Welcome From PGA TOUR Champions

Welcome from PGA TOUR Champions

On behalf of PGA TOUR Champions, it's a pleasure to welcome you to the 2019 Bridgestone SENIOR PLAYERS Championship – the fourth of five senior major championships on the 2019 schedule. PGA TOUR Champions celebrates its 40th season this year, and many of the game's greatest players have descended in Northeast Ohio this week to compete in one of our most prestigious events.

This year we are excited to bring the Bridgestone SENIOR PLAYERS to Firestone Country Club and establish a home in Northeast Ohio through 2022, as PGA TOUR Champions debuts an event that continues a rich tradition of playing some of golf's most revered venues each year. This major championship has been contested on Exmoor Country Club, Caves Valley Golf Club, Baltimore Country Club, Westchester Country Club, Fox Chapel Golf Club and Philadelphia Cricket Club in recent years.

The SENIOR PLAYERS Championship has had its share of exciting finishes over the years, and 2018 was no exception. Vijay Singh started the final round one shot behind in fourth place and went on to card a final round 67 to earn a spot in a playoff against Jeff Maggert. Singh birdied the second playoff hole, defeating Maggert and ultimately earning his third win on PGA TOUR Champions, his first senior major championship and an exemption into the 2019 PLAYERS Championship at TPC Sawgrass.

The PGA TOUR has generated nearly $3 billion all-time for charity, and we're excited to know the success of the SENIOR PLAYERS Championship will continue to extend well beyond the golf course. Since 1984, professional golf tournament at Firestone Country Club have generated over $28 million for area charities and we look forward to continuing that tradition in 2019.

We value the continued partnership and commitment Bridgestone has made to PGA TOUR Champions to ensure professional golf's 65-year tradition in Northeast Ohio continues. We also appreciate the efforts of our Founding Partners Westfield and FirstEnergy, in addition to and other supporting sponsors, spectators, volunteers, media, and the Board of Directors, members and staff at Firestone Country Club for their commitment to making this tournament's debut a success.

Thank you for your support of PGA TOUR Champions. Enjoy a great week of competition and many other exciting activities the Bridgestone SENIOR PLAYERS has to offer.

Sincerely,

- 2005: Peter Jacobsen begins the final round three strokes behind Hale Irwin but rallies with a 6-under 66 to overtake five players and win his second Champions Tour major. Jacobsen's first came at the 2004 U.S. Senior Open. Jacobsen becomes the sixth winner since 1998 at TPC Michigan to shoot a 66 in the final round.
- 2006: In the last event at TPC Michigan, Bobby Wadkins overcame a double-bogey finish on the final hole to win his first Champions Tour major championship. Loren Roberts looked to be in control heading into the back nine Sunday, but he played holes 11-14 in 5-over, eliminating himself from contention. On the 18th hole, after finding trouble in the marsh and hitting an errant bunker shot, Wadkins drained a 13-foot putt for double bogey. Thorpe missed on forcing a playoff when he three-putted for bogey, also on 18.
- 2007: In the first year at Baltimore Country Club's Five Farms East Course, Loren Roberts took control of the tournament through 36 holes, he extended his lead to three strokes by Saturday and kept his foot on the pedal for a six-stroke win over Tom Watson, the largest since Hale Irwin's seven-stroke victory over Graham Marsh in 1999. The win went a long way toward Roberts clinching the Charles Schwab Cup, which he won after finishing as the runner-up in 2006.

