

ROUND 1 INTERVIEW
October 26, 2018

TOM BYRUM -6

Q. Is that what you had in mind this morning when you started the day?

TOM BYRUM: Yes. I would love to have that in mind. No, I can't say the way that I had intentions. I want to shoot that every time, but, you know, it was just a matter of getting it done. It was nice to do it today.

Q. Birdie binge on the back, huh?

TOM BYRUM: Yeah, just got on a nice roll, made some nice putts and made some good shots and just capitalized on it. It was just what you write up out there, you know? Picture that shot, hit it and go knock it in. It works out when you can do that.

Q. Any close ones of those five birdies in the six-hole stretch?

TOM BYRUM: Really, no. I had a 2-putt birdie on the second par 5 on the back, 13. Other than that, the other one was on -- 16 was probably a 6 or 7, 8-footer, maybe, inside 10 feet, and then pretty long putt on 17.

Q. Are you keeping track of what you need to do in order to move on next week, or are you going day by day?

TOM BYRUM: I'm just trying to play the best I can every day. That will take care of itself. Unfortunately, I can't -- I would love to give you more of the insider stuff but trying not to complicate it. If I play good, everything will take care of itself, so that's what I'm trying to do.
