EVENT: Northern Trust Open

What started as the Los Angeles Open in 1926 at Los Angeles Country Club, the Northern Trust Open is now one of the longest-running tournaments on the PGA TOUR. It was staged at various courses throughout the Los Angeles area before permanently settling at Riviera Country Club in 1973. Outside of the major championships, the Northern Trust Open is the fourth-oldest event on TOUR, trailing only the BMW Championship, the RBC Canadian Open and the Valero Texas Open.

CHARITY: The Northern Trust Open continues a PGA TOUR tradition of giving back, strengthening individuals, families and their communities through innovative and responsive philanthropic programs. The 2013 Northern Trust Open raised $1.3 million for non-profit organizations in the Los Angeles area, bringing the total generated for Los Angeles charities since the event's inception to nearly $57 million.

In July 2012, City of Hope, a leading research, treatment and education center for cancer, diabetes, HIV/AIDS and other life-threatening diseases, was named Official Charity of the Northern Trust Open. As the official charity, City of Hope utilizes the event as a platform to educate the nation about its work and benefits from the considerable charitable dollars generated each year from tournament proceeds. In turn, City of Hope works alongside the Northern Trust Open to generate exposure, sales, promotion and growth of the event.

Although City of Hope is the official charity partner of the Northern Trust Open, the long-term charitable strategy of the event includes additional avenues for local organizations to receive funding, including the LA Legends Club (which award grants to deserving charities of their choice each year) and Community Charities (TICKETS Fore CHARITY™ participants, as well as the Birdies for the Brave® Patriots' Outpost, The First Tee and Chevron's EAGLES FOR EDUCATION).

1926 Harry Cooper

Billed as the "greatest golfing classic the West has ever known," the first Northern Trust Open Golf Tournament generated such interest that Damon Runyon was dispatched from New York to cover the $10,000 event. This purse, the largest offered on TOUR, was enough to attract Harry Cooper and amateur George Von Elm, who waged a head-to-head battle against a field of 250 other entrants. Cooper managed to take command after the 14th hole, finishing with an eagle on the 18th for a 279 and a three-stroke victory margin.

1927 Bobby Cruickshank

Harry Cooper took the second-round lead at El Caballero that year, but his victory effort skidded when, on the par-3 17th, he recorded a nine. The "Wee Scot" Bobby Cruickshank danced when he took the tourney by six strokes.

1928 MacDonald Smith

MacDonald Smith began his four-tourney domination of the Northern Trust Open at Wilshire Country Club. Although Tommy Armour, Bobby Cruickshank and Harry Cooper were the favorites, the 36-year-old Smith was consistent. He took only 115 putts during the 72-hole tournament, for an average of 1.6 putts per green.

1929 MacDonald Smith

As the 1920s roared to a close, so many golfers wanted to play in the $10,000 Northern Trust Open that a 36-hole qualifier was required. Six courses were used for the rounds. Will Rogers acted as Master of Ceremonies at the Junior Chamber's $100-a-plate Sportsman's Banquet. Walter Hagen was tagged as the favorite for this tourney, but once again it was MacDonald Smith's expertise on the greens which brought him first prize.

1930 Denny Shute

Rain affected play at Riviera that year to the extent that favorites MacDonald Smith and Walter Hagen turned in rounds of 77 and 81, respectively. Denny Shute pulled out to lead in the second round, maintaining first place for the remainder of the tournament and becoming the first American to win the Northern Trust Open. Rain was such a factor that par was equaled or broken just once.

1931 Ed Dudley

Again rain played a major role in the tournament, forcing the sixth Northern Trust Open to be delayed a day to allow Wilshire Country Club to dry out. The 16th hole had always been a problem and was lengthened to become a par 5. Two Chicagoans, Al Espinosa and Eddie Loos, led the tournament after the first round, but it was Ed Dudley's final-round 68 which earned a place in the tournament's list of champions.

1932 MacDonal Smith

The depression forced the purse of the 1932 Northern Trust Open down to $7,500 but did nothing to dampen the play that year. The excitement started in the qualifying round when Fred Morrison made an eagle on the first hole and holed a 240-yard shot for a double eagle-2 on the par-5 eighth hole. MacDonal Smith took an early lead and maintained it to walk away with his third Northern Trust Open championship.

1933 Craig Wood

The opening round of the tournament ended in a four-way tie between Craig Wood, Clarence Hubby, Irvin Goddard and Eddie Loos, all with 69s. The prize money went to Wood with MacDonald Smith coming in eighth. Farther back in the field was a young Texan playing in his second professional tournament – Byron Nelson.

1934 MacDonald Smith

The Northern Trust Open celebrated its ninth birthday and returned to Los Angeles Country Club. A "Parade of Sports" broadcast was held with former tournament winner Denny Shute and Leo Diegel representing golf on the Christmas Eve program carried by CBS. Olin Dutra, of Brentwood, opened the tournament with a sizzling 67 and a two-stroke lead over Johnny Revolta. Dutra and Revolta shared the lead after two rounds, but the final two belonged to three-time champ MacDonald Smith. Smith took the tournament with his lowest score, a 280, and an eight-stroke margin.

1935 Vic Ghezzi

Two relative unknowns dominated play in 1935. Vic Ghezzi and Johnny Revolta both shot 68s in the first round, but Ghezzi managed to fight his way to a one-stroke lead by the second day. The tables were turned as Revolta took the lead only to bogey three of his last five holes for a tie with Ghezzi. An 18-hole playoff on Monday only managed to draw a gallery of 500 spectators. This was credited to the anonymity of the players and to the fact that Ghezzi and Revolta had pledged to split the prize money regardless of the outcome. Ghezzi took the honors with a 73 to Revolta's 75 in the playoff.

1936 Jimmy Hines

There were 14 sub-par rounds the first day of play, which included a three-way tie for the lead among defending champ Vic Ghezzi, 1926 winner Harry Cooper and Henry Picard, all of whom shot 66s. Jimmy Hines was one of only two golfers to break par on the second day. His 68 put him in contention with Picard for the lead. Hines opened the final day of play with a 69 and shot a 74 in the afternoon round for a four-stroke victory over Picard and Jimmy Thompson.

1937 Harry Cooper

The field included all the past winners of the Northern Trust Open except Bobby Cruickshank, but the only one who was to figure prominently was the first winner, the man whom Damon Runyon called "Lighthorse" Harry Cooper. Perhaps because the Chicagoan was more used to cold weather, he ignored the near-freezing temperatures and shot a 69 and 70 to lead the first two rounds. Horton Smith challenged Cooper in the third round, firing a course-record 64. It was Cooper again in the final round with a 66 for a tournament record 274 and a five-stroke victory margin. In sixth place was a young golfer who would not only play a large part in the future of tournament, but also become a legend for all of golf – Sam Snead.

1938 Jimmy Thompson

The tourney belonged to Jimmy Thompson, who demolished the Griffith Park courses with a second-hand putter he had picked up for $1 in a Pasadena pro shop three weeks before the tournament. Thompson and Willie Goggin shot spectacular 65s for a three-stroke lead in the first round. The second day saw Thompson set a new 36-hole competitive record of 131. His spectacular 66 included a 50-foot downhill putt for a birdie on the ninth hole. Although stumbling a bit in the third round, he returned to form for a final-round 68, setting a new tournament record 273, 12-under par. Johnny Revolta trailed by four strokes. This was the tournament that featured the legendary Babe Didrickson, who played the first two days, shooting 84-81 for a 165. She failed to make the cut, but was the first woman to play in a men's professional golf tournament.

