Desert Classic Charities

In 1959, a group of local businessmen and community leaders decided to produce a golf tournament and named it the "Palm Springs Golf Classic." Thunderbird Country Club served as the host of this inaugural event, with Tamarisk, Bermuda Dunes and Indian Wells Country Clubs filling out the rotation.

The idea was to generate interest in the greater Palm Springs community with any net proceeds going to local charities (first year, $15,000!). Bob Rosburg created the tournament's unique five-day format played over four different courses with pros and amateurs participating. The first event, won by Arnold Palmer, was such a success that it was televised in 1961. Its one-of-a-kind format and strong participation from celebrities proved very popular and fit in with the emerging success of this exciting decade of golf.

Bob Hope, a longtime resident of the desert, played in the early years and agreed to add his name to the 1965 tournament, which then became The Bob Hope Desert Classic. Bob's personal regard among his peers in the entertainment industry brought even more celebrities to the tournament and the Classic Ball, one of only a very few black tie events in the desert. His relationships with Chrysler and NBC proved to be a boon to the event's popularity on television and with the pros playing in the event. Huge galleries attended and the Classic Ball was always a sellout.

Because of this success, the ability to generate large amounts of charity dollars soon became apparent. The Board began to look at the needs of the Coachella Valley and where these charity dollars might do the most good. One such need was the lack of a hospital in the mid-Valley. Thanks to the personal efforts of Dolores and Bob Hope, General Eisenhower (who maintained a home at Eldorado Country Club) agreed to lend his name to this fledgling facility, thus the Eisenhower Medical Center was born. The Classic Board committed itself to generating funds to build and maintain this new not-for-profit hospital, the only one in the valley. Since then, the Eisenhower Medical Center and many Valley charities have benefitted from over $58 million in donations generated by Desert Classic Charities activities.

Through the decades, the Classic remained a favorite stop on the Tour for many players. It nurtured its relationship with the PGA Tour and NBC Sports. In 1986, Chrysler became a title sponsor, a sponsorship that continued unbroken for twenty-three years until Chrysler's bankruptcy in 2009.

In 2005, the H. C. and Frances N. Berger Foundation donated a golf course and clubhouse to the Classic which was used as the host club for 2006, 2007 and 2008. Its beauty and challenging play make it one of the top public courses in the country. In 2009, a decision was made to centralize tournament activities in the La Quinta area and the Classic Club was deeded back to the Berger Foundation. Although no longer using the Classic Club in the tournament rotation, the Foundation and Desert Classic Charities continue to enjoy a warm and mutually beneficial relationship.

Although the 2010 and 2011 events did not have a title sponsor, Desert Classic Charities was able to produce both events on its own, continuing all the while to search for a title sponsor.

Shortly after the 2011 tournament, negotiations began between the PGA TOUR, the Clinton Foundation, Humana and Desert Classic Charities. Ultimately Humana agreed to sponsor the event, joined by President Clinton and the Clinton Foundation in an eight-year agreement. The new relationship included a dramatic change in the event's fifty-plus year format, with fewer amateurs and more professionals, one less day of competition, one less course and a change in the name.

The inaugural Humana Challenge, in 2012, was a tremendous success and generated considerable interest in the world of golf while continuing to support the desert community and its charities.

Seizing an opportunity to further bolster the long-term health of the tournament and with Humana's decision to step aside as the title sponsor, the PGA TOUR, Desert Classic Charities and the Clinton Foundation announced in May 2015 that CareerBuilder, the global leader in human capital solutions, would assume title sponsorship of the event. Additionally, the tournament announced that the Stadium and Nicklaus Tournament Courses at PGA WEST would join La Quinta Country Club in hosting the 2016 CareerBuilder Challenge.

A year later, in May 2016, the PGA TOUR, Desert Classic Charities and CareerBuilder announced that the Clinton Foundation would end its official role with the tournament, and that World Golf Hall of Fame member Phil Mickelson would be taking on the role as the new ambassador. Mickelson, a two-time winner of the CareerBuilder Challenge and winner of five majors, is a fan favorite on the golf course and one of the most respected players on TOUR.

