Welcome from Bridgestone

On behalf of the Bridgestone Global Group of companies, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the legendary Firestone Country Club for the 2015 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational, an unparalleled stroke-play championship featuring the world's leading professional golfers. It's always exciting to watch these athletes who epitomize performance, excellence and passion in the sport, as they test their skills on the challenging South Course at Firestone.

Bridgestone is honored to be a part of the rich heritage of Akron, Ohio. More than 110 years ago, Harvey Firestone started the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company in Akron with 12 employees and a dream to build a global business. More than 80 years ago, the Bridgestone Tire Company was founded in Japan by Shojiro Ishibashi, a visionary who established a company with the mission to Serve Society with Superior Quality. And, when these two great companies were joined in 1988, Bridgestone Corporation became the world's largest tire and rubber company.

As the world's number one tire and rubber company, we are driven to provide you with the innovations you need. Bridgestone's passion is your journey through life – whether at work, at home or at play. With a product portfolio that includes tires, bicycles, seismic isolation rubber, building products and golf equipment, Bridgestone is working hard to enrich lives through its products, services and overall contributions to society.

We are privileged to continue serving as sponsor of the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational at the Firestone Country Club. We thank the PGA TOUR staff, the team here at Firestone Country Club and all the wonderful volunteers for their assistance and hospitality during tournament week.

On behalf of all of the members of the Bridgestone global family of companies, I hope you enjoy the excitement and energy of the 2015 World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational!

Hole-by-Hole Descriptions

1
Par 4
399 yards

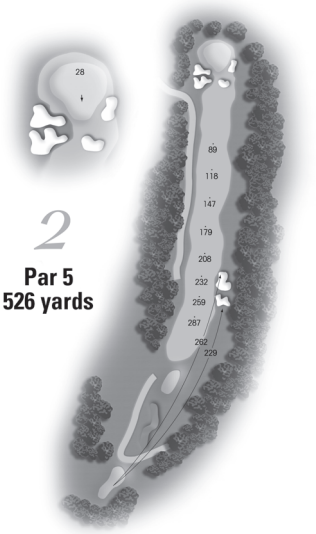
Accuracy rather than sheer power is necessary to navigate the fairway bunkers. A successful second shot will leave the ball below the pin. The green which slopes to the front-left is guarded by a deep bunker to the left and a large shallow bunker on the right.



2
Par 5
526 yards

Narrow dogleg left. Pros think birdie on this short par 5. Watch for overhanging trees near angle of the dogleg. A nest of bunkers protect the green.

3
Par 4
442 yards

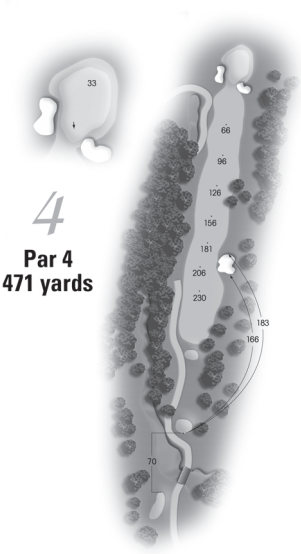
Dogleg right with lake guarding the front of the green. The tee shot should lay up on left side of the fairway. The green is basically flat, and the bunkers, which edge the green, are shallow and playable.



4
Par 4
471 yards

Most difficult par 4 on the course. The fairway slopes right-to-left. The second shot must come in high to hold the elevated green.

5
Par 3
200 yards

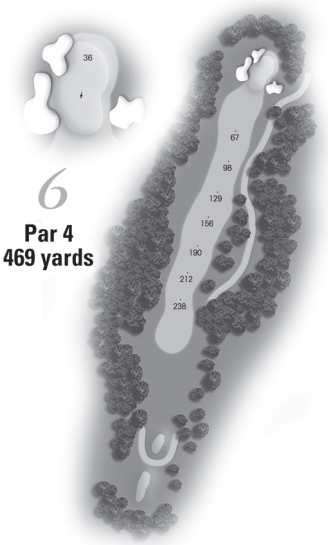
Depending on wind conditions, hit from a 3- to a 6-iron. The undersized green skirted by bunkers requires accurate club selection as well as shot making. A challenging par 3.



6
Par 4
469 yards

Number-one handicap hole on the course. Even with a medium dogleg right, the sixth hole is so long it practically plays straight away. The green slopes back-to-front and is surrounded by three bunkers.

