGA TOUR's PLAYERS Championship is awarded 80 points (points are awarded down to 1.20 points for 60th place and ties). The European Tour's BMW Championship has a minimum 64 points for the winner (points to 56th place). Minimum points levels for the winners of official Tour events have been set at 6 points for the Canadian Tour (points to sixth place), 12 points for the European Challenge Tour (points to 14th place), 14 points for the Asian, Sunshine and Nationwide Tours (points to 17th place), 16 points for Australasian and Japanese Tours (points to 19th place) and 24 points for European and the United States Tours (points to 27th place). In addition the Open Championships of Australia, Japan and South Africa have a minimum of 32 points for the winner (points to 37th place) and the Flagship events on the Asian and Nationwide Tours have a minimum of 20 points for the winner (points to 22nd place). In the cases of co-sanctioned Tour events, the minimum points levels are determined using the "average" of the minimum Tour ranking points from each Tour (rounded up to nearest whole number).

Points are reduced by 25 percent for tournaments curtailed to 36 holes because of inclement weather or other reasons.

Regulations – Media

The following regulations are to be followed by all members of the media:

1. PGA TOUR retains exclusive media rights (including, but not limited to, broadcast, cable, home video, Internet) to all events on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour.
2. Each credential issued pursuant to PGA TOUR Media Regulations operates as PGA TOUR authorization allowing only the holder of such credential and the Authorized Outlet therefor to use certain information gathered pursuant to the credential (including photographs, videotape, etc.). Please note that unless authorized by a separate written PGA TOUR authorization, credentialed individuals and Authorized Outlets therefor may sell or distribute such information only as part of the editorial product delivered to end users and not to other organizations or as part of a separate commercial product; provided, however, this credential restriction does not apply to credentialed media representing established wire and news services whose normal business is to distribute information for editorial product; further provided, however, the foregoing exception shall not apply to video other than video comprised solely of an Authorized Outlet employee/contractor providing commentary or analysis.
3. Each credential authorizes the holder of such credential and the Authorized Outlet therefor to use the trademark of the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour (as applicable) in the news and editorial coverage of such Tour and the applicable tournament. It does not authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of such trademarks in non-editorial contexts as non-editorial use of such trademarks requires a separate license from the PGA TOUR. Nor does it authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of the tournament trademarks, which trademark use requires authorization from the applicable tournament.
4. A daily decal is necessary to walk inside the gallery ropes. All members of the media with such decal must remain not more than an arm's length from the ropes, so as to blend into the gallery and appear to be a part of the gallery at all times.
5. Players are not to be distracted during play. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their rounds.
6. Do not interview players or ask them to pose for photographs during their practice sessions before a round, except by prior arrangement with the player.
7. If an interview is to be conducted in the practice areas, either the range or the putting green, it must be done by prior arrangement with the player, up against the ropes and not in the middle of the areas where it could be distracting to other players.
8. Do not disturb players at their 18th green and/or scoring tent until after they have checked, signed and returned their scorecards. Media are not allowed in the scoring tent.

WORKING PRESS REGULATIONS

To avoid embarrassment to you and distraction to the contestants:

1. Do not walk or stand in playing areas.
2. Follow directions of marshals and other officials.
3. Do not interview during play. The leading players each day — and others requested — will be interviewed following their rounds in the Press Room interview area.

TAPE RECORDER REGULATIONS

1. All audio recording device and/or video recorder work should be done in the proximity of the press room, media center and/or designated interview area.
2. Video Recorders are not permitted in the locker room. Audio recording devices are permitted in the locker rooms subject to the following regulations:

- Audio recorded interviews are intended to be one-on-one and not group interviews.
 - Audio recorded interviews are for reference only and the audio cannot be used for any other purpose.
 - The reporter must clearly ask a player, and permission must be granted, in order for the audio recording device to be used.
 - The reporter is responsible for making other players in the vicinity aware that an interview is being recorded.
 - PGA TOUR staff may designate, depending upon need and availability, an area within the locker room for the purpose of conducting interviews that are recorded.
 - Use of audio recorded interviews must be limited to the person being interviewed.
3. Audio recording devices and/or video recorders are not permitted within the playing area of the golf course unless written permission has been granted from PGA TOUR.

