Kim's five-stroke victory falls five shots short of the of the largest margin of victory in tournament history (Sam Snead – 1950). It's the third largest margin of victory this season.

Kim earns 500 FedExCup points for his victory and moves from 43rd to 15th in the standings.

There have been 18 international champions in tournament history. Kim is the fourth international winner of the Wyndham Championship since 2010 and first since Camilo Villegas in 2014. He joins K.J. Choi (2005) as the only South Korean victors.

Kim is the eighth Korean-born player to win on the PGA TOUR, joining K.J. Choi (8), Y.E. Yang (2), James Hahn (2), Kevin Na (1), Sangmoon Bae (2), Danny Lee (1), Seung-Yul Noh (1).

At the age of 21 years, 1 month, 24 days, Kim becomes the youngest player to win on TOUR since Jordan Spieth won the 2015 John Deere Classic at the age of 21 years, 11 months, 15 days.

Seve Ballesteros is the youngest winner of the Wyndham Championship, winning his first tournament in the United States at the 1978 Wyndham Championship at the age of 20 years, 11 months and 24 days.

Players under the age of 25 have won six times this season.

Kim becomes the 16th first-time winner of the season, marking the second most first-time winners in a season since 1970. The record is 18.

2002	18
2015-16	16
2010	15
2011	14

Kim's first victory comes in his 38th PGA TOUR start (30th of the season), with a playoff loss at the 2016 Barbasol Championship his best finish. He also owns top-10 finishes this year at the Sony Open in Hawaii (4) and CareerBuilder Challenge (T9).

Eighteen players have picked up their maiden PGA TOUR victory at the Wyndham Championship, most recently Si Woo Kim in 2016.

Kim finished T20 at PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament at PGA West in Palm Springs at the age of 17 years, 5 months, 6 days, making him the youngest player to graduate from Qualifying School. Kim's rookie season on the PGA TOUR was in 2013, but only made eight starts because he did not turn 18 until June 28th. Kim returned back to Web.com Tour until he locked up his PGA TOUR Card for the 2015-16 PGA TOUR Season by finishing 23rd on the 2015 Web.com Tour priority list.

On the Web.com Tour last season, Kim played in all 25 events, where he won the Ellie Mae Classic at TPC Stonebrae and finished T2 at the Rust-Oleum Championship.

In his only other start at the Wyndham Championship, Kim missed the cut in 2013.

Kim's 60 Friday broke the tournament course record which was 61, achieved by five players: Brandt Snedeker (2015), Tim Herron (2012), Arjun Atwal (2010), Kevin Na (2010) and Carl Pettersson (2008).

Kim's four-stroke cushion this week equaled the second-largest 54-hole lead of the season, one shy of Jordan Spieth's five-shot lead at the Tournament of Champions.

Kim's 192 total through three rounds fell one-stroke shy of Carl Pettersson's 191 Wyndham Championship 54-hole record in 2008.

This week marked Kim's first 54-hole lead on the PGA TOUR.

Rafa Cabrera Bello

Just five days removed from his T5 finish at the Olympic Games in Rio (one of seven players who made the journey from Rio to the Wyndham Championship), Spain's Rafa Cabrera Bello posted a T5 at the Wyndham Championship.

This week marked Cabrera Bello's 10th start of the season. This season, he has collected top-10 finishes at the World Golf Championships-Dell Match Play (3rd), Shell Houston Open (4th) and Wyndham Championship (T5).

As a non-member of the PGA TOUR, Cabrera Bello's only avenue to next week's FedExCup Playoffs was with a win on Sunday.

Jim Furyk

Making his 13th start in the Wyndham Championship, Jim Furyk was in search of his 18th TOUR victory. Furyk double-bogeyed the 72nd hole and carded an even-par 70 on Sunday for a T10, his third top 10 this season.

Furyk's last victory came at the 2015 RBC Heritage.

Furyk has amassed five top-10 finishes in his 13 previous starts in the event, most notably a solo-second in 1999 at Forrest Oaks Country Club. Furyk finished T9 in last year's event, his only other start since the event moved to Sedgefield. In seven rounds at Sedgefield, has yet to post a score 70 or over.

Scott Brown

Scott Brown's hole-in-one on No. 3 was his fifth career ace on the PGA TOUR. Only 15 players have more in a career since 1971, with Hal Sutton and Robert Allenby holding the record of 10. All of Brown's holes-in-one have come since 2014.

For the second time, Brown has made two aces in the same season. (He made a hole-in-one during the fall at the 2015 CIMB Classic).

FedExCup Implications

As the final event in the PGA TOUR Season, the Wyndham Championship is pivotal in the race to the FedExCup Playoffs. It offers the final opportunity for players to improve their FedExCup positions heading into the Playoffs, or in some instances, move into the top 125 in the standings and qualify for the first Playoffs event, The Barclays.

The following players entered the week outside the top 125 in the FedExCup standings and finished inside the top 125 to advance to the FedExCup Playoffs: Kyle Stanley (T14, moved from No. 127 to No. 116), Shawn Stefani (T14; moved from No. 133 to No. 123).

The following players entered the week inside the top 125 in the FedExCup standings and finished outside the top 125: Matt Jones (MC; fell from No. 124 to No. 126), Whee Kim (MC; fell from No. 125 to No. 127).

David Toms, who entered the week No. 121, fell to No. 124 after withdrawing from the tournament to help in the aid of the Louisiana flood victims.

Last year, five players moved from outside the top 125 to inside the top 125 in FedExCup points' standing: Davis Love III, Jason Gore, Jonas Blixt, Camilo Villegas and Ryo Ishikawa.