2017 marked the first time in the event's history that a concert was added to the schedule of events. The Indie-pop band, Fitz and The Tantrums, performed on a stage on the driving range at PGA WEST for all tournament spectators following Saturday's round.

In August 2018, the PGA TOUR and Desert Classic Charities entered into a partnership with Lagardère Sports, a global sports agency, to manage all aspects of the Desert Classic. The Board of Directors at Desert Classic Charities will continue to oversee the charitable donations made to local non-profits from the proceeds of the tournament. As the new tournament operator, Lagardère will continue the musical element of the tournament, adding a second night of concerts for spectators.

Beginning with the 2018 tournament

Stadium Course at PGA WEST

When you think of PGA WEST®, it is the Stadium Course that first comes to mind. Rated one of the "Top 100 Courses in the World" by GOLF Magazine and 4th toughest course in America in Golf Digest's "Top 50 Toughest Courses in America" (2007), there may be no greater challenge or excitement in the game of golf. At 7,113 yards, the TPC Stadium Course has the highest stroke (76.1) and slope (150) ratings of all the courses at PGA WEST®.

A Pete Dye golf course, the Stadium delivers multiple adrenaline rushes throughout the round. Host to the PGA TOUR "Q-School" Finals every other year, PGA TOUR hopefuls must navigate the island green of hole #17, known as Alcatraz, as well as the menacing water-lined 18th. Imagine needing to make par-par on two of the toughest finishing holes in golf to earn the coveted PGA TOUR card!

Named "Stadium" thanks to Dye's ingenious plan to sculpt spectator seating into the natural terrain, many historic moments in golf have occurred here, including Lee Trevino's unforgettable hole-in-one on Alcatraz. This won him a carry-over Skin worth $175,000 in the 1987 made-for-TV "Skins Game," hosted at PGA WEST from 1986-1991. With five sets of tees, the Stadium lures all skill levels.

Hole 1: Par 4, 445 Yards

Hole 2: Par 4, 371 Yards

Craters: Short but demanding. Challenging the bunkers on the left will leave you a short iron, which helps with this tricky, undulating green.

Hole 3: Par 4, 448 Yard

Crescent: Keep your tee shot down the right side. Second shot plays half-club longer back up into the mountain. A par here is better than most.

Hole 4: Par 3, 170 Yards

Sand Pit: Club selection is a must. Long is obviously better than short, that bunker you see is deep.

Hole 5: Par 5, 535 Yards

Double Trouble: Double dog-leg, double water hazard. Bring out your straight ball. The bail-out areas are well guarded by multiple bunkers.

Hole 6: Par 3, 223 Yards

Amen: Obviously intimidating. The green, however, is large enough to receive most any club. It will test your lag-putting skills.

Hole 7: Par 4, 346 Yards

Black Hole: Another hole for straight hitters. Bail-out area on left is no bargain. Very receptive green sloping back to front.

Hole 8: Par 5, 559 Yards

Links: You get a break from the water, if only for one hole. Don't let your guard down though. There are still plenty of bunkers to avoid.

Hole 9: Par 4, 445 Yards

Reflection: Long and strong. Keep your drive down the left. Trying to bite off more than you can chew can be dangerous. A well-guarded green breaks back to front, and left to right.

Hole 10: Par 4, 405 Yards

Quarry: Precision off the tee is once again the theme. There is a bail-out area right of the green, just in case you happen to push or pull one.

Hole 11: Par 5, 591 Yards

Eternity: Avoid the bunkers left off the tee. The farther right you go on your second shot will provide a flatter lie for this tough approach shot to a long, undulating and well-guarded green.

Hole 12: Par 4, 363 Yards

Moat: Keep your tee shot down the right side. This should leave you a short iron to a green guarded by a bunker short, left and long of this green.

Hole 13: Par 3, 195 Yards

Second Thoughts: Leave your left shot in the bag for this one. There is little room right of the green over the bunkers for bail-out.

