Gary Woodland (1st/-13)

PGA TOUR wins (4): 2011 Valspar Championship, 2013 Barracuda Championship, 2018 Waste Management Phoenix Open, 2019 U.S. Open

- Collects his fourth career PGA TOUR title and first major championship victory in his 245th TOUR start at the age of 35 years, 26 days
- Becomes seventh first-time major winner in the last 10 years at the U.S. Open
- Win comes in his ninth U.S. Open start and 31st major championship appearance; previous-best finish at the event was T23 in 2011 (Congressional CC)
- Represents third top-10 in last four major championships (T6/2018 PGA Championship, T8/2019 PGA Championship, Win/2019 U.S. Open)

- Ties lowest 72-hole score at the U.S. Open since 2011 (other 271 in that stretch: Martin Kaymer/2014)
- Joins Brooks Koepka and Jordan Spieth as the only players to win a major by three or more shots since the start of the 2017 season (Koepka/4/2017 U.S. Open, Spieth/3/2017 The Open Championship)
- Collects 600 FedExCup points and moves from No. 9 to No. 5 with 1,789 points; has qualified for the season-ending TOUR Championship in five of the last six seasons
- Earns 1,200 points towards making the 2019 Presidents Cup Team and 2,250 towards making the 2020 Ryder Cup Team
- Converts a 54-hole lead/co-lead for the first time in his eighth effort at stroke-play events
- Becomes the 53rd player to convert a 54-hole lead/co-lead for the win in U.S. Open history
- Becomes the 17th player to convert a 54-hole lead/co-lead on the PGA TOUR this season (32 individual stroke-play events)
- Played 34 consecutive holes without a bogey (No. 10 in R1 – No. 7 in R3)
- Was one of only five players to post a bogey-free score this week (R2)
- Led the field in Scrambling this week (16/20); began the week ranked 169th in that category
- In four starts at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am, has three missed cuts and a T5 (2017)
- Owns two runner-up finishes in 17 prior starts this season: THE CJ CUP @ NINE BRIDGES and Sentry Tournament of Champions

Brooks Koepka (2nd/-10)

- Birdied four of his first five holes en route to a 3-under 68 and solo-second place finish
- Results in last four major championships: Win, T2, Win, 2nd
- In his last 15 starts at majors, has finished outside the top 15 just twice (T21/2016 Masters Tournament, T39/2018 The Open Championship)
- Koepka becomes the first player in U.S. Open history to post five consecutive rounds in the 60s. Beginning with last year's final round, he has posted scores of 68-69-69-68-68
- For the week: 40 of 56 fairways, 54 of 72 greens in regulation
- Was attempting to become the first to win three straight U.S. Opens since 1905 and the fourth player to win five or more majors before the age of 30

Tiger Woods (T21/-2)

- Following bogeys on four of his first six holes, rallied with six birdies to shoot 2-under 69 and finish T21 at 2-under 282
- Moves to No. 21 in the FedExCup standings
- For the week: 41 of 56 fairways, 45 of 72 greens in regulation
- Was making his 21st U.S. Open start; among eight top-10 finishes are wins in 2000, 2002 and 2008
- Had not made the cut at the U.S. Open since 2013 (MCs in 2015 and 2018) and had not broken 70 in the final round since 2009 (69)
- Was seeking his 198th top-10 finish on TOUR, fifth of the season and second-straight (T9/the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide)

Miscellaneous notes

- Justin Rose (T3) entered the round one shot back of Gary Woodland and made three bogeys on his final seven holes; collects 10th top-five in major championships
- Seeking his third win of the 2018-19 PGA TOUR Season, Xander Schauffele (T3) earned his fourth top-five in his 10th major championship start
- Jon Rahm (T3) collected his fourth top-10 in major championships since the start of the 2017-18 season
- Six-time U.S. Open runner-up and winner of the 2019 AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am Phil Mickelson, who celebrated his 49th birthday Sunday, posted a 1-over 72 to finish at 4-over 288. He was making his 28th U.S. Open start
- Graeme McDowell, who won the 2010 U.S. Open at Pebble Beach, finished with a 1-over 72 to finish T16 at 3-under 281
- 2018 U.S. Amateur champion Viktor Hovland made six birdies against two bogeys to close with a 4-under 67 and finish T12 at 4-under 280. In doing so, he becomes the first low amateur at the Masters and U.S. Open in the same season since Matt Kuchar achieved the feat in 1998
- Hovland's score of 280 marks the lowest 72-hole score by an amateur in U.S. Open history. Jack Nicklaus previously held the record at 282 in 1960
- Americans have now won nine of the last 10 majors (Francesco Molinari/2018 The Open Championship is the only non-American major winner in that stretch)
