Charles Schwab Cup

Overview

From 2001 until 2015, the Charles Schwab Cup was a gold trophy awarded at the conclusion of each PGA TOUR Champions season to the player who finished at the top of a season-long, points-based competition. The competition rewarded both consistency and top-10 finishes at all official PGA TOUR Champions events. Double points were awarded for top-10 finishes in major championships. Double points were also awarded to all 30 competitors at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship.

In 2016, PGA TOUR Champions introduced the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs, a three-tournament season-ending competition. Prior to the start of the playoffs, "Wildcard Weekend" was introduced at the SAS Championship, the season's final full-field event. This allows a player who finished in the top 10, but outside the top 72 on the money list, to advance to the playoffs.

The third edition of the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs will begin with 72 players at the Dominion Energy Charity Classic (Oct. 15-21). The top 54 will advance to the following week's PowerShares QQQ Championship, and the season will conclude with the top 36 players at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Nov. 5-11), where they will compete for the Charles Schwab Cup trophy, designed by Tiffany & Co.

Prize Money

$2.1-million annuity to the top-five point earners at season's end.

Payouts

1st	$1 million
2nd	$500,000
3rd	$300,000
4th	$200,000
5th	$100,000

Points Distribution

At the start of the playoffs, each player's regular-season money total will become the equivalent number of points (e.g. $330,000 equals 330,000 points). During the three playoff events, each dollar earned is worth two points, and those points will be added to a player's regular-season point total. After the Dominion Energy Charity Classic, the top 54 players will advance, and after the PowerShares QQQ Championship, the top 36 players will qualify for the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The player with the most points at the conclusion of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship will win the Charles Schwab Cup.

2017 Charles Schwab Cup Recap

In 2017, Bernhard Langer led the Charles Schwab Cup standings 23 of the first 25 weeks of the season. He won seven times, including three majors and two Charles Schwab Cup Playoff events, but was ultimately upstaged by Kevin Sutherland at the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Sutherland posted a 15-under 198 total to earn his first career PGA TOUR Champions title, as well as the Charles Schwab Cup, after moving from No. 5 to No. 1 in the standings following the points reset.

The victory was one of 15 top-10 finishes for Sutherland, who won for the first time since 2002, a span of 341 professional starts. With the win, he became just the third player to win the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and the Charles Schwab Cup in the same season, joining Tom Watson (2005) and Tom Lehman (2012).

"I played really well all year and I just couldn't find a way to get a win. So, to win this tournament, it's unbelievable," Sutherland said. "I'm sure in a couple days it will sink in a little bit, but right now it just seems like I'm not even sure it really happened, I keep pinching myself. It feels good and it's been a long time since I won a tournament."

After tying for 12th in the season finale, Langer finished second in the Charles Schwab Cup, his sixth consecutive top-two finish in the season-long competition. Though he was unable to win his fourth straight Charles Schwab Cup, he set many new records during the season — he became the second player to win three senior majors in one year, he became the Tour's all-time leader in major wins (10), he broke the single-season money record ($3,677,359), and he won his sixth straight money title. The most elusive PGA TOUR Champions record remains, however, as his 36 career victories is nine shy of Hale Irwin's record 45 wins.

Historical Highlights – 1978-2017

1978

The Legends of Golf made its debut, with NBC televising the event. Sam Snead and his partner, Gardner Dickinson, stole all the headlines. Snead birdied the 16th and 17th holes at Onion Creek Country Club in Austin, TX, to tie the Australian team of Peter Thomson and Kel Nagle. Then, on 18, Snead's sensational wedge shot from the fairway stopped just short of the cup, leaving Snead only a four-foot putt for the win. After Nagle missed his birdie attempt, Snead sank his third consecutive birdie, giving him and Dickinson the first Legends of Golf title and $50,000 each.

1979

The final day provided fireworks and pure competitive spirit. Birdies on the last two holes of regulation by Roberto De Vincenzo and Julius Boros forced a sudden-death playoff with Tommy Bolt and Art Wall. The playoff resulted in one par and five birdies over six holes, with De Vincenzo and Bolt teasing each other in their friendly manner after each birdie. After six holes, De Vincenzo and Boros walked off the winners. The tournament again was telecast by NBC, and the playoff ran into prime time. It has been said before, but it certainly bears repeating, that on April 30, 1979 the Champions Tour was born.

1980

Already established as an artistic success, the Legends of Golf became a solid financial success with the strong support of its newly found sponsor, the Liberty Mutual Group, which has sponsored every Legends event since. The 1980 tournament gave senior golf another lift when the "odd couple" of the game, Tommy Bolt and Art Wall, fired a 6-under-par 64 on the final day for a then-Legends-record 23-under-par 187 total and the first-place check.

1981

The Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, as it became known, again was played at Onion Creek Country Club, its home since its inception. This was the year Gene Littler and his partner, Bob Rosburg, recorded a 23-under-par score of 257 as the event became a four-day tournament. On Saturday, Littler and Rosburg shot a sizzling 62 for a four-stroke lead they never relinquished.

1982

The ageless Sam Snead and his 50-year-old partner, Don January, shot an incredible 27-under-par 183 in a rain-shortened, three-day tournament. Amazingly, Snead and January averaged a birdie every other hole they played. Snead became the Legends' first two-time winner.

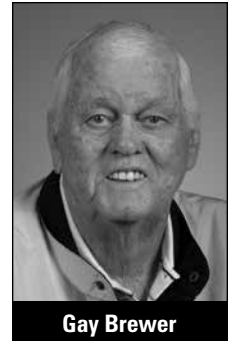

Sam Snead

1983

Roberto De Vincenzo lost his playing partner, Bob Goalby, early in the week. Goalby suffered a back injury and had to withdraw from the tournament. His replacement was a newcomer to the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, Rod Funseth. On Sunday, the team of De Vincenzo and Funseth held onto a tight two-stroke lead over the determined duo of Jackie Burke and Paul Harney. Birdies on 17 and 18 made De Vincenzo and Funseth the winners, and De Vincenzo became the second two-time Legends winner.