1939 Jimmy Demaret

The Los Angeles Times stepped in to guarantee the $5,000 purse in the 14th Northern Trust Open, also co-sponsoring a "Parade of Champions" banquet with the Junior Chamber. Defending champions Jimmy Thompson and Harry Cooper were featured as the banquet was broadcast coast to coast over the Mutual System. In what looked like a replay of the previous year, Jim Demaret fired a 66 in the opening round. He started off the second round with bogeys on two of the first three holes, but recovered for a 68. Demaret shot a par 71 in the third round, but opened the final round with a birdie and added an eagle on the eighth hole. His best shot, however, came on the 15th hole. With his drive 50 feet short of the pin and behind a slight hill, Demaret used a wedge to sail the ball over the hill and roll it on the cup. His 274 total was just one off the tournament record and seven strokes ahead of second-place Harold "Jug" McSpaden.

1940 Lawson Little

Los Angeles Country Club is not an easy course under ideal conditions. Add rain and it becomes a nearly impossible task to even approach par. Rain plagued the entire tournament with scores soaring over par. In the final round, trailing by five strokes, Lawson Little fired an amazing 65 for a one-stroke victory over Clayton Heafner. The wet weather did nothing to dampen the enthusiasm of the fans who were joined in the galleries by Hollywood celebrities including Bing Crosby, Fred Astaire, Randolph Scott and Elsa Maxwell.

1941 Johnny Bulla

The purse returned to its original $10,000 and the tourney came back to Riviera Country Club after a 10-year absence. Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson and Sam Snead were pre-tournament favorites. Hogan was fresh from his win in the World's Long Distance Driving Contest which had been staged December 30 in the Los Angeles Coliseum. Johnny Bulla, a young drug store employee from Chicago, ran away in the second round, playing with Walgreens bargain counter golf balls. After an eagle on the first hole, he made seven straight threes, turning the front nine in 30. Slowing up a bit on the back nine he still turned in a dazzling 66. Bulla turned in a 69 on the final day for a two-stroke win over Craig Wood.

1942 Ben Hogan

With many major sports events canceled due to World War II, the Northern Trust Open continued to lead the California "Gold Trail" of tournaments. Its $10,000 purse, underwritten by the Los Angeles Times, continued to be the largest on the PGA TOUR. Burns & Allen emceed a pre-tourney luncheon honoring the golfers and a record 25,000 fans turned out for the four-day event. Vardon Trophy winner Ben Hogan was favored going in to the 17th Northern Trust Open and he didn't disappoint the fans. Hogan and Jimmy Thompson ended up tied and went to a playoff. Hogan took an early lead in the playoff, then bogeyed 11 and 14. It was even again as they approached the final hole, where Hogan birdied to take the largest prize he had yet earned.

1944 Harold McSpaden

Some 200 golfers came after $12,500 in war bonds at the 18th Northern Trust Open. "Lord Byron" Nelson led the favorites at Wilshire Country Club, but ex-Yankee Sammy Byrd took the first-round lead with a sizzling 66. The first round also featured two holes in one on the 13th. In the final round, Harold "Jug" McSpaden came out of the pack with a 66 to win his fourth tournament in five starts. Nearly $8,000 in proceeds from the tournament were donated to the American Women's Voluntary Service through Mrs. Bob Hope.

1945 Sam Snead

Sam Snead, just back from 26 months in the Navy, was expected to battle it out with "Athlete of the Year" Byron Nelson in the 19th Northern Trust Open, but the situation looked hopeless when Snead hooked his ball into the base of a tree on the seventh hole, leaving himself no clear shot to the green. Taking a 5-iron, he smashed it into a trunk and bent the club. The ball sailed onto the green just 25 feet from the pin. Snead's 283 gave him a one-stroke victory over Nelson and McSpaden.

1946 Byron Nelson

Byron Nelson finished 1945 by winning an incredible 19 tournaments and had finished in the money in 102 consecutive events. He joined former winners Ben Hogan and Sam Snead as obvious favorites. Snead led after the first round, but succumbed to high winds and the trees surrounding the course. Hogan also had trouble, taking a six on the 12th and a five on the 13th in the first round. Having played in 11 Northern Trust Opens without a victory, Byron Nelson attacked the course in the second round, hitting 17 greens and taking only 34 putts for a 69. His consistent play over the final two days gave him a five-stroke victory over Hogan.

For the 21st Northern Trust Open, Sam Snead, Ben Hogan, Jimmy Demaret and Lloyd Mangrum were the pre-tourney favorites. The second day proved it was Hogan's tournament, as he tied the course record with a 66, sinking four putts of more than 30 feet. Hogan continued his winning form over the final two days, setting a course record at 280.

1948 Ben Hogan

Truman predicted that 1948 would be a very good year. And it was, at least for Ben Hogan, who won the PGA, U.S. Open and his third Northern Trust Open crown. More than 400 golfers tried to qualify for only 150 spots, requiring a nine-course qualifying tournament. Walter Hagen showed up half an hour late for his starting time and was disqualified. Deciding that his course record in 1947 wasn't good enough, Hogan opened with a 68, then followed with two 70s and a 67 for an amazing 9-under-par 275. His record would not be equaled for 25 years. Later that year, Hogan returned to the Riviera course for the U.S. Open, almost equaling his record with a 276, for his third straight victory at Riviera.

1949 Lloyd Mangrum

The purse was upped to $15,000 for 1949, attracting so many participants that qualifying was a 36-hole event at eight courses. Four-time winner MacDonald Smith played in his 23rd consecutive Northern Trust Open – also his last. Lloyd Mangrum warmed up the freezing course considerably on the second day, shooting a record-tying 66. His efforts included sinking a 25-foot putt at 13 and a 30-foot putt on the 14th. After a third-round 76, Mangrum returned to form and fired a 70 for a 284 and his first Northern Trust Open championship.

1950 Sam Snead

Having just returned to golf after a near-fatal auto accident, Ben Hogan was definitely the fan's choice for 1950. Statistics favored Hogan too, with three Northern Trust Open championships ('42, '47 and '48) and three wins at Riviera (two Northern Trust Opens and one U.S. Open), including a course-record 275 in the '48 Northern Trust Open. It looked as though Jerry Barber might take the prize from Hogan, but rain stopped play in the third round, scores reverted back to the second day and cost Barber a 10-stroke lead. Sam Snead arose from the pack and birdied the final three holes to force Hogan into an 18-hole playoff. Snead defeated Hogan 72-76 for his third win at Los Angeles.

1951 Lloyd Mangrum

The Northern Trust Open celebrated its 25th anniversary with a Silver Jubilee Dinner and an Old Timers Tournament featuring golfers who had finished in the top 10 in the first 10 Northern Trust Opens. Favored Sam Snead kicked off the 25th with a 67, including an eagle on No. 9. Henry Ranson started the second round with three birdies on the first five holes to take the lead. Snead played the third round with a broken bone in this left hand, but his 70 was only good for third. In a dramatic come-from-behind finish, Lloyd Mangrum fired a 67 that ended with a 21-foot chip-in on the final hole for a one-stroke victory over Ranson to earn his second Northern Trust Open title.

