Field Overview (as of 10/9/18)

The PGA TOUR Champions regular season will conclude with the SAS Championship, which will be contested at Prestonwood Country Club for the 18th straight year. World Golf Hall of Famer Colin Montgomerie will return to Cary, North Carolina, in hopes of defending his title, and he'll be joined by seven other past champions: Doug Garwood, Tom Lehman, Kirk Triplett, Russ Cochran, Bernhard Langer, Kenny Perry and Tom Pernice Jr. The European contingent will also be represented by Miguel Angel Jimenez, who claimed two senior major titles this season, and Nick Faldo, who will make his second start of the season. The field features 28 of the top-30 players in the Charles Schwab Cup, including Scott McCarron, who will compete as the top-ranked player for the first time in his career.

- 57 PGA TOUR winners with 330 total career victories
- 52 PGA TOUR Champions winners with 247 total career victories
- 20 players with a PGA TOUR Champions major victory; 17 with a PGA TOUR major
- 28 of the top-30 players in the Charles Schwab Cup standings
- 6 members of the World Golf Hall of Fame (Nick Faldo, Tom Kite, Bernhard Langer, Sandy Lyle, Colin Montgomerie, Vijay Singh)

Wildcard Weekend at the SAS Championship

The third-annual Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs begin next week, and Wildcard Weekend at the SAS Championship offers another opportunity for players to earn one of the 72 Playoff berths. Should a player post a top-10 finish this week but finish the regular season outside the top-72 on the Charles Schwab Cup money list, he will earn the Wildcard and qualify for the Playoffs.

In all, the 78-player field includes 18 players that are currently outside the top-72 in the standings: Dan Forsman (74th), John Huston (75th), Sandy Lyle (80th), Steve Jones (81st), Mark Brooks (82nd), Gibby Gilbert III (85th), Scott Hoch (86th), Dudley Hart (89th), Darren Clarke (92nd), Loren Roberts (95th), Bill Glasson (100th), Tom Kite (102nd), Neal Lancaster (132nd), Chris DiMarco (154th), Gil Morgan (169th), Sir Nick Faldo (NR), Marion Dantzler (NR), James Mason (NR) and Roger Rowland (NR).

Montgomerie Returns to Defend Title

Colin Montgomerie recorded his sixth career victory at last year's SAS Championship, as his 16-under total was three shots better than Vijay Singh and defending champion Doug Garwood. After being one of three co-leaders through 36 holes, Montgomerie closed with a bogey-free 64 and claimed his second win in four weeks. He entered the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs No. 7 in the standings, and he went on to finish the season 10th.

Montgomerie has turned in multiple strong performances as a defending champion. He won back-to-back titles at the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship in 2014 and 2015, and he finished second in 2016. At the U.S. Senior Open, he followed his victory in 2014 with a runner-up in 2015. In each of these cases, however, his title defenses came on a different golf course. The Pacific Links Bear Mountain Championship was his one title defense on the same golf course; after winning in 2016, he returned to Victoria, British Columbia and finished T32 in 2017.

This season on PGA TOUR Champions, Montgomerie has three top-10s, including a runner-up finish at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, and he is currently No. 27 in the Charles Schwab Cup.

Langer's Drive for Five

A four-time winner of the Charles Schwab Cup, Bernhard Langer has five runner-up finishes and one victory (Inspire Invitational) this season, and he is currently No. 4 in the standings with one week left before the start of the Playoffs. He is one of eight past champions in the field, and this week marks his 11th start at the SAS Championship. When he won in 2012, Langer was T15 and trailed by four entering the final round. He closed with a 9-under 63 to complete the four-shot comeback, tied for second-largest of his PGA TOUR Champions career. Additionally, of his 37 wins on PGA TOUR Champions, T15 is the lowest final-round starting position he overcame en route to victory.

Last month, in recognition of his supreme level of character and sportsmanship, his professionalism and the distinguished manner in which he embraces the values of golf, Langer was presented the 2018 Payne Stewart Award at the TOUR Championship in Atlanta.

