

JOHN SMOLTZ ( E )

Q. How are you feeling?

JOHN SMOLTZ: I've learned to manage the game. I putted extremely well. Put myself in situations to get defensive, and once you get defensive, it's just not a fun game to play. I learned again, I'm getting closer and closer to feeling comfortable and closer to trusting my swing (inaudible).

Q. What are you going to take away from this experience?

JOHN SMOLTZ: The biggest thing is a better command of trust. Where the ball goes, it goes, but have an idea. That's what blew my mind today is I lost my driver in a place that I never was losing it, so you're searching. And then that 3-wood shot on 15 was just horrible, so I paid dearly. To keep my round together, shoot even par, I expect to shoot even par, I expect that every time I play, so see what happens.