1952 Tommy Bolt

The purse was again upped to $17,500. Jack Burke opened play with a 69, while the rest of the players failed to get down to par. Burke's second round was not quite as spectacular, but he still managed to lead the field with a 75. Regular play ended with a three-way tie among Burke, Dutch Harrison and Tommy Bolt at 5-over-par 289. The playoff provided the real excitement of the tourney, as Bolt triumphed with a 69, which included a triple bogey on 18. Burke and Harrison shot 71 and 74, respectively.

1953 Lloyd Mangrum

The 27th Northern Trust Open saw the purse raised to $20,000 and the establishment of Lloyd Mangrum as a tournament superstar along with MacDonald Smith and Ben Hogan. It was Mangrum's tournament from the beginning, as he opened with a 69 at Riviera. Jay Hebert pulled ahead in the second round, but Mangrum fired another 69 in the third round for a five-stroke lead over Art Wall and Jack Burke, Jr. Mangrum maintained his lead in the final round for a third Northern Trust Open crown. This was also the first year that the tournament was televised. The last two days were carried by ABC over KECA.

1954 Fred Wampler

Bill Nary led the first two rounds, but skidded to 74 on the third day. In the same round, Fred Wampler fired a 5-under-par 66 to take the lead. Scores soared as rain marred the final day of play. Wampler carded a 75, but managed a one-stroke victory for his first win on TOUR.

1955 Gene Littler

Rain, freezing temperatures and wind gusts of 40 mph greeted the 1955 Northern Trust Open at Inglewood Country Club. Despite the adverse conditions, Francis Wininger fired a 68, followed by Eric Monti at 69 in the first round. The second day saw Gardner Dickinson fire a 66 to share the lead with Monti, who turned in a 67. Gene Littler also turned in a 4-under-par round. Monti shot a 68 in the third round for an 8-under total of 205. He was followed by Dickinson at 206 and Littler at 207. On the final day Littler took it with a 69, while Monti turned in a 77 and Dickinson shot a 76.

1956 Lloyd Mangrum

The 30th Northern Trust Open was indeed a memorable tournament, as records fell and the purse rose to $32,500. Defending champion Gene Littler was the pre-tourney favorite. However, it was Lloyd Mangrum right from the start, firing a 66 as he pushed toward his fourth Northern Trust Open win. He turned in another in the second round, but was overshadowed by Tommy Bolt's performance. Bolt went out in 33, then fired six straight birdies on the back nine, with no birdie putt longer than 20 feet. His most spectacular moment came on the 506-yard ninth hole. After firing one out-of-bounds and taking a two-stroke penalty, he saved par by sinking a 31-foot putt. His 63 was a tournament record. Mangrum continued his own record-setting play with a 68 for a record three-round total of 200. He could do no better than 72 in the final round, but he set a new tournament record and joined the late MacDonald Smith as the only four-time winners of the tournament.

1957 Doug Ford

The rainy tournament produced the closest competition yet as the first round ended in a four-way tie for the lead among Billy Casper, Marty Furgol, Doug Higgins and Bob Thomas. All turned in 3-under-par 68s. The young Casper turned in another 68 in the second round, with five birdies on the back nine, to take a one-stroke lead over Gardner Dickinson. Dickinson struggled to the lead in the third round, while amateur Tommy Jacobs fired a 66. With nine holes remaining on the final day, only two strokes separated the top 16 in the field. It was Doug Ford's consistent play (69-71-71-69-280) that brought him a one-stroke victory.

1958 Frank Stranahan

The first round belonged to the "Old Timers" as Smiley Quick of Los Angeles took the lead with a 4-under par 67, followed by Frank Stranahan, Bob Rosburg, Stan Dulas and Dutch Harrison with 68s. Harrison followed his 68 with a 1-under 70 for a 138 total and the lead. On the ninth hole in the final round, Stranahan hit his second shot close to the fence that lined the fairway. He decided to play the ball as it lay and stopped it one foot from the pin. Tapping it in for a birdie, he went on to finish with a second consecutive 67 and the tournament championship with a 9-under par total of 275. A record 52,500 fans turned out for the 1958 Northern Trust Open.

1959 Ken Venturi

Ken Venturi's final-round 63 brought him from eight strokes off the lead to win the 1959 Northern Trust Open. Venturi entered the tournament as one of the favorites along with Billy Casper, Dow Finsterwald, Arnold Palmer and Art Wall, Jr. But it was colorful Johnny Bulla, with his baseball style grip, who surprised the field with a first-round 64 to take the lead. The third round was Art Wall's showcase as he followed his second-round 68 with another 68 to take the lead with a total of 207. At that point, Venturi was in the unenviable position of being eight strokes behind Wall. The next day, Venturi took revenge by shooting a 6-under-par 30 on the front nine, including back-to-back eagles on eight and nine, three more birdies on the back nine, bogeying only number 12, and finishing with the lowest final-round score in tournament history.

1960 Dow Finsterwald

The first-round leader for 1960 was Eric Monti of the Hillcrest Country Club, who one-putted nine greens and took the lead with a 5-under-par 66 on the Rancho Park course. Monti held his lead against Dow Finsterwald on the second day by one stroke with a 69. Rain forced a one-day delay, but gave Monti a chance to take the lead again with a 3-under-par 68. His brilliant play collapsed when he turned in a 9-over-par 80 on the final day of play. Finsterwald turned in his second 71 to add the Northern Trust Open to his list of championships.

1961 Bob Goalby

An excellent gallery turned out on the first day of play at Rancho Park, many expecting to see Arnold Palmer demonstrate his superiority over the rest of the field. Instead, in the first round they saw him hit his second shot out of bounds four times on the par-5 ninth hole – his final hole of the first round – before hitting the green and two-putting for a 12 on the way to a first-round 77. A plaque behind the current 18th tee at Rancho Park commemorates the Palmer hole. Meanwhile, Ted Kroll took the first-round lead with a 5-under-par 66. On the second day of play, Paul Harney matched his opening round total of 68 and took the lead followed closely by Ken Venturi and Bob Goalby at 137. Goalby, who had been runner-up in the first three rounds, took charge on the last day with a 4-under 67, winning the tournament by three strokes over Art Wall and Eric Brown.

1962 Phil Rodgers

Bob Goalby led after the first round with a 7-under-par 64. There were 23 other players who broke par. Goalby held on to the lead with a par 71 on the second day, but was being pressed by another excellent player, Tony Lema, while Tommy Jacobs and Gay Brewer were not far behind. The third round ended in a tie between Fred Hawkins and Phil Rodgers. Rodgers, 23, had only been on TOUR since July – less than six months. On the final day, Rodgers started out with a birdie on the first hole and took off from there. He finished with a 9-under-par 62 for a 72-hole total of 268, the lowest winning total in the history of the tournament. He needed only 26 putts to card the record-breaking round and win the tournament by nine strokes. This was also the year that Jack Nicklaus picked up his first check as a pro – $33.33 – with a T50 finish.

1963 Arnold Palmer

Arnold Palmer fired a first-round 69, but was overshadowed by former winner Gene Littler, who brought in a 65. He added a second 69 in the second round and a 70 on the third day, but was still two strokes behind leader Art Wall. Palmer took it in the final round with a 66 for a three-stroke margin over Gary Player and Al Balding.

