

11/6/2009

http://207.152.69.24/venue/forecast/WGC_-_HSBC_CHAMPIONS.shtml

9410

Interviews or Questions: Please contact Meteorologist Craig Mrozka by email at craigm@mobileweather.com or at +44 751 562

HIGH: 22°C / 72°F LOW: 19°C / 66°F WINDS: ESE 6 - 12 MPH / 10 - 19 KPH

Monday:

Cloudy with rain likely. Rain will be heavy at times in the morning.

HIGH: 26°C / 79°F LOW: 18°C / 64°F WINDS: SW 10 SE 6 - 12 MPH / 10 - 19 KPH

Sunday:

Rain with develop overnight and could become heavy at times. A mix of clouds and sun, humid with scattered showers developing in the afternoon.

HIGH: 26°C / 79°F LOW: 18°C / 64°F WINDS: S 10 - 15 MPH / 16 - 24 KPH

Saturday:

Increasing cloudiness, muggy with isolated showers developing in the afternoon.

LOW: 18°C / 64°F WINDS: S 5 - 10 MPH / 8 - 16 KPH

Tonight:

Variably cloudy.

TEMP: 25°C / 77°F WINDS: S 5 - 10 MPH / 8 - 16 KPH

1800:

Mostly sunny.

TEMP: 27°C / 81°F WINDS: SW 10 - 15 MPH / 16 - 24 KPH

1500:

Mostly sunny and unseasonably warm.

TEMP: 24°C / 75°F WINDS: SW 6 - 12 MPH / 10 - 19 KPH

1200:

Sunny.

TEMP: 18°C / 64°F WINDS: SW 5 - 10 MPH / 8 - 16 KPH

0900:

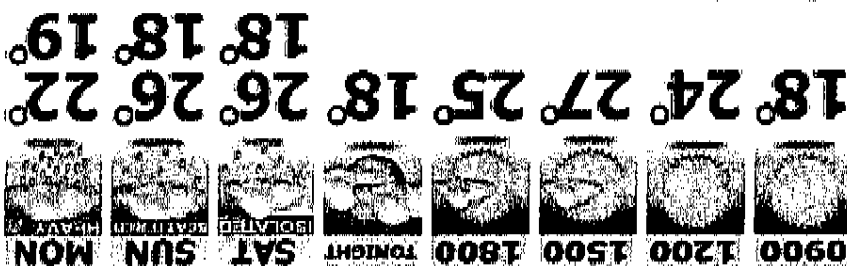

Sunny.

Lightning Threat

Weather Forecast

Clear skies will be around today and high temperatures will reach the upper 20s. Winds will start from the southwest and then come from the south late this afternoon. On Saturday very muggy air will move into the area and low pressure will begin to develop to the west. A few showers may develop in the afternoon on Saturday but our best chance for showers comes on Sunday afternoon with rain developing in the overnight and then heavy rain for Monday morning.

Weather Synopsis

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2009

8AM Update

WGC - HSBC CHAMPIONS

We track the stats and give you time to prepare.

