Match 18

Jason Day/Graham DeLaet (International) halved with Phil Mickelson/Keegan Bradley (U.S.)

Day and DeLaet have been paired together for all four rounds of The Presidents Cup 2013, and their record becomes 2-1-1 after Round Four.

Mickelson and Bradley have also been paired together for all four rounds; their record is also 2-1-1. In their two wins this week, they began the match either 1-down (R2) or all square (R3). They went on to win in R2, 4 up; and won R3, 2 up. They lost the first hole in R4 and got to as many as three down through seven holes before fighting back to all square when play was called.

Their only loss, in R1 Four-ball, they were 1 up after the first hole, eventually losing to Louis Oosthuizen/Charl Schwartzel, 2 and 1.

Mickelson and Bradley's record as a team in The Ryder Cup and The Presidents Cup is now 5-1-1.

In the only match of Saturday Foursomes that was completed before darkness, Zach Johnson holed out for eagle on No. 15 to end the match – Johnson hit a pitching wedge from 115 yards.

Jason Dufner and Zach Johnson remained paired after losing their second-round match and sitting out the third round Four-ball matches. With this victory, their record in The Presidents Cup becomes 2-1-0 as a team in The Presidents Cup 2013.

Johnson now boasts a 4-2-0 career record in The Presidents Cup Foursomes.

Marc Leishman and Richard Sterne were paired together for the first time after both sat out the third round Four-ball matches. Leishman and Sterne were the only pairing featuring two Presidents Cup rookies in Saturday's Four-ball matches.

Richard Sterne has yet to win a match in The Presidents Cup; he was paired with Branden Grace in the first two rounds when they lost in both Four-ball and Foursomes, and he sat out the third round.