1964 Paul Harney

It was two unknowns who led the first day of play with 67s – Roger Ginzburg, who had never led a PGA TOUR event before, and Jim Black, a 21-year old playing in his first tournament. The second round saw Tommy Jacobs, Bobby Nichols and Jim Clark move to the front. Eventual winner Paul Harney made his move in the third round, carding a 66. He held on with a 71 in the final round for what he termed his biggest win to date.

1965 Paul Harney

Four-time winner Lloyd Mangrum served as honorary chairman of the 39th tournament as the purse climbed to $70,000. Billy Casper started things off with a 66, followed by defending champion Paul Harney at 68. Casper held on to his lead in round two while Harney picked up a stroke. Shooting a second 68 in round three, Harney pulled ahead by two. A final-round 69 made Harney the second man to win two consecutive tournaments, the first being Ben Hogan in 1947-48. This feat was even more spectacular considering that Harney had just recovered from a two-week bout with pneumonia and had time for only two practice rounds. The Junior Chamber's Art Foundation was established with a $25,000 donation from the Northern Trust Open's proceeds.

1966 Arnold Palmer

The 40th Northern Trust Open brought with it a $75,000 purse and the first national television coverage. Arnold Palmer's opening 72 didn't indicate that he would eventually take the tournament, but he settled down to a 66 in round two to pull within one stroke of leader Dave Ragan. Palmer's third-round 62 tied the course record set in 1962 by Phil Rodgers and the tournament three-round record of 200 set 10 years earlier by Lloyd Mangrum. Although turning in a 73 in the last round, Palmer still maintained a three-stroke victory over Harney for his second Northern Trust Open crown.

1967 Arnold Palmer

There were several firsts at the 41st Northern Trust Open – color television, a separate qualifying tournament for six amateur spots, a $100,000 purse and a new communications system tied into five leaderboards. Arnold Palmer's opening 70 was four back of the leader as 40 players broke par the first day. He came back with a 64 in round two, but was still behind Don Massengale, who had turned in rounds of 67 and 65. A third-round 67 gave Palmer a four-stroke lead and he finished the tournament with a 68. His winning 269 was just one off the tournament record set in 1962 by Phil Rodgers.

1968 Billy Casper

There was a four-way tie for the lead in the first round and a five-way tie on the second day. Billy Casper shared the lead with Dave Archer, Al Geiberger and Dave Stockton. Casper's third-round 68 gave him a one-stroke lead, as rain forced the PGA TOUR to shorten the course. Casper then turned in a final-round 69 for a three-stroke victory over Arnold Palmer.

1969 Charles Sifford

Charles Sifford opened the 1969 tournament with an amazing 63 (28 on the back nine), and an eagle on the 13th. Harold Henning turned in the best third-round score with a 66, as he moved into position to challenge Sifford. A final-round 68 gave Henning a tie with Sifford at 276. Sifford then birdied the first hole of a sudden-death playoff to take the championship.

1970 Billy Casper

Rain temporarily interrupted play in the 44th Northern Trust Open, but 44 players were still able to break par in the first round. It was Billy Casper's tournament from the start as he turned in three straight 68s with only two bogeys in 54 holes. In this third round, Hale Irwin turned in a 67 to take the lead. This was also the round in which Bob Lunn birdied the 11th hole with a 70-foot sand wedge shot that rolled into the cup. Regular play ended in a tie between Casper and Irwin at 276. It was Casper in the sudden-death playoff on 15 who laid his approach shot just 5 feet from the hole, then sank it for a birdie and his second Northern Trust Open championship in three years.

1971 Bob Lunn

Singer Glen Campbell joined forces with the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Glen Campbell Los Angeles Open was created. Billy Casper lost to Bob Lunn in a four-hole playoff. The Lunn-Casper playoff began on the 15th hole and they battled all the way to the 18th before a decision was reached. There Lunn put his approach shot 18 inches from the flag while Casper was on the green. Casper failed in his attempt at a birdie and Lunn stepped in to roll in the putt to take the $22,000 first prize and another big step in his career.

1972 George Archer

The 46th Northern Trust Open continued in a new tradition – the playoff – as the tournament ended in a tie for the fourth year in a row. Pre-tourney favorites Arnold Palmer, Billy Casper and Lee Trevino led the field in pursuit of the $125,000 purse at Rancho Park. Fred Marti, just recovering from pneumonia, took the first-round lead with a 65. Round two ended in a tie between former winner Charles Sifford and Tommy Aaron at 134. Regular play ended in a three-way tie among George Archer, Tommy Aaron and Dave Hill at 270. An 18-hole playoff resulted in George Archer walking away with his first Northern Trust Open title with a 66, as Aaron and Hill carded 68s.

1973 Rod Funseth

Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Lee Trevino, among others, turned out for the 47th Northern Trust Open. The surprise was that none of them took the tournament that year. Rod Funseth, playing for the first time in 20 years, beat probably the finest field assembled in the tournament's 47-year history. Funseth's 8-under-par score of 276 was only one shot over Ben Hogan's record at Riviera, set in the 1948 Northern Trust Open. It included a 65 in the third round, which provided the margin of victory. David Graham, Dave Hill, Tom Weiskopf and Don Bies tied for second at 279, three back of Funseth.

1974 Dave Stockton

The 1974 tourney demanded the "greatest shot I ever hit" from winner Dave Stockton. In a repeat of the 1973 tournament, Stockton led the field after 36 holes. But unlike the previous year, he withstood the pressure levied by veteran Sam Snead and younger stars Tom Weiskopf and Johnny Miller to take the top money with an 8-under 276. Stockton's "greatest shot" came on the final hole of the final round. Tied for the lead with John Mahaffey and with Snead just one shot back, Stockton hit a 3-wood 247 yards from the rough on a downhill lie to within 12 feet of the pin, then sank his birdie for the win.

1975 Pat Fitzsimons

The 49th Northern Trust Open was billed as a confrontation between Jack Nicklaus and Johnny Miller, with defending champion Dave Stockton bent on making it two in a row. Nicklaus eagled the first hole in round one, but the lead went to Lee Trevino with a 66. Only two players broke par in round two due to high winds. Round three saw the emergence of the virtually unknown Pat Fitzsimons, who set a new course record with a 7-under 64. With only one bogey and six birdies, his most spectacular shot was an eagle on 11 requiring a 75-foot putt from the front edge of the green. Starting the final round with a six-stroke lead, the young player withstood pressure from Nicklaus, who turned in a 65, and Tom Kite, with a 68. Fitzsimons' 70 gave him his first TOUR victory and tied the Riviera course record set by Ben Hogan in 1948.

1976 Hale Irwin

The 50th Northern Trust Open was truly a golden tournament as Hale Irwin came from three strokes off Tom Watson's lightning three-round pace to win the tourney and set a Riviera course record. Playing just ahead of Watson, Irwin began his final-round charge on the 506-yard first hole where he pitched in from 60 feet for an eagle. Watson followed him up with an eagle on the same hole, reaching the hole in two and sinking a 25-foot putt. Irwin parred the sixth and had a tie as Watson bogeyed. Irwin took the lead when he parred the 11th hole and Watson once again bogeyed. Watson parred the final hole but so did Irwin, who walked away with $37,000 of the $185,000 purse.