1984

The teams of Miller Barber/Julius Boros and Billy Casper/Gay Brewer moved away from the field as they traded birdies on the last day. After 15 holes, Casper and Brewer held a slim one-stroke lead. On 17, after a bogey by Barber/Boros, Brewer made his sixth birdie of the day to wrap up the competition.

Gay Brewer

1985

The big news was the announcement that two legendary members of the Ladies' Professional Golf Association, Mickey Wright and Kathy Whitworth, would compete as a team in that year's field. Wright almost made a hole-in-one on the 17th hole, and Whitworth chipped in from off the green on 18 as they were among the leading contenders after the first two rounds. But Don January and Gene Littler pulled away on Saturday and Sunday to capture the win.

1986

Some of NBC's cameras and a good portion of the mammoth gallery were rushing back to the 15th hole in anticipation of an unprecedented four-team playoff. However, on 18, Gene Littler sank a 30-foot birdie putt for the win. The downhill, left-to-right putt shocked the gallery and millions of TV viewers as Littler and January won their second consecutive title.

1987

A new team of winners arrived on the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf scene, consisting of Bruce Crampton, and the "Ol' Sarge," Orville Moody. Crampton, who earned the title of "Ironman" long before he participated in every Champions Tour event in 1986, and Moody set an 18-hole record of 59 on Saturday. The duo then made 11 consecutive birdies on Sunday as they distanced themselves from the rest of the field and won their first Legends tournament.

1988

Arnold Palmer and Miller Barber led the Legends after three rounds. But by the time Palmer and Barber began play on Sunday, the momentum had swung to the teams of Bruce Crampton/Orville Moody, Bob Charles/Bruce Devlin, Harold Henning/Peter Thomson and Tommy Aaron/Lou Graham. The day's most exciting shot occurred on 16, where Aaron's iron shot from under the limb of a fairway tree flew into the cup for a 2 that propelled him and Graham into a one-stroke lead. But then, on 18, Moody made his putt, and the Legends had the second tie in its 11-year history. The ensuing playoff duplicated the stirring six-hole 1979 classic as the two teams matched one another over the Onion Creek course. On the sixth extra hole, Moody's birdie putt made him and Crampton the Legends' second consecutive two-time winners.

1989

A new team consisting of Al Geiberger and Harold Henning threatened to run away with the title after shooting consecutive 61s the first two days. Bob Charles and Bruce Devlin made a run at Geiberger and Henning on Saturday, firing a 61 of their own to trail by two. But Geiberger and Henning prevailed on Sunday, shooting a 67 to hold off the red-hot Dale Douglass and Charles Coody, who posted a 60 to finish second.

The Legends moved across Austin to the Barton Creek Country Club, where Charles Coody and Dale Douglass ran away from the field. Coody and Douglass shot a record 39-under-par 249, including a 59 on the first day.

1991

ABC Sports took over the contract from NBC to telecast the event. Mike Hill and a new Legend, Lee Trevino, threatened another runaway victory at Barton Creek. But on Sunday, Al Geiberger and Harold Henning closed the gap by breaking another Legends record, shooting a sensational 58. However, Trevino and Hill finished at 36-under-par 252, good for a two-stroke win at the 14th Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf.

Al Geiberger

1992

Lee Trevino and Mike Hill combined for a 37-under-par 251 as they won their second consecutive Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf. In the third round, Trevino and Hill posted a back-nine 28 for an 18-hole total of 60. The team of Jim Colbert and Tommy Aaron finished second, three strokes behind Trevino and Hill.

1993

For the first and only time, the Legends changed its format to individual play. A three-way tie resulted, featuring Don January, Harold Henning and Legends "rookie" Tom Weiskopf. Weiskopf was eliminated when he bogeyed the first extra hole. On the second extra hole, a par-3, Henning's tee shot landed in a bunker and January missed the green to the left. January's second shot left him with a long putt, which he missed to bogey the hole. Henning played a magnificent shot out of the bunker, leaving him with a short putt for par, which he sank to walk off with the $250,000 first prize, the largest in senior golf to that point.

1994

The par-3 17th hole at Barton Creek decided the 1994 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf on the tournament's final day, when Dale Douglass and Charles Coody nailed down their second win. On 17, Bob Murphy and Jim Colbert bogeyed to finish in a tie for second with Chi Chi Rodriguez and Jim Dent, who shot three consecutive 63s. Both teams finished at 189, one stroke behind Douglass and Coody.

1995

After 17 years in Austin, TX, the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf moved to La Quinta, CA, and the Stadium Course at PGA West. Billed as a challenge between golf's legends and the Stadium Course, the Legends won, tearing up the course with birdies and eagles. Mike Hill, with 12 birdies in two rounds despite a bad back, helped lead the Trevino/Hill team to a 21-under-par 195 and their third Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title.

1996

Wind was the big story Friday and Saturday, and scores reflected the tough conditions. Jimmy Powell and Orville Moody, who led the field Friday with a 7-under-par 65, followed with a 66 to win the Legendary Division. Sunday brought ideal conditions, and with the great weather came great scoring. Bob Murphy and Jim Colbert set the early pace, firing a 10-under-par 62 to get to 14-under, but it would not be enough. Lee Trevino and Mike Hill caught fire on the back nine, shooting a 63 to win their fourth Legends title. Art Wall and Doug Ford won the Demaret Division.

1997

The setting was the same, but the venue changed from the Stadium Course to the Palmer Course at PGA West. John Bland and Graham Marsh shared the first-round lead with Gene Littler/Don January after opening with a 9-under-par 63. A second-round 64 gave Bland/Marsh a one-stroke lead over Dave Stockton/Al Geiberger, Hubert Green/Gil Morgan, Gibby Gilbert/J.C. Snead and Don January/Gene Littler. A closing 65 brought Bland and Marsh their first Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf title. January and Littler won the Legendary Division, while George Bayer and Howie Johnson captured the Demaret Division.