McCarron Takes First Lead in Charles Schwab Cup

Following his T9 finish at the PURE Insurance Championship, Scott McCarron moved to No. 1 in the Charles Schwab Cup standings for the first time in his career. This is McCarron's third full season on PGA TOUR Champions, and he has eight victories, including wins this year at the American Family Insurance Championship and the Shaw Charity Classic. This will be his fourth start at the SAS Championship, and his record includes finishes of T39, T30 and T33.

By moving to No. 1 in the standings, McCarron replaced Miguel Angel Jimenez, who topped the standings the previous four weeks but did not play the last three tournaments. McCarron is the seventh player to lead the Charles Schwab Cup this season, which ties the Tour's record for most leaders in a year (2015) since the Schwab Cup was introduced in 2001. Each of the top-six players in the standings have been No. 1 this season, and all six players are in this week's field.

Scott McCarron pre-tournament media: 11:45 a.m. Thursday (media center)

Player	Money	Season Summary	Weeks #1	Last Week
1. Scott McCarron	$1,749,908	2 wins, 7 top-five finishes, 12 top-10s	1	T9
2. Miguel Angel Jimenez	$1,746,868	2 wins, 7 top-five finishes, 11 top-10s	4	DNP
3. Jerry Kelly	$1,673,152	1 win, 3 runner-up finishes, 10 top-10s	9	T17
4. Bernhard Langer	$1,603,904	1 win, 5 runner-up finishes, 10 top-10s	3	T11
5. David Toms	$1,520,372	1 win, 6 top-five finishes, 8 top-10s	2	DNP
6. Paul Broadhurst	$1,474,469	3 wins, 5 top-10s	1	T23

A Final Playoff Push

After the SAS Championship, the top-72 players will qualify for the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs. This week's field includes 18 players who need to play their way into the Playoffs, which begins Oct. 19-21 at the Dominion Energy Charity Classic in Richmond, Virginia. Michael Allen is currently No. 72 in the standings, but he is not in this week's field and will finish the regular season with $131,843.

There are two ways for these 18 players to qualify for the Playoffs. First, they can earn enough money to finish the regular season in the top-72 on the money list. This scenario is most possible for Dan Forsman (74th), John Huston (75th), Sandy Lyle (80th), Steve Jones (81st), Mark Brooks (82nd) and Gibby Gilbert III (85th).

Rank	Player	Money	Behind 72nd
74	Dan Forsman	$129,834	$2,009
75	John Huston	$125,332	$6,511
80	Sandy Lyle	$101,985	$29,858
81	Steve Jones	$100,139	$31,704
82	Mark Brooks	$98,713	$33,130
85	Gibby Gilbert III	$79,206	$52,637

The second way into the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs is via the Wildcard, which would go to a player who posts a top-10 this week but finishes outside the top-72 on the money list after the SAS Championship. The field includes 12 players that trail the 72nd-ranked player by more than $54,600 (money for a solo 10th-place finish), which means a Wildcard Playoff berth is possible for Scott Hoch (86th), Dudley Hart (89th), Darren Clarke (92nd), Loren Roberts (95th), Bill Glasson (100th), Tom Kite (102nd), Neal Lancaster (132nd), Chris DiMarco (154th), Gil Morgan (169th) and Sir Nick Faldo (NR). Also needing the Wildcard are Monday Qualifiers Marion Dantzler, James Mason and Roger Rowland.

Rank	Player	Money	Behind 72nd
86	Scott Hoch	$69,835	$62,008
89	Dudley Hart	$61,201	$70,642
92	Darren Clarke	$51,283	$80,560
95	Loren Roberts	$45,665	$86,178
100	Bill Glasson	$38,328	$93,515
102	Tom Kite	$36,659	$95,184
132	Neal Lancaster	$16,276	$115,567
154	Chris DiMarco	$10,036	$121,807
169	Gil Morgan	$7,020	$124,823
NR	Nick Faldo	$ -	$131,843

Tar Heel Ties

Among the players in the field with North Carolina ties are former Wake Forest golfers Billy Andrade, Jay Haas, Gary Hallberg and Scott Hoch. Others who reside in the Tar Heel state are Mike Goodes (Browns Summit), Neal Lancaster (Smithfield), Scott McCarron (Mooresville) and Tommy Tolles (Hendersonville).