WEATHER DELAY GUIDELINES

1. During weather-delay situations, no one other than players and essential staff will be permitted in the locker room. This means the media are not permitted in the locker room in such situations. However, whenever possible, arrangements will be made to provide players for interviews during such situations.
2. Fully accredited members of the news media will be welcome in the locker room at all other times to carry out their assigned duties. (Note: Cameras and, except as outlined above, tape recorders are not permitted in the locker room.)

The credentialed entity and the Authorized Outlet therefor, including each intended end user thereof, shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold the Event, its host organization and PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with, any actions of the credentialed entity.

The credentialed entity assumes all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and releases PGA TOUR, Inc.-sanctioned tournaments and competitions and their host sites, title sponsors, host organizations, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases. The holders of the media credential grant permission to PGA TOUR, Inc., to utilize the holders' images or likenesses incidental to any live or recorded television or other transmission or reproduction in whole or in part of any PGA TOUR event they attend.

The terms and conditions of the PGA TOUR Media Regulations are limited to those contained herein. Any additional or different terms or conditions in any form delivered by the credentialed entity or Authorized Outlet are hereby deemed to be material alterations and notice of objection to them and rejection of them is hereby given.

The credentialed entity acknowledges and agrees that photographic images of PGA TOUR sanctioned tournaments are available for use outside the scope of these regulations (e.g., commercial, promotional, etc.) from the Official Photographic Services Provider of the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour (currently, Getty Images), subject to the applicable rate card and course and player approvals.

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.

PGA TOUR retains exclusive media rights (including, but not limited to, broadcast, cable, home video, Internet) to all events on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. No live or tape-delayed broadcast of any portion of any PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour event is permitted without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR.

All radio media are permitted to broadcast highlights coverage of such events only under the following conditions, unless otherwise approved in writing by PGA TOUR:

1. Each credential issued pursuant to PGA TOUR Media Regulations operates as PGA TOUR authorization allowing only the holder of such credential and the Authorized Outlet therefor to use certain information gathered pursuant to the credential (including photographs, videotape, etc.). 2. Each credential authorizes the holder of such credential and the Authorized Outlet therefor to use the trademark of the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour (as applicable) in the news and editorial coverage of such Tour and the applicable tournament. It does not authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of such trademarks in non-editorial contexts as non-editorial use of such trademarks requires a separate license from the PGA TOUR. Nor does it authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of the tournament trademarks, which trademark use requires authorization from the applicable tournament.
3. Coverage shall not be in excess of three minutes of highlights per day and may not purport to be live, play-by-play coverage from the course.
4. All highlights coverage must be part of regularly scheduled news programs and may not be broadcast after 48 hours from the conclusion of the applicable tournament.
5. Live coverage or reporting in excess of three minutes per day from a tournament site, including, without limitation, the course, media center, press room and designated interview area, is prohibited without the prior approval of PGA TOUR.
6. Audio and video coverage shall not be made available until that day's live or tape-delayed coverage by the television network is concluded.

13. The credentialed entity has rights only with respect to radio broadcast and has no rights with respect to any other media (including, without limitation, audio via the Internet) without obtaining the proper and valid credentials for such media.

The credentialed entity and the Authorized Outlet therefor, including each intended end user thereof, shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold the Event, its host organizations and PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with, any actions of the credentialed entity.

The credentialed entity assumes all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and releases PGA TOUR, Inc.-sanctioned tournaments and competitions and their host sites, title sponsors, host organizations, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases. The holders of the media credential grant permission to PGA TOUR, Inc., to utilize the holders' images or likenesses incidental to any live or recorded television or other transmission or reproduction in whole or in part of any PGA TOUR event they attend.

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.

Regulations – Photography

Photo credentials will be issued only to photographers on assignment from recognized and accredited publications, news services and other organizations approved in advance by the PGA TOUR. Requests for photo credentials must be made by the appropriate Authorized Outlet (i.e., publisher, news agency or organization) and not by the photographer. The credentialed entity has rights only with respect to photography and has no rights with respect to any other media without obtaining the proper and valid credentials for such media.