1998

After three years in California, the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf moved to Florida and the Golf Club of Amelia Island at Summer Beach. Despite the 3,000-mile change of location, the final result found some familiar names at the top of the leaderboard. Dale Douglass and Charles Coody won their third Legends title, defeating Hugh Baiocchi and David Graham in a playoff. Douglass ended the event with a 20-foot birdie putt on the second extra hole after Baiocchi had made a 30-footer on the final hole of regulation to send the tournament to a playoff. Coody and Douglass also captured the Legendary Division. Joe Jimenez and Charlie Sifford won the title in the Demaret Division, which was shortened to 27 holes due to chilly weather and gusting winds on Saturday.

1999

The event made its debut at The Slammer & Squire at World Golf Village in St. Augustine, FL. The team of Hubert Green and Gil Morgan shot a better-ball score of 22-under-par 194 and recorded a wire-to-wire victory over Tom Wargo and John Mahaffey. The virtually flawless Green/Morgan team did not record a bogey and became the sixth team to win wire-to-wire. In the Legendary Division, Orville Moody and Jimmy Powell won with a birdie on the third extra hole over Butch Baird/Homero Blancas, Don January/Gene Littler and Al Geiberger/Tom Shaw. Charlie Sifford and Joe Jimenez birdied the second extra hole to win the Demaret Division title over Fred Haas/Fred Hawkins and Roberto de Vicenzo/Mike Fetchick.

As The Slammer & Squire continued as tournament venue, Jim Colbert and Andy North gave themselves a belated shared-birthday present. The two, who blow their candles out on March 9, came home 10 days later as the seventh (and second consecutive) wire-to-wire winners in Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf history. The victory was the first for North, the “newly minted 50-year-old,” on the Champions Tour. The Colbert/North edge over Bruce Fleisher/David Graham was one stroke, the same margin by which Mike Hill and Lee Trevino captured the Legendary Division. Hill/Trevino previously won the Legends Division in 1991-92 and 1995-96. Joe Jimenez/Charlie Sifford earned their third consecutive Demaret Division title.

Dale Douglass

2001

The King & Bear was the new venue for the event and Jim Colbert and Andy North defended their title with a three-stroke victory over the team of Bruce Fleisher and David Graham, the 2000 runners-up. The event was shortened to 36 holes when Friday's round was canceled due to inclement weather. Colbert and North fired a 13-under-par 59 on Saturday which included a run of nine consecutive birdies on holes 5-12. After a par, they ran off four more birdies to open a three-stroke margin. Fleisher and Graham trailed by six strokes after the opening round and cut that to just one stroke after nine holes on Sunday, but a bogey at the 10th hole ended their momentum as Colbert-North closed with a final-round 65. In the Legendary Division, Jim Albus and Simon Hobday were one-stroke victors. Don January and Gene Littler became the first team to triumph in all three divisions when they won the Demaret Division crown.

2002

The last tournament at The King & Bear became an official-money Champions Tour event for the first time and returned to an individual stroke-play format. Doug Tewell played well in winning his sixth Tour title by one stroke over Bobby Wadkins. In the Raphael Division, Texans Bruce Lietzke and Bill Rogers teamed to win by a whopping nine strokes. Miller Barber and Jim Ferree won the Demaret Division by one stroke.

2003

The tournament moved to the Savannah Harbor Golf Resort and Spa in Savannah, GA, and Bruce Lietzke won the title by one stroke over David Eger and Dana Quigley. Lietzke fired a first-round 70, leaving him three strokes behind Vicente Fernandez. But a second-round 65, a score that tied him with Bobby Wadkins for the tournament's low 18-hole round, gave Lietzke a one-stroke advantage. On Sunday, he hung on for the win despite shooting his worst score of the tournament, a 1-under 71. In the Raphael Division, Gary Koch and Roger Maltbie, two NBC broadcasters, teamed to win by two strokes, while Miller Barber and Jim Ferree won the Demaret Division, successfully defending their 2002 title.

2004

In the tournament's second year at the Westin Savannah Harbor Golf Resort and Spa, Hale Irwin put his name in the win column for the first time with his one-stroke win over Gary Koch and Gil Morgan. Irwin had taken a four-week break from the Tour prior to the tournament, but his game showed no rust. Playing the last hole Sunday, Irwin and Morgan were tied for the lead. While the Champions Tour's all-time leading money winner was able to par the 54th hole, Morgan had to settle for a two-putt bogey, leaving him in a tie for second. Bob Charles and Stewart Ginn had just enough to get past the team of Frank Beard and Jimmy Powell and Mike Hill and Lee Trevino to win the Raphael Division. In the Demaret Division, Don January and Gene Littler teamed up for their sixth title as a team in this tournament. They edged 2003 champs Miller Barber and Jim Ferree by a stroke.

2005

During the final round, with temperatures only reaching the low 60s and winds gusting to 20 mph, Des Smyth felt right at home, shooting a 1-under 71 to carve out a two-stroke win over Tom Jenkins. It was the Irishman's second Champions Tour title in three starts, having won the SBC Classic a month earlier. Smyth was the only player in the field to shoot a final-round, under-par score in conditions that reminded him of his home in Drogheda, Ireland. In the Raphael Division, Andy North and Tom Watson shot consecutive 64s to cruise to the Raphael Division title, while Orville Moody and Jimmy Powell took the Demaret Division honors with their seven-stroke win over Joe Jimenez and Charlie Sifford.