Tournament History

Last year, Colin Montgomerie joined Bernhard Langer (2012) and Hale Irwin (2005) as World Golf Hall of Famers that have won the SAS Championship. Other milestones in the tournament's 17-year history:

- A player has won in his PGA TOUR Champions debut 18 times, and it happened at the SAS Championship twice (Mark Wiebe/2007, Tom Pernice Jr./2009).
- The SAS Championship was the first PGA TOUR Champions win for five players: D.A. Weibring (2003), Mark Wiebe (2007), Tom Pernice, Jr. (2009), Kenny Perry (2011) and Doug Garwood (2016).
- D.A. Weibring's five-stroke, come-from-behind win in 2003 was the best in tournament history.
- The last time a player won on PGA TOUR Champions with birdies on his last four holes was 2013 champion Russ Cochran.
- The average margin of victory is 2.41 and there has never been a playoff.

PGA TOUR Champions – 2018 Season Overview

PGA TOUR Champions is a membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older, including 35 members of the World Golf Hall of Fame. The Tour's mission is to provide financial opportunities for its players, entertain and inspire its fans, deliver substantial value to its partners, create outlets for volunteers to give back and generate significant charitable and economic impact in tournament communities. In 2018, the PGA TOUR Champions schedule includes 27 tournaments across the United States, Scotland and Canada, with purses totaling more than $56 million. The Charles Schwab Cup, which includes the Regular Season and the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs, is used to determine the season-long champion. All events are televised in the United States, with most receiving complete coverage on Golf Channel, the exclusive cable-television partner of PGA TOUR Champions. Internationally, telecasts air in excess of 190 countries and territories, reaching more than 330 million potential households. Follow PGA TOUR Champions online at PGATOUR.com, Facebook, Twitter \(@ChampionsTour\) and Instagram \(@pgatourchampions\).

Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs

In 2017, Kevin Sutherland became just the third player to win the Charles Schwab Cup Championship and the Charles Schwab Cup in the same season. His breakthrough win at the season-ending event was the first of his PGA TOUR Champions career, and it was enough for him to surpass Bernhard Langer, who had won the Charles Schwab Cup the previous three years.

The third edition of the Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs will begin with 72 players at the Dominion Energy Charity Classic (Oct. 15-21). The top 54 will advance to the following week's Invesco QQQ Championship, and the season will conclude with the top 36 players at the Charles Schwab Cup Championship (Nov. 5-11).

At the start of the playoffs, each player's regular-season money total will become the equivalent number of points (e.g. $330,000 equals 330,000 points). During the three playoff events, each dollar earned is worth two points, and those points will be added to a player's regular-season point total. After the Dominion Energy Charity Classic, the top 54 players will advance, and after the Invesco QQQ Championship, the top 36 players will qualify for the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. The player with the most points at the conclusion of the Charles Schwab Cup Championship will win the Charles Schwab Cup.

2018 Rookie Class

For players to become eligible to compete for PGA TOUR Champions events they must turn 50 years of age by the first competition round. If a player plays less than six tournaments in his first season of eligibility, he is considered a rookie the following season. Newcomers for 2018 with at least one PGA TOUR win include:

- Brent Geiberger (May 22)
- Robert Gamez (July 21)
- Dudley Hart (August 4)
- Darren Clarke (August 14)
- Chris DiMarco (August 23)

Upcoming rookie classes include:

- 2019 – Retief Goosen (February 3), Angel Cabrera (September 12), Ernie Els (October 17)
- 2020 – Jim Furyk (May 12), Mike Weir (May 12), K.J. Choi (May 19), Phil Mickelson (June 16)

