Match 15

Louis Oosthuizen/Branden Grace (International) vs. J.B. Holmes/Bubba Watson (U.S.), 3 and 2 –

Branden Grace chipped in for birdie on the 16th hole to give the International pair a 1-up advantage. Oosthuizen hit his approach within 8 feet at the 17th but missed the birdie attempt and the match went to the 18th hole where after seeing his partner's approach on the par 5 find the water, Grace went for the green in two and landed just off the edge. A routine up-and-down halved the hole and gave the South African's the 1-up victory. It was the first time in four matches that Grace and Oosthuizen reached the 17th or 18th holes.

Holmes and Watson were defeated despite being 8-under as a team as Oosthuizen and Grace shot 9-under as a team.

Oosthuizen and Grace won for the fourth consecutive day, making the South African pair the first International partnership to win all four group rounds and post a 4-0-0 record. Grace went winless in his first Presidents Cup appearance in 2013 (0-4-0).

- R1 Foursomes defeated Matt Kuchar/Patrick Reed, 3 and 2
- R2 Four-ball defeated Dustin Johnson/Jordan Spieth, 4 and 3
- R3 Foursomes defeated Patrick Reed/Rickie Fowler, 3 and 2
- R4 Four-ball defeated J.B. Holmes/Bubba Watson, 1 up

Partners to win all four matches of group play in a single Presidents Cup:

2015	Louis Oosthuizen/Branden Grace (INT)	4-0-0
2009	Tiger Woods/Steve Stricker (USA)	4-0-0

The South African pair of Oosthuizen/Grace (4-0-0) is the only International Team pairing to play together in all four matches and they squared off against an undefeated twosome of Bubba Watson and J.B. Holmes who were the only U.S. team to be paired together for all four rounds.

In Presidents Cup history, the International Team has only had four players go undefeated:

1998- Shigeki Maruyama (5-0-0) and Steve Elkington (3-0-2)
2005- Retief Goosen (4-0-1)
2009- Vijay Singh (2-0-3)

Three players from the International Team could join that group tomorrow - Sangmoon Bae (2-0-1), Branden Grace (4-0-0) and Louis Oosthuizen (4-0-0).

Mickelson and Johnson were paired together for all three matches in which they played (they both sat out the Day 3 Morning Foursomes).

Mickelson (2-0-1) has gone undefeated in two of his previous 10 Presidents Cup appearances: 2009, 4-0-1; 2005, 3-0-2. Johnson's best career record in three past Presidents Cup appearances is 3-1-0 in 2013.

By picking up a victory in both Four-Ball and foursome matches this week, Phil Mickelson is now tied for the most Four-Ball matches won (9, Vijay Singh) and foursome matches won (11, Tiger Woods) in tournament history. Mickelson's 22 total career matches won are second only to Tiger Woods (24).

The victory in 13 holes is the shortest Four-Ball match since 2005 when Phil Mickelson/Chris DiMarco defeated Peter Lonard/Nick O'Hern in Day 3 Four-Ball. Two matches have been won in 12 holes marking the shortest matches in tournament history. This is the 15th match to end after 13 holes.

Longest matches in Presidents Cup history:

Year	Match	Players
1996	Singles	David Frost (International) def. Kenny Perry (U.S.), 7 and 6
2011	Foursomes	Adam Scott & K.J. Choi (International) def. Tiger Woods & Steve Stricker, 7 and 6

Bae is now undefeated with a 2-0-1 record in his first career appearance at a Presidents Cup. After sitting out the opening day foursomes, Bae sank an 11-foot eagle putt on the final hole during Day 2 Four-Ball to notch a 1-up victory with teammate Danny Lee over Rickie Fowler and Jimmy Walker. Bae and Matsuyama halved their Day 3 foursomes match against Bill Haas and Matt Kuchar.

With only singles play remaining, Bae could become one of six first-time Presidents Cup participants to avoid losing a match during their debuts:

Stewart Cink (4-0-0) and Kirk Triplett (3-0-1), 2000;

Shigeeki Maruyama (5-0-0), 1998;

The win was the first of Reed's debut at The Presidents Cup.

Additionally, Spieth rallied with Dustin Johnson in the morning foursomes, winning three of the final five holes. Johnson made a 7-1/2 footer for birdie on 17 to square the match; Jason Day found the bunker off the tee on 18 and Schwartzel failed to advance it out of the bunker, leading to a bogey for the International Team.