2006

At the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf, Jay Haas began a hot streak that eventually led to Champions Tour Player of the Year honors. After winning at the Westin Savannah Harbor Golf Resort and Spa, he won the following week at the FedEx Kinko's Classic, skipped the next two events and then made it three wins in a row with a win at the Senior PGA Championship. In Savannah, Haas led from start to finish, opening a one-stroke lead after the first round and a two-stroke cushion through 36 holes. His five-stroke victory was the largest since the Legends Division adopted a stroke-play format in 2002. In the Raphael Division, Andy North and Tom Watson successfully defended their title, as did the team of Orville Moody and Jimmy Powell in the Demaret Division.

2007

Jay Haas didn't blow the field away like he did in 2006 when he set the lowest score in tournament history at 15-under par and a five-stroke victory. Instead, Haas came from behind, making a critical up and down from the sand on the final hole of regulation to force, and eventually win, a playoff over Tom Kite. He also moved to 24-under par on his last 108 holes at Westin Savannah Harbor Golf and Resort Spa course and 21-under par on the back nine. Haas went on to win four events in 2007 and finish the season No. 1 on the money list and second in the Charles Schwab Cup. The Raphael Division, a 36-hole, two-man better-ball competition for players 50 and older, was conducted Friday and Saturday. Tom Watson and Andy North won their third consecutive title. North and Watson defeated the NBC broadcasting tag team of Gary Koch and Roger Maltbie by one stroke. In the Demaret Division, played Monday and Tuesday as a 36-hole, two-man better-ball competition for players 70 and older, Butch Baird and Bobby Nichols shot 65-64-129 for a four-stroke victory over Jimmy Powell and Orville Moody.

In the first year since 2001 that all three divisions—Legends, Raphael and Demaret—used a better-ball format, Andy North and Tom Watson continued their dominant play, winning a team title for the fourth consecutive year. North and Watson outlasted Craig Stadler and Jeff Sluman by a stroke. The Raphael Division was also a close affair, with Gary Koch and Roger Maltbie making up for two second-place finishes in 2006 and 2007 by edging Bob Charles and Stewart Ginn by a stroke. In the Demaret Division, which ended Tuesday, Jimmy Powell teamed with Al Geiberger for the first time to take a five-stroke win. Powell hooked up with Geiberger after Powell's long-time partner Orville Moody missed the event because of illness (he passed away later in the season). Powell had paired with Moody for the previous three tournaments, winning twice (2005 and 2006) and placing second in 2007.

2009

For the second consecutive year, it was a close call for the team of Jeff Sluman and Craig Stadler. After losing the title by a stroke to the team of Andy North and Tom Watson in 2008, Sluman and Stadler fell in a two-hole playoff to Bernhard Langer and Tom Lehman. The Langer-Lehman team looked like it had won the tournament on the first extra hole when Langer made a 45-foot birdie putt. Stadler, unfazed, made a similar-distance putt, causing the crowd to erupt in applause again. Langer and Lehman decided things on the second playoff hole when they made par to the Sluman/Stadler bogey. In the Raphael Division, the team of Gary Koch/Roger Maltbie successfully defended their 2009 title with a two-stroke win over Mike Hill/Lee Trevino. World Golf Hall of Fame members Bob Charles and Gary Player teamed for the first time to edge defending champions Al Geiberger/Jimmy Powell by a stroke in the 70-and-older division.

Des Smyth

2010

The win by Mark O'Meara and Nick Price was significant because it gave O'Meara his first victory in a Champions Tour event in 58 starts and ended a streak of 238 events without a win (181 on PGA TOUR; 57 on Champions Tour) since his victory at the 1998 British Open. The victory was Price's second on the Champions Tour. Runners-up John Cook and Joey Sindelar, who were defeated at the second extra hole of a sudden death playoff, earned their third consecutive top-5 finish in this event. Later in the year, O'Meara and Price each captured additional Champions Tour titles - Price at the Principal Charity Classic in Des Moines, Iowa and O'Meara at the year's final major championship, the Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship at TPC Potomac. Ken Green made his first start since losing part of his right leg in an accident the previous June while returning from the Triton Financial Classic in Austin, TX. Green and his partner Mike Reid finished T29. John Bland and Graham Marsh posted their first win in the Raphael Division since 1997 when they claimed a one-stroke victory over Bruce Lietzke and Bill Rogers. Bland and Marsh ended the two-year reign of Gary Koch and Roger Maltbie, who finished third. In the Demaret Division, World Golf Hall of Fame members Sir Bob Charles and Gary Player defended their title in 2009, beating Tom Shaw and Don Bies by two strokes.

2011

Kenny Perry and Scott Hoch both missed short par putts on the second playoff hole, handing the Legends Division title at the 2011 Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf to Mark McNulty/David Eger. McNulty and Eger teamed for a final-round 11-under 61 to post a 27-under-par score, but Perry almost holed a birdie putt on the final hole of regulation that would have won the tournament outright, lipping out from 25 feet. After both teams made par on the first extra hole, all four players missed the 18th green with their approach shots on the second extra hole. McNulty first saved his par from just left of the green, chipping to within three feet of the hole and converting the par save. Hoch then missed his par bid from the same distance and just when it looked as if the playoff would be extended to a third extra hole, Perry pulled his putt from three feet giving McNulty and Eger the win. It marked the eighth official title for McNulty and his first win on the Champions Tour since the 2009 Principal Charity Classic. For Eger, it was his fourth victory on the circuit and first since the previous year's Mississippi Gulf Resort Classic. For the third consecutive year, a team came from off the pace to win, and it was also the third consecutive year that a playoff was required to decide the title. Mark James and Des Smyth fired a back-to-back 63s to finish 18-under and win the Raphael Division by one stroke over the teams of Gary Koch and Roger Maltbie and Ben Crenshaw and Curtis Strange. Smyth from Ireland and James from England become the second consecutive international team to claim the Raphael Division, following the team of Australia's Graham Marsh and South Africa's John Bland in 2010. Gibby Gilbert and J.C. Snead fired back-to-back 10-under-par 62s to win the Demaret Division by five strokes over the teams of Mike Hill/Lee Trevino and Jim Albus/Jim Dent. Their two-day, better-ball winning score of 20-under 124 was the lowest in the 18-year history of the Demaret Division competition, eclipsing the previous record of 19-under 125 set by Bob Charles/Gary Player in 2010.