1977 Tom Purtzer

Tom Purtzer sank a 5-foot pressure par putt on the 72nd green at Riviera to win his first TOUR event. This climaxed a battle between Purtzer and his closest pursuer, Lanny Wadkins. Purtzer began the final round three strokes ahead of Wadkins. Wadkins, applying the pressure, moved into the lead as they turned toward the back nine. Purtzer birdied the 16th hole and the lead was his again; he parred 17 and approached the 18th hole. His tee shot veered wildly to the right near some eucalyptus trees, which forced him to hit a low 3-iron second which didn't reach the green. But his 30-foot chip left him a 5-footer to win.

1978 Gil Morgan

It was a relatively unknown professional who beat out Jack Nicklaus for the 1978 Northern Trust Open title. Gil Morgan, an optometrist, turned in scores of 66, 69, 73 and 70 for a total of 278 to win the tournament. Going into the final round, Nicklaus and Morgan were tied for the lead, but Nicklaus' game broke down on the final holes of play. He took a double bogey on the 15th hole and then bogeyed the 16th. All Morgan had to do to win was hold out under pressure on the final holes. He sank a short putt on the 18th green for the victory.

1979 Lanny Wadkins

Lanny Wadkins ignored the bitter cold rain on the first day of play at the 53rd Northern Trust Open and shot a 4-under-par 66 – spectacular considering the weather. But 18 other players also broke par on the Riviera course that first day. On the second day, Lon Hinkle took over the lead after shooting a 69. Going into the final round, Wadkins was in the lead but also tied with Hinkle and veteran Kermit Zarley. The tournament wasn't decided until the 18th hole with what would be the last putt of play. Wadkins was faced with sinking a 10-foot putt on the 18th to save par and avoid a sudden-death playoff with Hinkle. Wadkins coolly sank the putt and finished the tournament $45,000 richer.

1980 Tom Watson

Tom Watson shot an even-par 71 in the final round to beat Bob Gilder and Don January by one stroke. Gilder held a one-stroke lead over Watson entering the final round. He was paired with January, at age 50 bidding to become the tournament's oldest champion, in the final group on Sunday. Watson made par on the difficult par-4 18th hole to finish at 8-under par, which was tied with Gilder and January. However, January's second shot on the closing hole hit a tree and he made bogey. Gilder three-putted for bogey, missing an 8-foot par putt that would have forced a playoff.

1981 Johnny Miller

On day one, former tournament winner Gil Morgan blistered the course with a 6-under-par 65; Johnny Miller was one stroke behind. On day two, Miller shot a 69 and was within two strokes of the halfway leader, Miller Barber. Almost unnoticed, Tom Weiskopf stood just three strokes behind the leader. Miller shot a third-round 67 but it was only good enough to tie Ed Sneed for the lead. The final round was a four-way shootout between Miller, Weiskopf, Barber and Morgan. When the final putt had dropped, Miller pocketed the winner's check and a Northern Trust Open record score of 270, 14-under par.

1982 Tom Watson

In one of the greatest Northern Trust Open comebacks, Tom Watson defeated Johnny Miller on the third hole of a sudden-death playoff to capture the title. The tournament began with an exceptional round by virtual unknown Terry Mauney, who shot an 8-under-par 63 to set a new Riviera Course record. Mauney led Tom Weiskopf, Wayne Levi and Mike Morley by four strokes after the first round. Weiskopf then took the second-round lead by shooting another 67 for a two-round total of 8-under-par 134. The third round ended with a pair of leaders as both Weiskopf and Miller finished play at an 11-under-par 202. Watson trailed the co-leaders by two strokes. The final round was all Miller and Watson and it looked as if Miller had wrapped up the championship. But he bogeyed the 17th and 18th holes while Watson was dropping in a 4-foot par putt to send the Northern Trust Open into its first overtime since 1952.

1983 Gil Morgan

Fuzzy Zoeller opened the tournament with a 7-under-par 64 to lead by one stroke over Arnold Palmer, Gary Hallberg and Payne Stewart. The lead shifted in the second round as Gibby Gilbert shot a 66 for an 11-under-par 131. Zoeller dropped to second. The third round ended with four players tied at 11-under with 202: Gil Morgan, Mark McCumber, Gene Littler and Lanny Wadkins. Palmer, Gilbert, Zoeller and George Archer (who set a course-record 61) were tied at 203. In the final round, Morgan put together a 68 for a two-stroke victory over Wadkins. McCumber pursued Morgan but on the 212-yard par-3 17th, Morgan carded a birdie as McCumber settled for par. On the 18th, McCumber bogeyed and Morgan won his sixth PGA TOUR title and his second in 1983.

1984 David Edwards

David Edwards began the final day two shots off the lead and 2-over par for the tournament. He immediately birdied the first two holes to take a share of the lead, led by two at the turn, and never looked back as he won his first PGA TOUR title. The week preceding the final day was frustrating for most pros. Winds whipped the course at speeds up to 40 mph. There was a seven-way tie for the top spot after the first round at 1-under par. Second- and third-round scores also hovered around par. Sunday brought calm and sunny relief for the leaders as well as the gallery that had shied away from the winds. Jack Nicklaus was clearly the crowd favorite going into the last day, but he three-putted the first green for a bogey. It was an uphill climb for him to shoot a 69 and finish alone in third. Jay Haas, Fred Couples and Jack Renner were tied going into day four. Haas dropped out of contention, bumping his way to a 76 finish, tied for 13th. Couples had trouble early and was 5-over after four holes. He ended tied for eighth. Renner was the only golfer left with a chance of forcing a playoff with Edwards. His drive off the 18th landed in the rough 221 yards out. Renner, needing to hole-out from there to force a tie, hit a shot that rolled off the green and had to salvage a bogey, and settle for second place. Edwards' record low score of 64 on the final day was added to his record high total of 279. The card was the highest winning score at the Riviera since Lloyd Mangrum's 280 in 1953, and the highest in the tournament since Paul Harney's 280 at Rancho Park in 1964.

1985 Lanny Wadkins

Lanny Wadkins captured his second Northern Trust Open title in record-setting style shooting a 20-under-par 264 (63-70-67-64), seven strokes in front of second-place finisher Hal Sutton. In the first round of tournament play, Wadkins shot a 63, which tied the Riviera Course record set by Terry Mauney in the 1982 Northern Trust Open. Wadkins' 31-32 round over the par 35-36 course surprisingly didn't put him far ahead of the rest of the field. Pat Lindsey and local favorite Tony Sills both shot rounds of 31-34 for a 6-under 65 and a share of second place. Unfortunately for Wadkins, he didn't get to admire his spectacular record-tying for long. In the second round, 26-year-old Larry Mize broke Mauney's and Wadkins' record, firing an incredible 29 on the front and 33 on the back for a course-shattering 62. Both Hal Sutton and Gary Koch equaled their first-round 66s for a second-round score of 132 and a share of the lead with Mize. Wadkins shot a 70 for 133 total. Hal Sutton's surge on the 18th in the third round, needing only a par to share the 13-under 200 lead with Wadkins, fell short as he double bogeyed six, which dropped him to second place with Corey Pavin and Gary Koch. Pavin had the honor of owning the day's low round of 7-under 64. In the final round, Pavin shot a 70 for a third-place finish, and Chip Beck, Gary Koch and Craig Stadler ended tied for fourth at 273.

