Things to Know

- The player with the best record in each group will advance to the Round of 16 for single-elimination match play. In the event two players are tied, those players will have a sudden-death hole-by-hole-playoff starting on No. 1. If three or more players are involved, it will be a stroke-play hole-by-hole playoff.
- With Bubba Watson going 0-2-0, 2019 marks the third consecutive year, and fourth in the last five years, the defending champion will not advance out of Group Play (Jason Day/2015, Jason Day/2017/WD, Dustin Johnson/2018).
- The top-seeded players in each group went 3-9-4. Four were eliminated: Brooks Koepka (3), Jason Day (12), Bubba Watson (15) and Patrick Reed (16).
- Jim Furyk (age 48), Matt Kuchar (age 40) and Henrik Stenson (age 42) are among 10 players undefeated. No player in his 40s has ever won the Dell Technologies Match Play.
- Keith Mitchell, the only player in the field making his World Golf Championships debut, defeated Ian Poulter, who owns the second-most match wins in the event.
- In his only other start at Dell Technologies Match Play, HaoTong Li lost all three matches in Group Play in 2018. Li is currently undefeated.
- Both of Francesco Molinari's wins came before reaching the 16th hole.
- With two wins through two matches, Rory McIlroy and Matt Kuchar increased their career matches won to 26, tying Paul Casey for third-most:
 - Most matches won:
 - 34 - Tiger Woods
 - 28 - Ian Poulter
 - 26 - Paul Casey, Rory McIlroy, Matt Kuchar