Photographic images of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour players may be used on the Authorized Outlet for legitimate news coverage only, and may be used together with news stories during the day's play, so long as such photographs are not used with other real-time or near-real-time information or sequenced to create a "shot-by-shot" or "hole-by-hole" account of the day's play, nor may photos be sequenced in such a way as to approximate video. Commercial exploitation of these images without written consent of the players and PGA TOUR is prohibited. No sponsorship or advertising may be used in a manner that implies any association between any advertiser and the PGA TOUR and/or a PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour player. Requests for use of such images to promote the PGA TOUR shall be considered by PGA TOUR on a case by case basis. Where appropriate, the Authorized Outlet shall use reasonable efforts to use photographic likenesses of players and tournament courses containing current sponsors and endorsers. Photo galleries shall be limited to a reasonable number of PGA TOUR photos.

Credentialed photographers will receive one of two types of photo credentials. A limited number of inside the ropes photo credentials will be issued daily by the PGA TOUR Media Official on site and will permit the wearer access inside the ropes. Photographers who do not have an inside the ropes photo credential must stay outside the gallery ropes but are still required to check in with the on site PGA TOUR Media Official to receive the proper outside the ropes photo credential. Photographic assistants will not be issued photo credentials of any type.

Professional grade cameras and lenses must be used and may be used only by accredited media representatives who have been issued photo credentials, and such use is subject to the following conditions:

1. Each credential issued pursuant to PGA TOUR Media Regulations operates as PGA TOUR authorization allowing only the holder of such credential and the Authorized Outlet therefor to use certain information gathered pursuant to the credential (including photographs, videotape, etc.). Please note that unless authorized to do by a separate written PGA TOUR authorization, credentialed individuals and Authorized Outlets therefor may sell or distribute such information only as part of the editorial product delivered to end users and not to other organizations or as part of a separate commercial product; provided, however, this credential restriction does not apply to credentialed media representing established wire and news services whose normal business is to distribute information to other news organizations so that such other news organizations may distribute the information for editorial product.

2. Each credential authorizes the holder of such credential and the Authorized Outlet therefor to use the trademark of the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour (as applicable) in the news and editorial coverage of such Tour and the applicable tournament. It does not authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of such trademarks in non-editorial contexts as non-editorial use of such trademarks requires a separate license from the PGA TOUR. Nor does it authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of the tournament trademarks, which trademark use requires authorization from the applicable tournament.
3. Photographers with inside the ropes photo credentials must stay within one arm's length of the ropes at all times. Photographers without inside the ropes photo credentials are not permitted inside the ropes at any time.
4. Photographers are not permitted on the teeing ground, as determined by PGA TOUR.
5. The use of carts is prohibited at all times.
6. Photographers must not position themselves in the line of play. If requested to move by a player, his caddie or an official, the photographer will do so without delay or discussion.
7. No photograph shall be taken until a player has completed his stroke.
8. Players should not be asked to pose during a round.
9. Noise-free equipment must be used at all times.
10. Cameras are not permitted in the scoring tent or in the locker rooms.
11. The credentialed entity has rights only with respect to photography and has no rights with respect to any other media without obtaining the proper and valid credentials for such media.

The credentialed entity and the Authorized Outlet therefor including each intended end user thereof, shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold the Event, its host organization and PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorneys fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with, any actions of the credentialed entity or the use of any photographs other than as set forth in these Photography Regulations.

The credentialed entity assumes all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and releases PGA TOUR, Inc.-sanctioned tournaments and competitions and their host sites, title sponsors, host organizations, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases. The holders of the media credential grant permission to PGA TOUR, Inc., to utilize the holders' images or likenesses incidental to any live or recorded television or other transmission or reproduction in whole or in part of any PGA TOUR event they attend.

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.

