Haotong Li (1/-8)

- Bogey-free 65 leads to 132 total, his career-best 36-hole score on TOUR
- Holds second career lead after any round on the PGA TOUR (R1/2019 World Golf Championships-HSBC Champions)
- Marks the first time a player from China has ever held a lead or co-lead after a round in a major
- No player from China has ever won on the PGA TOUR; owns best all-time finish by a player from China with a third-place finish at the 2017 Open Championship (Royal Birkdale)
- Making 12th start in a major; best finish: 3rd/2017 Open Championship
- After a T24 at the 2019 WGC-HSBC Champions and participating in the 2019 Presidents Cup, has made two starts on TOUR in 2020: the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide (MC), WGC-FedEx St. Jude Invitational (T75)

Brooks Koepka (T2/-6)

- With rounds of 66-68, 17 of his last 22 major rounds have been in the 60s
- Trailed after 36 holes in two of four major titles: 2018 U.S. Open (T4/Five strokes), 2018 PGA Championship (T3/Two strokes)
- Seeks third consecutive PGA Championship title and fifth major championship victory (wins: 2017 U.S. Open, 2018 U.S. Open, 2018 PGA Championship, 2019 PGA Championship)
- Looks to become the first player since 1956 to win the same major in three consecutive years; players in the last 100 years to accomplish the feat: Walter Hagen (PGA Championship in 1924, 1925, 1926, 1927) and Peter Thomson (The Open Championship in 1954, 1955, 1956)
- Last player to win at least one major in four consecutive years: Tiger Woods (2005, 2006, 2007, 2008)
- With a win, would tie Phil Mickelson for the second-most major championship titles among active players
- With a win, would become the third-youngest player to win five majors since WWII, behind only Tiger Woods and Jack Nicklaus

Tommy Fleetwood (T2/-6)

- 134 marks low 36-hole score in a major (previous best: 135/2019 Open Championship)