1986 Doug Tewell

In front of a Riviera record crowd of 41,352, 36-year-old Doug Tewell recorded eight birdies en route to an 8-under-par 63 for a 14-under 270 and a seven-stroke victory over Clarence Rose (277), and a winner's check of $81,000. Tewell was three strokes behind first-round leaders Jay Delsing (a second year pro out of UCLA) and Fresno State product Dennis Trixler who each shot 33-33—66. After 36 holes, Mac O'Grady shot his second 68 (which included a hole-in-one on No. 6) for a 6-under-par 136, good enough for a one-stroke lead over Trixler. Mark Lye shot a 66 for 138, and Lennie Clements and Jim Colbert were in at 139. Tewell and defending champion Lanny Wadkins both made their moves in the third round. Tewell birdied the first six holes, which put him at 5-under-par 66 (207) with a one-shot lead over Wadkins, Trixler and Willie Wood. Trixler shot a third-round 71, while both Wadkins and Wood shot 67s. The final day saw Tewell card a 63 for a runaway seven-stroke victory. Clarence Rose, a five-year pro out of Goldsboro, NC, shot a 68 to finish second at 277, good for $48,600.

1987 T.C. Chen

After a hole-in-one on No. 6 in the third round, which led to a 67 and a 204 total, 28-year-old Tze-Chung Chen went into the final round the sole leader with Danny Edwards (205), Bobby Wadkins (206) and "everybody's favorite" Ben Crenshaw (206) on his heels. The stage was then set. And on February 22, a Riviera record crowd of 46,100 was about to witness to the first Northern Trust Open overtime since Tom Watson beat Johnny Miller on the third hole of a sudden-death playoff in 1982. By the time Chen, Crenshaw and Edwards reached the 18th green, all had putts over 15 feet for birdie. All were tied for the lead. Crenshaw was away. Putting first, his straight-away 15 footer dropped for birdie and the lead. With the crowd still restless from Crenshaw's shot, Edwards' putt never came close. It was now all up to Chen and his 16-footer forced a tie and a playoff with the 35-year old Texan. Chen's par on No. 15, the first playoff hole, was good enough to win the $108,000 first-place check. Crenshaw was in trouble from the start when his drive landed left on a dirt road. He wound up bogeying the hole and settling for $64,800 and second place.

1988 Chip Beck

Jay Haas, along with Chip Beck, Dan Pohl and Jumbo Ozaki, all were tied atop the leaderboard at the end of the first day at 65. Round two saw Ben Crenshaw shoot 64 (two shots off Larry Mize's course record), to share the lead with Haas at 133. Crenshaw wasn't alone in the "assault on Riviera" department. Perfect weather conditions, hard and fast fairways and soft greens contributed to the record low 142, even-par cut. Beck's third-round 65, for a 199, was one shot better than Wadkins' 200 set in 1985. Steve Elkington, Haas and Ed Fiori were tied back at 202. Beck's concern in the final round wasn't only Mac O'Grady and Bill Sander, who tied for second at 271. Two rain delays, which stopped play for more than two hours, threatened to cut the tournament short at 54 holes. As it would turn out, play continued, and Beck still was able to record six birdies that led to a 68 and his first PGA TOUR victory.

1989 Mark Calcavecchia

The tournament began with near-perfect weather conditions, enabling Steve Pate and Mark Brooks to get into the clubhouse with 4-under 67s before the first round turned cold and windy. Steady showers on Friday flooded some greens and play was suspended with Mark Calcavecchia and Sandy Lyle tied for the lead at 134. Rain delayed the start of the third round until mid-afternoon and the leaders were able to complete only nine holes before darkness suspended play. At that point, Fred Couples had caught and tied Calcavecchia and Lyle for the lead at 169. Sunday morning saw the completion of the third round and Lyle had a two-stroke lead over Calcavecchia. Calcavecchia remained two strokes behind Lyle through the front nine, then birdied holes 10 and 12 and parred the remaining holes to come away as both victor and survivor, fighting off a tremendous field with a 68 to take home the $180,000 first prize.

1990 Fred Couples

The first round saw Michael Allen, a 31-year-old PGA TOUR rookie, shoot a near-course record 63 to take an early two-stroke lead. He continued to lead the field through 36 holes with a Riviera record 131, 11-under par. Just one back was Rocco Mediate, who shot 67. Saturday's third round saw a course-record-tying 62 by Fred Couples, rocketing him to a two-shot lead over Mediate and Gil Morgan. Sunday saw Couples lose the lead to Morgan at 9. They battled back and fourth until Morgan double-bogeyed 15. Couples birdied 16 and 18 for a final-round 69 and his first title since 1987.

1991 Ted Schulz

Andrew Magee opened Thursday with a course-record 28 on the front nine and a 66 for the day, one stroke behind leaders Wayne Grady and Larry Nelson. Round two saw Bruce Lietzke's 63 give him a two-stroke lead over Davis Love III (65), Ted Schulz (66), Magee and Jeff Sluman. Ben Crenshaw had a hole in one at 14. Saturday saw Sluman catch Lietzke with a 68. They held a one-stroke lead on Love and Schulz. Round four was a see-saw battle, and when Lietzke and Sluman missed birdie putts at 18, Schulz emerged as the victor in a dramatic finish.

1992 Fred Couples

Los Angeles golf fans' adopted hero, Fred Couples, fought off a great field, defeating Davis Love III in a playoff to capture his second Nissan Open in three years at Riviera. The 1991 PGA TOUR Player of the Year made an 8-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to defeat Love, who had led the tournament by as many as four strokes midway through the third round. Going into the final round, Couples, paired with Love and Tom Sieckmann, promptly knocked his first drive of the day out of bounds and wound up with a double-bogey seven. He rebounded, however, with a birdie on the difficult par-4, 460-yard second hole and played steady golf the rest of the round. Eventually, Sieckmann (75) and Mediate (70) faded while Jay Haas and Yoshinori Kaneko shot 65s to post a score of 270, 14-under.

1993 Tom Kite

Rain and windy conditions made the course play longer and tougher than usual in 1993. Just 22 players in the 144-man field broke par in the first round. Enthusiastic crowds and a fantastic finish highlighted Tom Kite's victory. Kite, golf's all-time leader money winner at the time, broke from a large pack of leaders on the back nine with five birdies on the final seven holes. A finishing score of 67 was enough to hold off defending champion Fred Couples by three strokes. The tournament was shortened to 54 holes for the first time in history when heavy rains washed out Friday's round. Saturday brought blue skies with Couples moving into a four-way tie for the lead with a 67. Joining him at a 4-under-par 138 were Payne Stewart (66), Marco Dawson (67) and Donnie Hammond (69). Seven players, including Kite (66), stood one back at 139 and a total of 27 players were within three strokes of the lead.

1994 Corey Pavin

On the final day, a record crowd of 53,009 filled the natural amphitheater surrounding the 18th green cheering each change in the leader board as they waited for the dueling leaders to approach. The turning point occurred as Couples three-putted the par 3 14th hole. Pavin followed on 16 by sinking a 25-foot putt from the collar of the green to open his lead to two strokes. Pavin kept the pressure up on 17 by landing his third shot 12 feet from the hole. As each player approached 18, Pavin sensed it was over. Both players parred the hole and Pavin notched his first TOUR victory since 1992.