Regulations – Television

All television media are permitted to broadcast highlights coverage of such events only under the following conditions unless otherwise approved in writing by PGA TOUR:

1. Each credential issued pursuant to PGA TOUR Media Regulations operates as PGA TOUR authorization allowing only the holder of such credential and the Authorized Outlet therefor to use certain information gathered pursuant to the credential (including photographs, videotape, etc.). Please note that unless authorized by a separate written PGA TOUR authorization, credentialed individuals and Authorized Outlets therefor may sell or distribute such information only as part of the editorial product delivered to end users and not to other organizations or as part of a separate commercial product.
2. Each credential authorizes the holder of such credential and the Authorized Outlet therefor to use the trademark of the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour (as applicable) in the news and editorial coverage of such Tour and the applicable tournament. It does not authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of such trademarks in non-editorial contexts as non-editorial use of such trademarks requires a separate license from the PGA TOUR. Nor does it authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of the tournament trademarks, which trademark use requires authorization from the applicable tournament.
3. Televised coverage shall not be in excess of three minutes of highlights daily from each Tour (and six minutes total for all three Tours) and may not purport to be live, play-by-play coverage from the course. Requests for expanded coverage must be submitted in writing to PGA TOUR.
4. All highlights coverage must be part of regularly scheduled news programs. Highlights may not be sold, distributed, syndicated or provided in any manner to any other entity.
5. Highlights from any day's play may not be broadcast or used for any other purpose after 48 hours from the conclusion of the applicable tournament.
6. No action footage of any day's play may be broadcast until that day's live or tape-delayed coverage by the television network is concluded.
7. Live coverage or reporting in excess of three minutes per day from a tournament site, including, without limitation, the course, media center, press room and designated interview area, is prohibited without the prior approval of PGA TOUR.
8. No footage may be used in any commercial manner or sold, distributed, syndicated or provided to any other entity or agency.

9. As the exclusive rights holder, PGA TOUR is the absolute owner of all footage shot at the tournament site (golf action or other footage) during the entire tournament week (i.e., Monday through Sunday or the conclusion of the tournament, if later than Sunday) and may request copies of any footage shot at PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events. Such footage will be provided to PGA TOUR upon request (PGA TOUR will pay industry standard copying and shipping costs).
10. The use of golf carts is prohibited at all times.
11. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be permitted into the media center and locker room areas.
12. Only personnel with appropriate credentials will be allowed inside the gallery ropes, and they must stay within one arm's length of the ropes at all times. All support personnel must remain outside the ropes.
13. All uses of footage hereunder shall be made with a courtesy credit to PGA TOUR.

The credentialed entity and the Authorized Outlet therefor, including each intended end user thereof, shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold the Event, its host organizations and PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with, any actions of the credentialed entity.

The credentialed entity assumes all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and releases PGA TOUR, Inc.-sanctioned tournaments and competitions and their host sites, title sponsors, host organizations, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases. The holders of the media credential grant permission to PGA TOUR, Inc., to utilize the holders' images or likenesses incidental to any live or recorded television or other transmission or reproduction in whole or in part of any PGA TOUR event they attend.

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.

Regulations – On-Line Services

Media credentials will be issued only to personnel on assignment from recognized golf or legitimate news Internet sites or other non-television video media services, as determined by PGA TOUR in its sole discretion. Coverage obtained in accordance with these regulations can only be used on the Authorized Outlet. Individuals representing multiple interests (such as a recognized golf magazine and an Internet site) must agree to be bound by all applicable media regulations.

PGA TOUR retains exclusive media rights (including but not limited to network, cable, Internet, home video, Internet protocol television, mobile) to all events on the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour. No audio or video coverage of the event competition is permitted without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR. All other audio and video coverage must comply with the regulations below. Scores and statistics may be distributed only in accordance with these regulations.

