

SCOTT PAREL (-12)

Q. Talk about today and the way things are at the top. Play with each other, stay with each other.

SCOTT PAREL: Yeah, everybody in the group I think played pretty solid, nobody got in too much trouble. We all holed some putts, we all missed some putts, but it was a very comfortable group. I think when everybody's playing like that, it makes it easy. You're not seeing a lot of bad shots.

Q. All three of you are looking for that win that hasn't come for a while. How does that affect the way you go tomorrow?

SCOTT PAREL: It's not going to affect me at all. I'm not even thinking about winning. This week I decided I wasn't thinking about results at all and I'm just trying to shoot -- actually what I'm trying to do is shoot in the 60s every day. Then if I play better than that and it's good enough to win great, and if not, great. I don't want to put so much pressure on myself to try to win, I'm just going to play the best I can.

Q. My question, and I guess you already answered it, so you're not really thinking about the Schwab Cup standings and Scott McCarron?

SCOTT PAREL: No. I feel like, Bret, I kind of caught myself doing that the last four or five weeks knowing that I've got to win to have a chance to catch those guys, and then I just got to doing too much result thinking instead of just playing golf. This week I've done a good job of just staying in the moment, hitting every shot, not worrying about where that's going to put me. If it's good enough to win, great. If I win, I know I'm going to jump up. If not, it still doesn't mean I haven't played well this year. So I'm not going to let not winning be a barometer on whether I've had a good year or not.