2012

Michael Allen and teammate David Frost played near-flawless golf, leading to a one-stroke victory in the Legends Division of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Legends of Golf. The duo beat John Cook and Joey Sindelar, who finished runners-up for the second time in this tournament having lost a playoff in 2010. Allen and Frost finished with a 54-hole, bogey-free, 29-under-par 187. The key shot came at No. 14 in the final round when Frost chipped in from 40 feet for eagle on the par-4, which gave them a lead they never relinquished. Allen had also captured the previous week's Encompass Insurance Pro-Am of Tampa Bay. Mark James and Des Smyth defended their title in the Raphael Division with a one-stroke victory over the teams of Denis Watson and Steve Jones and Mark McCumber and Wayne Grady. James dropped in a 45-foot birdie on the final hole to give the pair the win. They finished with a 36-hole total of 19-under-par 125. In the Demaret Division, Gibby Gilbert and J.C. Snead teamed to successfully defend their title, defeating the team of Frank Beard and Larry Ziegler on the first playoff hole when Snead made a six-inch birdie putt. The two teams finished with a 36-hole score of 21-under-par 123. The duo's 10-stroke margin of victory also surpassed the previous largest margin of seven strokes held by Orville Moody and Jimmy Powell in 2005.

Brad Faxon and Jeff Sluman fired a final-round, 7-under-par 65 to post a one-stroke victory over the teams of Fred Funk/Mike Goodes and Kenny Perry/Gene Sauers. The leaderboard changed several times during the final round but Faxon and Sluman prevailed with their bogey-free final round. Their decisive birdie came at No. 14 when Sluman made an eight-foot putt. Bart Bryant wasn't even entered in the field when the week began. His eventual partner in the Raphael Division, Ian Baker-Finch, was originally slated to play with Eduardo Romero, but Romero withdrew due to illness. Gene Sauers became his replacement, but when an opening occurred in the Legends Division (Russ Cochran was disqualified), Sauers moved over to team with Kenny Perry. Jim Rutledge became Baker-Finch's third partner, but John Huston's withdrawal also earned Rutledge a spot in the Legends Division, with Gary Hallberg. Contacted Thursday afternoon, Bryant drove from his home in Orlando and arrived late that evening having never seen the golf course. After sitting through the start of the Legends Division and the possibility of another withdrawal, which would have moved him to the Legends Division, Bryant finally joined Baker-Finch at the start of the Raphael Division. Baker-Finch rolled in a 10-foot birdie putt on the third extra hole to give the pair the title in the 36-hole Raphael Division over Blaine McCallister and Keith Fergus. The teams finished at 14-under 130 and matched birdies on the first two extra holes before Baker-Finch made his putt for the win. In the Demaret Division for players aged 70 and over, Jim Colbert and Bob Murphy made a birdie on the first extra hole to defeat Frank Beard and Larry Ziegler and win the title. Each team finished with a 36-hole score of 15-under 131. Playing two groups behind Beard and Ziegler, Colbert and Murphy birdied five holes on the back nine, including back-to-back birdies on Nos. 17 and 18 to claim a spot in the playoff. On the first extra hole, Murphy stuck a pitching wedge to three-feet from 100 yards and converted the birdie opportunity for the win. The loss was especially disappointing for Beard and Ziegler, who lost in a one-hole playoff the previous year to J.C. Snead and Gibby Gilbert in the Demaret Division.

2014

Jeff Sluman made a six-foot, par-saving putt on the final hole, allowing himself and Fred Funk to claim a one-stroke victory over Peter Jacobsen/Jay Haas at the 37th Big Cedar Lodge Legends of Golf, contested for the first time in the Ozarks. History was made when the tournament was partially contested on a Par-3, nine hole course (Top of the Rock) – a first for any PGA TOUR-sanctioned event. In the epic duel between the two teams, both teams combined to make five birdies each on the back nine in the better-ball portion of the round. In the Legends Division (65-plus), Jim Colbert and his partner, Jim Thorpe, birdied four of the last five holes to pull away from the team of Bruce Fleisher/Larry Nelson and win by three strokes. For Colbert, it marked the second straight year he'd won a Legends title, claiming the 2013 Demaret Division crown in Savannah with Bob Murphy. Both Colbert and Thorpe earned an unofficial prize-money check for $60,000.

2015

Sandy Lyle and Ian Woosnam entered the final round at the 38th annual Bass Pro Shop Legends of Golf leading by three strokes. But by day's end, Billy Andrade and Joe Durant had sealed the victory, thanks in part to Durant's hole-in-one on No. 12. The pair took advantage of the event's unique format, in which two courses were used for the first two rounds. In those first two rounds, all players on Top of the Rock played modified alternate shot for their first nine holes while playing better ball on the back nine. On the Buffalo Ridge Springs Course, players played 18 holes of better ball. The final round of the Champions Division featured modified alternate shot for nine holes and nine holes of better ball, while those in the Legends Division played nine holes of better ball. "It's the Top of the Rock -- I mean, it's amazing," Andrade said after the event. "We don't get to play this kind of format very often, and to win with your friend -- you can't even describe it." After finishing tied for 10th one year earlier alongside partner Tommy Armour III, Andrade and his new teammate closed with a bogey-free 9-under-par 45, breaking the previous mark for lowest 18-hole score at the Top of the Rock. The previous low was 6-under-par 48 by Jay Haas and Peter Jacobsen and Jeff Sluman and Fred Funk in 2014. Their front- and back-nine scores of 4-under-par 23 and 5-under-par 27 were also new records. This event marked the first time in history that both members of a team earned their first PGA TOUR Champions victories in this tournament. The win came in Andrade's 28th start on Tour and in Durant's 17th. Lyle and Woosnam birdied the last hole of the tournament to solidify a second-place finish, and it was a marked improvement for Lyle, who finished in 31st place the season prior alongside Denis Watson. Lyle and Woosnam posted 19 birdies, as did the team of Colin Montgomerie and Mark O'Meara, leading all teams. Mark Calcavecchia and Steve Lowery, who found themselves tied for 23rd after the first round, rebounded to tie for third after shooting 12-under on Saturday and Sunday.

