

2008 WGC-CA Championship SHOTLink Stats

ShotLink Keys to Victory for Geoff Ogilvy

- ◆ Geoff Ogilvy had one of his best ball striking weeks on route to his victory at the 2008 WGC-CA Championship. For the week, he led the field in greens hit (76%) and proximity to the hole on approach shots from the fairway (26 ft 1 in).
- ◆ Ogilvy had 10 approach shots originating outside 200 yards for the week averaging 41 ft 9 in to the pin (5th closest in the field). His 41 ft 9 in average was about 11 feet closer than the field from this distance range (field average: 55 ft 5 in).
- ◆ Ogilvy's performance around the greens at Doral was a major contributor to his victory last year. For the week, he was a field leading (and nearly perfect) 16 of 17 when salvaging for par or better from around the greens.
 - His scrambling success is also impressive considering that his average putt remaining after a chip was 7 ft 6 in to the pin.
 - His only missed scrambling opportunity came on the 7th hole of the final round where he left a 37 ft 6 in putt remaining for par (which he would 2 putt).
 - He was also solid from the sand going 7 for 9 from greenside bunkers blasting out to an average distance of 5 ft 4 in to the pin (5th best in the field).
- ◆ His bogey on the 7th hole in the final round was his only blemish of the week. Prior to that hole, Geoff had gone 60 holes without carding a bogey (only player in the field without multiple bogeys).
- ◆ Over Geoff's 60 hole stretch without a bogey at Doral...
 - He missed 15 greens in regulation.
 - He went a perfect 15 of 15 scrambling averaging 3 ft 9 in to the pin after chip shots.
 - His average par putt made measured in at 3 ft 4 in.
 - He converted 6 par putts over 5 feet with his longest save measuring 27 ft 9 in on the 5th hole of the final round.
- ◆ His success around and on the greens can be attributed to him going a perfect 52 of 52 when putting inside 5 feet for the week and ranking T-2nd in the field when putting inside 10 feet for the week (missed only 3 putts inside 10 all week).