1995 Corey Pavin

Although they went head to head for the first five holes, this year's finale was not a repeat of last year's duel between Pavin and Couples. Pavin pulled ahead for good with a 12-foot birdie putt on the par-3 sixth. He had a two-stroke lead after nine holes and birdied the 10th to open it up to three. Kenny Perry finished himself off for good on hole 13, with a long, out-of-bounds drive into the rough and made a double bogey. Pavin's closing round of 67 gave him a 16-under 268 total. Pavin became the fifth player in Northern Trust Open history to win back-to-back titles.

1996 Craig Stadler

Craig Stadler began the tournament tied at 67 with Steve Elkington, the winner of the 1995 PGA Championship at Riviera, and Robert Wrenn. After Friday's 70, Stadler found himself one stroke behind Wrenn. However, Saturday's round of 73 put Stadler farther back in the field, tied with Fred Couples and Steve Elkington, four strokes back of the leader Neal Lancaster, who shot a 65, the second-best round of the tournament. That set the stage for Sunday. Stadler, after losing his putter earlier in the week, went out with a 5-under-par 30 on the front nine to go 8-under for the tournament. However, down the stretch, Stadler bogeyed the 15th and 16th. After parring the 17th, he just missed a birdie putt on the 18th to finish at 278, 6-under par.

1997 Nick Faldo

The final round of the 1997 Northern Trust Open began with Nick Faldo one shot in front of Craig Stadler and Scott McCarron. Stadler pulled even with Faldo on the first hole when he made a 20-foot birdie putt on the par 5. But the tie was short-lived. Faldo also birdied the first when his approach shot landed only a foot and a half from the cup. He then increased his lead to two strokes with a birdie on the par-4 fifth hole. Building a three-shot lead going into the final holes, Faldo had a comfortable cushion. This was the eighth time Faldo played in the Northern Trust Open. "This is not just another win. The Riviera Country Club has a great history and I know it was a favorite of Ben Hogan's," Faldo said. "This is the kind of course on which I was meant to win, and I played it exactly the way I wanted to."

1998 Billy Mayfair

Billy Mayfair sank an eight-foot birdie putt on the first hole of a playoff with Tiger Woods to capture the 1998 Northern Trust Open, played for the first time at the Valencia Country Club. The win was his first victory in three years as he took home the $378,000 first-place check in the $2.1 million event. On the first playoff hole, Woods pushed his tee shot into the gallery on the right side of the fairway on 18. His second shot landed 40 feet from the right front of the green. His approach wedge shot rolled 18 feet past the pin, leaving a treacherous downhill putt. In the meantime, Mayfair was 90 yards from the green in the middle of the fairway, and his wedge shot stopped just 8 feet from the hole. Woods barely missed his putt on the left side of the hole, thus leaving the tournament for Mayfair to win with a short putt.

1999 Ernie Els

Going into the final day, Ted Tryba had a two-stroke lead, much to the credit of a tournament record 61 in the third round. However, Tryba lost his lead by the third hole on Sunday and, at the turn, found himself in a three-way tie with Tiger Woods and Ernie Els. At the 11th hole, Tryba took a one-stroke lead with a 15-foot birdie putt. However, Els tied Tryba with a 20-foot putt on the 12th hole. Meanwhile, Woods, who hadn't made a bogey on the back nine all week, did soon the 13th hole due to an errant drive. Els maintained his lead; however, the South African left a small opening for Tryba and Woods by missing a 4-foot putt on the 18th hole. Needing birdies to force a playoff, Woods and Tryba both missed the green on their approach shots. Woods hit it right, 15 yards down a hill and into a concession stand, while Tryba was chipping just off the putting surface. Both chips were slightly over 12 feet, and both were missed. Davis Love III, the third man in the group, parred the hole with a 4-foot putt to tie for second place. Els won his seventh TOUR event. "The Northern Trust Open is definitely one of the most prestigious stops on the TOUR because of its history," Els said. "Now I can say I'm part of that history."

2000 Kirk Triplett

Six players trailed David Sutherland by only one stroke entering the final round, including eventual winner Kirk Triplett. The competition was wide open throughout the morning rounds until Triplett birdied holes 9 and 10 to lead the field by three strokes. However, on the 18th hole, trailing by two strokes, Jesper Parnevik made a 22-foot birdie to pull within one. This forced Triplett to sink his 4-foot par-saver to win for the first time on the PGA TOUR.

2001 Robert Allenby

Davis Love III had a three-stroke lead going into the final round of the tournament's 75th Anniversary event. However, with his lead cut to only one stroke with four holes left to play, Love finished with 4-over par, eliminating him from any chance of victory. Both Robert Allenby and Jeff Sluman only needed a par on the final hole to force their two-man playoff; however, they both bogeyed, thus joining four other players in a tie for the lead after regulation play. Riviera's 451-yard 18th hole was playing extremely difficult on the rain-soaked course and only one birdie was carded on this historic finishing hole. In the playoff, only Bob Tway and Allenby reached the green in regulation. Tway's approach shot landed 35 feet from the pin, just barely on the putting surface. Then Allenby, 220 yards from the pin and using his 3-wood, hit his shot just 6 feet from the hole. After Tway's putt finished just short of the hole, Allenby converted his winning putt for his third PGA TOUR victory while improving his playoff record to 7-0 as a professional.

2002 Len Mattiace

After 220 attempts at a victory on the PGA TOUR, Len Mattiace finally achieved his goal. Along the way, he also won his largest paycheck of $666,000. Going into the 12th hole of the final round, Scott McCarron held a three-stroke lead. However, he bogeyed two of his final three holes and three-putted the 18th green, which earned a share of second. Brad Faxon also missed birdie putts of 8 and 12 feet down the stretch. Also, Rory Sabbatini had a chance for a playoff, but failed to get up and down from the rough on 17 and tied for second place with McCarron and Faxon with a 270 total score. In the end, it was a great day for Mattiace. The 34-year old from Jacksonville, FL closed with a 68 for the victory.

2003 Mike Weir

Charles Howell III held a three-stroke lead over veteran Nick Price, four strokes over K.J. Choi and five strokes over last year's tournament champion Len Mattiace and 2002 PGA Champion Rich Beam. However, with the leaders failing to break par, Mike Weir, trailing by seven strokes at the beginning of the day, shot a 66 – good enough to force a playoff hole – before he headed for the 10th tee. Howell, who bogeyed the hole in regulation after hitting his tee shot behind a tree on the left, drove into the far right bunker, thereby leaving a difficult shot to get close. Meanwhile, Weir played to the middle of the fairway then put his approach 8 feet from the pin. Howell came out of the bunker to within 6 feet. However, after Weir sank the birdie putt, Howell missed his birdie opportunity. The win was Weir's second of the season after winning the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic just three weeks earlier.

2004 Mike Weir

In 2003, Mike Weir won the tournament after trailing by seven strokes on the final day of play. This year, Weir came into the final round with a seemingly comfortable five-stroke lead over Shigeki Maruyama, six strokes over Jeff Maggert and seven strokes over Scott McCarron. After starting out strong on the first three holes, Weir's lead increased to seven strokes over Maruyama. However, after a couple of bogeys, things started to fall into place for Maruyama. By the 16th hole, after sinking his putt for birdie, Maruyama tied Weir at 17-under. With the rain beginning to fall harder, Maruyama, hitting first, drove into the right rough on No. 18, 217 yards from the pin. Weir followed with a drive down the middle, 205 yards. Then after Maruyama's second shot landed 41 yards short, Weir put himself in a difficult sidehill lie about 45 feet from the flagstick. Maruyama left himself a 12-foot putt, and Weir, after almost holing out a fantastic chip shot, left himself a 16-inch putt. Maruyama missed his par putt and Weir knocked it in for his back-to-back victory. Weir became only the fifth player to win back to back, sharing the honor with MacDonald Smith, Ben Hogan, Arnold Palmer, Paul Harney and Corey Pavin.

