

ROCCO MEDIATE (-7)

ROCCO MEDIATE: Boring, boring, boring.

Q. Did you feel good?

ROCCO MEDIATE: But I'm not going to say I had a lot of looks at birdie, I hate when they say that. Yeah, everything's good. No complaints. This year, I'm just starting off better this year.

Q. How do you feel about being tied at the top of the leaderboard?

ROCCO MEDIATE: Oh, I could care less about that. The only thing that matters is Sunday. You've got to get yourself sort in position on this tour on the first day or else you're toast, because the scores, as you see, go low. So if you're not good the first day, you have no chance. So if you're good the first day, tomorrow we have to do the same thing and there has to be probably a couple more rounds like this will do it. It's going to be low this week unless the wind kicks.

Q. Talk about 7.

ROCCO MEDIATE: Just a 3-wood, rolled it on there and made about a 30-footer. One of those ones you're trying to two-putt and oops. Accidental, totally.

Q. A couple guys were saying the wind was really unpredictable.

ROCCO MEDIATE: It was a little bit. We've played here so many times, it's the same. It kind of stayed the same place, it really didn't switch much. We know this golf course. Thank goodness now I'm able to hit some of them, which is good.

Q. You don't seem too deterred about 9.

ROCCO MEDIATE: No. First of all, to get my ball where I got out of that bunker was insane. I can't believe -- I killed it, too. I thought I hit it plenty of speed. It happens.

Q. You won here before. What's it like to come back to a course that --

ROCCO MEDIATE: Oh, it's always good because you just always have good feelings here. I like this part of the country a lot anyway, so I've always liked being here so it's awesome. Lot of friends, good stuff. The golf course is perfect. Besides the two guys I played with today, it was a great day. Oh, he's over there. We had a ball. I screwed up because if I had made the putt at last, none of us would have made any bogeys, but of course I'm the one who screwed up, yeah, of course I did. He had to remind me of that, too. Fun day.
