- Marks his eighth round of 65 or better in the tournament, the most of any player since 1998 (next best player in Dustin Johnson at five)
- Hit all 13 fairways at Monterey Peninsula CC, marking the seventh career round on TOUR he hit all fairways, and first since round three of the 1998 Farmers Insurance Open
- Missed only one green in round one (No. 9), but saved par
- Missed the cut in last week's Waste Management Phoenix Open (68-75) as he looks to reach his 500th official made cut on TOUR
- Has four wins at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am, one shy of Mark O'Meara's tournament record of five; most recent win at Pebble Beach came in 2012

Additional Player Notes
- Brian Gay holds the first-round lead/co-lead for the fourth time in his career, with the last time coming in his victory at the 2009 FedEx St. Jude Classic. Today's 7-under 64 is his lowest score in 36 rounds at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am.