2016

One week after winning the Mitsubishi Electric Classic in a playoff, Woody Austin continued his winning ways, teaming up with Michael Allen to win the Champions Division at the 39th annual Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge. Allen drained an 18-foot birdie on the 54th hole to defeat David Frost and Roger Chapman by one stroke. Allen and Austin went to the final hole tied with Chapman and Frost at 22-under par, but moments after Chapman's chip for birdie from 25 feet lipped out, Allen sank his winning putt. The winners set a new tournament record with a 54-hole score of 23-under 156, breaking the previous mark of 19-under 160, established by Fred Funk and Jeff Sluman in 2014. Earlier in the day, the team of Bruce Fleisher and Larry Nelson defended their title in the Legends Division going wire-to-wire to win by two strokes over John Bland and Graham Marsh.

Last Year's Champions

Champions Division
Vijay Singh/Carlos Franco
51-42 – 93
$232,500 each

Vijay Singh and Carlos Franco teamed up to win the weather-shortened Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge in 2017. The tandem posted a 15-under total after shooting a tournament-record 12-under 42 in the second and final round, which consisted of nine holes of modified alternate shot and nine holes of better ball at the Top of the Rock Par 3 Course. For Singh, it was his first victory in his 13th start on PGA TOUR Champions.

"I love playing with Carlos," Singh said. "I've known him for a long time, and if it wasn't for him, I wouldn't be here, so I'd like to thank Carlos."

The win was Franco's second on PGA TOUR Champions, as his first win came at the 2016 Shaw Charity Classic.

"I (came) in prepared this week, because I know my partner is a strong player," Franco said. "He gave me big help this week, and I gave him a bit of help, too, and I'm so happy."

Legends Division
Hubert Green/Allen Doyle
5-under 22
$60,000 each

Hubert Green, 70, and Allen Doyle, 68, won the Legends Division, carding a 5-under 22. Green won two majors and is a member of the World Golf Hall of Fame, while Doyle won the inaugural Charles Schwab Cup in 2001 and has 11 career victories on PGA TOUR Champions. The Legends Division was slated for 36 holes, but it was shortened to nine holes due to the cancellation of play on Friday.

LEGENDS DIVISION: First Round—John Cook/Joey Sindelar and Mark O'Meara/Nick Price fired 10-under 62 to hold a one-stroke lead over three other teams. Second Round—Andy bean/Chien-Soon Lu posted a 12-under 60, the best score of the week, to improve to 19-under 125 and a one-stroke lead over Blaine McCallister/Bob Tway and Mark O'Meara/Nick Price. John Cook/Joey Sindelar were two back at 17-under 127.

RAPHAEL DIVISION (50-69): John Bland and Graham Marsh posted their first win in the Raphael Division since 1997 when they captured a one-stroke victory over Bruce Lietzke and Bill Rogers. Bland and Marsh posted 63 in the final round to make up a four-stroke deficit, each earning $60,000 for their victory. They ended the two-year reign of Gary Koch and Roger Maltbie, who finished third.

DEMARET DIVISION (70 and older): Bob Charles and Gary Player held off a late charge by the team of Don Bies and Tom Shaw to successfully defend their title in the Demaret Division (age 70-plus). Charles and Player finished with a record 36-hole total of 19-under-par 125, two ahead of Bies and Shaw. Charles and Player held a five-stroke margin on Bies and Shaw after a record 11-under-par 61 in the first round. However, the closest Bies and Shaw would get on the back nine was one stroke before Charles and Player closed things out with birdies on three of the last five holes.

CUT: There was no cut; all 33 teams completed 54 holes in the Legends Division. All 11 teams in the Raphael Division and all 19 teams in the Demaret Division completed 36 holes.

WEATHER: Mostly sunny, with near-perfect conditions most of the week. Highs ranged from the upper-70s into the low-to-mid-80s. Mostly cloudy and cooler Saturday, with intermittent showers during the day and highs near 70. Sunday was mostly cloudy, with occasional light showers. Highs reached the mid-to-upper 70s and winds were S at 20-25 mph with some higher gusts. Lift, clean and place rules were in effect in the final round.

WEATHER: Friday: Lingering overnight showers resulted in a one-hour morning delay at the start of each course's first round. Overall, the area received 1.0 inches of rain. Temperatures ranged from the high-40s in the morning to mid-50s in the afternoon. Wind SE at 10-20 mph, with occasional gusts to 30 mph. Saturday: Partly cloudy, with highs in the upper-70s and WSW wind at 15-25 mph, with gusts to 30 mph. Preferred lies were in place for the Buffalo Ridge course only. Sunday: Cloudy, with patchy drizzle early in the day, and a high of 60. Early NE wind at 6-12 mph increased to 10-15 mph in the afternoon.

FORMAT: Two courses were used for the first two rounds. Over the first two rounds, all players at Top of the Rock played modified, alternate-shot for their first nine holes while their second nine was better-ball. All players at the Buffalo Ridge Springs Course played 18 holes of better-ball. In the final round, all players in the Champions Division at Top of the Rock played modified, alternate-shot for their first nine holes while their second nine was better-ball. Competitors in the Legends Division played nine holes of better-ball.

Buffalo Ridge — Hole-by-Hole Descriptions

Hole 1 578 yards (Back Tee)

Par 5 547 yards (Tee 2)
521 yards (Tee 3)
497 yards (Tee 4)
460 yards (Tee 5)

The opening hole at Buffalo Ridge provides a scenic start to the round with buffalo roaming to the just left of the fairway and a scenic view of the Ozarks in the foreground. This downhill par five offers a generous landing area off the tee and is reachable in two shots for longer hitters, but the bunkers that guard the green must be avoided. This is a classic opening par five with risks and rewards.

