

HSBC Champions Forecast

6 AM Update

Monday, 22 October 2018

Synopsis -

Periods of light rain will continue this morning into the afternoon hours. The rain is expected to be light but a few moderate areas are possible this afternoon as the front passes through. The rain will taper off later today with cloudy skies remaining through tomorrow morning. A stray shower or two is possible before 8 AM then cloud cover to decrease allowing for party sunny skies for the rest of the day. Good weather conditions continue into Wednesday and most of Thursday before another frontal system moves through the area. Rain will be likely Friday morning then high pressure follows with great weather setting up for the weekend.
