Extended forecast – High pressure will weaken on Sunday ahead of the next system approaching the region. It will still be a sunny day with highs warming into the mid 70s. A SSW breeze will likely increase during the mid to late afternoon. Otherwise, a strong cold front will move across the state on Monday bringing a chance for showers during the morning and much cooler temperatures with highs in the upper 50s. It will be windy, especially behind the front 10-20 gusting to 30 mph at times. Cold conditions continue Tuesday with lows in the 30s and highs in the low to mid 50s.
