Chris Stroud	67-69--136 (-8)

In addition to 500 FedExCup points and a two-year PGA TOUR exemption, the winner of the first-ever FedExCup event contested in Malaysia (if not previously eligible) receives invitations to the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, a winners-only event in January, along with two major championships (Masters Tournament and PGA Championship) and THE PLAYERS. The player would also earn exemptions into six additional invitationals. Non-members that win earn retroactive FedExCup points upon joining the TOUR and are eligible for the FedExCup Playoffs.

2013-14 Top 10 FedExCup points (bold indicates in CIMB field)

Rank	Player	FEC points	Position in CIMB through 36 holes
1	Jimmy Walker	561	T33
2	Webb Simpson	500
3	Vijay Singh	346
4	Ryo Ishikawa	293
5	Jason Bohn	274
6	Charley Hoffman	135	T25
7	Kevin Na	134
7	Scott Brown	134	T66
7	Hideki Matsuyama	134	T7
10	Charles Howell III	131	T25

Non-members need a total of 278 non-member points (last year's No. 150) to earn Special Temporary Membership, which would allow a player to receive unlimited Sponsor Exemptions through the Wyndham Championship in the attempt to earn a 2014-15 PGA TOUR card through the Non-member Money List or Non-member FedExCup Points List (top 125 through 2014 Wyndham Championship). A non-member would need to finish second (300 points) at the CIMB Classic to earn Special Temporary Membership.

A top-10 finish at the CIMB Classic for non-members would earn an exemption into The McGladrey Classic in two weeks in Georgia.

Keegan Bradley (-13, 65-66--131)

Keegan Bradley's first 36-hole total of 131 is two off his career-best 129 at the 2013 HP Byron Nelson Championship that featured a first-round 60.

Through 36 holes, Keegan Bradley has 14 birdies and just one bogey, the par-4 13th hole during Friday's second round.

Bradley is making his first start of the 2013-14 PGA TOUR Season. Despite not winning last year, Bradley finished 18th in the FedExCup standings on the strength of a career-best seven top-10 finishes.

Bradley is making his first career start at the CIMB Classic.

Bradley is a three-time PGA TOUR winner, including the 2011 PGA Championship. His last victory came at the 2012 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational.

Ryan Moore (-9, 63-72--135)

Moore is making his third CIMB Classic start – he finished T5 in 2010 and withdrew during the final round in 2011.

Moore is a two-time winner on the PGA TOUR: 2009 Wyndham Championship and 2012 Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. Last year, Moore posted three top-10 finishes and finished 53rd in the FedExCup standings.

Last week in his title defense at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, Moore finished T9 in his first start of 2013-14.

Moore is a native of the State of Washington and currently makes his home in Las Vegas. While playing collegiately at UNLV, Moore had one of the most impressive careers in the modern era of amateur golf, with victories at the the U.S. Amateur, the Western Amateur, the U.S. Amateur Public Links (twice) and the NCAA individual championship. Moore then turned professional in 2005 and earned his 2006 PGA TOUR card straight out of UNLV without having to go the PGA TOUR Qualifying School, joining players that had accomplished the feat before him: Gary Hallberg, Scott Verplank, Phil Mickelson, Justin Leonard and Tiger Woods. Bud Cauley did so in 2011 out of the University of Alabama.

Kiradech Aphibarnrat (-8, 67-69—136)

The two-time Asian Tour winner finished inside the top 10 of the Asian Tour Order of Merit in 2010 and 2011 and currently leads the Order of Merit in 2013. Earlier this year, the 24-year-old won the Maybank Malaysian Open here at Kuala Lumpur G&CC by one stroke in a tournament shortened to 54 holes due to weather.

Aphibarnrat is playing in his fourth career PGA TOUR event, having missed the cut at The Open Championship while finishing T40 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational and T25 at the PGA Championship, all in 2013.

Chris Stroud (-8, 67-69—137)

Chris Stroud finished No. 43 in the 2013 FedExCup standings with a total of four top-10 finishes including a career-best runner-up in a playoff to Ken Duke at the Travelers Championship. The Texas native is a 2004 graduate of Lamar University.

Stroud has only one bogey through 36 holes.

Making his second start of the 2013-14 PGA TOUR Season, Stroud missed the cut two weeks ago at the Frys.com Open.

Sergio Garcia (-7, 66-71—137)

Sergio Garcia bogeyed his first two holes in Friday's second round but recovered to post a 1-under-par 71.

Miscellaneous Notes

Marc Leishman posted the round of the day with a 7-under-par 65 to move from T30 to T5.

First-year PGA TOUR member Hideki Matsuyama sits T7 through 36 holes. In his PGA TOUR member debut two weeks ago at the Frys.com Open, Matsuyama finished T3 at the Frys.com Open.

Bubba Watson rebounded from a first-round 78, posting a 3-under-par 69 on Friday.
