Things to Know

- In his second playoff since the PGA TOUR's Return to Golf, Collin Morikawa outlasts Justin Thomas on third extra hole; projected to move inside the top 20 in the Official World Golf Ranking
- Becomes the second player (Tiger Woods) in the last 30 years to claim his second PGA TOUR victory before missing his second cut since turning professional
- Justin Thomas sinks 50'6" birdie putt on the first hole of sudden death, fails to save par on third extra hole
- With the runner-up finish, Thomas overtakes the No. 1 spot in the FedExCup
- Workday Charity Open marks the season's ninth playoff and first since Morikawa lost to Daniel Berger at the Charles Schwab Challenge; ties Sentry Tournament of Champions for most extra holes (3)
- Viktor Hovland finishes third in his bid to become the youngest player to win twice in a season since Jordan Spieth in 2015
- Defending champion of the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide, Patrick Cantlay, opens in 5-under through five holes en route to final-round 7-under 65; finishes T7

Collin Morikawa (1st/-19)

Starts in 2019-20	15
Top-10s in 2019-20	5

- 18- and 36-hole leader followed a 6-under 66 in the final round to force sudden death with 54-hole leader Justin Thomas. On the first extra hole, sank a 24'3" putt for birdie to keep the playoff alive after Thomas sank a birdie putt from 50'6".
- With a par on the third extra hole, the par-4 10th, claimed his second career PGA TOUR title in his 26th start (24th as a professional) at the age of 23 years, 5 months and 6 days
- With the win, moves to No. 6 (from 21st) in the FedExCup
- Victory comes in the ninth playoff of the 2019-20 PGA TOUR Season and marks the first playoff since Morikawa lost to Daniel Berger of the first extra hole at the Charles Schwab Challenge
- Victory comes in his first start since a missed cut at the Travelers Championship, his first missed cut in 23 professional starts. Now owns more TOUR victories than missed cuts
- Becomes the second player (Tiger Woods) in the last 30 years to claim his second PGA TOUR victory before missing his second cut

- Becomes the fourth player to win on the PGA TOUR under the age of 24 this season, joining Joaquin Niemann (21, A Military Tribute at The Greenbrier), Viktor Hovland (22, Puerto Rico Open) and Sungjae Im (21, The Honda Classic)
- Played his first five holes in 4-under, highlighted by his second eagle of the week at the par-5 fifth; played the hole in 6-under for the week (two birdies, two eagles)
- Played the par-5 holes (Nos. 5, 7, 11 and 15) in 10-under this week
- Becomes the 11th second-round leader/co-leader to convert for the win on the PGA TOUR in 2019-20 and first since Webb Simpson (RBC Heritage)
- Victory marks his fifth top-10 finish of the season and his best showing since a playoff loss at the Charles Schwab Challenge in June

Justin Thomas (2nd/-19)

- Despite bogeys on two of his first three holes – his first bogeys of the week – closed with a 3-under 69 to finish at 19-under 269 with Collin Morikawa
- Sank a 50'6" putt on the first extra hole, No. 18
- With the runner-up finish, overtakes the No. 1 spot in the FedExCup by 183 points over Webb Simpson
- Played 11 holes in the final round (regulation) needing just one putt, including the stretch of Nos. 6-15

Additional Notes

- Viktor Hovland (3rd/-15) closed with a 1-under 71; with a win, would have become the youngest player to win multiple TOUR titles in a season since Jordan Spieth won the 2015 Valspar Championship and Masters Tournament at the age of 21
- PGA TOUR rookie Chase Seiffert (4th/-14) gained entry into the field on Monday when K.J. Choi withdrew. The last player to win a tournament after gaining a spot in the field via the alternate list was Nate Lashley at the 2019 Rocket Mortgage Classic
- Defending champion of the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide, Patrick Cantlay (T7/-11), closed with a 7-under 65 to become the fourth player to post multiple final rounds of 65 or better at Muirfield Village, joining Fred Couples, Greg Norman and Tiger Woods
- Coming off missed cuts in three of his last four starts in the TOUR's Return to Golf, Columbus resident Jason Day (T7/-11) closed with a 5-under 67. In 11 starts at the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide, has never finished better than T15 (2017)
- Following three rounds in the 70s, World No. 2 Jon Rahm closed with an 8-under 64, tying Kevin Streelman (round two) for the low round of the week to jump from T62 to T27 (7-under 281)
- Following a third-round 7-under 65, Monday qualifier MJ Daffue closed with a 1-over 73 to finish T22 at 8-under 280; made birdie at the final hole in round two to make the cut on the number, then followed with the low round of the day in round three (65)
- With his final-round 1-over 73, Rickie Fowler's (T22/-8) streak of par-or-better scores at Muirfield Village Golf Club ends at 16