2005 Adam Scott

In 2005, Southern California was pummeled by days of unforgiving rain during tournament week. In fact, it was the worst rain storm in 50 years. Riviera Country Club, home of the 2005 Northern Trust Open, was inundated by 5 inches of rain in 48 hours. With course conditions making continuation of the tournament impossible, the event was shortened to a 36-hole unofficial event for the first time in the tournament's 79-year history. With Adam Scott and Chad Campbell tied for the lead at 9-under par, tournament officials elected to have a sudden-death play off on Monday morning. Starting the playoff on the famous 18th hole in the rain, both Scott and Campbell reached the soggy green in regulation. Scott made his 4-footer for par. Then, Campbell missed his 3-foot putt to give Scott the win. However, although the full purse was awarded to the field, the 36-hole event was not considered an official win on the PGA TOUR since it did not satisfy the 54 hole requirement.

2006 Rory Sabbatini

Rory Sabbatini closed with a 1-over 72 – the highest final round by a winner at Riviera Country Club since 1977 – and had few complaints. He outlasted Riviera favorite Fred Couples, won for the first time in three years on the PGA TOUR and finally had something to show for his strong start to the season. The clincher was a 45-foot lag putt on the 18th hole to within a foot, leaving him a tap-in for par to avoid a playoff with defending champion Adam Scott. Scott started the final day nine shots behind and shot 31 on the back nine to close with a 64. Couples, a two-time winner at the Northern Trust Open, caught Sabbatini on the 12th hole and stood over an 8-foot birdie putt on the 13th for the outright lead. He left that short, then ran into trouble with bogeys on three of his last four holes for a 71 to finish fourth. Craig Barlow, who also had a share of the lead with three holes to play, missed two short putts down the stretch and had to settle for a 70 that left him in third. Sabbatini finished at 13-under 271 and earned $918,000 for his third PGA TOUR victory. The win shot him to the top of the TOUR money list with more than $2.1 million. He finished the season 12th on the list.

2007 Charles Howell III

Charles Howell III made the putt and slammed the door with a playoff victory over Phil Mickelson at the 2007 event. Howell had gone four years and nine runner-up finishes since his first PGA TOUR victory. Howell made three clutch pars in the playoff, the last one on a solid chip to 3 feet to win on the 14th hole. Four shots down at the turn, Howell closed with a 6-under 65 and faced Mickelson in the longest playoff at Riviera in 25 years until Mickelson missed a 10-foot par try on the 14th. In regulation, Mickelson missed a 2-foot par putt on the 13th and made bogey on the 18th to force the playoff.

2008 Phil Mickelson

Phil Mickelson avenged his 2007 playoff loss to Charles Howell III at Riviera Country Club, becoming only the second left-hander to win since Mike Weir in 2003 and 2004. It was a 1-under final round that enabled Mickelson to garner his first victory of the 2008 season and his 33rd PGA TOUR title. Finishing with a 12-under-par 272, he bested his fellow Arizona State Sun Devil Jeff Quinney to win the 2008 Northern Trust Open. "I think it has some of the greatest holes on the PGA TOUR, and it's fun to play well here, because early in my career I did not. This was really the first year I played well here and to break through with a victory feels terrific." Mickelson reversed the memories of last year's failings. "I felt I had the tournament won last year and I bogeyed 18. I didn't want to get ahead of myself. I wanted to try to play each shot smart coming down the stretch and not get too emotional." This strategy proved successful, but he was aided by Quinney's four bogeys over the last six holes of Sunday's round. The two matched birdies on the par-5 11th and again with pars on the par-4 12th before Mickelson's concluded with a string of three pars to round out the final holes for the win.

2009 Phil Mickelson

Phil Mickelson captured a second consecutive Northern Trust Open, riding a rollercoaster of scoring during the week -- 63-72-62-72 -- to win for the 35th time in his career. He finished at 15-under 269 and joined Ben Hogan, Corey Pavin and Mike Weir as the only back-to-back winners at Riviera. Mickelson began the final round with a four-stroke lead but fell two behind Steve Stricker with three holes left in the tournament. He made a 5-foot birdie putt on the par-3 16th hole and then two-putted for birdie from 70 feet on the par-5 17th hole to go ahead by one. Mickelson two-putted for par from the edge of the 18th green, making a 6-footer to win it.

2010 Steve Stricker

Steve Stricker, a runner-up to Phil Mickelson at the 2009 Northern Trust Open, claimed his eighth career victory with a final-round 70 at the 2010 Northern Trust Open, but it wasn't smooth sailing on Sunday. With a six-shot lead at Riviera to start the day, Stricker's lead was cut in half after four holes after he missed a short par putt. It was down to two shots when Luke Donald made a 10-foot birdie on the fifth hole, and it might have vanished entirely had Donald not missed birdie putts of about the same length on the next two holes. Back-to-back birdies at the turn settled Stricker down and another clutch putt for par on the 15th hole essentially clinched the win. Stricker's victory was the fourth in his last 15 starts and moved him up to No. 2 in the world for the second time in his career.

2011 Aaron Baddeley

At the 2011 Northern Trust Open, Australia's Aaron Baddeley, 29, won for the first time in four years, eventually beating World Golf Hall of Fame member Vijay Singh by two strokes. Baddeley began the final round with a one-stroke lead, only to be quickly tied by Fred Couples, who birdied the first three holes. Clearly the sentimental favorite, the 51-year-old veteran and two-time Northern Trust Open champion couldn't keep the pace, eventually finishing with a 73 and in a tie for seventh. Singh applied pressure, closing to within a shot with a birdie at No. 11, by bogeys on the next two holes gave Baddeley a cushion he wouldn't relinquish. Baddeley recovered from a messy double-bogey at the 12th hole with a clutch 25-foot birdie putt on the next.

2012 Bill Haas

Bill Haas defeated Phil Mickelson and Keegan Bradley with a birdie-3 on the second playoff hole (No. 10) at the 2012 Northern Trust Open for his fourth career PGA TOUR win. Haas holed a 45-foot birdie putt across the green to take home the title, just five months after claiming the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and the FedExCup in dramatic fashion. Haas' playoff victory came about after Mickelson and Bradley worked their own heroics on No. 18 in regulation, with Mickelson ramming in a birdie putt from just outside 25 feet for birdie and Bradley making his own birdie putt just moments later from 12 feet.

2013 John Merrick

John Merrick authored a storybook ending to the 2013 Northern Trust Open, becoming the first Los Angeles County native to win the event in its 87-year history. Merrick relied on knowledge of The Riviera Country Club that he gained in college as a member of the UCLA men's golf team to defeat Charlie Beljan in a two-hole playoff, capturing his first PGA TOUR win just 30 miles north of where he grew up - in Long Beach, Calif. - and where he still lives. Merrick and Beljan tied with pars on No. 18, the first hole of sudden death. The pair moved to No. 10, where Beljan missed a 6-footer to give Merrick the victory.
