Scott Parel, 65-70-63—198 (-18)

- Scott Parel opened the final round by setting a new front-nine course-record with a 7-under 29, the result of seven birdies. Parel birdied the final six holes of the front nine before finding two back-to-back on Nos. 16 and 17 to turn in an 18-under 198 for his first victory on PGA TOUR Champions.
- Parel's final-round 9-under 63 and 18-under 198 total marks as a new PGA TOUR Champions career-low.

- He entered the final round five strokes back from leader Kevin Sutherland, making it the biggest come-from-behind win this season on PGA TOUR Champions (previous: two strokes).
- Parel's last win came in 2013 at the Web.com Tour's Air Capital Classic where he carded a final-round 64 to win by three strokes over Alex Aragon.
- With $315,000 in today's earnings, Parel now sits No. 8 in the Charles Schwab Cup with $1,024,945.

Kevin Sutherland, 70-60-71—201 (-15)

- Kevin Sutherland carded a bogey-free round with 17 pars and finished with a birdie on No. 18 for a 15-under 201 finish, to stand as runner-up for the first time this year and the ninth time in his PGA TOUR Champions career.
- Sutherland hit 47 of 54 greens in regulation, best in the field, and moved second-place on Tour at 78.41% (Kenny Perry leads at 78.42%).
- Sutherland played his last 36-holes bogey-free.
- With $184,800 in today's earnings, Sutherland moves to No. 12 with $846,839.

Miguel Angel Jimenez, 67-69-67—203 (-13)

- Miguel Angel Jimenez carded a bogey-free final-round of 5-under 67 to finish tied for third and earn $138,600 and claim the top spot in the Charles Schwab Cup money list at $1,634,068.
- Jimenez was second behind Jerry Kelly for the past three weeks on the Charles Schwab Cup money list, but now holds the reigns by $46,934. He becomes the sixth player to hold the top spot this season.
- This is Jimenez' ninth top-10 finish of the season.

Ken Tanigawa, 66-64-73—203 (-13)

- Ken Tanigawa carded a final-round 1-over 73 to finish at 13-under 203 in a two-way tie for third with Miguel Angel Jimenez.
- It was Tanigawa's lowest 54-hole total in his PGA TOUR champions career (previous: 206/ 2018 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship) and his highest finish on PGA TOUR Champions (previous: T9/ 2018 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship)
- With $138,600 in today's earnings, Tanigawa earned his largest career PGA TOUR Champions paycheck and moved to No. 36 in the Charles Schwab Cup with $388,870.
