ShotLink Keys to Victory for Jordan Spieth

Jordan Spieth became only the 2nd player in PGA TOUR history to post a score of 30-under par or better in a 72-hole PGA TOUR event at the 2016 SBS Tournament of Champions.

Most Under Par in a 72 Hole Event PGA TOUR History

Player	Event	Score to Par
Ernie Els	2003 SBS TOC	-31
Jordan Spieth	2016 SBS TOC	-30
Patrick Reed	2014 CareerBuilder Challenge	-28

Phil Mickelson	2006 AT&T Classic	-28
Mark Calcavecchia	2001 Waste Management	-28
John Huston	1998 Sony Open	-28

Spieth's total of 30-under par at the 2016 SBS Tournament of Champions was 2nd lowest to Ernie Els who posted 31-under par at this event in 2003.

Jordan Spieth dominated in all facets of the game, including approach shots from outside of 200 yards. In 19 attempts from over 200 yards in the fairway, no one was better than Spieth who averaged 38' 9" compared to the field average of 55' 6". His accuracy from long approach shots helped him take advantage of the par 5's at Kapalua playing them at a combined 16-under par. His 16-under par on the 5 pars were 7 shots better than the field and 2 shots better than the next best player(s) at 14-under par. Jordan's 16-under par performance on the par 5's at Kapalua matched the best at this event (Ernie Els - 16 in 2003).

The 400 Yard Mark

Since 2003, there have been 388 drives of 400 yards or more recorded on the PGA TOUR.

226 of the 388 total 400+ yard drives recorded on the PGA TOUR in last 14 years have come from the SBS Tournament of Champions on the Plantation Course at Kapalua. This works out 58% of all 400+ yard drives originating at the Plantation Course.

However, in 2014, there were no drives recorded over 400 yards on the Plantation Course at Kapalua for the first time in the ShotLink Era. In fact, only 1 drive was recorded on TOUR in the 2013-14 PGA TOUR season over 400+ yards (Bubba Watson, Firestone CC (South) - 424 yards). Last season, this event recorded 3 of the 8 drives 400+ for the season.
