- Victory marks the seventh different PGA TOUR event he has won five or more times (Masters Tournament, Arnold Palmer Invitational, WGC-FedEx St. Jude Invitational, WGC-Mexico Championship, Farmers Insurance Open, the Memorial Tournament, BMW Championship). No other player has more than three such events

Dustin Johnson (T2/-12)

- Co-led at 12-under through No. 17 before Tiger Woods posted back-to-back birdies at 15 and 16 to move two ahead
- Made his 250th PGA TOUR start this week
- Posted sixth top-10 result in nine starts this season, including a win at WGC-Mexico Championship, his 20th PGA TOUR title
- T2 marks best Masters finish and his fourth consecutive top-10 at Augusta National (T6/2015, T4/2016, T10/2018, TX/2019; DNP/2017)
- Bettered previous-best 72-hole total at Augusta National by three strokes
- Currently in his 12th season. With 20 career PGA TOUR victories, needs to complete 15 full seasons to be eligible for Lifetime Membership of PGA TOUR
- Owns one major championship victory (2016 U.S. Open)

Xander Schauffele (T2/-12)

- Briefly held solo lead at 12-under with birdie at No. 14 and Patrick Cantlay's bogey No. 16
- Four-time TOUR winner was seeking his first major title while attempting to become first three-time winner on PGA TOUR this season (2018 WGC-HSBC Champions, 2019 Sentry Tournament of Champions)
- With a win, would have become the fifth consecutive player at Augusta who had not previously won a major (Jordan Spieth/2015, Danny Willett/2016, Sergio Garcia/2017, Patrick Reed/2018)
- Earns his fourth top-10 result in his eighth major championship start (T2/2019 Masters Tournament, T2/2018 The Open, T6/2018 U.S. Open, T5/2017 U.S. Open)
- Led the field in birdies, with 25

Brooks Koepka (T2/-12)

- First- and second-round co-leader made double bogey at No. 12 after tee shot found water, one of four players in final two groupings to suffer that fate (Francesco Molinari, Tony Finau, Ian Poulter)
- Has won three of the last eight majors (2017 U.S. Open, 2018 U.S. Open, 2018 PGA Championship)
- After missed cuts in his first two major championships (2012 U.S. Open, 2013 The Open), has not missed a cut in 19 such starts since
- Has a win (THE CJ CUP @ NINE BRIDGES) and two runner-up results (T2/Masters Tournament, T2/The Honda Classic) in nine starts during the 2018-19 season
- Did not have a top-10 in three previous starts at the Masters (previous-best result: T11/2017) and missed the event in 2018 due to a wrist injury

Francesco Molinari (T5/-11)

- Began final round with two-stroke lead and led by three strokes after five opening pars before notching his first bogey, following 49 consecutive bogey-free holes, at No. 7. Birdie by Tiger Woods at No. 7 closed the margin to one stroke
- Dropped into share of lead with double bogey at No. 12, before falling three behind with double bogey at No. 15
- Ranked No. 1 in Scrambling (21/22) and No. 1 in Putting (105 putts)
- Beginning the week, first-round 69 in 2012 marked his only sub-70 score in 24 previous rounds at Augusta National
- Was seeking to become first Italian to win Masters and the sixth-consecutive international winner in as many weeks on the PGA TOUR. The last time that happened was 2004

- T19 in 2012 marked previous-best result at the Masters

Tony Finau (T5/-11)

- Notched top-10 finishes in four of last five major championships (T5/2019 Masters Tournament, T42/2018 PGA Championship, T9/2018 The Open, 5th/2018 U.S. Open, T10/2018 Masters Tournament)
- Led Driving Distance for the week (316.2 yards)
- Won playoff for first PGA TOUR title at 2016 Puerto Rico Open. Lost playoff (to Xander Schauffele) while seeking his second victory at 2018 WGC-HSBC Champions
- T10 in his Masters debut (2018), came after suffering a high-ankle sprain while celebrating a hole-in-one during Wednesday's Par-3 Contest

Miscellaneous Notes

- Webb Simpson (T5/-11) was seeking to join Raymond Floyd, Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods as the only players to have won the U.S. Open, THE PLAYERS Championship and the Masters Tournament
- Jason Day (T5/-11) has never missed a cut at Augusta National (withdrew in 2012) and now owns four top-10s in nine appearances
- Jon Rahm (T9/-10) captured his seventh top-10 in 11 starts on the PGA TOUR this season
- With eagle at No. 15 to reach 6-under for the round, Patrick Cantlay (T9/-10) took the solo lead at 12-under, but bogeyed 16 and 17. Cantlay sat T50 and nine strokes back through 36 holes: records for Masters winners most behind through 36 holes (8/Jack Burke/1956) and lowest position through 36 holes (T25/Bernhard Langer/1985)
- For the second-consecutive year at Augusta National, Rickie Fowler (T9/-10) recorded four par-or-better rounds
- South African Justin Harding (T12/-8) birdied the final hole to secure a top-12 finish, earning an invitation to the 2020 Masters
- First-round co-leader Bryson DeChambeau (T29/-4) aced No. 16, his first ace on TOUR and the 30th in tournament history. DeChambeau's scorecard included a 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6
- Ace at No. 16 by Justin Thomas (T12/-8) was second of the day, 31st in tournament history and third of his PGA TOUR career (2015 Greenbrier Classic, 2017 WGC-Mexico Championship)
- Matt Fitzpatrick (T21/-5) now has 400 non-member FedExCup points, bettering 377 points, the number earned by No. 125 Seamus Power last season, to become eligible for PGA TOUR membership
- Lucas Bjerregaard (T21/-5) becomes eligible for PGA TOUR Special Temporary Membership with 276 non-member FedExCup points, surpassing No. 150 Ben Martin's 266 points from last season
- China's Haotong Li (T43/-1) posted his second round in the 60s at Augusta National. After a 69 in round one on debut last year, Sunday's 68 included a 5-under 31 on the second nine (his first nine)
- Four amateurs advanced to the weekend, the most since 1999 (4). U.S. Amateur champion Viktor Hovland (T32/-3) won the Silver Cup as low amateur, one stroke ahead of Alvaro Ortiz, winner of the 2019 Latin America Amateur and brother of PGA TOUR professional Carlos Ortiz
- Nine past champions completed 72 holes: Trevor Immelman (T51/+2), Zach Johnson (T58/+5), Bernhard Langer (T62/+8), Phil Mickelson (T18/-6), Patrick Reed (T36/-2), Adam Scott (T18/-6), Jordan Spieth (T21/-5), Bubba Watson (T12/-8), Tiger Woods (1st/-13)