Hole 14: Par 4, 389 Yards

Cavern: Favor the left side off the tee. There is a greenside bunker on the left that should be avoided at all costs.

Hole 15: Par 4, 468 Yards

Turning Home: Try and hit a straight one here. The bunkers on both sides are not good. Grab a half club extra for approach and long is much better than short.

Hole 16: Par 5, 560 Yards

San Andreas Fault: Avoid the bunker on the left off the tee. Once again avoid the bunker on the left on your second shot. Really avoid the bunker on the left on your approach shot, because this bunker is really deep.

Hole 17: Par 3, 165 Yards

Hole 18: Par 4, 435 Yards

Coliseum: A drive down right center of fairway leaves you a mid-iron to green guarded on the left by the last water hazard on the course and short-right by the last bunkers on course. There is room to bail out right over bunkers.

NICKLAUS TOURNAMENT COURSE

Tournament Course

Nicklaus Tournament Course at PGA WEST

Challenge, beauty and drama permeate every Jack Nicklaus-designed course, and this masterful design is no exception. Around every corner you will find a new challenge, including the rare feature of two island greens. At 7,159 yards long, the Nicklaus Tournament Course has a stroke rating of 75.3 and a slope rating of 143.

A true ball strikers' golf course, the Nicklaus Tournament along with the Stadium Course is the bi-annual host of the PGA TOUR's final round of Q-School, which is attended by some of the best players in the world. Nicknamed by Members as the Nick Tourney, it is both very forgiving off the tee and extremely demanding around the greens. Without a doubt, a "must play" for not only a great test of golf, but for its magnificent desert setting.

Hole 1: Par 4, 412 Yards

Jack's or Better: One of the best starting holes in golf. Off the tee avoid the right bunker, while there is more room to the right than appears to be. The depth of the green is shallow so just aim for the middle.

Hole 2: Par 4, 444 Yards

Top Gun: Drive down the left center to avoid bunkers down the right side. The green slopes back to front, so if the pin is front attack and if it is in the back aim for the middle.

Hole 3: Par 3, 192 Yards

Pyramid: The left side of the green has a severe back to front slope while the right side is flat. If possible, avoid the front bunker at all cost. Three is a good score.

Hole 4: Par 5, 549 Yards

Ridge Runner: Drive your ball down the left side of the fairway. For you long hitters going for the green, the left front portion is ideal. Everyone else, lay-up to 100 yards.

Hole 5: Par 4, 364 Yards

Wishbone: A split fairway offering two different looks at a slightly elevated, shallow green. Avoid the bunker short of the green at all costs.

Hole 6: Par 4, 462 Yards

Jagged Edge: A long par four giving you a lot of room to drive it down the left side. This will leave a mid-iron to a green with little bail out.

Hole 7: Par 5, 527 Yards

Desert Valley: A good birdie chance. Short par five open off the tee. Avoid bunker left on your lay-up. Long hitters get home in two.

Hole 8: Par 3, 172 Yards

Lilly Pad: A peninsula green with bunkers long. Club selection very important.

Hole 9: Par 4, 461 Yards

Jack's Revenge: A long par four with the importance being the approach. Should have a mid to long iron over water with plenty of room long and right to bail out.

Hole 10: Par 4, 370 Yards

Plateau: A short par four. Drive up the right center will leave a short iron to a green guarded by a deep bunker left of the green.

Hole 11: Par 5, 528 Yards

Moguls: Stay clear of the mounds on your left of the tee. If you can't reach the green, it's best to lay-up short of the bunkers.

Hole 12: Par 3, 165 Yards

Fatal Attraction: A short to mid iron par three, where short or left is not the place to be.

Hole 13: Par 4, 419 Yards

Images: A drive up the right side will leave a mid-iron to another elevated shallow green. Vintage Nicklaus.

Hole 14: Par 4, 442 Yards

Date Bowl: Once again, a drive down the right side to avoid fairway bunker on the left. It's a really accessible green with little trouble, be aggressive.

