Nick Watney finished T2 for his best showing on TOUR since the 2015 AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am.

For the 11th time in his career as a professional, Tiger Woods failed to record a birdie in a round (3-over 74). It was the first time since the final round of the 2014 World Golf Championships-Mexico Championship (at Doral).

Phil Mickelson posted the most birdies of the day, 7 (tied with T.J. Vogel), to finish T5, his eighth top-five result at the Wells Fargo Championship, the most of any player. The Wells Fargo Championship remains one of eight PGA TOUR tournaments Mickelson has made 10 or more starts without a win.