Hole 2 471 yards (Back Tee)

Par 4 458 yards (Tee 2)
419 yards (Tee 3)
372 yards (Tee 4)
304 yards (Tee 5)

Hole No. 2 is a strong par four with a slight dog leg left (be sure to check out the cave on the left after leaving the tee box). Finding the fairway is the key to scoring well on this hole. With an accurate and long tee shot you will still have a middle iron shot to a green that is protected by a bunker on the left and a dramatic rock wall back of the green.

Hole 3 405 yards (Back Tee)

Par 4 390 yards (Tee 2)
371 yards (Tee 3)
315 yards (Tee 4)
300 yards (Tee 5)

No. 3 is a short downhill Par 4 with a slight dog leg to the left. The left side of the hole is framed by a natural rock wall, long hitters can hit it fairly close to the green but must avoid a large bunker that guards the end of the fairway.

Hole 4 195 yards (Back Tee)

Par 3 177 yards (Tee 2)
158 yards (Tee 3)
139 yards (Tee 4)
132 yards (Tee 5)

This hole requires requires a high and soft shot to the center of the green. Any shot left of the green will go into a hazard left of the green. Bunkers protect the front and back left portions of the green. There is a bank just right of the green

Hole 5 449 yards (Back Tee)

Par 4 418 yards (Tee 2)
386 yards (Tee 3)
369 yards (Tee 4)
296 yards (Tee 5)

This par four offers a stunning view from an elevated tee down the fairway with a beautiful crystal clear water filled rock quarry on the right. A tee shot too long down the right side can find the water hazard.

A very accurate iron shot is a must into this well protected green.

Hole 6 353 yards (Back Tee)

Par 4 328 yards (Tee 2)
315 yards (Tee 3)
294 yards (Tee 4)
280 yards (Tee 5)

The shortest par four on the course calls for a fairway wood, hybrid or long iron off the tee to find the short grass. The fairway bunkers must be avoided in order to attack the well bunkered elevated green complex.

Hole 7 245 yards (Back Tee)

Par 3 224 yards (Tee 2)
212 yards (Tee 3)
195 yards (Tee 4)
170 yards (Tee 5)

Maybe the hardest and most intimidating par 3 on the golf course finding the green is a must. Any shot to the right or long finds the water hazard and missing the green to the left makes for an impossible up and down. A par here feels like a birdie.

Hole 8 524 yards (Back Tee)

Par 5 505 yards (Tee 2)
477 yards (Tee 3)
456 yards (Tee 4)
378 yards (Tee 5)

This par five requires attention because of its beautiful cascading water feature all along the left and woods down the right. A strong second shot still leaves you with a severe uphill approach shot to the green, which is protected by bunkers along the left side. The green has a slight false front.

Hole 9 198 yards (Back Tee)

Par 3 179 yards (Tee 2)
164 yards (Tee 3)
143 yards (Tee 4)
126 yards (Tee 5)

The finishing hole on the front 9 plays uphill to a large undulating green with a distinct back right shelf. The green is well guarded by bunkers all around except for a bailout area on the right front.

Hole 10 377 yards (Back Tee)

Par 4 356 yards (Tee 2)
328 yards (Tee 3)
318 yards (Tee 4)
281 yards (Tee 5)

This great picturesque par four requires a slight draw down the right side to avoid a large bunker complex on the left side of the fairway. However, long hitters must also beware of the two strategically placed fairway bunkers on the right side closer to the green. The green is well guarded by deep bunkers on the left.

Buffalo Ridge — Hole-by-Hole Descriptions

Hole 11 158 yards (Back Tee)

Par 3 148 yards (Tee 2)
133 yards (Tee 3)
122 yards (Tee 4)
110 yards (Tee 5)

This par three is carved right out of a hillside and sits alongside a beautiful natural backdrop to the left side of the green. It is well protected by bunkers to the left and short right.

Hole 12 477 yards (Back Tee)

Par 4 454 yards (Tee 2)
426 yards (Tee 3)
418 yards (Tee 4)
325 yards (Tee 5)

This demanding par four offers a beautiful vista of the Ozarks and cavernous and nature filled drop-off to the left. Roaming buffalo can be seen in the distance. A well hit drive still leaves you with a lengthy second shot to a green that is protected by numerous well placed bunkers.

Hole 13 462 yards (Back Tee)

Par 4 435 yards (Tee 2)
417 yards (Tee 3)
401 yards (Tee 4)
273 yards (Tee 5)

This natural par four takes you down and around through a ravine. The large fairway bunker on the left must be avoided off the tee. For the long hitter two fairway bunkers on the right side must also be avoided in order to reach the green on the second shot. The green is long and deep with one bunker short right and multiple bunkers back left.

Hole 14 615 yards (Back Tee)

Par 5 576 yards (Tee 2)
551 yards (Tee 3)
537 yards (Tee 4)
500 yards (Tee 5)

A stunning, picturesque and demanding par five for the tee shot, lay-up and approach shot. There is a large and beautiful flowing creek that runs the entire length of the hole down the right side and crosses in front of the green. Exposed ancient table rock formations encircle the green to the right with large expansive bunkers protecting the left side. Hitting this green in three is a challenge and a must in order to score a par. This is a world class par five.

Hole 15 366 yards (Back Tee)

Par 4 348 yards (Tee 2)
332 yards (Tee 3)
309 yards (Tee 4)
268 yards (Tee 5)

A beautiful framed tee shot from high up on the mountain side to a landing area down below that is well protected by bunkers on the left and a meandering stream on the right. The green is protected by a huge false front, bunkers to the right and two distinct tiers on the green that demand a precise approach shot.