Hole 15: Par 5, 572 Yards

Long Island: Once you have managed to carry, or stay clear of this first fairway bunker, the real decision begins. Longer hitters can take a chance at the island green. A great risk or reward hole.

Hole 16: Par 4, 440 Yards

Cattail: Drive down the left side of fairway. Mid-iron to a green guarded left and short by bunkers. Plenty of room right and long.

Hole 17: Par 3, 209 Yards

Mountain View: Another par three where proper club selection is a must. Well positioned bunkers to an undulating green make three a great score.

Hole 18: Par 4, 431 Yards

Bear Trap: A great finishing hole. A drive down the left leaves a long to mid-iron over sand and water. Bunkers left of green leave little room to bail out.

La Quinta Country Club

La Quinta Country Club is not your typical desert course. This 7,050 yard course is described as being a tighter course, well bunkered with mature trees. It requires strategic course management, which is why both pros and amateurs alike favor it. Our fairways have been a virtual walk of fame. The elite of Hollywood, Monarchs, Presidents and The King - Arnold Palmer - have matched their wits and talents with our famous 18 holes. We've passed the test of time. Walk the course and be in the presence of others who voted it the "Best Private Golf Course in the Coachella Valley", awarded by Palm Springs Life magazine.

The history of La Quinta Country Club is rich in tradition and nowhere else is that better highlighted than a look back on our 51 years with the PGA TOUR.

Hole 1: Par 4, 382 Yards

This is a nice way to start off the day, with a short par-4 hole. It's not too much trouble to get in. There's only one big trap half-way out on the left side.

Hole 2: Par 4, 434 Yards

An uphill challenge, there are two mid-way traps looming at approximately 225 yards out. The rolling elevated green stands between two small traps with out of bounds on both sides.

Hole 3: Par 3, 202 Yards

The elevated tee looks down on a large lake to the left and a kidney-shaped green sporting one trap. Be happy with a three here.

Hole 4: Par 4, 384 Yards

From the elevated tee, you look down over this dogleg to the right, which starts out over water with out of bounds on both sides. The long, wide-mouthed green invites a bold approach shot.

Hole 5: Par 5, 516 Yards

This is the Boomer's Delight! Pull out all of the stops on the fairway, but be accurate with your pitch unless you play well out of the sand.

Hole 6: Par 5, 527 Yards

Another John Joy! This straight-away hole can hurt even the best with trees on the right. Watch out for the tricky green, too.

Hole 7: Par 3, 168 Yards

Although this is a relatively short par-three, there's plenty of trouble to get into with out of bounds on both sides and a disarming lake in front of the green.

Hole 8 Par 4, 389 Yards

With an ever-so-slight dogleg to the left, this par four offers little trouble until you're on the carpet, where the long, oval green drops off fast at the back. You'd better have a tender approach.

Hole 9: Par 4, 399 Yards

The slight dogleg to the left here won't bother you nearly as much as the water along virtually the entire right side. The undulating green has traps on both sides with a short break.

Hole 10: Par 4, 405 Yards

You'd better be careful of the left side of this dogleg to the left. With out of bounds on the left and one treacherous trap over there as well, this hole will definitely leave you "left-shy."

Hole 11: Par 5, 543 Yards

This "country-mile" devil is complicated by long rolls on the fairway and tough mid-way traps. The triple-level green can give you plenty of putting practice once you finally make it there.

Hole 12: Par 3, 202 Yards

A good punch off the tee with a long iron gets you over a boomerang-shaped pond. Be careful not to leave your tee shot short because there are traps on the left and right of the rolling green approach.

Hole 13: Par 5, 547 Yards

This long par-five has a gentle dogleg right with an enormous trap at the turn. A pinpoint second shot is required to steer clear of the well-trapped green.

Hole 14: Par 4, 469 Yards

A big drive will help on this, the longest par-four on the course. Watch out for the trap at approximately 240 yards out.

