Things to Know

- Dustin Johnson wins the FedExCup and the TOUR Championship for the first time in his career
- Johnson becomes the first No. 1 seed to win the FedExCup since Tiger Woods in 2009
- In the FedExCup Playoffs, Johnson owns the most wins (6), top-fives (13) and top-10s (21)
- Johnson entered the final round with the 54-hole lead/co-lead in his fourth straight start: PGA Championship (1/T2), THE NORTHERN TRUST (1/Won), BMW Championship (T1/P2), TOUR Championship (1/Won); last player to do this in four consecutive stroke-play events was Tiger Woods in 1999, culminating with his TOUR Championship win (Note: THE INTERNATIONAL – using Modified Stableford scoring – was played the week after the PGA Championship in 1999)
- 2017 TOUR Championship winner Xander Schauffele finishes T2, his second-consecutive runner-up finish at the TOUR Championship; has seven runner-up finishes in 96 TOUR starts
- Justin Thomas has finished no worse than T7 in five starts at the TOUR Championship; this week's T2 marked his second runner-up finish (2017) at East Lake Golf Club
- Scottie Scheffler (5th) becomes the third rookie to finish inside the top 10 in the FedExCup standings, joining Xander Schauffele (2017) and Jordan Spieth (2013)
- Webb Simpson won the PGA TOUR's Byron Nelson Award for lowest adjusted scoring average (68.866)

Dustin Johnson (1/-21)

- Wins the FedExCup and TOUR Championship for the first time in career
- Becomes the first No. 1 seed to win the FedExCup since Tiger Woods in 2009

- Win comes in his 274th PGA TOUR start at the age of 36 years, 2 months, 16 days
- Moves into sole possession of 27th place all-time for PGA TOUR victories with 23
- In the FedExCup Playoffs, owns the most wins (6), top-fives (13) and top-10s (21)
- Has won three or more events four out of the last five seasons
- Has now won 10 of 21 times holding at least a share of the 54-hole lead (in a 72-hole event)
- Has won 10 of 13 times when holding a lead of three or more strokes entering the final round
- Qualified for the TOUR Championship for the 12th consecutive season (didn't play in 2014 due to personal reasons), the longest active streak on TOUR
- Finished inside the top-five in the FedExCup six times: 2020/1st, 2016/2nd, 2019/4th, 2018/4th, 2011/4th, 2010/5th
- In his 10 starts since the Return to Golf, recorded three victories (Travelers Championship, THE NORTHERN TRUST, TOUR Championship) and two runner-up finishes (PGA Championship, BMW Championship)

Miscellaneous Notes

- With a 4-under 66 on Monday, 2017 TOUR Championship winner Xander Schauffele (T2) posted his 16th consecutive round at par-or-better in as many attempts at East Lake Golf Club; has finished inside the top three in the FedExCup standings three times (2017/3rd, 2019/2nd, 2020/T2)
- In search of first victory at East Lake despite winning the 2017 FedExCup, Justin Thomas finished runner-up for the second time (2017); finished T7 or better in all five starts at East Lake Golf Club (2016/T6, 2017/2nd, 2018/T7, 2019/T3, 2020/T2); marked his 10th top-10 finish of the season, most on TOUR
- One week after picking up his fifth TOUR title at the BMW Championship, Jon Rahm closed with a 4-under 66 to finish fourth; here's a look at his FedExCup finishes (2017/5th, 2018/23rd, 2019/12th, 2020/4th)
- Scottie Scheffler (5th) becomes the third rookie to finish inside the top 10 in the FedExCup standings (Xander Schauffele/3rd/2017, Jordan Spieth/7th/2013); Viktor Hovland, the only other rookie to advance to the TOUR Championship, finished T20
- Attempting to become the first player to birdie the par-3 ninth all four rounds, Collin Morikawa (6th) parred the hole with a two-putt from 47 feet; only other player to birdie the hole the first three rounds was Scott Verplank (2007); Morikawa and Xander Schauffele led the field this week with 21 birdies
- Rory McIlroy finished T8 in bid to become first three-time FedExCup champion and first to win in consecutive seasons
- There were just five bogey-free rounds during the week, with Patrick Reed (T8) turning in two (R2/66, R4/65); previous-best finish at the TOUR Championship came in 2019 (T9)
- Webb Simpson (68.866) wins the PGA TOUR's Byron Nelson Award for lowest adjusted scoring average over Bryson DeChambeau (69.097)