Hole-by-Hole Descriptions (cont.)

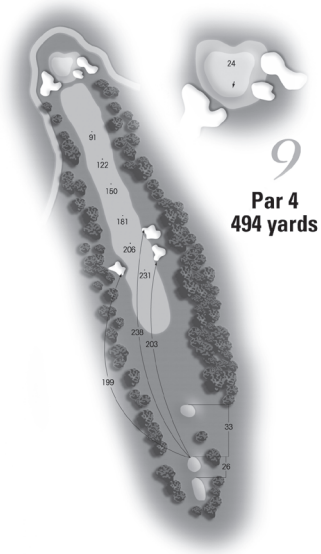
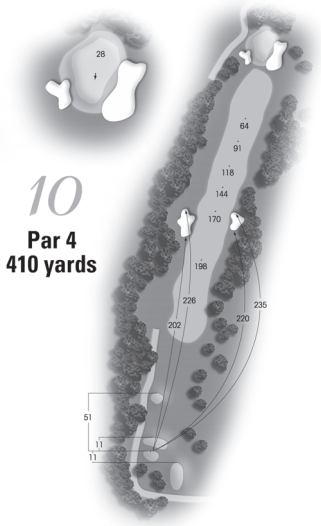
Tee off with an iron to reach the largest green on the course. Front-right bunker is deep and difficult.

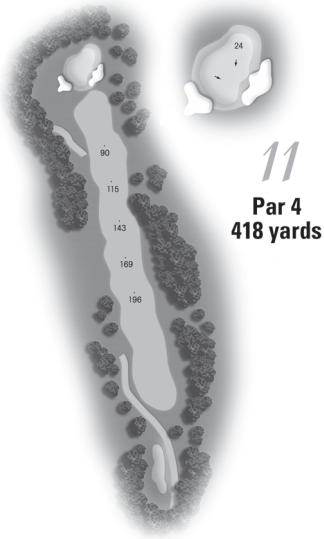
Slight dogleg right accentuated by a left-to-right, sloping fairway. Leave drive to the left in order to have a clear approach shot at green's narrow opening. Long, thin putting surface is well-bunkered on three sides.



A set of bunkers guard a fairway that slopes left-to-right. Wind is a factor on club selection for second shot, a downhill lie to a small uphill green. Well-bunkered in front, the green is relatively flat and smooth.



A slight dogleg right and a set of fairway bunkers combine to demand pinpoint accuracy on the drive. Aim approach shot below the hole to a narrow green, which slopes back-to-front. Fast and undulating, this green has induced many three-putts.



No fairway bunkers. An average-sized green and many advantageous pin placements add to a very birdieable hole. Most players lay up with a 3-wood and hit full wedge shots to the green for better control.

Shortest hole on the course, produces as many bogeys and double bogeys as birdies. The flat, picturesque green sits atop a ridge and is entrenched on three sides by deep, menacing bunkers.

13
Par 4
471 yards

A fairway that bends to the right, a bunker to the left and a huge overhanging oak at the angle of the dogleg leave little room for error. A well-placed drive will leave an approach shot of about 190 yards to a small, well-bunkered green.

14
Par 4
467 yards

The fairway bunkers on both sides of the driving target area encourage most to lay up with a 3-wood. The left bunker is very severe, with a thick overhang of trees, which make the green unreachable. Approach is to a very shallow green.

15
Par 3
221 yards

This long par 3 has narrow bunkers lining the green. Players should be pleased to escape with par. The putting surface is slender but flat.

16
Par 5
667 yards

The signature hole at Firestone. Consistently on the experts' lists of fine championship golf holes. Lay up for second shot with a 3- or 4-iron, leaving full shot for the approach to a modest green. Pin placement in front-right corner is especially troublesome.

17
Par 4
400 yards

A 3-wood off the tee will ensure a level lie. When hitting from a slight valley on the second shot, only the top of the pin is visible. A multi-layered green with a large, deep front bunker adds to the difficulty of the hole.

18
Par 4
464 yards

Drive from an elevated tee to a narrow fairway should lay up to the right. The green will be obscured by trees fronting it from the left side. Most players knock it on the triangular putting surface with medium irons. The back bunker is very deep. A demanding finishing hole on a spectacular golf course.