Time Line

- 2008: D.A. Weibring entered the final round a stroke behind Nick Price and found himself four behind after four holes Sunday. But Weibring rallied, shooting a 2-under 68 that was just enough to beat Fred Funk by a stroke. Playing well ahead of Weibring's group, Funk fired a 4-under 66 and just missed forcing a playoff. The victory was Weibring's first major championship title on either the PGA TOUR or Champions Tour. His previous-best major showing was a tie for second at the 2005 U.S. Senior Open. He also tied for third at the 1987 PGA Championship and the 1988 U.S. Open.
- 2009: Jay Haas shot a blistering, 6-under 64 in the final round to come from five strokes off the pace to pass Tom Watson and win his first Constellation Energy Senior Players Championship. Haas enjoyed a bogey-free day to win in his second consecutive start. Haas also won the Greater Hickory Classic at Rock Barn two weeks earlier. Haas' win, his third Champions Tour major to go with his two Senior PGA Championship titles, made Watson a runner-up in this event for a third time. He also finished second in 2003 and 2007.
- 2010: Mark O'Meara sank a 3-and-a-half-foot par putt on the first extra hole to defeat Michael Allen at TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm. O'Meara, who narrowly missed winning in regulation when his 30-foot birdie opportunity finished just inches short on the 72nd hole, hit two near-perfect shots in the playoff and then two-putted from 30 feet for the win. Allen made up a three-stroke deficit over the final five holes, with three birdies, but he hit his tee shot into the right rough on the playoff hole which eventually would lead to a bogey-5 and a win for O'Meara.
- 2011: Fred Couples made a 3-foot birdie putt on the third playoff hole to defeat John Cook for his first senior major championship. Couples trailed Cook by one stroke with three holes to play in regulation, but Cook opened the door for Couples at the par-3 16th by making bogey after a poor pitch shot from short of the green. Couples was over the green on the 225-yard hole, but he managed to save par and force a tie by holing a 15-foot putt just after Cook missed his par effort from 25 feet. After both players made routine pars on the final two holes of regulation and the first playoff hole, Couples appeared to have the advantage when he hit the par-5, 18th hole in two. However, he squandered the opportunity to win by three-putting for par from 70 feet. The duo went back to the par-4 17th hole. Cook pulled his wedge shot from the fairway 18 feet left of the hole. Couples, just barely in the right rough, launched a sand wedge shot that stopped a mere 3 feet from the hole. After Cook missed his birdie putt, Couples tapped in for the victory.
- 2012: Joe Daley, a non-exempt Champions Tour player, fired a closing-round, 2-under-par 68 to hold off a trio of former PGA TOUR major championship winners and claim his first Tour win. Buoyed by a tournament-best 24 birdies, Daley started the day tied with Mark Calcavecchia, with Fred Couples and Tom Lehman one stroke behind. Daley made key birdies on Nos. 9 and 10 to go to 14-under and led by as many as three strokes before a bogey at No. 17 gave him just a one-shot cushion over Lehman. Daley finished off his victory with a 21-foot birdie at No. 18. With his win, Daley earned a spot in the 2013 PLAYERS Championship, an event for which he had never previously been eligible. Hale Irwin matched his age for the fifth time in his career, shooting a 3-under-par 67 in the final round, and Olin Browne tied the competitive-course record with a 62 in his second round. Kenny Perry also made a hole-in-one on the 17th hole during round three.
- 2013: Kenny Perry was rock solid down the stretch, making birdie on two of his final three holes to pull away from Fred Couples and Duffy Waldorf and win the 2013 Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. Perry's victory avenged his final-round collapse at the Senior PGA Championship a little more than a month earlier. He started the final round two strokes back but, after making birdies at Nos. 2, 4 and 7, he took the lead for good at No. 15 when Couples three-putted from eight feet for bogey and Waldorf made bogey after a wayward second shot and a poor chip. Perry then added a tap-in birdie at No. 16 and made a five-foot birdie at the par-3 17th to distance himself from both Couples and Waldorf. Overall, Perry played the final 37 holes of the championship without a bogey and in a cumulative 14-under par. Perry's 19-under 261 total tied Jack Nicklaus' numerical mark of 261 (27-under), set in 1990 at Dearborn Country Club in Michigan. World Golf Hall of Fame member Colin Montgomerie tied for ninth in his Champions Tour debut, carding a final-round 65 at Fox Chapel, while Waldorf's 6-under 29 on the front side at Fox Chapel in the final round was the best nine-hole score of the tournament.

Time Line

2014: Bernhard Langer sank a 5-foot birdie putt on the second extra hole to defeat Jeff Sluman and win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. It was Langer's third win in a Champions Tour major championship. Langer had started the day with a three-stroke advantage over Kenny Perry. However, both Langer and Perry stumbled on the back nine allowing Sluman and Russ Cochran to get into the mix. Perry fell by the wayside with a bogey at No. 16 and after Sluman made birdie to take the lead at No. 16, Langer drained a 50-foot birdie putt on the next hole to tie Sluman. Cochran was unable to close the gap, missing chances on his final two holes. On the first extra hole, Sluman's birdie opportunity from eight feet for the win ended only an inch short. Minutes later, on the second extra hole, Langer pitched to five feet and sank his putt for the victory. Langer's win marked the first time there has been a year when winners of THE PLAYERS and the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS have come from the same country other than the United States. Langer joined fellow German Martin Kaymer for that distinction. Bob Gilder matched his age for the first time when he finished with a final-round, 7-under-par 63.

2015: Bernhard Langer opened with rounds of 65-65 at Belmont Country Club outside Boston en route to a wire-to-wire victory and successful title defense at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. It was Langer's fifth major title on PGA TOUR Champions as he became the first player to win back-to-back titles at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship since Arnold Palmer in 1984-85. Langer took an eight-stroke lead to Sunday's final round and cruised to victory, carding a 3-under par 68 to win by six strokes over Kirk Triplett, who posted the day's low round, a 7-under par 64, to secure second place alone.

2016: Bernhard Langer sank a 12-foot par putt on the 72nd hole to avoid a playoff with Miguel Angel Jimenez and Joe Durant to win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship for a third-consecutive year. The win was his seventh senior major victory and second of the year, having already claimed the Regions Tradition. Langer began the final round with a three-stroke advantage, but struggled under windy conditions at the Philadelphia Cricket Club's Wissahickon Course and failed to record a birdie. His three bogeys, including one at the 17th, led to him taking a one-stroke lead to the 18th hole, where a clutch bunker save preserved the title. With his 1-over 281 total, Langer became the first player in Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS history to post a winning score over par.

2017: Scott McCarron carded a final-round 66 and erased a six-shot deficit to overtake Bernhard Langer and Brandt Jobe and win the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS Championship. The win was McCarron's first major championship on PGA TOUR Champions and his second win of the 2017 season. It also put an end to Bernhard Langer's consecutive three-year winning streak at the Constellation SENIOR PLAYERS.

2018: Vijay Singh started the final round one shot behind in fourth place and went on to card a final-round 67 to earn a spot in a playoff against Jeff Maggert. Singh birdied the second playoff hole, defeating Maggert and ultimately earning his third win on PGA TOUR Champions, his first senior major championship and an exemption into the 2019 PLAYERS Championship at TPC Sawgrass.
