Ryan Moore, 2nd

One day following a round that included eight birdies (three more than he had ever posted in a single round at the Cadillac Championship), Ryan Moore posted a 1-under 71 and will enter the weekend trailing Holmes by two shots.

R1 at a glance: 9 of 14 fairways, 11 of 18 greens, 23 putts, 1/2 sand saves.

R2 at a glance: 9 of 14 fairways, 12 of 18 greens, 29 putts, 1/2 sand saves.

Moore's best finish in three previous starts at the Cadillac Championship is a T22 in 2011. His best finish in 14 previous World Golf Championships starts came at the 2009 HSBC Champions, when he finished third.

Moore captured his fourth PGA TOUR victory earlier this season at the CIMB Classic.

Adam Scott, 3rd

Using a conventional putter, Adam Scott moved to third place following a second-round 68. He is making his 14th start at the Cadillac Championship, with top-10 finishes in 2006 (T2), 2013 (T3), 2011 (T6) and 2008 (T9).

Putting Stats through two rounds for Scott:

R1: 27 putts, +2.993/round Strokes Gained: Putting

R2: 27 putts, +2.738/round Strokes Gained: Putting

Scott, making his 242nd career TOUR start, is in search of his 12th official victory. His last TOUR win came at the 2014 Crowne Plaza Invitational at Colonial, the same week he moved into the top spot in the Official World Golf Rankings.

In 42 starts in World Golf Championships events, Scott owns one victory (2011 Bridgestone Invitational).

Scott's only other start during the 2014-15 PGA TOUR Season came at the World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions (T12).

Additional Player Notes

In search of his second-consecutive World Golf Championships victory (2015 HSBC Champions), Bubba Watson carded two eagles (Nos. 8 and 10) Friday en route to a 3-under 69. He now has three eagles on the week (R1/No. 12), two more than anyone else in the field. Watson, who has yet to finish worse than T14 in four starts this season, sits T4 at 4-under 140.

2013 FedExCup champion Henrik Stenson stands T4 in his 28th World Golf Championships start. He is seeking his second win in the World Golf Championships series, having won the 2007 Cadillac Match Play. Stenson's best finish in seven previous starts at the Cadillac Championship is T3 in his inaugural appearance in 2005.

Dustin Johnson, who won the World Golf Championship-HSBC Champions in 2014 and finished runner-up at the 2011 Cadillac Championship, is again playing well after returning to the TOUR following a six-month hiatus. He missed the cut in his first event of the year (Farmers Insurance Open) and at last week's Honda Classic, but he posted a T4 at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and finished T2 after a three-way playoff at the Northern Trust Open. Following rounds of 68-73, he'll enter the weekend T6 and six strokes behind J.B. Holmes.

Frenchman Alexander Levy, currently ranked No. 55 in the world, carded opening rounds of 68-73 and will enter the weekend T6 in his first Cadillac Championship start. The 24-year-old is a two-time winner on the European Tour: 2014 Volvo China Open and Portugal Masters (shortened to 36 holes due to weather).

Sergio Garcia jumped 18 spots on the leaderboard to T9 following a 3-under 69 Friday. Here's a look at players who are the most strokes under par at the Cadillac Championship since 1999: Tiger Woods (154-under), Sergio Garcia (73-under).

Phil Mickelson carded a second-consecutive 2-over 74 and is T41 through two rounds. Mickelson's opening-round 74 marked his first birdie-free round since Sunday of the 2012 U.S. Open (a streak of 186 rounds). On Friday, Mickelson posted four birdies, but they were countered by two bogeys and two double bogeys.

World No. 1 Rory McIlroy followed up an opening-round of 1-over 73 with a second-round 2-under 70 to move to T11. While identical in greens hit (11 of 18) and putts (27) each of the first two rounds, McIlroy improved in sand saves (1 of 3 in R1 vs. 3 of 4 in R2) and fairways hit in regulation (8 of 14 in R2 vs. 10 of 14 in R1).

Lee Westwood became the first player to make 50 starts in the World Golf Championships series this week. Below is a list of most World Golf Championships appearances (Cadillac Championship, Cadillac Match Play, Bridgestone Invitational and HSBC Champions since it became a World Golf Championships event in 2009), and their standings through R2:

Lee Westwood	50 (T11)
Ernie Els	48 (not in the field)
Tiger Woods	44 (not in the field)
Phil Mickelson	44 (T41)
