Last season, Bryson DeChambeau finished the FedExCup Playoffs a combined 47-under par and third in the FedExCup standings.

In the 2014 FedExCup Playoffs, Billy Horschel finished the Playoffs a combined 34-under par en route to his FedExCup title, becoming just the second player (third time) to have the best cumulative score to par during the FedExCup Playoffs and win the FedExCup title in same season (Tiger Wood accomplished this in both of his FedExCup titles).

Tiger Woods and Paul Casey are the only two players who have led the FedExCup Playoffs multiple times in this category.

Lowest Ranked FedExCup Champion Entering Playoffs: Billy Horschel entered the 2014 FedExCup Playoffs ranked 69th marking the lowest rank by a FedExCup Champion since the start of the FedExCup Playoffs in 2007 (next lowest ranked player was Rory McIlroy in 2016 ranked 36th). Billy fell to the 80th position after missing the cut at THE NORTHERN TRUST. After a change in his putting grip he completely turned around his game finishing T2 at the Dell Technologies Championship moving to 20th in the FEC standings. He made a dramatic move into the top-five with his victory at the BMW Championship. He then went on to win the TOUR Championship and took home the FedExCup title.

Last season, Tony Finau played his first 13 rounds of the FedExCup Playoffs a combined 45-under par and all 13 rounds in the 60s, marking the most consecutive rounds in the 60s in the FedExCup Playoffs.

FedExCup Playoffs Since 2007

Advancing from Outside the Cutline in 2 Consecutive Weeks

In 2009 and 2010, Marc Leishman and Andres Romero were the only two players to advance from outside the cut line in two consecutive weeks of the Playoffs. In 2009 Leishman entered the Dell Technologies Championship outside the top 70 (93rd) moving to 67th with a T-15th finish. He then vaulted 51 spots, (from 67th to 16th) on a T-2nd finish at the BMW Championship advancing to the TOUR Championship. In 2010, Romero began THE NORTHERN TRUST outside the top 100 (115th) moving to 100th with a T-52nd finish. He then moved from 100th to 68th at the Dell Technologies Championship with a T-11th finish.

In 2011 both Ernie Els and Chris Stroud were the only 2 players to advance from outside the cut line in 2 consecutive weeks of the 2011 FedExCup Playoffs. Els was the only player who entered the Wyndham Championship (was 126th) outside the top 125. Both Els and Stroud were eliminated at the BMW Championship. Geoff Ogilvy was the only player to advance from outside the cut line in each of the last 2 weeks of the 2011 FedExCup Playoffs. Ogilvy began the Dell Technologies Championship ranked 91st and moved up to 69th. At the 2011 BMW Championship he moved from 69th to 24th with his solid final round performance. Ogilvy began his 2011 FedExCup Playoffs campaign ranked 79th and entered the TOUR Championship ranked 24th (lowest ranked entering the 2011 FEC Playoffs to make the TOUR Championship).

In 2012, 2013, 2015 & 2016 no player advanced from outside the cutline in two consecutive weeks of the FedExCup Playoffs.

Last season, Harold Varner III was the only player who moved inside the cutline from entering outside the cutline in two consecutive weeks of the 2017 FedExCup Playoffs. Varner III moved from 138th to 123rd at the Wyndham Championship then moved from 123rd to 91st at THE NORTHERN TRUST.

Advancing from Outside the Cutline in 3 Consecutive Weeks

2014: Morgan Hoffmann was the first player in the history of the FedExCup Playoffs to play his way from outside of the cut line in each of the first 3 FedExCup Playoff events. In the 10-year history of the Playoffs, 6 players have played their way from the outside in two consecutive weeks, but Hoffmann is the first to accomplish this feat in 3 consecutive weeks. Hoffman went onto finish T-27th at the TOUR Championship finishing a career best 26th in the FedExCup.

Last Season: Nick Taylor & Harris English were the only two players who played their way into the top 125 at the Wyndham Championship. They finished 123rd and 125th respectively in the final FedExCup standings.

2018: Four players played their way into the playoffs at the Wyndham Championship including J.J. Henry who accomplished this feat for the second time in his career (2008).

2016: 2 players advanced from outside the top 125 at the Wyndham Championship (K. Stanley & S. Stefani).

2015: 5 players advanced from outside the top 125 at the Wyndham Championship tying the record at this event under the current points structure.

Biggest Move in Wyndham History: With his win at the '15 Wyndham Davis Love III moved from 186th to 76th in the FedExCup standings (110 spots) marking the largest move up the standings in tournament history. Love III is the first player to move more than 100 spots in the standings at the Wyndham Championship.

The furthest any player has gone starting the Wyndham Championship outside the cut line since 2009 is Ernie Els in 2011. Els started the Wyndham Championship ranked 126th in the standings and went onto finish 67th in the standings in 2011.

Entering the 2009 NORTHERN TRUST, Heath Slocum ranked 124th in the standings. His victory vaulted him 121 spots to 3rd in the standings and secured a spot at the TOUR Championship (largest move in the 10-year history of the Playoffs).