Hole 16 425 yards (Back Tee)

Par 4 386 yards (Tee 2)
368 yards (Tee 3)
326 yards (Tee 4)
270 yards (Tee 5)

Well placed bunkers on both the right and left side of the fairway require a precise tee shot that is slightly uphill. Once in the fairway your approach shot is into an elevated three tiered green that makes putting quite a challenge. The green is framed on the left side by beautiful natural table rock formations.

Hole 17 165 yards (Back Tee)

Par 3 151 yards (Tee 2)
135 yards (Tee 3)
124 yards (Tee 4)
108 yards (Tee 5)

From an elevated tee you stare straight at a daunting open cave directly behind the green with water gushing out of the cave that runs alongside the right of the green and crosses in front of the green. The green is also protected by bunkers in front and on the left side. This is a beautiful but very challenging par three.

Hole 18 573 yards (Back Tee)

Par 5 548 yards (Tee 2)
519 yards (Tee 3)
510 yards (Tee 4)
451 yards (Tee 5)

The finishing hole is par 5 that takes in all the beauty that the Ozarks has to offer. The tee shot must carry a huge section of the Ozark mountain terrain and then cross over numerous bunkers all along the left side of the fairway. The right side is framed by a long expansive rock bluff wall. The layup must now thread the needle to a narrow gap between the bunkers on the left and trouble on the right. The approach shot is difficult to get close because of the slopes in the green. This is a classic par five finishing hole.

Top of the Rock — Hole-by-Hole Descriptions

Hole 1 172 yards (Back Tee)
162 yards (Tee 2)
143 yards (Tee 3)
123 yards (Front Tee)

The first tee at Top of the Rock, located just steps from the Buffalo Bar patio at Top of the Rock, sets up a slight downhill par-3. From the first fairway, golfers can see the Wedding Chapel and the honeymoon cabin on the left, along with sweeping sunset views across Table Rock Lake. The first green slopes gently from left to right, and is well-protected by a large Oak tree on the right and bunkers along the left and right side.

Hole 2 117 yards (Back Tee)
103 yards (Tee 2)
108 yards (Tee 3)
98 yards (Tee 4)
88 yards (Tee 5)
75 yards (Tee 6)
81 yards (Front Tee)

Perched high atop the mountainside, golfers face a 100-ft. drop to the second green and stare straight at the magnificent view of Table Rock Lake from the tee. The second green, sloped slightly from back to front, is surrounded by Rhododendron flowers and other natural flowering vegetation. Golfers must pass through a unique rock tunnel to reach the back tee on this hole, where the view is well-worth the excursion.

Hole 3 215 yards (Back Tee)
185 yards (Tee 2)
160 yards (Tee 3)
139 yards (Tee 4)
118 yards (Front Tee)

After the last putt drops on hole two, golfers embark on a golf cart journey through flowering dogwoods and redbuds along the mountainside to reach the third tee. Number 3 is one of the most difficult holes on the course. The back tee is really elevated and golfers face a downhill shot to a green that's 30-yards deep and cut into a hillside. The green is also protected by large bunkers on both the left and right side of the green. One of the dramatic features of this hole is the huge Oak Tree that guards and frames the green on the right.

Hole 4 204 yards (Back Tee)
178 yards (Tee 2)
163 yards (Tee 3)
134 yards (Tee 4)
118 yards (Tee 5)
106 yards (Tee 6)
94 yards (Tee 7)
83 yards (Front Tee)

Golfers reach the first of three water features when they meander back up the mountain to hole number four, near the decorative infinity pool that fronts the End of the Trail All American Wine Cellar. A lake cuts across this slightly downhill par-3 and nestles up close on the right side. The green is protected by bunkers on both sides, and surrounded by azaleas and an array of flowering plants and trees along the left side and behind the green. Golfers also experience their first stunning view of the Top of the Rock restaurant, along with its incredible rock formations, as they look back up the mountain.

Hole 5 134 yards (Back Tee)
111 yards (Tee 2)
91 yards (Front Tee)

A relatively short par-3 number five is reminiscent of number 12 at Augusta National, with a small and narrow green protected by deep bunkers along the entire front side of the green. Golfers must hit a very accurate short-iron across a small valley to this narrow green and then negotiate its challenging pin placements to have a chance at birdie or par.

Hole 6 129 yards (Back Tee)
101 yards (Tee 2)
103 yards (Tee 3)
94 yards (Tee 4)
84 yards (Front Tee)

This true island green is completely surrounded by water and fascinating rock formations. From an elevated tee the shot must be precisely struck in order to find dry land. This hole offers a real challenge to even the most accomplished golfers.

Hole 7 148 yards (Back Tee)
131 yards (Tee 2)
120 yards (Tee 3)
60 yards (Front Tee)

After the island green golfers must contend with another lake that runs in front of and along the right side of this undulated kidney shaped green. In addition to the water hazard close to the right side, large bunkering protects the left. This is a difficult hole and par here is a good score.

Top of the Rock — Hole-by-Hole Descriptions

Hole 8 189 yards (Back Tee)
166 yards (Tee 2)
145 yards (Front Tee)

The golfers get their second unobstructed view of Top of the Rock restaurant as they look uphill to number 8 another very challenging hole. Protected by a false front, a huge towering Oak Tree on the right front, monstrous bunkers on the left and behind the green, this green is hard to hit and a hard par 3, especially with all the tricky pin placements.

Hole 9 162 yards (Back Tee)
147 yards (Tee 2)
137 yards (Tee 3)
132 yards (Tee 4)
120 yards (Tee 5)
106 yards (Front Tee)

A grand stone entrance and walkway unveils a majestic view of the 9th green and Table Rock Lake in the foreground. Those lucky enough to finish their round here at sunset are in for a spectacular treat! Have your camera ready! The final tee shot is downhill to a very difficult sloped green with severe bunkering surrounding the green. The ninth green also sits just to the right of the main Buffalo Bar terrace at Top
