History of East Lake Golf Club

Overview

East Lake Golf Club (www.eastlakegolfclub.com) is the home course of legendary amateur golfer Bobby Jones and the permanent home to the TOUR Championship. East Lake, which celebrated its 100th anniversary in 2004, is not only a historic golf club, but a philanthropic one as well. The golf club's founding sponsors have contributed more than $20 million to the East Lake Foundation to help transform one of the nation's worst public housing projects into a thriving, mixed-income community. Net proceeds from golf club operations and the TOUR Championship are funneled back into East Lake community programs to help families succeed. Additional support is provided by foundations, governmental entities and individuals. The revitalized community includes a mixed-income apartment complex, Charles R. Drew Charter School, a YMCA, a child development center and the Charlie Yates Golf Course, home to The First Tee of East Lake.

Early History

The property known as East Lake was purchased in 1904, and the golf course designed by Tom Bendelow opened July 4, 1908. In 1913, famed golf-course architect Donald Ross redesigned the Bendelow course at East Lake. Ross also designed the "new" No. 2 course which opened in 1930. The club enjoyed another milestone in 1930 when Bobby Jones completed the Grand Slam of Golf, winning the U.S. Amateur, U.S. Open, British Amateur and British Open in the same year.

Over the years, East Lake has also given birth to 21 regional and 21 national golf champions and is the only American course in history to have produced two British Amateur champions: Bobby Jones in 1930 and Charlie Yates in 1938.

The Club's Renovation Becomes the Neighborhood's Revitalization

From the 1960s to the 1980s, the surrounding neighborhood deteriorated and became a center for poverty, drugs and violence. This all changed in 1993 when a local charitable foundation purchased East Lake to restore it as a tribute to Bobby Jones and the club's other great amateur golfers. By tying the club's renovation to the revitalization of the surrounding neighborhood, the East Lake Foundation saved a precious piece of golf history and a community. Contributions from East Lake Golf Club's member corporations as well as profits from the club operations support East Lake community programs.

East Lake Golf Club Today

In 1994, Rees Jones restored Donald Ross' golf-course layout. Using the original Philip Shutze architectural drawings, the clubhouse was brought back to its 1926 design and condition. By 1995, East Lake had regained its place as one of the world's great golf clubs. Today, both East Lake Golf Club and the surrounding neighborhood continue to thrive.

EAST LAKE FACTS

- East Lake was a privately owned amusement park in the 1890s, with a beach, picnic tables and hot dog, popcorn and peanut stands on the East Lake.
- Bobby Jones, then age 6, attended the July 4, 1908, grand opening in the company of his father, Col. Robert P. Jones, a member who served as president of the club from 1937-42 and as a director for 38 years. Bobby Jones served as president from 1946-47. Jones grew up in a house that was adjacent to what is currently the 10th fairway and moved to a home on the grounds near the current second green in the 1910s. Jones played his final round of golf at East Lake on August 15, 1948.
- The original clubhouse, which also opened July 4, 1908, burned down twice [1914 and 1925]. The last fire destroyed several of Bobby Jones' trophies, including the original Havemeyer Trophy, which Jones earned for his victory in the U.S. Amateur earlier that year. The following year the USGA introduced a newly designed trophy that is still in use today.
- East Lake hosted the 1963 Ryder Cup, which the U.S. won 23-9, led by playing captain Arnold Palmer.
- The winner of the TOUR Championship receives a Calamity Jane sterling silver commemorative putter. The putter is an exact replica of Bobby Jones' original putter. Jones received the original Calamity Jane in 1920. That putter and a copy were employed by Jones to capture 13 major championships, including the Grand Slam in 1930.
- Bobby Jones is buried at Historic Oakland Cemetery, just a few miles from East Lake. Others buried at this site include Margaret Mitchell and Civil War soldiers. Many golf fans leave golf balls teed up or notes on Jones' headstone.
- East Lake has connections to the Civil War. Remnants of a skirmish during Sherman's maneuvers around Atlanta in 1864 can be seen in the eighth fairway where faint outlines remain of a trench dug by Confederate soldiers. The home of Confederate Col. Robert Alston is one of the few antebellum homes that survived Sherman's march. It was spared because it housed one of Sherman's officers while Union troops slept on what is now East Lake Golf Club.

The 15th Ryder Cup Matches

Oct. 11-13, 1963

Captains: Arnold Palmer – USA
John Fallon – Great Britain

With Britain determining that a non-playing Captain was more advantageous to planning strategy in a Ryder Cup competition, the U.S. didn't follow the cue. Arnold Palmer debuted in style as a playing Captain and led his team to the second largest victory margin in Ryder Cup history. It was the first Ryder Cup Matches with four-ball competition, increasing the point total to 32 points.
