

ROUND 1 INTERVIEW
September 28, 2018

DAVID FROST (-6)

Q. Great first round here at Pebble Beach today, finished at 66. Just your thoughts on how it went?

DAVID FROST: Well, it was a fantastic day. Normally, if you do get an 8:00 tee time on the 10th tee at Pebble Beach, I was thinking, oh, jeez, you know, you've got to go all the way out there in this cold. If you think back to the days of the Bing Crosby that we started here, this was my first tournament I ever played on the PGA TOUR. I made the cut and then I teed off on the 10th hole on Sunday with Lee Trevino, so it brought back a lot of memories to me today.

Q. It's a special week playing with the juniors here. How did your junior do today?

DAVID FROST: My junior helped me on the first hole. We shot 65, but it's hard for them to come out with a scratch handicap and make birdies. It's kind of a golf course that you need to play many, many times to really be familiar with the clubs you've got to hit because at sea level here, you have the yardage but you've always got to add on eight or 10 yards because the ball doesn't travel as much at sea level. Again, it's just hard for them to score under par. But super nice boy to play with, Jake from Washington D.C. I happen to know him through my two nephews that also play at the same club that he does, so it was great to be with him.

Q. And you had some high finishes here the last couple years, top-10s I think the last three years I want to say. Is there something particular about this format and the courses that suit you?

DAVID FROST: Well, the beauty, for sure. One of my favorites. It's hard finding fault with the location. The golf course being exposed like that to the beauty is just something you can't really put in perspective. You know, you sort of feel like you want to play well out here and it's so nice. We played the practice rounds Wednesday and Thursday and you can walk this beautiful piece of property and just sort of take it all in. And then, you know, you just hope you're going to play a good round of golf, so happy that I was able to do that today. Made some good putts, hit a lot of good shots, so happy to get off to a good start this week.