Hole 15: Par 3, 206 Yards

If the wind is blowing, watch out for this hole. Otherwise, the large traps protect the green quite adequately. Overall, this is the best short hole on the course.

Hole 16: Par 4, 454 Yards

Two menacing fingers of water jut into the fairway around 250 yards out on the right side of this straight-away bruiser.

Hole 17 Par 4, 421 Yards

Trees narrow this fairway and a large trap menaces on the left side at around 250 yards. Care should also be taken on the approach, as the green drops off sharply at the back.

Hole 18: Par 4, 412 Yards

This par-four is a fine finishing hole with plenty of water bordering the left side almost all the way. The large, well-trapped green is also banked. Keep your chin up, you've made it.

Charity Contributions

Perhaps no other PGA TOUR event has had the direct impact on the development of its community as the Desert Classic. While most PGA TOUR events are played in or near large metropolitan areas, the Desert Classic is played within the Coachella Valley, one of the smallest markets on the PGA TOUR.

Since its founding, the tournament has distributed more than $60 million to local charities, impacting the lives of everyone in the desert community. In its 59-year history, it has donated funds to nearly 200 charities. The diversity of those charities reflects the tournament's mission to support the young, the needy and those with special needs.

One of the tournament's early goals was to raise funds for the construction of a hospital in the center of the Valley. To that end the tournament has given more than $36 million to Eisenhower Medical Center, one of the nation's premier medical facilities.

While the partnership with Eisenhower Medical Center is a wonderful example of the ability of the Desert Classic to address the community's specific needs, other charities have received significant donations from the tournament which is additional proof of the event's importance to the valley. To date, these contributions have totaled $60,141,047.

Volunteers

Volunteers — The "Cast Of Thousands"

Nearly 1,000 volunteers contribute approximately 200,000 hours annually to make the Desert Classic a success. Thanks to their efforts, the tournament has donated more than $58 million to local charities since its inception 57 years ago. As our tournament grows, the CareerBuilder Challenge continually relies on the support of new volunteers

The major groups of volunteers, in order of size, are:

Marshals — Provide crowd control around tees, greens, fairways and ranges. Marshals should have the physical ability to work a minimum of 4 days and to walk to and from their respective assignments. Some marshals will be asked to walk 18 holes each of the four days of the tournament.

Walking Scorers — The PGA TOUR has developed a scoring system that captures and reports information on every shot during the tournament. It requires volunteers to enter information on each shot into electronic hand-held devices. Must have knowledge of the game of golf and score keeping. Training is provided.

Club Security — Volunteers will monitor clubhouse and player entrances, clubhouse hospitality areas at courses, checking for proper credentials, etc.

Hospitality / Admissions — Volunteers will assist in the many hospitality functions of the event, including sponsor, contestant, and guest relations. Hospitality volunteers should possess an outgoing and vibrant personality.

Shotlink Operators — Use laser range-finder equipment on fairways and greens to track and record professionals' shots. Training is provided.

Scoreboards / Thru Boards Operators — Keep scores updated on manual scoreboards at designated holes during play. This position requires minimal walking or standing. Training is provided.

Tournament Office Support — Volunteers assist with ticket sales, phone inquiries, will call, and general office support. Volunteers are also needed to help box and wrap gifts and assist with mailings. Good telephone and "people" skills are key. The CareerBuilder Challenge office is extremely busy and volunteers need to be able to work independently and in an active environment.

Player Services – This committee is responsible for offering tournament and community information, directing guests to tournament courses and events, making dining reservations, accepting deliveries and assisting with transportation and spa arrangements. Volunteers should be self-starters, organized, possess an outgoing personality, have customer service experience, basic knowledge of the game of golf and familiar with the Coachella Valley.

Club Members — Serve as announcers and starters and assist with special needs of network television, media and PGA Tour field staff.

Desert Classic Charities Board Members — is the beneficiary of the PGA TOUR event in the Coachella Valley and donate their time for the betterment of the tournament.

The Desert Classic salutes these many volunteers who have donated their time and talents to make the tournament such a great success.