PGA TOUR Champions – 2018 Schedule

1. Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai: Jerry Kelly birdied the 18th hole in the final round to turn a one-shot deficit into a one-shot victory over Colin Montgomerie. Leading by one on No. 18, Montgomerie found the fairway bunker off the tee and missed the green with his approach. After Kelly made his 18-foot birdie putt, Montgomerie had a chance to force a playoff, but his six-foot par putt slid by the hole.
2. Boca Raton Championship: Mark Calcavecchia captured his fourth PGA TOUR Champions title in wire-to-wire fashion, finishing two shots better than Bernhard Langer. Langer, who trailed by as many as four on Sunday, evened the score at 16-under with two holes to play, but he bogeyed the last two holes and finished second. The win was Calcavecchia's first since the 2015 Principal Charity Classic.
3. Chubb Classic: Over the last six holes at the Chubb Classic, Joe Durant and Steve Stricker traded two two-shot swings and one three-shot swing. In the end, it was Durant's birdie-birdie finish that produced a 19-under total and four-shot victory, the third of his PGA TOUR Champions career and first since the 2016 3M Championship.
4. ColoGuard Classic: One year after bogeying No. 18 and finishing runner-up in his PGA TOUR Champions debut, Steve Stricker parred the closing hole en route to a 14-under total and two-stroke victory. It was his first win in his eighth start on Tour, and it was his first victory since the 2012 Sentry Tournament of Champions.
5. Toshiba Classic: As many as six players shared the lead Sunday, and Vijay Singh was the last man standing as his five back-nine birdies helped him post an 11-under total and a one-shot victory. It was his first individual win since the Dell Technologies Championship on September 1, 2008, and he had played 237 individual tournaments since that triumph. Singh is the first FedExCup champion (2008) to win on PGA TOUR Champions.
6. Rapiscan Systems Classic: For the first time, Steve Stricker claimed consecutive titles on PGA TOUR Champions with his 11-under-par effort at the Rapiscan Systems Classic. Stricker held a one-stroke lead through the front nine on Sunday before making four back-nine birdies to secure the title. His 4-under 68 on Sunday was his 25th consecutive round of par or better (the longest active streak on Tour) and kept his stat of never carding a round over par on PGA TOUR Champions intact.
7. Mitsubishi Electric Classic: With a birdie on the second extra hole, Steve Flesch prevailed in a three-man playoff and won the Mitsubishi Electric Classic, his first win on PGA TOUR Champions. Flesch birdied No. 18 to get into a playoff with Bernhard Langer and Scott Parel, and he birdied it twice more in the playoff, first eliminating Langer on the first extra hole, and then Parel. Because of inclement weather in Sunday's forecast, both the second and final rounds were played on Saturday.
8. Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge: Kirk Triplett holed a bunker shot for birdie on the first playoff hole to secure the victory with partner Paul Broadhurst at the Bass Pro Shops Legends of Golf at Big Cedar Lodge. The team of Bernhard Langer and Tom Lehman birdied five of their last seven holes (best ball) to get into a playoff at 24-under, but they settled for second place after they both missed birdie putts in sudden death.
9. Insperty Invitational: Bernhard Langer saved par on the 54th hole to win wire-to-wire and claim his fourth victory at the Insperty Invitational. Langer led by one through 36 holes, but he started the final round 2-over through eight holes and fell four shots off the pace. He played the last 10 holes bogey free, and birdies on Nos. 9, 10, 13 and 15 gave him an 11-under total and a one-shot win over Paul Goydos, Bart Bryant and Jeff Maggert.
10. Regions Tradition: Miguel Angel Jimenez birdied Nos. 16 and 18 to break a three-way tie for the lead and win his first major title. Jimenez had at least a share of the lead after every round, and his 19-under total was three shots better than Steve Stricker, Joe Durant and Gene Sauers. It was Jimenez's fifth win on PGA TOUR Champions, and he extended his streak to five straight years with a victory.

11. KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship: Paul Broadhurst carded weekend rounds of 64-63 and won the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship by four strokes with a tournament record-tying total of 19-under 265. Broadhurst's 8-under 63 on Sunday erased the two-shot advantage held by the 54-hole co-leaders, Scott McCarron and Tim Petrovic.
12. Principal Charity Classic: After recording a second-round 65, Tom Lehman took a two-shot lead through 36 holes at the Principal Charity Classic. That lead turned into his margin of victory, as severe weather in Des Moines forced the cancellation of the final round and Lehman earned his 11th win on PGA TOUR Champions. Lehman's 13-under 131 total set the tournament's 36-hole scoring record at Wakonda Club, and it was two shots better than Bernhard Langer, Scott Parel, Woody Austin and Glen Day.
13. American Family Insurance Championship: Scott McCarron carded an 8-under-par 64 for a one-stroke victory over Wisconsin native Jerry Kelly. The seven-time PGA TOUR Champions winner birdied Nos. 14 through 16 and with pars on the final two holes took the American Family Insurance title with a 15-under-par 201 score. Tournament host Steve Stricker finished T3 with a 7-under-par 65 clean card on Sunday.
14. U.S. Senior Open: David Toms made a 15-foot birdie putt to take the lead at No. 16, then a long par putt at No. 17 on his way to a one-shot victory Sunday at the U.S. Senior Open. Toms' two-putt par on No. 18 closed out his final round of even-par 70. His 3-under-par 277 finish claimed his first victory on PGA TOUR Champions over Miguel Angel Jimenez (69), Tim Petrovic (70) and Jerry Kelly (72), who led after each of the first three rounds.
15. Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship: Vijay Singh birdied the second playoff hole to defeat Jeff Maggert and win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship, his third win on PGA TOUR Champions and first senior major. Singh started the final round one shot behind in fourth place, and he carded a final-round 67 to earn a spot in the playoff at 20-under. With the win, Singh earned an exemption into THE PLAYERS Championship in 2019.
16. The Senior Open Championship presented by Rolex: Miguel Angel Jimenez made a 12-foot par putt on St. Andrews' 17th hole to preserve a one-stroke lead, and a par on No. 18 gave him the victory over defending champion Bernhard Langer at The Senior Open Championship presented by Rolex. Jimenez closed with a final-round 69 and finished with a 12-under total for his second major victory of the year on PGA TOUR Champions.
17. 3M Championship: Kenny Perry built a five-shot lead after carding a second-round 60, and he closed with a 3-under 69 to seal a three-shot victory at the 3M Championship. The win was his third in eight starts at TPC Twin Cities, making him the tournament's second three-time champion (Hale Irwin – 1997, 1999, 2002), and it was his 10th career win on PGA TOUR Champions.
18. DICK'S Sporting Goods Open: Bart Bryant made a 25-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole to secure a one-shot victory over Michael Bradley at the DICK'S Sporting Goods Open. Bryant became the first repeat winner in tournament history (2013, 2018), and both of his wins on PGA TOUR Champions have come at this event.
19. Boeing Classic: Scott Parel birdied the final six holes on the front nine en route to a 9-under 63 to win the Boeing Classic, his first victory on PGA TOUR Champions and first official victory since 2013. Parel entered the final-round trailing by five strokes behind Kevin Sutherland and Ken Tanigawa before setting a new 18-hole and 54-hole career-low to secure the victory at The Club at Snoqualmie Ridge.
20. Shaw Charity Classic: Scott McCarron aced the 14th hole, carded a final-round 63 and turned a three-shot deficit into a one-shot victory the Shaw Charity Classic. The win was the eighth of his career and second of the season, and he became the first player to successfully defend a title on PGA TOUR Champions since Bernhard Langer (2016, 2017 Regions Tradition).

21. The Ally Challenge: Paul Broadhurst won in Michigan for the second time this season, as a final-round 66 gave him a two-shot victory at the inaugural Ally Challenge at Warwick Hills Golf & Country Club. It was Broadhurst's Tour-best third victory of the season and he improved to No. 6 in the Charles Schwab Cup.
22. Sanford International: Steve Stricker tallied his third win in seven starts this season, as he carded a final-round 67 en route to a 13-under total and a four-shot victory at the inaugural Sanford International in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Tied atop the leaderboard with Brandt Jobe through 36 holes, Stricker opened with birdies on Nos. 1 and 2 and built a three-shot lead that he wouldn't relinquish.
23. PURE Insurance Championship: Ken Tanigawa made a 35-foot eagle putt on the 18th hole at Pebble Beach to turn a one-shot deficit into a one-shot victory at the PURE Insurance Championship. It was Tanigawa's first win on PGA TOUR Champions, and he became the first Q-School graduate to win since Jerry Smith in 2015.
24. SAS Championship
25. Dominion Energy Charity Classic
26. Invesco QQQ Championship
27. Charles Schwab Cup Championship
