Bernhard Langer, 64-68—132 (-12)

- After making bogey on No. 17, his first of the week, Langer closed with an eagle on the par-5 18th and finished with a second-round 68 and a one-shot lead. He also eagled No. 11, making Saturday's round his first with two eagles since the first round of the 2013 Hoag Classic.
- Entering this week, Langer has been a leader/co-leader at the start of the final round 38 times, and he has gone on to win 23 times.
 - Solo leader: 18-for-27 (Last: Won, 2018 Insuperity Invitational)
 - Co-leader: 5-for-11 (Last: Won, 2018 SAS Championship)
- This is the first time Langer has been the 36-hole leader/co-leader at the Oasis Championship. When he won in 2010, he was T3 through two rounds.
- On Sunday, Langer's age will be 61 years, 5 months, 14 days. Should he win, it would be his sixth win at age 60 or older and he would become the Tour's eighth-oldest winner.
- With a victory, Langer would be the first repeat winner of the Oasis Championship, and this would be the 10th tournament he has won multiple times.
- With a victory, Langer would earn $255,000 and become No. 1 on the Tour's all-time money list. Entering this week, his career total is $26,941,504 and he trails Hale Irwin by $179,050.
- Langer won his fifth Charles Schwab Cup in 2018, and he's been in the top-10 of the standings each of the last 22 weeks.

Marco Dawson, 66-67—133 (-11)

- Dawson opened with back-to-back birdies on the first two holes, followed by four more including one on No. 18 to finish his second round 5-under 67.
- Dawson moved up the leaderboard and into a tie for second when he found birdies on Nos. 11 and 12. When Langer parred No. 16 and Dawson birdied No. 18 he moved into a two-way tie for the lead. Langer pushed away when he eagled No. 18.
- Last year, Dawson finished runner-up at the PURE Insurance Championship and posted five finishes in the top five.
- Dawson owns two victories on PGA TOUR Champions: 2015 Cologuard Classic and the 2015 Senior Open Championship.

Brandt Jobe, 69-65—134 (-10)

- Jobe opened with a birdie on No. 1 followed by seven more en route to the lowest round of the day at 7-under 65. His 10-under 134 total puts him in T3 headed into the final round.
- Last year, Jobe finished runner-up at The Ally Challenge, in third place at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship and had six finishes in the top 10.
- Jobe won the 2017 Principal Charity Classic, his only victory on PGA TOUR Champions.

David Toms, 67-67—134 (-10)

- Toms made his way up the leaderboard from the beginning of his second round. When he drove the 7th green with a 5-wood and made a 20-foot eagle putt he put himself in a solo lead.
- Toms held the lead until No. 14 where he carded a par and with back-to-back bogeys on Nos. 14 and 15 moved down the leaderboard into a tie for seventh.
- Toms finished with an eagle on No. 18 and a 5-under 67 to match his first-round score.
- In his first event of 2019, Toms finished runner-up at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.
- Toms only victory on PGA TOUR Champions came at the 2018 U.S. Senior Open Championship.

Other Notes

- Second-round leaders/co-leaders have won the Oasis Championship seven times in 12 years.
- Woody Austin started his second round with an eagle on the first hole followed by two birdies on Nos. 6 and 13 to move up the leaderboard and share the lead with Langer when he reached No. 13. A double-bogey on No. 16 dropped him into T5 as he finished with a 2-under 70 for a 9-under 135 total. Austin extended his streak to 32 consecutive rounds of par or better, the longest active streak on Tour. The all-time record is shared by Colin Montgomerie and Jay Haas (38).
- Bob Estes carded one of just two bogey-free rounds Saturday. He is T5 at 9-under after a second-round 68.
- Tom Byrum tallied five birdies en route to a second-round 69 and is T5 at 9-under.
- First-round leader Jesper Parnevik carded a second-round 72 and is T5 at 9-under.
- Making his PGA TOUR Champions debut, World Golf Hall of Fame 2019 inductee Retief Goosen carded a 3-under 69 for the second day in a row to sit T18 entering Sunday.
- The field includes 10 past champions of the Oasis Championship. Should any of these players win, he would become the tournament's first repeat winner.
 - Mark Calcavecchia (2018) carded rounds of 72-78--150 (+6) to enter the final round T70.
 - Scott McCarron (2017) carded rounds of 68-70--138 (-6) to enter the final round T18.
 - Esteban Toledo (2016) carded two rounds of 71 to enter the final round T38 at 2-under 142.
 - Paul Goydos (2015) carded a second round 5-under 67 to enter Sunday T18.
 - Michael Allen (2014) carded rounds of 68-73--141 to enter Sunday T31.
 - Rocco Mediate (2013) carded rounds of 68-70--138 to enter Sunday T18.
 - Corey Pavin (2012) carded rounds of 73-68--141 to enter Sunday T31.
 - Tom Lehman (2011) carded rounds of 66-70--136 to enter Sunday in the top 10 (T9).
 - Bernhard Langer (2010) carded an eagle on the final hole on Saturday to enter the final round as the leader.
 - Scott Hoch (2008) carded rounds of 71-78--149 to enter Sunday in 69th place.

- In 2018, the 507-yard, par-5 18th was the easiest closing hole on Tour for the sixth straight year (4.351 average) and it was the third-easiest hole overall. In Saturday's second round, it played to a 4.260 average.
- Four players are making their PGA TOUR Champions debuts this week. Should one go on to win, it would be the second time a player won the Oasis Championship in his Tour debut (Rocco Mediate/2013):
 - Gary Nicklaus (T49)
 - Retief Goosen (T18)
 - Ken Duke (T49)
 - Cliff Kresge (T60)
