Bart Bryant, 68-67-65 – 200 (-16)

- Bryant was T2 and two shots behind Michael Bradley at the start of the final round. He took his first solo lead when he birdied No. 11 to get to 15-under.
- Leading by one over Bradley on No. 18, Bryant hit his approach to 40 feet while Bradley had a six-foot birdie putt to potentially force a playoff. Bryant put his lead out of reach, as he made the long birdie putt and secured his second win at En-Joie Golf Club.
- Bryant also won the DICK'S Sporting Goods Open in 2013, and he becomes the tournament's first repeat winner.
- Bryant was bogey-free over his last 29 holes, and the only bogey he made was on the par-3 7th hole on Saturday.
- He was 9-under on the par 4s this week, the best in the field. On the season, he ranks No. 5 on Tour in par 4 scoring (28-under).
- This was the third time Bryant played in Sunday's final group this season, and the first time he emerged with the victory. His previous finishes were T24 at the Boca Raton Championship and T6 at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship.
- This was Bryant's third top-10 of the season and he improved to 15th in the Charles Schwab Cup.

Michael Bradley, 65-68-68 – 201 (-15)

- Bradley led by two at the start of the final round, and he last held the lead on the 14th hole. He bogeyed the par-4 15th, just his second bogey of the week, and fell one shot behind Bryant.
- Trailing by one on No. 18, Bradley hit a pitching wedge from 137 yards to six feet. He made the birdie putt, but it came after Bryant holed his tournament-winning 40-footer.
- He was the seventh alternate and earned entry when Bill Glasson withdrew.
- As the highest top-10 finisher that wasn't already exempt for the next co-sponsored event, Bradley earned entry into next week's Boeing Classic.
- The runner-up finish is the best of his PGA TOUR Champions career, and it was his third top-10. He improved to No. 36 in the Charles Schwab Cup.
