FedExCup Notes

As the final event in the PGA TOUR Season, the Wyndham Championship offers the final opportunity for players to improve their FedExCup positions heading into the Playoffs, or in some instances, move into the top 125 in the FedExCup standings and qualify for the first Playoffs event, THE NORTHERN TRUST.

Seven of the last nine players ranked 125th in the standings entering the Wyndham Championship remained inside the cut line entering the FedExCup Playoffs. Last season, Tyrone Van Aswegen was one of the two exceptions, dropping from 125th to No. 127 following his missed cut at Sedgefield Country Club.

Moving in/out of the Top 125 in the FedExCup

Players projected to move into top 125

- Patton Kizzire (T3; 129th to 99th)
- Shawn Stefani (T19; 134th to 123rd)

Players projected to move out of top 125

- Robert Streb (MC; 124th to 127th)
- Alex Noren (T68; 125th to 129th)

Wyndham Rewards Top 10

- The top 10 in the FedExCup after this week share a $10 million bonus through the Wyndham Rewards Top 10 program
- With a win or solo-second, Paul Casey (T9) would earn $1.1 million via a fourth-place finish in the Wyndham Rewards Top 10
- Players in this week's field within 500 points of the Wyndham Rewards Top 10 (Wyndham Championship position/Wyndham Rewards projection): Webb Simpson (T3/10th), Chez Reavie (T27/14th), Charles Howell III (T12/15th), Sungjae Im (T3/21st), Scott Piercy (T53/27th), Hideki Matsuyama (MC/30th), Lucas Glover (T53/31st) and Corey Connors (T53/32nd)

Aon Risk Reward Challenge

The inaugural Aon Risk Reward Challenge concludes this week, where two players still have a mathematical chance of overtaking Brooks Koepka and claiming the $1 million prize. Jason Kokrak needs to record a double-eagle and an eagle on the par 5, 15th hole, while Alex Noren needs two double-eagles to overtake Koepka. Unlikely, but not impossible as proven by Fabian Gomez's albatross on No. 15 during his opening round of the 2011 Wyndham Championship. Koepka and Jason Day are currently tied atop the Aon Risk Reward Challenge season-long standings, but Koepka is projected to win the tie-breaker based on common performances on the Aon Risk Reward Challenge designated holes this season.
