Jason Day wins Farmers Insurance Open in Four-way playoff

Jason Day parred the second playoff hole to defeat J.B. Holmes at the Farmers Insurance Open. Defending champion Scott Stallings and Harris English were eliminated on the first extra hole.

The playoff was the 16th at the Farmers Insurance Open and first since Brandt Snedeker defeated Kyle Stanley in 2012. The four-man playoff is the largest at the Farmers, topping three-man playoffs won by Tiger Woods in 2006, Phil Mickelson in 2001, and J.C. Snead in 1975.

The last four-man playoff on the PGA TOUR came at the 2014 Honda Classic, with Russell Henley outlasting Russell Knox, Rory McIlroy and Ryan Palmer.

The playoff is the fourth of the season (The McGladrey Classic, WGC-HSBC Champions, Hyundai Tournament of Champions, Farmers Insurance Open).

Playoff records in stroke-play events: Jason Day (1-0), J.B. Holmes (1-2), Scott Stallings (1-1), Harris English (0-1), (Note: Day also won the 2014 World Golf Championships-Match Play Championship in a five-hole playoff).

Jason Day

With his victory at the Farmers Insurance Open, Jason Day wins his third career PGA TOUR event at the age of 27 years, 2 months and 27 days in his 154th TOUR start.

Jason Day's PGA TOUR victories:

2010 AT&T Byron Nelson Championship
2014 World Golf Championships-Cadillac Match Play Championship
2015 Farmers Insurance Open

Day earns 500 FedExCup points for his victory and moves from No. 53 to No. 7 (695 points) in the FedExCup standings through 12 events. Jimmy Walker retains the lead with 1,039 points.

Day moves to No. 4 in the Official World Golf Rankings.

Day becomes just the third international winner of the Farmers Insurance Open, joining Jose Maria Olazabal (2002) and Gary Player (1963). He is the third international winner of the season (Sang-Moon Bae, Nick Taylor).

The PGA TOUR has now had seven winners this season in their 20s, including Day, and five in their 30s.

J.B. Holmes

The runner-up finish for three-time PGA TOUR winner J.B. Holmes is the third of his career (2015 Farmers Insurance Open, 2010 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, 2009 Shell Houston Open).

Holmes was seeking his fourth PGA TOUR victory and first since the 2014 Wells Fargo Championship (which also marked his last top 10 on the PGA TOUR).

Holmes has converted three of his five third-round leads/co-leads on TOUR. He converted at the 2006 and 2008 Waste Management Phoenix Open and 2014 Wells Fargo Championship. He failed to convert at the 2010 Valero Texas Open (T13) and this week at the Farmers Insurance Open (P2).

A T23 in 2014 was Holmes' previous-best finish in nine previous starts at the Farmers Insurance Open.

Scott Stallings

Defending Farmers Insurance Open champion Scott Stallings finished runner-up in his quest to become the first back-to-back winner of the Farmers Insurance Open since Tiger Woods (2005-08).

Stallings' runner-up finish this week marked his first top 10 on TOUR since winning this event in 2014.

The runner-up finish for three-time PGA TOUR winner Scott Stallings is the second of his career (2013 FedEx St. Jude Classic).

The last player to win the Farmers Insurance Open and finish runner-up the next year was Brandt Snedeker (2012-13).

Harris English

Harris English finished runner-up for the first time in his career. He was seeking his third PGA TOUR victory (2013 FedEx St. Jude Classic, 2014 OHL Classic at Mayakoba).

This week marked English's first 54-hole lead on TOUR.

English at the Farmers Insurance Open: T43 (2012), T73 (2013), P2 (2015).

Additional Player Notes

Charles Howell III finished T5 for his first top-10 finish of the season (nine starts). Howell has had at least one top-10 finish in each of his 16 seasons on the PGA TOUR. Six of his 72 career top-10 finishes have occurred at the Farmers Insurance Open, including runner-up finishes in both 2005 and 2007.

Alex Prugh finished T5 for his first top 10 since a T2 at the 2010 Frys.com Open. His only other top-10 finishes in 81 career PGA TOUR starts also came in 2010, with back-to-back top 10s at the Humana Challenge (5th), Farmers Insurance Open (T5) and Northern Trust Open (T10). The Farmers Insurance Open has not produced a first-time TOUR winner since Jay Don Blake in 1991. Prugh recorded the best finish this week among non-winners on TOUR.

One week after a T5 at the Waste Management Phoenix Open, Martin Laird finished T7 in his seventh start at the Farmers Insurance Open (previous-best finish was T27 in 2010). It represents his first back-to-back top 10s since stringing together three in a row in 2011 (World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship-T10, Valspar Championship-T5, Arnold Palmer Invitational (Won)).

Making his first start in the United States this season, Irishman Shane Lowry finished T7. In 18 total PGA TOUR starts, his other top 10s came at the 2013 World Golf Championships-Cadillac Match Play and the 2014 Open Championship – both T9s.

2009 Farmers Insurance Open winner Nick Watney finished T7 in his bid for his first victory since capturing The Barclays in 2012. Watney was born in Sacramento, Calif., and attended Fresno State. He now has six top 10s in 11 starts at the event.

FedExCup leader Jimmy Walker, who won the Sony Open in Hawaii three weeks ago, finished T7 for his fourth top 10 of the season (one shy of TOUR-leader Robert Streb's five). He now has three top 10s in eight starts at the Farmers Insurance Open (T7-2015, T4-2013, T8-2012).

PGA TOUR Commissioner Tim Finchem Statement on passing of Billy Casper

“Billy Casper was one of the greatest winners in PGA TOUR history and was a dominant player for the better part of three decades. We remember his three major championships and his incredible work on the greens that made him one of the best putters of his generation. Beyond his career as a player, though, we will remember Billy as tremendous husband and father, a man devoted to family, charitable pursuits and his religion. He truly has left us with a lasting legacy.”

Farmers Insurance Open’s University Day a Major Success

Farmers Insurance has increased the overall University Day contribution to include a $7500 donation to each of the three players who tied with the low round during Saturday’s competition. With a –4 under par 68, Scott Stallings (Tennessee Tech), JB Holmes (Kentucky) and Carlos Ortiz (University of North Texas) will receive the donation to their college golf team. More than thirty players participated in Saturday’s competition including Rickie Fowler, Keegan Bradley, Gary Woodland and Brooks Koepka.

Friday’s University Day Challenge glass break competition resulted in an exciting and dramatic tie between Ben Crane and Rickie Fowler. Farmers Insurance donated $10,000 to University of Oregon and Oklahoma State University on behalf of the co-winners.

Overall, the 2015 University Day Program donated nearly $60,000 to college golf.
