

ROUND 1 INTERVIEW
April 19, 2018

BEN CRENSHAW (-3)

Q. So first I guess, just first day, what do you think?

BEN CRENSHAW: It was rough. I've turned into a fair weather golfer. I'm 66 years old and when it gets cold like this, I was not (inaudible.) My partner played well, Jerry Pate, and we had a great time. It was a great time with Andy North and Tom Watson, so it was a pleasure to be with them. I thought it was a pretty tough course really. Pretty happy with my 3 under.

Q. And your course is under construction. What can you tell us about that?

BEN CRENSHAW: We're very proud of it. It's a pretty piece of property. It's up on top, it's up on top there (inaudible). We're very proud of it. Thank you.

Q. With how much this area's grown, has Johnny said anything, do you know what his plans are for -- it started with two courses out here and now we're looking at five. Do you know what the master plan is?

BEN CRENSHAW: It's a golf destination. It's right in the middle of the country. People can recreate here, obviously do a lot of other things other than play golf. There's plenty of golf here and there's all sorts of levels of golf. I think it's really great that a lot of the complexes a beginner can play, girls, boys, middle aged, old people. It's golf, plenty of it here. We're very proud of it and we're happy to join the group that have built courses here.
