Additional Notes

- Bay Hill was the first golf course planted with Tifway bermudagrass.

- Arnold Palmer took ownership of the course in 1975.

- Palmer's 2009 renovation focused on agronomic/maintenance (redesign of all 18 greens), playability and aesthetics, which included reworking all of the bunkering, major changes to alter the yardage and a move from a par 71 to par 72.

- The greens were re-grassed in 2015.