1. Each credential authorizes the holder of such credential and the Authorized Outlet therefor to use the trademark of the PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour (as applicable) in the news and editorial coverage of such Tour and the applicable tournament. It does not authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of such trademarks in non-editorial contexts as non-editorial use of such trademarks requires a separate license from the PGA TOUR. Nor does it authorize the holder or the Authorized Outlet use of the tournament trademarks, which trademark use requires authorization from the applicable tournament.
2. Coverage must not purport to be live, play-by-play, hole-by-hole or real-time coverage from the course.
3. Audio and video coverage shall be limited to the press room, media center and designated interview area (including any flash photography area by the 18th green), all as determined by PGA TOUR in its sole discretion, and shall not contain video footage or audio call of tournament play. Requests for expanded coverage must be submitted in writing to PGA TOUR for PGA TOUR's prior approval.
4. Audio or video coverage from PGA TOUR designated areas shall not be in excess of two minutes per day from each Tour (and four minutes total for all three Tours).
5. Audio and video coverage shall not be made available on the Authorized Outlet until that day's live or tape-delayed coverage by the television network is concluded and shall not be used for any purpose after 24 hours following the conclusion of the applicable round. Under no circumstances shall live audio or video coverage be made available on the Internet.
6. As the exclusive rights holder, PGA TOUR is the absolute owner of all video footage shot and audio recorded at the tournament site (golf action or other footage) during the entire tournament week (i.e., Monday through Sunday or the conclusion of the tournament, if later than Sunday) and may request copies of any footage shot or audio recorded at PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour events. Such footage and audio will be provided electronically to PGA TOUR immediately upon request.
7. All use of video by the Authorized Outlet must be accompanied by a link back to PGATOUR.com.
8. Scoring and statistical information may only appear in the editorial news portion of the Authorized Outlet and may be provided no sooner than 30 minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots, or after the time such information is legally available as public information if sooner than 30 minutes after the actual occurrence of the shots. Scoring and statistical information may not be archived on the Authorized Outlet and cannot be used for any purpose after 24 hours following the conclusion of the applicable round unless such information is legally available as public information.

9. No coverage, including, without limitation, scoring information, statistical information, video coverage and audio coverage may be used by, sold, given, distributed or otherwise transferred to any party other than the Authorized Outlet in any manner whatsoever, without the prior written consent of PGA TOUR. The foregoing restriction shall not apply to the distribution of the following by established wire and news services whose normal business is to distribute information to other news organizations so that such other news organizations may distribute the information for editorial product: written stories, photos and audio and video comprised solely of an Authorized Outlet employee/contractor providing commentary or analysis.
10. Photographic images of PGA TOUR, Champions Tour and Nationwide Tour players may be used on the Authorized Outlet for legitimate news coverage only, and may be used together with news stories during the day's play, so long as such photographs are not used with other real-time or near-real-time information or sequenced to create a "shot-by-shot" or "hole-by-hole" account of the day's play, nor may photos be sequenced in such a way as to approximate video. Commercial exploitation of these images without written consent of the players and PGA TOUR is prohibited. No sponsorship or advertising may be used in a manner that implies any association between any advertiser and the PGA TOUR and/or a PGA TOUR, Champions Tour or Nationwide Tour player. Requests for use of such images to promote the PGA TOUR shall be considered by PGA TOUR on a case by case basis. Where appropriate, the Authorized Outlet shall use reasonable efforts to use photographic likenesses of players and tournament courses containing current sponsors and endorsers. Photo galleries shall be limited to a reasonable number of PGA TOUR photos.
11. The Authorized Outlet has rights only with respect to website media and other TOUR approved non-television video media and has no rights with respect to any other media without the prior approval of the PGA TOUR.

The credentialed entity and the Authorized Outlet therefor including each intended end user thereof, shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold the Event, its host organizations and PGA TOUR and their respective officers, agents, representatives, successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all expenses, lawsuits, damages, costs and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses) incurred by, arising from, or in connection with, any actions of the credentialed entity.

The credentialed entity assumes all risk and danger incidental to the game of golf and releases PGA TOUR, Inc.-sanctioned tournaments and competitions and their host sites, title sponsors, host organizations, PGA TOUR, Inc., participating players, and all agents thereof from any and all liabilities resulting from such cases. The holders of the media credential grant permission to PGA TOUR, Inc., to utilize the holders' images or likenesses incidental to any live or recorded television or other transmission or reproduction in whole or in part of any PGA TOUR event they attend.

PGA TOUR MAY REVOKE CREDENTIALS AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE FOREGOING REGULATIONS.
