

DUFFY WALDORF

Q. Was the wind bad out there? Did it affect things for your pro-am group?

DUFFY WALDORF: Oh, it definitely affected everything. It felt like it was a replay of last year on Saturday's round, the final round. But I guess in the end it was good practice in case we have to do it again this year.

Q. Going back to 2016 when you won, how special did it feel, do you remember those emotions having it be the first time, your first appearance?

DUFFY WALDORF: Well, it was super special. I think a lot of it had to do with being in Hawaii, being in like a Tournament of Champions setting playing with the best at the start of the year. It was kind of an honor to be playing in the tournament, and then to win it, that was just -- I had always wanted to win a tournament in Hawaii and to win here at this tournament, Tournament of Champions in Hawaii, everything I could ever want.

Q. Is there anything over the last two years that you've learned that you can bring back this year and hope to win again?

DUFFY WALDORF: Well, I think there's some -- you have to get a real good feel for the greens here and I think I've had that the last two years, and hopefully if the wind's not too bad I'll be reading the greens well and holing a lot of putts.
